Marin Wins National Award As 'All-America City'

An All-American City award has been granted to Marin County for 1960, it was announced in New York today by George H. Gallup, foreman of the All-American Cities award jury which considered 22 presentations for 11 winners last November in Phoenix, Ariz.

The contest in which Marin came out winner is sponsored annually by the National Municipal League, of which Gallup is council chairman, and Look magazine.

The story behind how Marin County won the All-American City award is told on pages 18 and 19 of today's Independent-Journal.

Capsule presentations of the winning cities (and county) will be included in Look magazine's issue appearing on newsstands March 23.

The award announcement said "Marin citizens met in their own area a problem facing the whole nation—the rescuing of our natural scenic resources. Proud of the rare natural beauty of their county, citizen conservation groups in Marin have fought subdividers and saved thousands of acres of shore and woodland for the creation of county, state and federal parks."

Former County Administrator D. A. Jensen's presentation which placed Marin among the winners also featured the county civic center now under construction and the redevelopment of Marin City to replace a wartime housing area with an attractive planned community.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors has been asked by the sponsors for some sort of special observance of a presentation ceremony.

Representatives from the National Municipal League and Look magazine will be on hand for the event, which was suggested for a date between March 28 and April 11.

Gallup, the famous pollster who heads the American Institute of Public Opinion, wrote to the office of the county administrator that "the awards are given for citizen teamwork rather than municipal perfection" and added:

"To be selected an All-America City, a community must show noteworthy accomplishments through alert, continuing citizen participation. Such is the only way to make self-government effective.

"I salute the citizens of Marin County whose effective action won this award and sincerely hope they will continue to play a positive role in the affairs of the community."

The Gallup letter points up a curious factor of the award: That it is given in the name of "city" yet counties are eligible to compete and win, as did Marin this time.

Each year 22 communities across the nation are picked as finalists, as was Marin last year. Each of these presents accounts of its achievements before a jury at a national government conference and 11 winners are chosen.

The last time a county was among these winners was in 1957 when Dade County, Fla., was chosen jointly with the city of Miami.

Latest California city winners were Vallejo and Santa Fe Springs, both in 1959. Oakland was a winner in 1956.

Alan Bruce, who succeeded Jensen as county administrator just after Jensen made the successful Marin presentation at a national cities conference in Phoenix, Ariz., was advised that an "All-America City flag of honor" was being sent to San Rafael.

Other winners of All-America Cities Awards this year are Bloomington, Minn.; Decatur, Ill.; East Providence, R. I.; Grand Rapids, Mich.; Radford, Va., and Worcester, Mass.

Sausalito Clerk Walks Out Over 'Bunk, Goolop'

Sausalito City Clerk Amelie Smith walked out of last night's city council meeting after accusing City Atty. John B. Ehlen of talking "bunk" and "goolop."

Mrs. Smith's flareup came on discussion of the appeal of two deputy clerks whose pay was cut by the city council in 1956, and who have been fighting the action through the courts ever since. Last Friday, the District Court of Appeals ruled that the two, Mrs. Allyn T. Young and Mrs. Albert Pierachini, are entitled to a hearing by the city's board of review.

The council voted unanimously last night to refer the matter to the board of review, but Ehlen advised that the board must restrict itself to whether the pay cuts were "arbitrary and unreasonable."

"How long do I have to listen to this bunk" demanded Mrs. Smith, who was seated beside the city attorney. "This is a cruel, indefensive action. . . . They have worked faithfully for the city for years. Every other employee was raised much higher. It is the most outrageous and disgusting thing . . . Mr. Ehlen sitting there and talking all that goolop."

With that, she arose, stalked into her office and asked Police Sgt. Stanley Kelly to take her home.

It was 9 p.m.—an hour after the start of the council meeting.

On July 1, 1956, the council, finding Mrs. Young and Mrs. Pierachini were not working full time, placed them on hourly pay status. In doing so it cut Mrs. Young's pay from the equivalent of $2.30 per hour to $2.01, and Mrs. Pierachini's from $2.26 to $2.01.

The two women demanded a hearing by the board of review, which is set up under city ordinance to hear employee complaints. The council refused. The women then went to court, with John G. Buresh as attorney. The Marin County Superior Court ruled in their favor. The city, represented by Ehlen, appealed. The appellate court last week agreed the hearing must be granted.

Ehlen quoted the court of appeals saying "plaintiffs are entitled to a review by the board of review. The question to be determined by the board is whether the reductions are arbitrary and unreasonable. He said the city council alone has the right to determine salaries.

Mayor Philip S. Ehrlich Jr. said he would fill a vacancy on the board of review, created when Edward L. Superka moved to Kent Woodlands, prior to the next council meeting. Other members of the board are Alan H. Scurfield, Lee Pieraccini, Robert M. Gunn and Frank B. Williams.

PARIS READY FOR ALGERIA PEACE TALKS

PARIS (UPI) — President Charles de Gaulle's government announced tonight that it is ready to open official peace talks with the Algerian rebels.

The announcement was made at the end of a cabinet meeting which reviewed final plans for beginning formal peace negotiations despite signs of increasing toughness on the part of rebel leaders in Tunis.

Crocker Bank Directors Vote Merger

Merger of the First National Bank and the Bank of San Rafael into Crocker-Anglo National Bank was approved yesterday by Crocker-Anglo directors in San Francisco.

The merger approved last Friday by directors of the two San Rafael banks, will be considered for final adoption at stockholders meetings set for May 23 by Crocker-Anglo and May 18 by the San Rafael institutions.

CrockerAnglo president Paul E. Hoover said shareholders of the Bank of San Rafael and its affiliate will receive two shares of Crocker-Anglo stock for each combined share of the San Rafael stock.

The merger, if it goes through, will add nine offices to the 96-office Crocker-Anglo system. It will add $53 million dollars to Crocker-Anglo's deposits of more than $1,650,000,000, Hoover said.

Safeway Plans To Go Ahead With Market

Safeway Stores, Inc., is going ahead with its plans for a large retail store at First and B streets in San Rafael, in spite of the proposed ramp from Highway 101.

H. H. Baker, property manager for Safeway in San Francisco, confirmed that negotiations are nearing completion and a lease should be signed within two weeks.

"It may be 10 years, 15 years or never, before the highway department builds that ramp," Baker said. "I see no reason why Safeway should not occupy that site in the meantime."

The property is owned by the Southern Pacific Co.

"Who owns the lease on that property is going to build," Baker said. "So Safeway might as well be in it as any other firm."

Tentative plans by Safeway call for a 22,000-square foot market on the site.

Tentative plans by Dan Coleman, engineer employed by the city to plan streets and highways, call for the site being occupied by an off-ramp from Highway 101.

No Gas Price Change

No price changes were reported in the past 24 hours in the gasoline war in Marin County. Prices for regular gasoline stayed at 29.9 to 31.9 cents per gallon for regular and 31.9 to 36.9 cents per gallon for ethyl.

U.S. Asks Arms Parley In August

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy disclosed today the United States has suggested that East-West negotiations on general disarmament be resumed in August.

Originally Kennedy is reported to have sent word to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev that broad-scale disarmament talks should not be started until Sept. 11.

That report was carried in today's New York Times.

The Times Washington dispatch said Khrushchev objected "with some vigor."

Kennedy said at his news conference today that "we have suggested we will be prepared" to start general disarmament negotiations again in August, after first suggesting a new start in September.

Meanwhile, Kennedy said, U. S. Ambassador Adlai Stevenson is trying at the United Nations to work out detailed arrangements for the proposed new disarmament exchange. One critical issue is the size of the negotiating group.

Khrushchev, the Times story said, contended a six-month delay would be unreasonable.

Kennedy's suggestion was given to Khrushchev by Ambassador Llewellyn E. Thompson Jr. in Siberia on March 9.

Indian Troops Congo-Bound In U.S. Planes

LEOPOLDVILLE (UPI) — U.S. Air Force planes winged toward Leopoldville from India today with Gurkha reinforcements for the United Nations command in the Congo despite warnings from the Congolese government and threats of bloodshed.

Leopoldville Premier Joseph Ileo said the Congo is "categorically opposed" to the sending of any more U. N. troops here, including the Indian Brigade due to start arriving tomorrow aboard U. S. Air Force Globemasters.

"It is for the Congolese to settle their own problems," he said.

He also warned that the Congo will oppose the United Nations by force if it attempts to apply the Security Council resolution of Feb. 21. The resolution authorizes the U. N. to use force if necessary to preserve peace in the Congo. But the Congolese fear it means the world organization will try to disarm their troops.

Storm Brings More Than Inch Of Rain To Some Areas Here

Rain pounded Marin County and much of Northern and Central California today, soaking watersheds and croplands. More than an inch fell in many parts of the county.

The Weather Bureau forecast variable cloudiness tonight and tomorrow, with little change in temperature, for Marin.

More rain is expected on the north coast tomorrow afternoon.

San Anselmo measured 1.62 inches in the 24 hours to 8 a.m. today. In Woodacre, 1.55 inches fell between 5 p.m. yesterday and 10 a.m. today.

Other measurements: Fairfax, 1.40; Larkspur's Chevy Chase area, 1.14; Belvedere, .95; Mill Valley, .87; Sausalito, .90; Novato, (midnight to midnight), 1.03 and .15 from midnight to 8 a.m.; San Rafael had 1.43 inches to noon.

Substantial snow fell in the mountains. Tire chains were required on Highways 40 and 50.

Highway 101 above Longvale in Mendocino County was closed yesterday because of high water over the pavement. A detour was opened at Willits.

Breaks With London Over Racial Policies

LONDON (UPI) — South Africa, under fire for its policy of white supremacy, announced today it is quitting the British Commonwealth.

South African Prime Minister Dr. Hendrik Verwoerd announced that he had withdrawn his country's application for continued membership in the commonwealth after it becomes a republic on May 31.

He told the other 11 prime ministers attending the commonwealth conference that South Africa was quitting because of other governments' criticism of his country's policy of apartheid—or strict racial segregation.

Verwoerd's decision was announced in a communique issued after an all-day session of the commonwealth prime ministers.

The announcement indicated Verwoerd balked at joining the other prime ministers in signing a statement pledging a commonwealth policy of racial non-discrimination.

British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan reportedly had hoped to use this statement as a face-saving compromise enabling South Africa to remain within the commonwealth.

The withdrawal of the application means that South Africa is prepared to exchange the commonwealth trade benefits for freedom to pursue its much-criticized policy of apartheid.

Senate Subcommittee Approves Wage Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The administration's minimum wage bill, cited by President John F. Kennedy as a target of "powerful and well organized pressure groups," was approved by a Senate labor subcommittee today.

But the bill, designed to raise the federal minimum wage from $1 to $1.25 an hour over a two-year period, still faced a rough road ahead. Although there were no changes in it today, labor subcommittee chairman Pat McNamara (D-Mich.) said amendments would be made when it is discussed by the full labor committee.

"Its approval by the subcommittee without change should not be taken as evidence that no amendments were desired by either minority or majority members," McNamara said.

The Senate Finance Committee approved a sharply modified version of Kennedy's emergency one billion dollar program of extended jobless pay benefits.

The committee, in its second day of closed-door deliberations adopted four amendments to the house-passed bill. This all

Special Political Unit Adjournment Bogs U.N. Meeting

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — The General Assembly's faltering attempt to get down to work sputtered out today when its special political committee adjourned indefinitely.

Failure to achieve agreement to curtail the disarmament debate and drop cold war items from the agenda brought strong pressure from several sides yesterday to get the assembly session under way. Since it reconvened March 7 after an 11-week recess, only its trusteeship committee has held sessions.

The 99-nation special political committee was convened this morning, ostensibly to discuss a Czech-sponsored item dealing with colonialism. But no delegation was ready to go ahead, and committee chairman Carlet R. Auguste of Haiti adjourned the session.

U.S. Seeking $12 Million In Price Fixing

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) —The government is seeking 12 million dollars in damages from heavy electrical equipment manufacturers involved in price fixing and bid rigging.

The Justice Department, acting in behalf of a number of government agencies, was joined by the Tennessee Valley Authority in filing suit yesterday in U. S. district court. The suit named General Electric, Westinghouse, Allis-Chambers, I-I-E Circuit Breaker and the Federal Pacific Electric Co.

FIRST OF SEVERAL

The damage suit involves 25 million dollars in government purchases of circuit breakers during the period 1951 to 1960 and is the first of several contemplated by the justice department and the TVA, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said.

The defendants were among those which pleaded guilty or no defense to price fixing and bid rigging charges brought by the Justice Department in the government's largest anti-trust case.

Federal Judge J. Cullen Ganey imposed fines of nearly 2 million dollars on 29 firms and 44 individuals in two days of sentencing here last January. In addition to the fines imposed, seven executives, cited as "prime movers" in the alleged conspiracy, were jailed for 30 days.

ALL RELEASED

They were all released last week after Judge Ganey reduced their sentences by five days for "good behavior."

The government suit was filed under provisions of both the Clayton Anti-Trust Act and the False Claims Act. The agencies represented by the Justice Department, which include the Atomic Energy Commission and the Army Corps of Engineers, sought single damages under the Clayton Act and double damages under the false claims statute.

Westinghouse and General Electric both issued statements saying they would defend themselves in the suits. Both corporations contended that the purchasers of their equipment received "fair value."

More Snow Falls

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The remnants of a storm that dropped between three to six inches of snow on New England yesterday continued to lay a white blanket over parts of Maine today as it blew out into the Atlantic Ocean.

In the storm's wake snows turned to flurries and rains mostly to drizzle from New England through the Great Lakes. Much of the white cover melted under a combination of warming temperatures and rain.

Harbor Money

SACRAMENTO (AP)—An Assembly committee has approved legislation setting up a 1.25 million-dollar fund for planning small boat refuge harbors along California's coast.

Education Move

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's plan to offer $100 to $800 a year tuition aid to nearly every New Yorker attending a private college in the state has won bipartisan approval by the New York legislature.

The Republican governor's program to provide state grants to help pay tuition and other expenses was under attack for weeks on the ground it was wasteful and was unconstitutional under church-state separation provisions. The cost in the first year is set at 26 million dollars.

Chinese Leaving

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—Defense Ministry sources today said some 1,200 armed Chinese Nationalist irregulars who crossed into north Thailand from Laos will be flown to Formosa.

Unofficial reports said the movement is expected to start Friday.

Pressed by the Burmese troops in recent months, some 4,000 of the Chinese fled into Laos.

Wire Story

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—A 29-year-old mother was granted a divorce from her contractor-builder husband after she testified he spent $900 on cablegrams to Nikita Khrushchev and Fidel Castro.

Mrs. William Henry Riley also testified that her husband would allow only candles and a kerosene lamp and heater to heat and light their home, and he insisted their three young children observe Jewish fast days although the family is Protestant.

Exchanges Merged

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Consolidation of the Los Angeles and San Francisco divisions of the Pacific Coast Stock exchange was completed today when Thomas P. Phelen took office as first president of the combined exchange.

The consolidation began in 1957 but up to now the two divisions have had separate executive officers. Before 1957 the concerns operated independently as the San Francisco and Los Angeles stock exchanges.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Two of singer Elvis Presley's four missing hubcaps have been recovered from the bedroom wall of a teen-aged girl, police said.

The hubcaps were taken from Presley's car last Saturday night while it was parked at a Nashville recording studio.

Ike Stars Near

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy's signature is all that is needed to restore to former President Dwight D. Eisenhower his five-star general's rank.

A congressional resolution restoring Eisenhower's rank reached the White House yesterday after the House approved it. The Senate already had acted favorably.

Eisenhower resigned his commission before accepting the Republican presidential nomination in 1952.

Anti-Castro Fires

HAVANA (UPI)—Foes of Premier Fidel Castro set fire to two government-seized 10-cent (Woolworth) stores last night and bombed two other nationalized retail centers in the biggest outbreak of anti-Castro sabotage in downtown Havana since New Year's.

The fires, apparently set by delayed - action phosphorous charges in top-floor warehouses at two stores, started about 7 p.m. and burned until after midnight. Thick black smoke blanketed downtown Havana.

Thoth, the ancient Egyptian god of letters, was known as the clerk of the underworld.

White House Favors Study Of School Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy said today his administration would be glad to cooperate with Congress in a study of whether federal loans to private secondary schools can be made under the Constitution.

But Kennedy told a news conference he hopes Congress will act first and separately on a pending measure for federal aid to public secondary schools.

Kennedy promised also that the administration will cooperate with Congress, after action on this bill, in studying whether tax exemptions could be granted to parents of children in private schools—in lieu of direct federal aid.

At the same time, Kennedy expressed the hope that controversy over the aid-to-education bill and the related religious issue would not weaken the country in any way.

At the news conference, attended by 327 reporters, Kennedy also dealt with these other matters:

LAOS—The United States is determined, Kennedy said, "to support the government and the people of Laos" in resisting what he called rebel attacks there "backed by personnel and supplies from outside."

This was an allusion to aid to the Communist rebels are getting from a Soviet airlift.

UNITED NATIONS — The president said he has no present plans to address the United Nations General Assembly, now meeting in New York.

WORK WEEK—Touching off a round of chuckles, Kennedy said he would like a shorter work week for himself. But he added in a serious tone that he is against a shorter week as a general policy for American workers.

SMALL BUSINESS — Kennedy announced that the Army, Navy and Air Force have been instructed to allocate more defense contracts to small business firms.

MEDICAL CONFERENCE — A president's conference on heart disease and cancer will be held at the White House starting April 22.

McCarthy Bill On Drugs Held In Committee

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO—A bill to exempt prescription drugs, eyeglasses, braces and other medical necessities from the state sales tax, languished in the Senate Elections Committee today.

The bill, SB 6, by Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy, was held in the committee under a previously passed rule that they would not consider any tax reduction measures until after the state budget is passed.

Also stranded in the committee is the Assembly-passed measure proposed by Gov. Edmund G. Brown, granting the tax relief to prescription drugs only. The budget is not expected to be passed before May.

Another measure in which McCarthy has interest has passed the Senate and gone to the Assembly. This bill, AB 115, by Sens. Luther Gibson of Vallejo and McCarthy, provides that a member of the general public be appointed to all state licensing boards.

McCarthy also has introduced a bill, SB 933, which would permit persons occupying a dozen cabins in the Warm Springs area of Footstep Ravine to lease them for the state. The area has been purchased from the Kent Estate to add to Mount Tamalpais State Park.

Residents asked the State Park Commission to be allowed to continue to use the cabins until the state is ready to develop the area, not expected for two or three years. The commission said it did not have authority to enter into such a lease. McCarthy's bill would make it possible.

New Police Unit Member Slated

Appointment of a new police commissioner to replace John Hansen, who is resigning, is scheduled by the Terra Linda Community Services District Board at its meeting at 8 o'clock tonight.

The board will ask residents to keep cars off all of the streets Friday morning starting at 8 o'clock.

This is being done so that a trial run may be made on a proposed increased sweeping program. If Friday's sweeping is well received, the district may contract with the county for more frequent sweepings. Terra Linda streets are now swept twice a year.

TEST MISSILES AT HOME, SAYS AF OFFICER

LOS ANGELES (AP) — An Air Force officer says citizens should find out what an enemy attack is like, and a good way is to test missiles over home territory, as the Russians do, for psychological effect.

Lt. Col. Roy O. Roberts of Holloman Air Force Base, N.M., told a news conference yesterday:

"We will evacuate certain corridors for the time being just as we do at sea. The chance of accident would be small because the missiles tested would be of the reliable type and subject to destruction in the air if they got out of line."

Bagley Would Change Home Loans Basis

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — A bill designed to liberalize the Cal-Vet home loan program for veterans in California was introduced in the State Assembly yesterday by Marin-Sonoma Assemblyman William T. Bagley.

The bill would change the basis on which the $25,000 maximum value limitation would be imposed on home loans. The maximum loan for a home is $15,000.

At present, Bagley said, the top limit for a veteran's loan is determined by the market value of the property. This is unfair to veterans wishing to live in areas where land values are particularly high. He proposes that the $25,000 ceiling be gauged on the "depreciated costs of the improvements," that is, on just the value of the house itself, not the land too.

"Inclusion of land values within the total appraised value puts Marin veterans at a disadvantage in securing veterans' loans," Bagley declared. "They should be permitted to have just as good houses as veterans living in some other area where land values might not be as high."

Bagley and Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael) played hosts yesterday to some 80 eighth grade students from Neil Cummins School in Corte Madera who visited the capitol.

Judge Finds Leprechauns More Charming Than Right

NEW YORK (UPI)—Two of the little people swore before a judge yesterday that they were leprechauns.

And, you know, they may be right.

They're three feet tall. They move like magic. They disrupted the city subway system and nearly touched off a riot.

They appeared suddenly in the view of Patrolman Anthony Morrisey, a six-foot Irishman who doesn't believe in fairy tales, at a subway station in the morning rush hour.

To be more specific, Morrisey contends, he saw them slip under the turnstile without paying and go into the subway.

"Two of the oldest looking, smallest kids I've ever seen," Morrisey mused. He gave chase.

The little people, identified as brothers Lester Janus, 40, height 35 inches, weight 50 pounds, and Stanley Janus, 38, height 37 inches, weight 55 pounds, moved like lightning when they saw the huge policeman chasing them. They dashed under the legs of subway patrons, slipped behind posts, cut corners.

But Morrisey's giant strides were too much and he caught them. Then a crowd gathered and started getting ugly.

"What you're doing, you lug, picking on those little fellows?" someone yelled. Morrisey got his charges out of there fast.

When he took them before Magistrate Edward Chapman, the two Januses insisted they were leprechauns.

"We got jobs as leprechauns, judge," Anthony said. "We were late for work in a bank window for St. Patrick's Day. We usually never ride the subways because people step on us in the crush, but we couldn't get a cab.

"But when we got in the subway, the crowd just pushed us past the turnstile. We didn't have a chance to reach up and drop in the token."

Realty Broker Tells Of Housing In Russia

A description of housing conditions in Russia by Mill Valley Realty broker William A. Hamilton yesterday left members of the Marin County Real Estate Board more tolerantly disposed toward dated American homes with only one bathroom, space for only one car and a mere 1,000 square feet of living space.

Hamilton took time off from business in 1959 and 1960 to tour around the world. He and his family spent part of the summer of 1959 in Russia, visiting Moscow and Stalingrad and cruising down the Volga and Don Rivers to the Black Sea.

He described the country as one full of paradoxes. Homes as we know them are virtually nonexistent among the masses, he said. Palaces of the czars share skyline space with drab, barracks-like apartment buildings. Impressive 2-year-old hotels have antiquated plumbing facilities. Thoroughfares 12 lanes wide carry most of their vehicular traffic in trucks.

Russia, Hamilton said, is dedicated to apartment house living, but buildings of five floors or less are strictly "walk-ups." Higher buildings have an elevator to the fifth floor only, with no stops on the way. Accomodations are geared to four persons per room, two rooms per family, two families per kitchen and four families per bathroom.

These, however, are paragons compared to some of the "Tobacco Road" dwellings that pass for houses — box-like affairs "about 15 feet wide by 20 or 25 feet for a full family," said Hamilton.

He said the model tract home displayed in the United States exhibit at the 1959 Moscow exposition with three bedrooms, two baths and a price tag of $14,500 was the subject of phenomenal interest to Russians, but this and movies depicting American housing conditions brought an almost unanimous response of "propaganda!" from those who could speak English—and many can.

Hamilton said Russian workers have housing assigned to them commensurate with their stations in life — pitifully crowded and inadequate by our standards. Most of them cannot conceive of our way of living, even when faced with the evidence.

"But make no mistake," he cautioned. "The Russians are artistically and mathematically skilled. They place tremendous value on learning and every university and college has a waiting list five times its capacity. They are out to beat us at everything."

$150,000 Reno Fire

RENO (AP)—Winds up to 45 miles an hour last night fanned a spectacular general alarm fire that destroyed half the 24 units of the Pony Express Motel in South Reno. No one was injured. Owners estimated damage at $150,000.

Hub Trustees Endorse Bill On Expenses

San Anselmo School District trustees have expressed enthusiastic approval of an Assembly bill they wish had been a law last spring.

The bill, introduced by legislators from the southern part of the state, would permit a school district to pay travel expenses for candidates to come to the district for interviews for an administrator's position. The job must be one requiring a credential and have district-wide duties.

The San Anselmo board had the problem of a $549.62 bill for the travel expenses of three candidates for the superintendency who came to San Anselmo for interviews.

The county counsel and attorney general both gave the opinion that payments of the expenses from public funds was illegal.

The board members finally decided by a 3 to 2 vote last May to pay the expenses out of their own pockets.

Trustee Robert Corlett said today the San Anselmo board had nothing to do with introduction of the bill, but apparently some communities in the south had the same problem as San Anselmo.

"What you're doing, you lug, picking on those little fellows?" someone yelled. Morrisey got his charges out of there fast.

When he took them before Magistrate Edward Chapman, the two Januses insisted they were leprechauns.

"We got jobs as leprechauns, judge," Anthony said. "We were late for work in a bank window for St. Patrick's Day. We usually never ride the subways because people step on us in the crush, but we couldn't get a cab.

"But when we got in the subway, the crowd just pushed us past the turnstile. We didn't have a chance to reach up and drop in the token."

Realty Broker Tells Of Housing In Russia

A description of housing conditions in Russia by Mill Valley Realty broker William A. Hamilton yesterday left members of the Marin County Real Estate Board more tolerantly disposed toward dated American homes with only one bathroom, space for only one car and a mere 1,000 square feet of living space.

Hamilton took time off from business in 1959 and 1960 to tour around the world. He and his family spent part of the summer of 1959 in Russia, visiting Moscow and Stalingrad and cruising down the Volga and Don Rivers to the Black Sea.

He described the country as one full of paradoxes. Homes as we know them are virtually nonexistent among the masses, he said. Palaces of the czars share skyline space with drab, barracks-like apartment buildings. Impressive 2-year-old hotels have antiquated plumbing facilities. Thoroughfares 12 lanes wide carry most of their vehicular traffic in trucks.

Russia, Hamilton said, is dedicated to apartment house living, but buildings of five floors or less are strictly "walk-ups." Higher buildings have an elevator to the fifth floor only, with no stops on the way. Accomodations are geared to four persons per room, two rooms per family, two families per kitchen and four families per bathroom.

These, however, are paragons compared to some of the "Tobacco Road" dwellings that pass for houses — box-like affairs "about 15 feet wide by 20 or 25 feet for a full family," said Hamilton.

He said the model tract home displayed in the United States exhibit at the 1959 Moscow exposition with three bedrooms, two baths and a price tag of $14,500 was the subject of phenomenal interest to Russians, but this and movies depicting American housing conditions brought an almost unanimous response of "propaganda!" from those who could speak English—and many can.

Hamilton said Russian workers have housing assigned to them commensurate with their stations in life — pitifully crowded and inadequate by our standards. Most of them cannot conceive of our way of living, even when faced with the evidence.

"But make no mistake," he cautioned. "The Russians are artistically and mathematically skilled. They place tremendous value on learning and every university and college has a waiting list five times its capacity. They are out to beat us at everything."

$150,000 Reno Fire

RENO (AP)—Winds up to 45 miles an hour last night fanned a spectacular general alarm fire that destroyed half the 24 units of the Pony Express Motel in South Reno. No one was injured. Owners estimated damage at $150,000.

Hub Trustees Endorse Bill On Expenses

San Anselmo School District trustees have expressed enthusiastic approval of an Assembly bill they wish had been a law last spring.

The bill, introduced by legislators from the southern part of the state, would permit a school district to pay travel expenses for candidates to come to the district for interviews for an administrator's position. The job must be one requiring a credential and have district-wide duties.

The San Anselmo board had the problem of a $549.62 bill for the travel expenses of three candidates for the superintendency who came to San Anselmo for interviews.

The county counsel and attorney general both gave the opinion that payments of the expenses from public funds was illegal.

The board members finally decided by a 3 to 2 vote last May to pay the expenses out of their own pockets.

Trustee Robert Corlett said today the San Anselmo board had nothing to do with introduction of the bill, but apparently some communities in the south had the same problem as San Anselmo.

ESCAPE CAPSULE TESTED

An escape capsule is hurled from an Air Force B-58 Hustler on the ground at Fort Worth, Tex. The test was one of the first in a series leading to the ejecting of a man in a capsule with the B-58 flying at speeds of more than 850 miles an hour. (AP Wirephoto)

Novato Eyes Park Site —No Money

Novato city councilmen looked longingly at a possible city park site last night but turned down consideration of land purchase for lack of funds.

Councilmen were discussing granting of a use permit for construction of a church by the First Baptist congregation on South Novato Boulevard near Arthur Street.

Mrs. John Machado pointed out that the surrounding acreage would be excellent for recreation use, with councilmen agreeing. The church will take up to five acres of the 26 acres bounded by Cambridge, Hill, Arthur and Tyler Streets or their proposed extensions.

Councilmen threw up their hands while saying they had no funds for purchase of the acreage remaining after church construction, and would prefer to wait for a report from a citizen committee studying recreation needs. They granted the church a use permit.

Mrs. Machado, a member of the recreation committee, was reminded that she could, as a private citizen, attempt to raise money to buy land. She did not say she would so, however

Rev. Edd Langford of the church said the congregation would be willing to share the church parking lot with the recreation-bound people, if it did not interfere with church activities.

In other business last night, the Novato City Council:

1. Referred to the planning commission a proposed ordinance to control small subdivisions. A report from the commission to the council is expected by June 1.

2. Approved in principle removal of two trees on the 800 block of Reichert Street, with the understanding that residents will pay for planting 14 young trees. Councilmen will give a final decision after hearing the exact cost of tree removal.

3. Introduced an amendment to the business license ordinance, after divided discussion, which would make possible exemption of fees for such business as circuses sponsored by a local service group with part of the profits going to the local group.

4. Set a hearing on the master plan for development of the Safeway property at highway 101 and Diablo Avenue for March 28.

5. Set a hearing for rezoning of the Richard W. Hanna property at Highway 101 and Highway 37 for March 28.

6. Approved billing of an assessment district, being formed to install utilities at Novato Hills Unit 1 subdivision, for $500 for payment of city atty. Clark M. Palmer Jr. for work done in connection with setting up of the district.

7. Heard that the city is being sued for $484.18 by Joseph Kennington of Livermore, who charges negligent maintenance of city streets was responsible for his truck going into a ditch on Vallejo Street on Dec 12.

Two Schools In Marin Win Approval Of Loans

The State Allocations Board yesterday approved a total of $186,971 for construction of classroom additions at Novato High School and the West Marin School in Point Reyes Station.

In Novato, bids will be opened March 28 on a six-classroom addition to the high school.

The state has authorized a maximum construction loan of $124,400 which the district qualified for by selling $315,000 in bonds, part of a $1,500,000 issue approved by voters in October, 1960.

In the West Marin Union School District, two classrooms and five smaller rooms, including workrooms, bathrooms and a book storage room, plus paving of a play area will be financed by the $62,571 loan authorized by the state and $25,000 in bonds approved by district voters.

The West Marin addition is expected to be completed by fall.

Color Slide Show On Civic Center Being Revised

A color slide show, "Marin's Finest Hour," on the civic center project, prepared some time ago, is being brought up to date and will be ready for use by organizations and groups by mid-April, Harold Stockstad told the Marin Council for Civic Affairs board last night.

Stockstad is chairman of the council's civic center committee. The slide show was originally prepared by citizens supporting the civic center.

Dr. Bruce Merrill, chairman of the committee on the county hospital, said a report on a study of the hospital problem will be ready in about two weeks.

The information and research committee, headed by Mrs. Fred Cowden, is now having a representative at every supervisors' meeting to keep the council and committee informed on all actions and progress on county projects.

Membership in the council has nearly doubled since last month. Council Chairman Leland H. Jordan said there are now 120 formal memberships, compared to 57 last month.

Bruce Olson, field representative of the California Taxpayers Assn., spoke to the board on the history of his organization and services it offers to local groups. The board decided it wanted to be placed on the association's mailing list.

Two "republics" of the USSR also are members of the United Nations. They are the Ukraine and Byelorussia.

Subdivision Map Rejected In Larkspur

The Larkspur Planning Commission last night withheld approval of a subdivision map of Piedmont Terrace Unit 2, pending further engineering information from the developer, Russell Lauterwasser.

The plans were drawn by the civil engineering firm of Oglesby, Jacobs and Wickham of San Rafael. A letter last night to the commission from John C. Oglesby, Larkspur city engineer and member of the firm, said the plans did not contain sufficient information to warrant his approval.

It has been city policy for the past two years to employ an outside engineer to pass on any drawings done by Oglesby's firm. The fact that Lauterwasser's plans were drawn by the firm and submitted to Oglesby for approval was one of the reasons for disapproval, the planners said. (Oglesby is merely adviser to the firm that bears his name, being on semi-retired status.)

A public hearing on zoning of recently annexed land north of the Bon Air Bridge was continued until March 28.

The planners denied a variance request from Loyal Davis which would have permitted construction of a five-unit apartment on a sub-standard lot on Locust Avenue between King and Ward Streets.

Coyotes, deer, quail and rattlesnakes are increasing in Texas.

Donald Goose

LYNNFIELD, Mass. (UPI) — Mrs. George De Wolf's unusual household pet is a 40-year-old goose named Donald.

Many years ago, Mrs. De Wolf's father accidentally backed over the goose with his automobile. The goose appeared to be dead but revived a few minutes later and since has been a member of the family in good standing.

Novato Eyeing Marin Junior College District

Novato Unified School District trustees indicated last night they may be about ready to put their district in the Marin Junior College District.

Novato is not now within any junior college district. The trustees directed Supt. W. J. J. Smith to inquire whether Petaluma school officials are planning a junior college district there, in which case Novato might join it. But they expressed doubt such a district would come into being.

Smith was authorized to set up a meeting of Novato trustees with trustees of the Marin Junior College District to discuss joining the district and the possibility of a campus in North Marin.

In other business last night, trustees:

1. Set for Tuesday a special, closed personnel session for discussion of salaries of Smith and other administrative personnel. The closed session will follow a board meeting with members of the Oliver School Parent-Teacher Assn. over pupils' admittance to school in inclement weather.

(Discussion of salaries is not a permitted subject for a closed meeting under the Brown Act, California's anti-secrecy law. It is also a well-established rule that any discussion involving the spending of public funds must be open to the public.)

2. Set for March 28 as the date for bid opening on a six-classroom addition to the high school.

3. Set March 24 as the deadline for applications for the principal's post at the Rancho Elementary School now being constructed.

Tom Smith Stadium, in General Eisenhower Park at Abilene, Kan., was named for an early frontier marshal of the town.

Team Teaching Called Valuable Way To Increase School Quality

By DOROTHY SIMPERS

Team teaching could increase the value a school district gets for every educational dollar spent—and markedlly increase the quality of education, Dr. Robert Bush, professor of secondary education at Stanford University, declared last night.

Bush told the San Rafael Board of Education that "any school ought to consider this concept seriously." But he warned that "no one should expect it to perform miracles. It won't halve educational costs."

The professor's topic was "Team teaching — promising practice or temporary innovation?"

Is team teaching a passing fancy, or "permanent, abiding, of constructive value?" Bush said he didn't know the answers to these questions.

"I am hopeful it may become a permanent part (of education), but I am skeptical," he said.

Bush explained that team teaching is teaching a specific group of pupils a single or several subjects, for a term or year, by more than one person. Teachers plan and work together in various ways.

This differs from the traditional teaching concept of one teacher doing all the instruction of a subject to a particular group of pupils for a term.

Bush told the board there is a "critical education problem" in the United States. In the last five years, he said, there has been an "educational renaissance," a questioning of old ideas to see what can be done more efficiently.

One of the new ideas is team teaching, he said.

Its potential probably outweighs the pitfalls, he told the board.

Team teaching "invades the classroom castle," Bush said. A teacher's work comes under the critical scrutiny of his colleagues, and this is a "healthy, chastening process."

Team teaching provides better grouping of pupils, makes teacher loads more "sensible and meaningful," Bush told the board.

There are dangers and weaknesses in using teams, too, he said. It can become so complicated that coordination is difficult, and sometimes it will increase the teacher load too much, he noted.

Bush explained there are two basic kinds of teams—"horizontal and vertical." The first, and simplest, involves teachers of equal status and training, who share their particular talents with the whole group of students. For example, there would be teachers A. B. and C, each with a pupil group. They would plan as a unit, and from time to time put the three groups together so each teacher could provide instruction in a particular phase she is best at.

In a vertical organization, there is a "senior teacher," who is responsible for curriculum design in a subject field, makes staff assignments, has major instructional responsibiilties.

How is instruction organized in team teaching. An emerging concept is that every class should have four basic types of instruction, Bush said.

These are individual and independent study, small group instruction, laboratory, and large group instruction.

"We now teach the 12th grade pretty much like the first. A youngster has to be taught every minute . . . It is important to provide time when youngsters can learn. And this is not just when he is being taught at," Bush said.

The professor advocated a continuing, increased amount of independent and individual study as a pupil goes through school, so by the time he reaches 12th grade, perhaps half his time should be spent this way.

Marin's Per Capita Budget Cost: $81

Marin County's per capita budget cost is $81.05, which "compares favorably with the state average of $96.49," Administrator Alan Bruce reported yesterday to the board of supervisors.

Bruce said the Marin assessed value for 1960-61 "works out to $1,652.42 per capita . . . also well below the state average of $1,883.32 per capita and below the per capita assessed value for all of the six other San Francisco Bay counties except Alameda."

Novato Eyes Park Site —No Money

Novato city councilmen looked longingly at a possible city park site last night but turned down consideration of land purchase for lack of funds.

Councilmen were discussing granting of a use permit for construction of a church by the First Baptist congregation on South Novato Boulevard near Arthur Street.

Mrs. John Machado pointed out that the surrounding acreage would be excellent for recreation use, with councilmen agreeing. The church will take up to five acres of the 26 acres bounded by Cambridge, Hill, Arthur and Tyler Streets or their proposed extensions.

Councilmen threw up their hands while saying they had no funds for purchase of the acreage remaining after church construction, and would prefer to wait for a report from a citizen committee studying recreation needs. They granted the church a use permit.

Mrs. Machado, a member of the recreation committee, was reminded that she could, as a private citizen, attempt to raise money to buy land. She did not say she would so, however

Rev. Edd Langford of the church said the congregation would be willing to share the church parking lot with the recreation-bound people, if it did not interfere with church activities.

In other business last night, the Novato City Council:

1. Referred to the planning commission a proposed ordinance to control small subdivisions. A report from the commission to the council is expected by June 1.
2. Approved in principle removal of two trees on the 800 block of Reichert Street, with the understanding that residents will pay for planting 14 young trees. Councilmen will give a final decision after hearing the exact cost of tree removal.
3. Introduced an amendment to the business license ordinance, after divided discussion, which would make possible exemption of fees for such business as circuses sponsored by a local service group with part of the profits going to the local group.
4. Set a hearing on the master plan for development of the Safeway property at highway 101 and Diablo Avenue for March 28.
5. Set a hearing for rezoning of the Richard W. Hanna property at Highway 101 and Highway 37 for March 28.
6. Approved billing of an assessment district, being formed to install utilities at Novato Hills Unit 1 subdivision, for $500 for payment of city atty. Clark M. Palmer Jr. for work done in connection with setting up of the district.
7. Heard that the city is being sued for $484.18 by Joseph Kennington of Livermore, who charges negligent maintenance of city streets was responsible for his truck going into a ditch on Vallejo Street on Dec 12.

Two Schools In Marin Win Approval Of Loans

The State Allocations Board yesterday approved a total of $186,971 for construction of classroom additions at Novato High School and the West Marin School in Point Reyes Station.

In Novato, bids will be opened March 28 on a six-classroom addition to the high school.

The state has authorized a maximum construction loan of $124,400 which the district qualified for by selling $315,000 in bonds, part of a $1,500,000 issue approved by voters in October, 1960.

In the West Marin Union School District, two classrooms and five smaller rooms, including workrooms, bathrooms and a book storage room, plus paving of a play area will be financed by the $62,571 loan authorized by the state and $25,000 in bonds approved by district voters.

The West Marin addition is expected to be completed by fall.

Color Slide Show On Civic Center Being Revised

A color slide show, "Marin's Finest Hour," on the civic center project, prepared some time ago, is being brought up to date and will be ready for use by organizations and groups by mid-April, Harold Stockstad told the Marin Council for Civic Affairs board last night.

Stockstad is chairman of the council's civic center committee. The slide show was originally prepared by citizens supporting the civic center.

Dr. Bruce Merrill, chairman of the committee on the county hospital, said a report on a study of the hospital problem will be ready in about two weeks.

The information and research committee, headed by Mrs. Fred Cowden, is now having a representative at every supervisors' meeting to keep the council and committee informed on all actions and progress on county projects.

Membership in the council has nearly doubled since last month. Council Chairman Leland H. Jordan said there are now 120 formal memberships, compared to 57 last month.

Bruce Olson, field representative of the California Taxpayers Assn., spoke to the board on the history of his organization and services it offers to local groups. The board decided it wanted to be placed on the association's mailing list.

Two "republics" of the USSR also are members of the United Nations. They are the Ukraine and Byelorussia.

Subdivision Map Rejected In Larkspur

The Larkspur Planning Commission last night withheld approval of a subdivision map of Piedmont Terrace Unit 2, pending further engineering information from the developer, Russell Lauterwasser.

The plans were drawn by the civil engineering firm of Oglesby, Jacobs and Wickham of San Rafael. A letter last night to the commission from John C. Oglesby, Larkspur city engineer and member of the firm, said the plans did not contain sufficient information to warrant his approval.

It has been city policy for the past two years to employ an outside engineer to pass on any drawings done by Oglesby's firm. The fact that Lauterwasser's plans were drawn by the firm and submitted to Oglesby for approval was one of the reasons for disapproval, the planners said. (Oglesby is merely adviser to the firm that bears his name, being on semi-retired status.)

A public hearing on zoning of recently annexed land north of the Bon Air Bridge was continued until March 28.

The planners denied a variance request from Loyal Davis which would have permitted construction of a five-unit apartment on a sub-standard lot on Locust Avenue between King and Ward Streets.

Coyotes, deer, quail and rattlesnakes are increasing in Texas.

Novato Eyeing Marin Junior College District

Novato Unified School District trustees indicated last night they may be about ready to put their district in the Marin Junior College District.

Novato is not now within any junior college district. The trustees directed Supt. W. J. J. Smith to inquire whether Petaluma school officials are planning a junior college district there, in which case Novato might join it. But they expressed doubt such a district would come into being.

Smith was authorized to set up a meeting of Novato trustees with trustees of the Marin Junior College District to discuss joining the district and the possibility of a campus in North Marin.

In other business last night, trustees:

1. Set for Tuesday a special, closed personnel session for discussion of salaries of Smith and other administrative personnel. The closed session will follow a board meeting with members of the Oliver School Parent-Teacher Assn. over pupils' admittance to school in inclement weather.

(Discussion of salaries is not a permitted subject for a closed meeting under the Brown Act, California's anti-secrecy law. It is also a well-established rule that any discussion involving the spending of public funds must be open to the public.)

2. Set for March 28 as the date for bid opening on a six-classroom addition to the high school.
3. Set March 24 as the deadline for applications for the principal's post at the Rancho Elementary School now being constructed.

Tom Smith Stadium, in General Eisenhower Park at Abilene, Kan., was named for an early frontier marshal of the town.

INVADING CLASSROOM CASTLE

Team Teaching Called Valuable Way To Increase School Quality

By DOROTHY SIMPERS

Team teaching could increase the value a school district gets for every educational dollar spent—and markedlly increase the quality of education, Dr. Robert Bush, professor of secondary education at Stanford University, declared last night.

Bush told the San Rafael Board of Education that "any school ought to consider this concept seriously." But he warned that "no one should expect it to perform miracles. It won't halve educational costs."

The professor's topic was "Team teaching — promising practice or temporary innovation?"

Is team teaching a passing fancy, or "permanent, abiding, of constructive value?" Bush said he didn't know the answers to these questions.

"I am hopeful it may become a permanent part (of education), but I am skeptical," he said.

Bush explained that team teaching is teaching a specific group of pupils a single or several subjects, for a term or year, by more than one person. Teachers plan and work together in various ways.

This differs from the traditional teaching concept of one teacher doing all the instruction of a subject to a particular group of pupils for a term.

B-52's PATH OF DESTRUCTION

Scattered wreckage shows path to destruction followed by B-52 jet bomber which crashed in this barley field 40 miles north of Sacramento yesterday. Point of impact near crossroads is at lower left, and smoking main wreckage, which burned for more than two hours, is at top. Eight crewmen of the plane, from Mather Air Force Base, parachuted to safety. None was seriously injured, but a Beale Air Force Base master sergeant was killed on the way to the scene when his fire truck crashed. The B-52 was carrying an "unarmed nuclear device." Mather base officials said there was no danger of nuclear explosion, but de-contamination workers were sent to eliminate any possible radiation hazard. (AP Wirephoto)

Sausalito Passes Marinship Plan

A master plan for the north portion of Marinship, calling for a new north-south street and for industrial and waterfront commercial zoning, was approved unanimously last night by the Sausalito City Council.

The plan is essentially that proposed by planning consultant Frederick H. Allen and previously approved by the planning commission, and in principle by the council. Some Marinship property owners had objected vehemently to the north-south road and the zoning.

The north-south road would run along the Northwestern Pacific Railroad spur. Two east-west roads and a frontage road from the main gate to Spring Street, as well as the Gate 5 main entrance, also are included.

Property on both sides of Gate 5 Road and all property west of the new north-south road would be zoned industrial-commercial. Waterfront uses, including apartments and boatels, would be permitted on the remainder.

The plan covers the portion of Marinship north of Spring Street.

The vote of approval came near midnight, after two and one-half hours of discussion.

Julius H. Selinger, attorney for Marinship property owners assn., told the council, "You are on both horses going in opposite directions."

City Engineer John L. Hunter displayed maps showing that once in 1952, once in 1953 and once in 1954, parcels of land in Marinship had been split into five lots. Such a split comes under the state subdivision map act, said Hunter.

The council asked City Atty. John B. Ehlen to report next meeting on whether the owners had illegally subdivided the property, and if so, whether they could be forced to pay for improvements such as streets, etc.

Mayor Ehrlich appointed John J. Gallas of 203 Third Street, to the library board, replacing Rev. Joseph S. Doron.

He appointed Norman Murdock of 75 Platt Avenue to the planning commission, replacing Rod O. Simpson. Murdock works for the redevelopment agency of San Francisco.

The council also:

1. Named councilmen Marjorie Brady and George E. Keeney to represent the city at a meeting with California Divisions of Highways representatives tomorrow at 9 a.m. in San Francisco to discuss direct access from Marin to Vista Point.
2. Asked city attorney Ehlen for a ruling on building of structures on the south side of the sandspit. J. H. Madden had applied for a permit to build docking in that area.
3. Asked city engineer Hunter to draw up plans and get a bid on installation of a storm sewer catch basin in front of the Village Fair.

Speller Champ Named At School

Marcia Miller, 13, of 99 Fawn Drive, San Anselmo, is the champion speller in the Sleepy Hollow School. Miss Miller is an eighth grade student.

Class champions in the seventh grade were Ellen Bundschu and Donna DeForest.

Co-champion with Miss Miller in the eighth grade was Joann Gormly.

Clubs Group Wants National Seashore

The Marin Federation of Improvement Clubs, comprising 14 improvement clubs in unincorporated areas of Marin County has voted to send messages to Marin County representatives in state and national legislatures urging them to help bring about creation of a national seashore on the Point Reyes Peninsula.

Planning Director Mary Summers explained details of the master plans now near completion for the San Geronimo Valley and the Bolinas-Stinson Beach area.

Hub Council Asks Figures On Firehouse

San Anselmo city councilmen last night rapped the city administrator for continuing to ask for extra outlays for the new firehouse without having figures on overall cost of the station.

Administrator Douglas Flautt, who had asked for extra outlays for the firehouse at the last meeting, requested about $600 more last night for landscaping, concrete work and sidewalk.

"The last time you asked for extras for the firehouse, we asked if that would be all you and you said 'yes'," Councilman Robert E. Rouse pointed out. "Now you are asking for $600 more."

Rouse said he wants to know how much in extras the firehouse has cost thus far.

Flautt began listing some of the additional outlays but admitted he did not have a record of the total cost picture.

Rouse moved for approving the additional $600 but asked the administrator to have figures on overall cost at the next meeting.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley will help dedicate the new firehouse at Butterfield Road and Arroyo Avenue at 1:30 p.m. March 26.

City councilmen decided that a luncheon will be served at the firehouse for honored guests just before the ceremonies. Sandwiches and salad can be served for about $50, said the administrator.

Drunken Driver Draws $158 Fine

Grover Cleveland Owen, 67, of 666 Peach Street, Novato, drew a $158 fine and lost his driving privilege for 90 days yesterday for drunken driving.

Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Municipal Court also put Owen on six months probation. Owen, retired from the Air Force, admitted he was driving while intoxicated on Makin Street in Novato last Friday.

SKIPPERS DROWNED

Case Of Missing Fishermen Closed

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The Coast Guard has closed the case of the mysterious disappearance of fishing boat skipper E. A. (Dave) Davisson, whose final radio report last September was:

"This is Dave on the Steelhead. Coho II just shot me. This has been a good life, goodbye boys."

The Coast Guard report, by Capt. Charles Silk, ruled out an earlier theory that Davisson's fishing boat Steelhead was rammed by the boat Coho II. The ramming was attributed to an "unidentified" craft.

Ted Bean, 42, of Bakersfield, skipper of the Coho II, vanished as his vessel was being escorted to shore, where he was scheduled for questioning. The report said evidence suggested that Bean fell overboard and did not jump from his boat to evade the inquiry.

Davisson, 57, and Bean were fishing in the same area off the California coast when the final radio report from the Steelhead was received on Sept. 27. Bean admitted being alongside the Steelhead early that day, but he denied knowledge of any shooting or ramming when questioned by coast guardsmen at sea.

Silk said paint samples ruled out the possibility the Steelhead was rammed by the Coho. The Coast Guard investigating officer added that the term "shoot" is commonly used in the process of making a navigational fix.

The theory that Bean committed suicide was ruled out by reports that he had arranged to meet his wife ashore and had changed his clothing.

"He was very tired," Silk said. "Having spent a few sleepless nights, he was probably in a dazed state or stupor . . . during which he fell over the side of the boat while securing the gear."

Silk said suggestions of a possible quarrel between the two skippers were not substantiated.

"Reports ranging from the use of aliens as crewmen to smuggling narcotics were received and all were found to be personal opinions, rather than facts," the captain said.

Rifles and guns found on the Coho were rejected as incriminating evidence because fishermen often carry such weapons to shoot sharks. Damage to the Coho's bow was found to have been caused long before the Steelhead incident.

The officer concluded that since there was no evidence that Coho II had been involved in a collision, an unknown vessel was responsible for ramming the Steelhead.

Minifilm X-Rays Used By More Than 8,000 In Marin

A total of 8,553 persons learned they were free from tuberculosis last year as the result of minifilm chest X-rays taken in the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn.'s free screening program, operated in cooperation with Marin General Hospital.

Dr. J. Lyman Hurlburt, chairman of the tuberculosis control committee of the association, reported today that 8,906 X-rays were taken during the year. There were 276 "suspicious findings" from the program. Of this number four new cases of tuberculosis were diagnosed.

Two reactivated cases also were discovered, and there were 115 other "suspected" chest conditions.

The service is provided free to anyone over age 14. A technician is on duty at Marin General Hospital Tuesday through Saturday from 9 to 5. No appointment is necessary.

State Again Rips County On Hospital

Marin County has had another knuckle-rap from state officials over failure to meet a deadline on repair of the county hospital.

A letter from Gordon R. Cummings, chairman of the Bureau of Hospitals of the state Department of Public Health in Berkeley, read to the Board of Supervisors yesterday, declared:

"We are aware of the county's continuing efforts toward provision of a replacement facility; however, it does not appear this will be available for some time.

"For this reason, the department again requests submission of a proposal for temporary strengthening, prepared by a qualified architect or engineer."

Chairman William D. Fusselman promptly asked that H. M. Engle, structural engineer, be invited to accomany an already scheduled visit to the hospital by the supervisors at 9:30 a.m. Monday.

The scope of the trip was extended to take in a look at the latest cave-in of the old Northwestern Pacific Railroad tunnel on county land in Woodacre, after Supervisor William Gnoss reported a woman in the neighborhood had told him that "our home may go next."

Public Works Director Marvin W. Brigham said there was no immediate prospect that the cave-in would extend to private property.

Enlists In Navy

Kenneth Donald Ostrovsky, 17, son of Ben Ostrovsky of 1201 Ridgeview Heights, Novato, has enlisted in the Navy at the Marin County Navy Recruiting Station in San Rafael. He has been sent to the Treasure Island Naval Receiving Station, Treasure Island, awaiting orders for assignment to the fleet. Ostrovsky is a former member of Naval Reserve Division 12-6 at Vallejo.

The north-south road would run along the Northwestern Pacific Railroad spur. Two east-west roads and a frontage road from the main gate to Spring Street, as well as the Gate 5 main entrance, also are included.

Property on both sides of Gate 5 Road and all property west of the new north-south road would be zoned industrial-commercial. Waterfront uses, including apartments and boatels, would be permitted on the remainder.

The plan covers the portion of Marinship north of Spring Street.

The vote of approval came near midnight, after two and one-half hours of discussion.

Julius H. Selinger, attorney for Marinship property owners assn., told the council, "You are on both horses going in opposite directions."

City Engineer John L. Hunter displayed maps showing that once in 1952, once in 1953 and once in 1954, parcels of land in Marinship had been split into five lots. Such a split comes under the state subdivision map act, said Hunter.

The council asked City Atty. John B. Ehlen to report next meeting on whether the owners had illegally subdivided the property, and if so, whether they could be forced to pay for improvements such as streets, etc.

Mayor Ehrlich appointed John J. Gallas of 203 Third Street, to the library board, replacing Rev. Joseph S. Doron.

He appointed Norman Murdock of 75 Platt Avenue to the planning commission, replacing Rod O. Simpson, Murdock works for the redevelopment agency of San Francisco.

The council also:

1. Named councilmen Marjorie Brady and George E. Keeney to represent the city at a meeting with California Divisions of Highways representatives tomorrow at 9 a.m. in San Francisco to discuss direct access from Marin to Vista Point.
2. Asked city attorney Ehlen for a ruling on building of structures on the south side of the sandspit. J. H. Madden had applied for a permit to build docking in that area.
3. Asked city engineer Hunter to draw up plans and get a bid on installation of a storm sewer catch basin in front of the Village Fair.

Clubs Group Wants National Seashore

The Marin Federation of Improvement Clubs, comprising 14 improvement clubs in unincorporated areas of Marin County has voted to send messages to Marin County representatives in state and national legislatures urging them to help bring about creation of a national seashore on the Point Reyes Peninsula.

Planning Director Mary Summers explained details of the master plans now near completion for the San Geronimo Valley and the Bolinas-Stinson Beach area.

Hub Council Asks Figures On Firehouse

San Anselmo city councilmen last night rapped the city administrator for continuing to ask for extra outlays for the new firehouse without having figures on overall cost of the station.

Administrator Douglas Flautt, who had asked for extra outlays for the firehouse at the last meeting, requested about $600 more last night for landscaping, concrete work and sidewalk.

"The last time you asked for extras for the firehouse, we asked if that would be all you and you said 'yes'," Councilman Robert E. Rouse pointed out. "Now you are asking for $600 more."

Rouse said he wants to know how much in extras the firehouse has cost thus far.

Flautt began listing some of the additional outlays but admitted he did not have a record of the total cost picture.

Rouse moved for approving the additional $600 but asked the administrator to have figures on overall cost at the next meeting.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley will help dedicate the new firehouse at Butterfield Road and Arroyo Avenue at 1:30 p.m. March 26.

City councilmen decided that a luncheon will be served at the firehouse for honored guests just before the ceremonies. Sandwiches and salad can be served for about $50, said the administrator.

Drunken Driver Draws $158 Fine

Grover Cleveland Owen, 67, of 666 Peach Street, Novato, drew a $158 fine and lost his driving privilege for 90 days yesterday for drunken driving.

Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Municipal Court also put Owen on six months probation. Owen, retired from the Air Force, admitted he was driving while intoxicated on Makin Street in Novato last Friday.

SKIPPERS DROWNED

Case Of Missing Fishermen Closed

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The Coast Guard has closed the case of the mysterious disappearance of fishing boat skipper E. A. (Dave) Davisson, whose final radio report last September was:

"This is Dave on the Steelhead. Coho II just shot me. This has been a good life, goodbye boys."

The Coast Guard report, by Capt. Charles Silk, ruled out an earlier theory that Davisson's fishing boat Steelhead was rammed by the boat Coho II. The ramming was attributed to an "unidentified" craft.

Ted Bean, 42, of Bakersfield, skipper of the Coho II, vanished as his vessel was being escorted to shore, where he was scheduled for questioning. The report said evidence suggested that Bean fell overboard and did not jump from his boat to evade the inquiry.

Davisson, 57, and Bean were fishing in the same area off the California coast when the final radio report from the Steelhead was received on Sept. 27. Bean admitted being alongside the Steelhead early that day, but he denied knowledge of any shooting or ramming when questioned by coast guardsmen at sea.

Silk said paint samples ruled out the possibility the Steelhead was rammed by the Coho. The Coast Guard investigating officer added that the term "shoot" is commonly used in the process of making a navigational fix.

The theory that Bean committed suicide was ruled out by reports that he had arranged to meet his wife ashore and had changed his clothing.

"He was very tired," Silk said. "Having spent a few sleepless nights, he was probably in a dazed state or stupor . . . during which he fell over the side of the boat while securing the gear."

Silk said suggestions of a possible quarrel between the two skippers were not substantiated.

"Reports ranging from the use of aliens as crewmen to smuggling narcotics were received and all were found to be personal opinions, rather than facts," the captain said.

Rifles and guns found on the Coho were rejected as incriminating evidence because fishermen often carry such weapons to shoot sharks. Damage to the Coho's bow was found to have been caused long before the Steelhead incident.

The officer concluded that since there was no evidence that Coho II had been involved in a collision, an unknown vessel was responsible for ramming the Steelhead.

Minifilm X-Rays Used By More Than 8,000 In Marin

A total of 8,553 persons learned they were free from tuberculosis last year as the result of minifilm chest X-rays taken in the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn.'s free screening program, operated in cooperation with Marin General Hospital.

Dr. J. Lyman Hurlburt, chairman of the tuberculosis control committee of the association, reported today that 8,906 X-rays were taken during the year. There were 276 "suspicious findings" from the program. Of this number four new cases of tuberculosis were diagnosed.

Two reactivated cases also were discovered, and there were 115 other "suspected" chest conditions.

The service is provided free to anyone over age 14. A technician is on duty at Marin General Hospital Tuesday through Saturday from 9 to 5. No appointment is necessary.

State Again Rips County On Hospital

Marin County has had another knuckle-rap from state officials over failure to meet a deadline on repair of the county hospital.

A letter from Gordon R. Cummings, chairman of the Bureau of Hospitals of the state Department of Public Health in Berkeley, read to the Board of Supervisors yesterday, declared:

"We are aware of the county's continuing efforts toward provision of a replacement facility; however, it does not appear this will be available for some time.

"For this reason, the department again requests submission of a proposal for temporary strengthening, prepared by a qualified architect or engineer."

Chairman William D. Fusselman promptly asked that H. M. Engle, structural engineer, be invited to accomany an already scheduled visit to the hospital by the supervisors at 9:30 a.m. Monday.

The scope of the trip was extended to take in a look at the latest cave-in of the old Northwestern Pacific Railroad tunnel on county land in Woodacre, after Supervisor William Gnoss reported a woman in the neighborhood had told him that "our home may go next."

Public Works Director Marvin W. Brigham said there was no immediate prospect that the cave-in would extend to private property.

He has been sent to the Treasure Island Naval Receiving Station, Treasure Island, awaiting orders for assignment to the fleet. Ostrovsky is a former member of Naval Reserve Division 12-6 at Vallejo.

Novato Council 'Files' Master Plan Study

A report from the Novato Planning Commission on the master plan study for Novato won dubious city council support last night.

Some councilmen, before beginning of the master plan study, had asked that the planning commission to concentrate on an early decision on the future of the Grant Avenue commercial district.

The report approved by the planning commission Monday urged that the master plan be considered as a whole, when all phases of the studies are completed, probably sometime this summer.

A motion by councilman Charles R. Johnson to accept the report died for lack of a second. A motion to file it, by councilman John J. Angeloni, was approved by a 4-1 vote.

Mayor Wayne Womack cast the dissenting vote, later saying he was for acceptance of the report and acclamation of the planning commission for the study. Angeloni has been the prime backer on the council for an early report on the commercial area.

Councilmen last night authorized City Administrator J. Julien Baget to discuss with Grant Avenue property owners the possibility of a parking lot behind their buildings, to front on Industrial Way, now an alley.

Under the proposal, the city would pay a portion of the estimated $8,162 needed to pave Industrial Way from First to Fourth Streets. Merchants along the street would pay for paving part of the street and would be asked to open for parking the back lots fronting on Industrial Way.

Councilmen heard that Jack Caristi's lot at second and Industrial Way is still for sale to the city for about $4,300. Caristi had hoped to build a doughnut shop on the lot, but could not meet parking requirements.

San Anselmo City Workers Want 5% Raise In Salary

San Anselmo city employees last night asked for a 5 per cent salary increase for the next fiscal year.

In a letter to the city council, the 39 employees indicated the salary raise is uppermost in their minds. But they also have other requests. They asked an allowance for uniforms for police and firemen, and a pension adjustment for miscellaneous employees so that they get the same benefits as police and firemen. They also asked a city-paid health insurance plan.

Mayor William Franchini asked Administrator Douglas Flautt to get figures on how much these benefits would cost the city, and a report on cities of comparable size and revenue.

Two former employees of the city received framed citations from the city council for their service. They are Mary Donnelly, planning commissioner and chairman for nine years, and Police Officer James A. Farmer, recently retired.

City councilmen also:

1. Authorized the administrator to hire a man for $2.01 an hour to water 50 magnolia trees that are being planted in concrete containers in the downtown area.
2. Purchased curtains for the city hall for $202.05 from Tamalpais Venetian Blind Co.
3. Voted a letter of thanks and a citation to Lee Busolo, who resigned from the planning commission after six years.
4. Introduced an ordinance setting two regular council meetings per month instead of one. Hereafter, regular meetings will be held at 8 p.m. on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month.
5. Authorized the purchase of a new American flag and a California flag for the council chambers for $37.50 each. The old American flag has only 48 stars, the administrator reported.
6. Approved claims totaling $55,850 for the month, with the exception of one item for $5,606 which is charged up to "radio, teletype, etc." At the previous meeting, the council had asked for an explanation of this item. Administrator Flautt said he thought he had an answer last night among the pile of bills but could not locate it.

   He said the $5,606 represents an accumulation of bills from the county for teletype service and payment to the county of dog license fees.
7. The administrator reported that financing consultants Stone and Youngberg of San Francisco will study and give recommendations on the best method of financing the proposed downtown development. The fee would be $2,500.

State Aide Says Hub City Need Not Take Stand On Freeway Choice

San Anselmo need not take a definite stand as yet on whether it wants a state freeway or expressway through the city, R. A. Hayler, district engineer for the California Division of Highways, declared last night.

It will be at least two or three months before the state will be able to begin studies on various alternate routes for a freeway (or expressway) to take traffic from Richmond Bridge to Shoreline Highway, Hayler said.

The state expects to have alternate routes lined up by 1962, and a definite route adopted by the last half of that year, Hayler told the San Anselmo City Council.

The engineer said these three routes are under consideration:

From Greenbrae via Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, from San Rafael over the Miracle Mile, and through Lucas Valley bypassing San Anselmo completely.

The advantage of the Miracle Mile route is that it would handle both through traffic and the already congested local traffic, Hayler pointed out. A Lucas Valley route would be a bit out of the way because the state is thinking in terms of a highway from Richmond Bridge to Shoreline. However, one advantage at Lucas Valley would be that there would be less buildings to condemn, said Hayler.

If the Miracle Mile is selected, Hayler foresees a six-lane freeway with service roads where needed. A strip about 220 feet wide would be needed, he said.

Hayler said he does not think a freeway through the city would necessarily hurt business, although establishments such as motels and service stations, which depend on highway traffic, might be affected.

The city council also discussed street lights in the downtown area and repair of San Anselmo Avenue at the west end of the city.

LeMac Paving Co. of Corte Madera won the contract to improve San Anselmo Avenue between Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Center Boulevard at $4,380. Only other bidder was Piombo Bros. of San Rafael, which bid $6,799. The job calls for repair of storm drains and street failures, with a seal coating over the entire street.

The city's 27 downtown street lights may be replaced by about 11 new lights of a radically new design. City Administrator Douglas Flautt said Wilsey, Ham and Blair had recommended a straight pole with a sphere on top instead of the standard pole with an arm extended into the street. The sphere, about 33 inches in diameter, would contain four lamps with enough candlepower to provide more light than standard poles placed closer together.

The new poles and lamps would cost about $500 to $600 each, whereas the standard lights run about $300 to $400 each, Flautt said.

Marin County has only one of the new poles in use, said Flautt. It is located at a shopping center near Tamalpais High School in Mill Valley.

Mayor William Franchini suggested that councilmen take a look at Mill Valley's light pole. In the meantime, Administrator Flautt will get more information on the new light standard, and its cost of operation.

Data Bureau Change Voted By Supervisors

Changes described as "minor reorganization" of Marin County's data processing bureau and costing $295 a month were authorized by the Board of Supervisors yesterday at request of Auditor-Controller Leon A. deLisle and after a talk with processing supervisor Arleigh Sewell.

Sewell's appearance was hailed with satisfaction by Chairman William D. Fusselman, who said "we've been getting our information by remote control."

Sewell said he wanted to cancel two tabular operator jobs, one vacant and the other about to be, and step up the ratings for two other jobs as part of a program to do more work for school districts.

After long discussion the board went along, eliminating two operator positions at monthly pay range of $350-420, changing title only of tabulator operator 2 to 3, and authorizing one tabulator operator 2 at a range from $440 to $530 and one system analyst at $509-609.

Education Board Hikes Pay Minimum By $200

The San Rafael Board of Education last night set a $4,700 minimum salary for teachers for the 1961-62 year.

The minimum is now $4,500. The additional $200 "makes a difference in hiring people," Supt. Frank L. Lucas said.

Lucas noted that in raising the minimum, adjustments would have to be made in the rest of the salary schedule to compensate. The $200 could be "feathered in," he said.

The state minimum is $4,500. Lucas said the average beginning salary in Marin County is $4,650.

The board agreed that a final determination of the salary schedule adjustment could not be made until more definite information is obtained on income for next year.

Lucas reported that a committee has come up with a design for new band uniforms for San Rafael High School. Sixty will be needed, at a cost of about $69 each, he said.

The matter should be discussed at budget time, the superintendent said. The board also might want to consider alternate methods of financing the uniforms, he added.

In other business, the board:

1. Noted the appointments of John C Rea and Paul Silva as half-time bus drivers and half-time service mechanics.
2. Accepted the quotation of Kiesel Automotive Service, Novato, for a lawn mower replacement, which includes turning in the old machine. Kiesel's quotation was $873, less two per cent.
3. Heard that a group is interested in having an overpass built over Highway 101 from Coleman School to Lincoln Avenue, when the widening of Highway 101 takes place. The board indicated it favored the proposal.
4. Noted that talks are going on by persons in San Jose School District interested in having their children attend Novato High instead of San Rafael High.
5. Adjourned to 5 p.m. Tuesday for opening of bids on the Terra Linda High School addition.

LIKES PEACE CORPS — Arnold Toynbee, 72, British historian, said yesterday he would join President John F. Kennedy's Peace Corps if he were younger. He said during a lecture that the "British people would find it easier to live in primitive areas" than would Americans, but he praised the idea. (AP Wirephoto)

Britain Out As 'Cleopatra' Filming Site

LONDON (AP)—Elizabeth Taylor's studio today abandoned plans to film the jinxed multi-million-dollar epic "Cleopatra" in Britain.

But Joseph Mankiewicz, who replaced Rouben Mamoulian as director of the film, and Sid Rogell, chief of European productions for 20th Century-Fox emphatically denied that the ill-fated picture is being abandoned.

"We shall definitely make it," said Mankiewicz, "probably in Egypt, Italy or California."

He indicated Miss Taylor would still be the star, although her personal physician has said it may take as much as a year for her to recuperate from the double pneumonia that last week brought her near death.

Mankiewicz said J. Arthur Rank film organization had asked the "Cleopatra" company to vacate Rank's Pinewood studios. Rank officials said their company needed the space for its own productions.

Miss Taylor continued to improve at the London Clinic.

Work on Cleopatra began in England last autumn and ran into one snag after another.

Miss Taylor, who is being paid a million dollars to play the lead role, was to have gone before the cameras Oct. 14 but rain, fog and cold prevented filming.

Meter Operation Course Offered

A free course on radiological meter operation will be given at the College of Marin beginning tomorrow.

The 15-hour course will be given on Thursdays from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., but the final session will be given on Saturday, April 29 from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. It will be conducted under the civil defense program by William G. Harrington.

Alan Bruce, civil defense coordinator for the county, asked that every agency, which has a radiological detection device send at least three staff members to the course.

Reed Trustees Order Pay Increase Study

Reed Union School District trustees, uncertain whether they can afford to increase teacher salaries for the next school year, last night asked Supt. Paul R. Stouffer to prepare recommendations for the next meeting.

Trustee Alyce Farkas wanted the board to go on record in favor of increased salaries, with no amount of pay boost specified. Teachers, she declared, need "a dignified living standard." Other board members, however, particularly Leo Souza, insisted the board should know how the district stands financially before any commitment on boosting salaries.

H. James Mumma, chairman of a teacher association salary committee, presented four plans for increasing salaries by a system of boosts for each four years of service.

Souza objected to this method.

Trustee David D. Ring, chairing the meeting in the absence of chairman Richard J. MacLaury, wound up the discussion with the suggestion that salary schedules be discussed along with other budget recommendations.

Mrs. Ralph B. Dewey, chairman of the Reed District Parent-Teacher club foreign language Study group, recommended that the district institute a language program. The district now has a seven and eighth grade elective in Spanish only.

A committee of Ring, Stouffer, Mrs. Dewey and director of curriculum George C. Gregg was named to learn from Dr. Manuel Guerra, foreign language coordinator for the Mount Eden School district, his price for analyzing and setting up a program.

Trustees voted unanimously to oppose the "county school tax equalization" bill 337 giving tenure to teachers after one year.

Trustees accepted the resignations of Mrs. Jane Cope and Mrs. Patricia Sieck.

Auto Building Expansion Is Approved

The Fiat auto agency building at 509 Francisco Boulevard will be doubled in size with an addition to accommodate three retail stores which was approved last night by the San Rafael Planning Commission.

The permit granted approval with the stipulation that the entire area be landscaped and that parking in front of the three stores be arranged so that cars will not back out onto the street.

A 10-unit apartment house, estimated to cost $140,000, was approved for 540 Canal Street. The request was made by Taverna Associates.

In other action, the commission: Approved a request by Robert Nolan to erect a parking ramp in front of the setback area on a lot on Fair Drive; approved a request for a dental office to Dr. J. R. Binnings for 4166 Redwood Highway; approved a detached garage as requested by Arthur R. Meyer of 19 Sirard Lane and gave its approval for a two lot subdivision on La Vista Way as requested by Leatherwood and Horler.

Line Conversion Job To Shut Off Electric Power

Electricity will be turned off for six hours tomorrow in the San Francisco Boulevard area of San Anselmo to permit a reconversion of lines from 4,000 to 12,000 volts.

Ralph Brisbin, assistant supervisor of the electrical department of Pacific Gas and Electric Co., said the shutoff will be from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on San Francisco Boulevard and its side streets.

The increase in voltage is necessary because the load is getting too heavy for the existing lines, Brisbin said. He added that home appliances like freezers, if the doors are kept closed, should hold their contents without damage.

Milk Price Drop Due Next Month

The price of milk, which went up in Marin County last month, will drop a penny a quart on April 1.

The usual seasonal reduction in the minimum milk price—which is the fixed price in actuality—was announced today by the California Agriculture Department.

Home-delivered milk is now selling at 25½ cents per quart in Marin, with an additional delivery charge of 3 cents for delivery. The new price will be 24½ cents per quart. The delivery charge will be unchanged.

Milk sold in stores in quart containers is a half cent cheaper, without the delivery charge.

WAGE BILL

but killed administration hopes of getting the program into operation by April 1.

Any changes approved by the Senate would mean a return trip to the House for concurrence in Senate amendments and raise barriers to speedy final congressional action.

The House will take up next week its own version of the minimum wage bill. Rep. James Roosevelt (D-Calif.) said it would face an up-hill fight.

The Senate is expected to pass Kennedy's bill providing 394 million in relief to economically depressed areas. Two such previous bills were vetoed by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower. The Senate amended this bill to require that it be administered by the Commerce Department.

This bill was approved today by a house banking subcommittee. A House vote may be possible before the end of next week.

Two Children Hurt At Schools

Two children were injured in separate school accidents in Marin County yesterday.

Ellen Schuman, 13, an eighth grade pupil at Manor School in Fairfax, caught her right hand in a door at the school, smashing her fourth finger on her right hand in a door at the school. She was treated at Marin General Hospital and released. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Schuman of 46 Westbrae.

Anthony Nathe, 8, third grade student at St. Raphael's Parochial School in San Rafael, fell from a platform at the school yesterday and was knocked unconscious. He was taken to Marin General Hospital where he was examined and released. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Nathe of 61 Crestwood Drive, San Rafael.

City Will Not Provide Guard At Larkspur School Crossing

Larkspur School District trustees last night were told by the City of Larkspur that the city would not provide a crossing guard for school children at Magnolia Avenue and Doherty Drive.

The letter, from City Manager Ronald E. Piper, said the city did not feel a sufficient problem existed to warrant a full-time officer on duty.

The trustees approved payment of $1,750 as the district's share toward operation of the Larkspur-Corte Madera joint recreation commission. Each of the cities donate $4,250 toward the commission's $10,250 budget.

Sample ballots for the April 18 school board election will not be mailed to district voters, the trustees decided. Mailing of the ballots is optional and the district has not mailed ballots in the past.

Supt. Vaughn D. Seidel was authorized to attend the annual conference of the California Assn. of public school business officials in Los Angeles on April 9-12. Seidel is a past president of the association.

Architects of the new San Clemente school reported that plans would be submitted to the state department of architure as soon as soil tests on the site are completed, probably within a week.

Sabella Vows To Give $2,000 For Dredging

Angelo Sabella, owner of Sabella's Restaurant at Alto, last night pledged $2,000 toward dredging of Saucelito Channel to make possible a small boat harbor, provided 10 other property owners along the channel would do likewise.

Sabella made his offer at a meeting of property owners at his restaurant, called by Francis L. Newton. No one took up the challenge last night, but Newton today expressed hope some may do so.

"We will do everything we can to find the other 10 property owners to contribute," said Newton.

Marin County stands to lose a $300,000 state loan for dredging the channel unless it provides $60,000 in local funds. To keep the loan application alive, George Leo Zaro has pledged to begin dredging on his own. Mill Valley has put up $25,000.

Santa Venetia Pharmacy Loses Drugs To Thief

An agile narcotics thief slipped into Santa Venetia Pharmacy last night and got away with drugs and hypodermic needles, sheriff's deputies reported today.

Deputy Thomas Albert Lightfoot said the thief broke a bathroom window and squeezed between iron bars through space only six and one-half inches by 15 and one-half inches.

Robert Vogel, owner-operator of the pharmacy on Adrian Way, discovered the theft when he arrived at the store about 9:30 a.m. today. Missing items include morphine, demerol, opiate, codein phosphate, case of hypodermic needles, and other pills, he said.

Deputy Lightfoot said the exact amount of the loss is not yet determined, but it was a "substantial haul" involving perhaps 500 pills. The drug store had been ransacked for drugs, but no cash was taken, the officer reported.

Vogel said he closed the store last night about 7 o'clock. There were only pennies and nickels in the cash register.

$4,500 Payment Ordered In Suit Over Termites

Dr. Richard S. Hahn of Belvedere, well-known chest specialist, is entitled to $4,500 damages from Belvedere City Manager Britton Rey, who sold the Hahns a house infested with termites in 1957, a Marin Superior Court judge ruled this week.

Judge Thomas F. Keating heard the case last month and took it under submission until this week. His verdict is that Rey should pay the $4,500 to Dr. Hahn and his wife Gloria Jane.

The Hahns said Rey concealed the fact that the home at 428 Golden Gate Avenue was termite infested when he sold the home to the doctor. The Hahns sued for $15,000 from Rey and termite inspector William Woods. The judge ruled that the termite inspector was not liable.

Council Hopefuls To Be On Panel

Five candidates for two posts on the San Rafael City Council will participate in the "Marin Sounding Board" program on radio station KTIM at 9 a.m. tomorrow.

They are incumbents David Menary Jr. and Louis H. (Bud) Baar, and challengers Joseph R. Filippo, Michael McLean and Orlando Conti. Kitty Oppenheimer will be the moderator.

Questions may be telephoned to the station for the broadcast. The program will be repeated Sunday at 12:30 p.m. via tape recording.

Doherty Drive Bids Are Due

Bids for construction of Doherty Drive extension will be opened by the Larkspur City Council tonight at 8 o'clock.

Councilmen will be presented with the annual report of City Manager Ronald E. Piper and final plans for the Greenbrae fire house will be submitted by Fire Chief George Bartram.

Civic Center Contract Suit Being Mulled

Management officials of the civic center prime contractor are conferring with their attorneys as to whether they should sue Marin County for their $14,047 damage claim arising from the one-week work stoppage in January.

"We represent a large number of subcontractors as well as ourselves," said Robert Rothschild, senior partner in Rothschild, Raffin and Weirick of San Francisco. "The claim, we feel, was very small—actually nominal.

"No reply has come to us as yet but in view of the advice to the board of supervisors from county counsel, we are taking it up with our lawyers as to what to do next."

Medical Unit Votes For Social Security

A poll of the Marin Medical Society has resulted in 94 votes for and 72 against social security coverage for physicians, it was announced today by Dr. Calvin Poumhof, secretary.

Apartments Plan Opposed By Alto Group

The Alto District Assn. voted unanimously last night to oppose Marin Capital Co.'s petition for rezoning 180 acres of Alto bowl and Hillside to permit apartments.

Forty persons attended the meeting in the Alto firehouse, with Meadowsweet and Enchanted Knolls among them as well as Alto residents.

Sidney L. Chapin, president of the association, said the vote will be presented to the county planning commission which is to hear the rezoning request Monday. A letter will also be sent to the board of supervisors advising it of the community's stand.

Architect Rolland B. Hammond presented proposals of Mill Valley developer George C. Goheen of Marin Capital Co., the rezoning applicant.

Franklin McClain of Alto claimed rezoning "would be more or less a blank check to the developer to come up with nearly any kind of multiple development." Other objectors said they did not want apartment houses in the neighborhood and apartments would cause traffic problems at Edna Maguire and Alto schools.

The Mill Valley Planning Commission, which also took up the matter last night, agreed to write a letter to the county planning commission and to the Mill Valley City Council saying it is concerned about the traffic problem which would be caused.

The type of development would double the number of family units over the usual single family residential zoning, opponents claimed.

Burners Of Books Called Negligent

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A legislator charges today "gross negligence" on the part of two state agencies was responsible for the burning of textbooks and the payment of $350,000 a year too much to school book publishers.

Assemblyman Jesse M. Unruh, chairman of the ways and means committee, announced his investigating group will resume its hearings tonight by calling to the stand officials from the Department of Education and the state printing plant.

Unruh recessed the hearing last week because he said he felt there was "reasonable grounds to believe something more than simple negligence" was involved in the textbook scandal.

At that time, Unruh said the hearings would be postponed indefinitely because there was a question as to whether if any state officials were called before the committee to testify publicly they automatically might win immunity from prosecution.

But the ways and means chairman said today investigators had checked into several officials in the two departments and found no grounds for filing criminal charges.

"I said last week I was dubious that mere negligence was involved," Unruh said. "But after a quick investigation which might not have revealed everything, we have concluded there is no evidence to indicate anything but the grossest of negligence."

Loan Rate Cut May Aid Vets

SACRAMENTO (AP) — State officials said today the reduction in interest rates by the Federal Home Loan Bank of San Francisco could also mean lower rates for veterans who borrow from the state.

A spokesman for the Department of Veterans Affairs said the rate cut could mean lower interest rates on a forthcoming sale of 140 million dollars in state bonds for the Cal-Vet farm and home loan program.

The federal bank announced yesterday that it was cutting its rate from 4½ to 3¾ per cent in a move to spur home building and help the home-buying, mortgage-borrowing public in 11 western states.

SACRAMENTO SUMMARY

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

THE GOVERNOR

Appointed Leo E. Sievert, Santa Fe Railway vice president, and John Eagan, California Pacific Title Insurance Co. executive vice president, to the Governor's Business Advisory Council.

THE SENATE

Bills introduced:

Retarded — Extends provision permitting special education for certain severely retarded minors beyond 1962 termination date, Short (D-Stockton).

Liquor—Requires protest hearings on issuance of liquor licenses to be held in city rather than county where license to be issued, if city has population above 100,000, Richards (D-Los Angeles).

Goods—Permits public officer or agency to lease or hire foreign-made equipment if no domestic bidder can be found, Burns (D-Fresno).

Pay—Makes public utility commisioners salaries, now $19,950 yearly, the same as district courts of appeal judges, now $24,000, Short.

THE ASSEMBLY

Unanimously agreed to publish in journal request that Assemblyman Louis Francis (R-San Mateo) retract charges of subversion at California colleges.

Bills approved by committee:

Discrimination — Prohibits discrimination in awarding state licenses, Burton (D-San Francisco); extends ban on discrimination against civil service worker to include color, religion, ancestry and national origin, Burton.

Vacations—Would give state employees Friday off when contract holiday falls on Saturday, Brown (D-Monterey Park).

Wildlife — Provides two million to three million dollars annually in tideland oil revenue to set up recreation facilities and fish and wildlife enhancement in connection with state water projects, Davis (D-Portola).

On Aircraft Carrier

Marine Pfc. Timothy L. Hine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd K. Hine of San Quentin, is serving aboard the aircraft carrier Midway operating with the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

Liquor License Bill Amended

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Sen. Hugh M. Burns (D-Fresno) has agreed to amend Gov. Edmund G. Brown's liquor license bill today to provide that the number of licenses in any county can be increased by only 5 per cent a year, rather than 10 per cent.

The maximum in any case would be 25 a year in any county.

When the bill came up for debate yesterday, Burns ran into unexpectedly strong opposition from some senators who had received protests from present holders of liquor package store licenses.

If no bill is passed, most counties could get no new package store licenses.

$8 Million Given For School Rooms

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The State Allocations Board yesterday released 8.1 million dollars in state school building aid funds for immediate construction of 214 new classrooms to house 6,900 pupils.

The board also approved 46 projects which eventually will get 13.1 million dollars in state aid. Preliminary planning for these projects of 393 classrooms to house 12,500 can now proceed.

The board also allocated 1.8 million dollars to 16 districts for purchase of future building sites.

The United Nations moved into its current 39-story Secretariat Building on New York's East Side in the spring of 1951.

Solon Asked To Document Red Charges

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Assemblyman Louis Francis was invited today to appear before the Senate Committee on Un-American Activities to document his charge that Humboldt State College is one of the most subversive in California.

Sen. Hugh M. Burns (D-Fresno) long-time chairman of the upper chamber committee, issued the invitation.

"Assemblyman Francis and any other member is invited to appear before the committee to present anything he thinks falls within the category of subversive activity," said Burns.

Francis said the move by Burns came "as a complete surprise" and that he would check with his sources of information before deciding whether to appear.

Francis, a San Mateo Republican, told an assembly committee last week that he had evidence of subversives in Humboldt County and "this is particularly true of its public schools." He said later that the evidence for this charge was an anonymous letter from a person who signed himself "a Eurekian patriot."

The assembly yesterday ordered printed in its journal a letter from Assemblyman Frank P. Belotti (R-Eureka) demanding that Francis make a "public retraction" of this charge.

Burns told reporters that Francis apparently had made the charge on "very inconclusive evidence" and that "an unsigned letter is not to be taken too seriously.

"In my estimation he's out to gain some publicity and taking a shotgun approach—attempting to enter a field in which he has very little first-hand knowledge."

Marin Seniors To Tour AF Base

Some 300 Marin seniors will be "GIs for a day" on May 4.

The seniors will be guests of the Hamilton Air Force Base NCO Club for lunch and an entertainment program on that day, Manny Charnow, who is arranging the event, announced today.

The Air Force will provide buses to pick up the elderly celebrants at the Marin Senior Center, 1825 Fourth Street, San Rafael, and in Larkspur, San Anselmo and Fairfax, Charnow said.

Reed Trustees Order Pay Increase Study

Reed Union School District trustees, uncertain whether they can afford to increase teacher salaries for the next school year, last night asked Supt. Paul R. Stouffer to prepare recommendations for the next meeting.

Trustee Alyce Farkas wanted the board to go on record in favor of increased salaries, with no amount of pay boost specified. Teachers, she declared, need "a dignified living standard." Other board members, however, particularly Leo Souza, insisted the board should know how the district stands financially before any commitment on boosting salaries.

H. James Mumma, chairman of a teacher association salary committee, presented four plans for increasing salaries by a system of boosts for each four years of service.

Souza objected to this method.

Trustee David D. Ring, chairing the meeting in the absence of chairman Richard J. MacLaury, wound up the discussion with the suggestion that salary schedules be discussed along with other budget recommendations.

Mrs. Ralph B. Dewey, chairman of the Reed District Parent-Teacher club foreign language Study group, recommended that the district institute a language program. The district now has a seven and eighth grade elective in Spanish only.

A committee of Ring, Stouffer, Mrs. Dewey and director of curriculum George C. Gregg was named to learn from Dr. Manuel Guerra, foreign language coordinator for the Mount Eden School district, his price for analyzing and setting up a program.

Trustees voted unanimously to oppose the "county school tax equalization" bill 337 giving tenure to teachers after one year.

Trustees accepted the resignations of Mrs. Jane Cope and Mrs. Patricia Sieck.

Auto Building Expansion Is Approved

The Fiat auto agency building at 509 Francisco Boulevard will be doubled in size with an addition to accommodate three retail stores which was approved last night by the San Rafael Planning Commission.

The permit granted approval with the stipulation that the entire area be landscaped and that parking in front of the three stores be arranged so that cars will not back out onto the street.

A 10-unit apartment house, estimated to cost $140,000, was approved for 540 Canal Street. The request was made by Taverna Associates.

In other action, the commission: Approved a request by Robert Nolan to erect a parking ramp in front of the setback area on a lot on Fair Drive; approved a request for a dental office to Dr. J. R. Binnings for 4166 Redwood Highway; approved a detached garage as requested by Arthur R. Meyer of 19 Sirard Lane and gave its approval for a two lot subdivision on La Vista Way as requested by Leatherwood and Horler.

Line Conversion Job To Shut Off Electric Power

Electricity will be turned off for six hours tomorrow in the San Francisco Boulevard area of San Anselmo to permit a reconversion of lines from 4,000 to 12,000 volts.

Ralph Brisbin, assistant supervisor of the electrical department of Pacific Gas and Electric Co., said the shutoff will be from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on San Francisco Boulevard and its side streets.

The increase in voltage is necessary because the load is getting too heavy for the existing lines, Brisbin said. He added that home appliances like freezers, if the doors are kept closed, should hold their contents without damage.

Milk Price Drop Due Next Month

The price of milk, which went up in Marin County last month, will drop a penny a quart on April 1.

The usual seasonal reduction in the minimum milk price—which is the fixed price in actuality—was announced today by the California Agriculture Department.

Home-delivered milk is now selling at 25½ cents per quart in Marin, with an additional delivery charge of 3 cents for delivery. The new price will be 24½ cents per quart. The delivery charge will be unchanged.

Milk sold in stores in quart containers is a half cent cheaper, without the delivery charge.

but killed administration hopes of getting the program into operation by April 1.

Any changes approved by the Senate would mean a return trip to the House for concurrence in Senate amendments and raise barriers to speedy final congressional action.

The House will take up next week its own version of the minimum wage bill. Rep. James Roosevelt (D-Calif.) said it would face an up-hill fight.

The Senate is expected to pass Kennedy's bill providing 394 million in relief to economically depressed areas. Two such previous bills were vetoed by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower. The Senate amended this bill to require that it be administered by the Commerce Department.

This bill was approved today by a house banking subcommittee. A House vote may be possible before the end of next week.

Two Children Hurt At Schools

Two children were injured in separate school accidents in Marin County yesterday.

Ellen Schuman, 13, an eighth grade pupil at Manor School in Fairfax, caught her right hand in a door at the school, smashing her fourth finger on her right hand in a door at the school. She was treated at Marin General Hospital and released. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Schuman of 46 Westbrae.

Anthony Nathe, 8, third grade student at St. Raphael's Parochial School in San Rafael, fell from a platform at the school yesterday and was knocked unconscious. He was taken to Marin General Hospital where he was examined and released. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Nathe of 61 Crestwood Drive, San Rafael.

City Will Not Provide Guard At Larkspur School Crossing

Larkspur School District trustees last night were told by the City of Larkspur that the city would not provide a crossing guard for school children at Magnolia Avenue and Doherty Drive.

The letter, from City Manager Ronald E. Piper, said the city did not feel a sufficient problem existed to warrant a full-time officer on duty.

The trustees approved payment of $1,750 as the district's share toward operation of the Larkspur-Corte Madera joint recreation commission. Each of the cities donate $4,250 toward the commission's $10,250 budget.

Sample ballots for the April 18 school board election will not be mailed to district voters, the trustees decided. Mailing of the ballots is optional and the district has not mailed ballots in the past.

Supt. Vaughn D. Seidel was authorized to attend the annual conference of the California Assn. of public school business officials in Los Angeles on April 9-12. Seidel is a past president of the association.

Architects of the new San Clemente school reported that plans would be submitted to the state department of architure as soon as soil tests on the site are completed, probably within a week.

Sabella Vows To Give $2,000 For Dredging

Angelo Sabella, owner of Sabella's Restaurant at Alto, last night pledged $2,000 toward dredging of Saucelito Channel to make possible a small boat harbor, provided 10 other property owners along the channel would do likewise.

Sabella made his offer at a meeting of property owners at his restaurant, called by Francis L. Newton. No one took up the challenge last night, but Newton today expressed hope some may do so.

"We will do everything we can to find the other 10 property owners to contribute," said Newton.

Marin County stands to lose a $300,000 state loan for dredging the channel unless it provides $60,000 in local funds. To keep the loan application alive, George Leo Zaro has pledged to begin dredging on his own. Mill Valley has put up $25,000.

Santa Venetia Pharmacy Loses Drugs To Thief

An agile narcotics thief slipped into Santa Venetia Pharmacy last night and got away with drugs and hypodermic needles, sheriff's deputies reported today.

Deputy Thomas Albert Lightfoot said the thief broke a bathroom window and squeezed between iron bars through space only six and one-half inches by 15 and one-half inches.

Robert Vogel, owner-operator of the pharmacy on Adrian Way, discovered the theft when he arrived at the store about 9:30 a.m. today. Missing items include morphine, demerol, opiate, codein phosphate, case of hypodermic needles, and other pills, he said.

Deputy Lightfoot said the exact amount of the loss is not yet determined, but it was a "substantial haul" involving perhaps 500 pills. The drug store had been ransacked for drugs, but no cash was taken, the officer reported.

Vogel said he closed the store last night about 7 o'clock. There were only pennies and nickels in the cash register.

$4,500 Payment Ordered In Suit Over Termites

Dr. Richard S. Hahn of Belvedere, well-known chest specialist, is entitled to $4,500 damages from Belvedere City Manager Britton Rey, who sold the Hahns a house infested with termites in 1957, a Marin Superior Court judge ruled this week.

Judge Thomas F. Keating heard the case last month and took it under submission until this week. His verdict is that Rey should pay the $4,500 to Dr. Hahn and his wife Gloria Jane.

The Hahns said Rey concealed the fact that the home at 428 Golden Gate Avenue was termite infested when he sold the home to the doctor. The Hahns sued for $15,000 from Rey and termite inspector William Woods. The judge ruled that the termite inspector was not liable.

Council Hopefuls To Be On Panel

Five candidates for two posts on the San Rafael City Council will participate in the "Marin Sounding Board" program on radio station KTIM at 9 a.m. tomorrow.

They are incumbents David Menary Jr. and Louis H. (Bud) Baar, and challengers Joseph R. Filippo, Michael McLean and Orlando Conti. Kitty Oppenheimer will be the moderator.

Questions may be telephoned to the station for the broadcast. The program will be repeated Sunday at 12:30 p.m. via tape recording.

Doherty Drive Bids Are Due

Bids for construction of Doherty Drive extension will be opened by the Larkspur City Council tonight at 8 o'clock.

Councilmen will be presented with the annual report of City Manager Ronald E. Piper and final plans for the Greenbrae fire house will be submitted by Fire Chief George Bartram.

Civic Center Contract Suit Being Mulled

Management officials of the civic center prime contractor are conferring with their attorneys as to whether they should sue Marin County for their $14,047 damage claim arising from the one-week work stoppage in January.

"We represent a large number of subcontractors as well as ourselves," said Robert Rothschild, senior partner in Rothschild, Raffin and Weirick of San Francisco. "The claim, we feel, was very small—actually nominal.

"No reply has come to us as yet but in view of the advice to the board of supervisors from county counsel, we are taking it up with our lawyers as to what to do next."

Medical Unit Votes For Social Security

A poll of the Marin Medical Society has resulted in 94 votes for and 72 against social security coverage for physicians, it was announced today by Dr. Calvin Poumhof, secretary.

Apartments Plan Opposed By Alto Group

The Alto District Assn. voted unanimously last night to oppose Marin Capital Co.'s petition for rezoning 180 acres of Alto bowl and Hillside to permit apartments.

Forty persons attended the meeting in the Alto firehouse, with Meadowsweet and Enchanted Knolls among them as well as Alto residents.

Sidney L. Chapin, president of the association, said the vote will be presented to the county planning commission which is to hear the rezoning request Monday. A letter will also be sent to the board of supervisors advising it of the community's stand.

Architect Rolland B. Hammond presented proposals of Mill Valley developer George C. Goheen of Marin Capital Co., the rezoning applicant.

Franklin McClain of Alto claimed rezoning "would be more or less a blank check to the developer to come up with nearly any kind of multiple development." Other objectors said they did not want apartment houses in the neighborhood and apartments would cause traffic problems at Edna Maguire and Alto schools.

The Mill Valley Planning Commission, which also took up the matter last night, agreed to write a letter to the county planning commission and to the Mill Valley City Council saying it is concerned about the traffic problem which would be caused.

The type of development would double the number of family units over the usual single family residential zoning, opponents claimed.

Planners Due Fishy Eye Next Week

May a fish roll its eye on a sign atop the new Sabella's restaurant on Richardson Bay?

This will be the problem confronting the Marin County Planning Commission Monday.

A public hearing is scheduled on an application for an adjustment to permit a sign on the roof of the new building which would include a neon fish with a rolling eye.

In the language of the planning staff, "such revolving action is not permitted by ordinance."

The site of the now under construction building, is just south of the present Sabella's restaurant. The matter is 19th on the planning commission's agenda for a session beginning at 9 a. m.

The commission also will hold the first of two public hearings Monday on the Joaquin Ranch master plan. This plan covers the property just east of San Rafael, bounded by Sims Street on the north, the state highway from San Rafael to the Richmond Bridge on the east, and the old county road on the west and south. A second public hearing will be held April 3.

Another public hearing is scheduled Monday on the application of Joseph E. Richards for an adjustment to permit the establishment of a home light boat and motor repair shop on the north side of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard between Inverness Park and Point Reyes Station.

Unions Turns Down Changes In Bylaws

Members of Painters Local 83 have rejected proposed changes in the bylaws by a vote of 21 against and 11 for, according to George Scott, secretary to the local.

A special meeting was called to vote on the changes, Scott said. The proposed changes would have altered the procedure of electing business agents and delegates to the pension and welfare plans.

The English word "Easter" derives from an old Norse word meaning "the season of new birth."

Burners Of Books Called Negligent

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A legislator charges today "gross negligence" on the part of two state agencies was responsible for the burning of textbooks and the payment of $350,000 a year too much to school book publishers.

Assemblyman Jesse M. Unruh, chairman of the ways and means committee, announced his investigating group will resume its hearings tonight by calling to the stand officials from the Department of Education and the state printing plant.

Unruh recessed the hearing last week because he said he felt there was "reasonable grounds to believe something more than simple negligence" was involved in the textbook scandal.

At that time, Unruh said the hearings would be postponed indefinitely because there was a question as to whether if any state officials were called before the committee to testify publicly they automatically might win immunity from prosecution.

But the ways and means chairman said today investigators had checked into several officials in the two departments and found no grounds for filing criminal charges.

"I said last week I was dubious that mere negligence was involved," Unruh said. "But after a quick investigation which might not have revealed everything, we have concluded there is no evidence to indicate anything but the grossest of negligence."

Loan Rate Cut May Aid Vets

SACRAMENTO (AP) — State officials said today the reduction in interest rates by the Federal Home Loan Bank of San Francisco could also mean lower rates for veterans who borrow from the state.

A spokesman for the Department of Veterans Affairs said the rate cut could mean lower interest rates on a forthcoming sale of 140 million dollars in state bonds for the Cal-Vet farm and home loan program.

The federal bank announced yesterday that it was cutting its rate from 4½ to 3¾ per cent in a move to spur home building and help the home-buying, mortgage-borrowing public in 11 western states.

THE GOVERNOR

Appointed Leo E. Sievert, Santa Fe Railway vice president, and John Eagan, California Pacific Title Insurance Co. executive vice president, to the Governor's Business Advisory Council.

THE SENATE

Bills introduced:

Retarded — Extends provision permitting special education for certain severely retarded minors beyond 1962 termination date, Short (D-Stockton).

Liquor—Requires protest hearings on issuance of liquor licenses to be held in city rather than county where license to be issued, if city has population above 100,000, Richards (D-Los Angeles).

Goods—Permits public officer or agency to lease or hire foreign-made equipment if no domestic bidder can be found, Burns (D-Fresno).

Pay—Makes public utility commisioners salaries, now $19,950 yearly, the same as district courts of appeal judges, now $24,000, Short.

THE ASSEMBLY

Unanimously agreed to publish in journal request that Assemblyman Louis Francis (R-San Mateo) retract charges of subversion at California colleges.

Bills approved by committee:

Discrimination — Prohibits discrimination in awarding state licenses, Burton (D-San Francisco); extends ban on discrimination against civil service worker to include color, religion, ancestry and national origin, Burton.

Vacations—Would give state employees Friday off when contract holiday falls on Saturday, Brown (D-Monterey Park).

Wildlife — Provides two million to three million dollars annually in tideland oil revenue to set up recreation facilities and fish and wildlife enhancement in connection with state water projects, Davis (D-Portola).

On Aircraft Carrier

Marine Pfc. Timothy L. Hine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd K. Hine of San Quentin, is serving aboard the aircraft carrier Midway operating with the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

Liquor License Bill Amended

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Sen. Hugh M. Burns (D-Fresno) has agreed to amend Gov. Edmund G. Brown's liquor license bill today to provide that the number of licenses in any county can be increased by only 5 per cent a year, rather than 10 per cent.

The maximum in any case would be 25 a year in any county.

When the bill came up for debate yesterday, Burns ran into unexpectedly strong opposition from some senators who had received protests from present holders of liquor package store licenses.

If no bill is passed, most counties could get no new package store licenses.

$8 Million Given For School Rooms

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The State Allocations Board yesterday released 8.1 million dollars in state school building aid funds for immediate construction of 214 new classrooms to house 6,900 pupils.

The board also approved 46 projects which eventually will get 13.1 million dollars in state aid. Preliminary planning for these projects of 393 classrooms to house 12,500 can now proceed.

The board also allocated 1.8 million dollars to 16 districts for purchase of future building sites.

The United Nations moved into its current 39-story Secretariat Building on New York's East Side in the spring of 1951.

Solon Asked To Document Red Charges

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Assemblyman Louis Francis was invited today to appear before the Senate Committee on Un-American Activities to document his charge that Humboldt State College is one of the most subversive in California.

Sen. Hugh M. Burns (D-Fresno) long-time chairman of the upper chamber committee, issued the invitation.

"Assemblyman Francis and any other member is invited to appear before the committee to present anything he thinks falls within the category of subversive activity," said Burns.

Francis said the move by Burns came "as a complete surprise" and that he would check with his sources of information before deciding whether to appear.

Francis, a San Mateo Republican, told an assembly committee last week that he had evidence of subversives in Humboldt County and "this is particularly true of its public schools." He said later that the evidence for this charge was an anonymous letter from a person who signed himself "a Eurekian patriot."

The assembly yesterday ordered printed in its journal a letter from Assemblyman Frank P. Belotti (R-Eureka) demanding that Francis make a "public retraction" of this charge.

Burns told reporters that Francis apparently had made the charge on "very inconclusive evidence" and that "an unsigned letter is not to be taken too seriously.

"In my estimation he's out to gain some publicity and taking a shotgun approach—attempting to enter a field in which he has very little first-hand knowledge."

Marin Seniors To Tour AF Base

Some 300 Marin seniors will be "GIs for a day" on May 4.

The seniors will be guests of the Hamilton Air Force Base NCO Club for lunch and an entertainment program on that day, Manny Charnow, who is arranging the event, announced today.

The Air Force will provide buses to pick up the elderly celebrants at the Marin Senior Center, 1825 Fourth Street, San Rafael, and in Larkspur, San Anselmo and Fairfax, Charnow said.

ZEnith 1-2000 IS EMERGENCY ROAD NUMBER

ZEnith 1-2000.

Remember that number if you must report a traffic emergency.

But don't use it if your call is not of an emergency nature, reminded California Highway Patrol Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden this week.

"The ZEnith 1-2000 number is reserved for reporting traffic accidents and other roadway emergencies. If you use that number for routine calls, you may block the line just when someone else is attempting to call in an emergency."

Crittenden said that to report an emergency, just dial the operator and ask for ZEnith 1-2000, telling her you want to report an emergency. She will connect you with the nearest highway patrol office.

Gift Enables Marin Girl Scout Move

The Marin County Girl Scout Council will move out of San Rafael's Scout Hall into new quarters at Arequipa above Fairfax, thanks to a gift from a Marin family.

Mrs. Harold F. Green, council president, announced a gift of $5,581.50 from the Steinau-Glaser Foundation, in memory of Edgar A. Steinau, will be used to equip "a permanent and attractive administration building" on the Arequipa property, which the council acquired last June.

Mrs. Neville J. Rich, the former Mrs. Steinau, and E. Allen Steinau Jr., both of Belvedere, are directors of the Steinau-Glaser Foundation.

Move of the Girl Scouts as soon as the building is readied will leave the Marin Boy Scout Council and Campfire Girls offices in Scout Hall at Second and A Streets.

Storrs H. Smith, chief executive of the Boy Scout council, said the Girl Scout move has been expected "and is the right thing." The Boy Scout council is seeking to dispose of the hall and obtain new quarters on the county civic center property. It has shared space with the Girl Scouts and Campfire Girls because the building is larger than needed by the Boy Scouts.

Mrs Green said one of the Arequipa buildings will be remodeled into executive offices and will be known as Steinau House. The Girl Scout council hopes to move during the summer she said.

For six years prior to his death in January 1957, Steinau was a member of the Girl Scouts' board of directors. He served as assistant treasurer, third vice president and a member-at-large.

Steinau House will not only house the professional and clerical staff of the Marin Girl Scouts and provide an office for volunteers.

County Employee Figure Is Given

Marin County has 4.5 county employees per 1,000 population, which is a relatively low figure, County Administrator Alan Bruce reported to the Board of Supervisors.

Bruce said the chief reason for substantially greater percentage in some other comparable counties was that some had bigger and busier county hospitals.

He submitted several pages of charts showing the number of employees in six counties—Santa Clara, for instance, has 10 supervisors to Marin's five.

Bruce said the number of county employees per 1,000 runs: Marin, 4.5; Sonoma, 7.1; Solano, 4.3; Alameda, 5.7; Contra Costa, 6.4; Santa Clara, 4.4; San Mateo, 4.6.

Planners Due Fishy Eye Next Week

May a fish roll its eye on a sign atop the new Sabella's restaurant on Richardson Bay?

This will be the problem confronting the Marin County Planning Commission Monday.

A public hearing is scheduled on an application for an adjustment to permit a sign on the roof of the new building which would include a neon fish with a rolling eye.

In the language of the planning staff, "such revolving action is not permitted by ordinance."

The site of the now under construction building, is just south of the present Sabella's restaurant. The matter is 19th on the planning commission's agenda for a session beginning at 9 a. m.

The commission also will hold the first of two public hearings Monday on the Joaquin Ranch master plan. This plan covers the property just east of San Rafael, bounded by Sims Street on the north, the state highway from San Rafael to the Richmond Bridge on the east, and the old county road on the west and south. A second public hearing will be held April 3.

Another public hearing is scheduled Monday on the application of Joseph E. Richards for an adjustment to permit the establishment of a home light boat and motor repair shop on the north side of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard between Inverness Park and Point Reyes Station.

Unions Turns Down Changes In Bylaws

Members of Painters Local 83 have rejected proposed changes in the bylaws by a vote of 21 against and 11 for, according to George Scott, secretary to the local.

A special meeting was called to vote on the changes, Scott said. The proposed changes would have altered the procedure of electing business agents and delegates to the pension and welfare plans.

The English word "Easter" derives from an old Norse word meaning "the season of new birth."

ZEnith 1-2000 IS EMERGENCY ROAD NUMBER

ZEnith 1-2000.

Remember that number if you must report a traffic emergency.

But don't use it if your call is not of an emergency nature, reminded California Highway Patrol Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden this week.

"The ZEnith 1-2000 number is reserved for reporting traffic accidents and other roadway emergencies. If you use that number for routine calls, you may block the line just when someone else is attempting to call in an emergency."

Crittenden said that to report an emergency, just dial the operator and ask for ZEnith 1-2000, telling her you want to report an emergency. She will connect you with the nearest highway patrol office.

Gift Enables Marin Girl Scout Move

The Marin County Girl Scout Council will move out of San Rafael's Scout Hall into new quarters at Arequipa above Fairfax, thanks to a gift from a Marin family.

Mrs. Harold F. Green, council president, announced a gift of $5,581.50 from the Steinau-Glaser Foundation, in memory of Edgar A. Steinau, will be used to equip "a permanent and attractive administration building" on the Arequipa property, which the council acquired last June.

Mrs. Neville J. Rich, the former Mrs. Steinau, and E. Allen Steinau Jr., both of Belvedere, are directors of the Steinau-Glaser Foundation.

Move of the Girl Scouts as soon as the building is readied will leave the Marin Boy Scout Council and Campfire Girls offices in Scout Hall at Second and A Streets.

Storrs H. Smith, chief executive of the Boy Scout council, said the Girl Scout move has been expected "and is the right thing." The Boy Scout council is seeking to dispose of the hall and obtain new quarters on the county civic center property. It has shared space with the Girl Scouts and Campfire Girls because the building is larger than needed by the Boy Scouts.

Mrs Green said one of the Arequipa buildings will be remodeled into executive offices and will be known as Steinau House. The Girl Scout council hopes to move during the summer she said.

For six years prior to his death in January 1957, Steinau was a member of the Girl Scouts' board of directors. He served as assistant treasurer, third vice president and a member-at-large.

Steinau House will not only house the professional and clerical staff of the Marin Girl Scouts and provide an office for volunteers.

County Employee Figure Is Given

Marin County has 4.5 county employees per 1,000 population, which is a relatively low figure, County Administrator Alan Bruce reported to the Board of Supervisors.

Bruce said the chief reason for substantially greater percentage in some other comparable counties was that some had bigger and busier county hospitals.

He submitted several pages of charts showing the number of employees in six counties—Santa Clara, for instance, has 10 supervisors to Marin's five.

Bruce said the number of county employees per 1,000 runs: Marin, 4.5; Sonoma, 7.1; Solano, 4.3; Alameda, 5.7; Contra Costa, 6.4; Santa Clara, 4.4; San Mateo, 4.6.

Herman Hein To Address The Sparks

Herman Hein, noted landscape architect, will be the speaker at the next monthly luncheon of the Sparks, women's auxiliary to the Southern Marin Recreation Center.

The luncheon will be held on Wednesday, March 22 at the Center and will start at 12:30, according to Mrs. Lloyd Stark, auxiliary president.

Hein has designed many of the gardens in the Belvedere-Tiburon area. Because of the terrain which varies from the rocky slopes above Tiburon to the flat areas around the Belvedere Lagoon, many different types of gardening problems exist. Hein will discuss these gardening problems and show pictures of his work in both Belvedere and Tiburon.

Mesdames Jim James and Ralph Dewey will be hostesses for the event. Reservations, which close Monday, March 20, may be made by calling either Mrs. Kent Beardsley or Mrs. John Hoffmire, both of Tiburon.

Local Dancers Pay Visits To Groups In Area

Local folk dancers have been very busy recently visiting other groups ouside Marin County.

Recently, a group of about 10 couples, representing all the local clubs, attended a dance at the Downer Junior High School in Richmond sponsored by the Greater East Bay Folk Dance Council. This dance was a benefit for the American Cancer Society in memory of four of their past members. Over $350 was collected.

The Hardly Ables were invited to attend a party of the Vallejo Folk Dancers Friday night at the Vallejo Community Center. One of their members, Bill D'Alvy of Mill Valley, was invited to call squares.

On Sunday a large group from the Hardly Ables and the Southern Marin Folk Dancers attended the annual folk dance festival and pageant in conjunction with the Camellia Fantasy held in Sacramento in the Civic Auditorium. Local dancers invited to call squares were Mrs. John Mooney of San Anselmo, Mickey McGowan of Belveron Gardens and Bill D'Alvy of Mill Valley.

PBX Club Of Marin Hears Conclave Report

The PBX Club of Marin held its regular meeting at the Mission Inn on Thursday. Alice Shepley, president, discussed the state convention which is to be held on June 24 of this year in San Francisco, at the Sir Francis Drake Hotel.

Audrey Reid, honorary member and PBX adviser with the telephone company, answered switchboard problems. The highlight of the evening was after the club's adjournment, the members and friends of Betty Jo Dixon gave her a surprise baby shower. Thirty-eight attended the meeting and shower.

The next meeting will be held Thursday, April 6 at Buon Gusto's, Fairfax. The guest speaker will be a physician in Marin County who will show a film on cancer. Guest PBX operators are invited to make dinner reservations by calling Alice Shepley.

Salvage Shop Plans Auction

This year the Village Salvage Shop in Tiburon will celebrate its birthday on Friday, April 7, with an auction of several interesting items which have been donated to the shop.

Among the items to be auctioned at the shop at 11 a.m. are an Empire sofa, a ribbon knit dress, old school desk, dolls and books. Also to be auctioned is an antiqued metal valance, donated by decorator Hy Cook, and a small Italian espresso maker.

Easter hats and dresses are currently on display at the shop and the week prior to Easter, toys and baskets will be featured.

The Shop is a community project sponsored by five organizations, the Westminster Presbyterian Church, St. Hilary's Guild, St. Stephen's Guild, the Southern Marin Recreation Center and the Reed District Parent-Teacher Club.

Taffy Rust Married At Ross Church Rite

First to kiss the bride after the wedding of Katharine Rust and James Donery on Saturday afternoon at St. John's Church in Ross was the officiating clergyman. He was the Rev. Robert Adams, of Lockwood, Calif., son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Adams of San Rafael, and a cousin of the bride.

The bride, who is known as Taffy, was given in marriage by her father, George Warren Rust of San Rafael. For the vow exchange she wore a floor length gown of white peau de soie with a jacket of the same material. Her short veil was held by a cluster of pearls and leaves. She carried a shower bouquet of white azaleas, iris, hyacinths, rununculi and sweetpeas.

Preceding the bride down the aisle were Patricia Gidley of Ross, maid of honor, Donna Mickleson, Susan Kane and Linda Frater, all of Kentfield, bridesmailds. Their gowns were periwinkle blue chiffon over satin and the spring flowers in their bouquets shaded from yellow to orange.

The bridegroom's cousin, Richard Hilty of Spokane, Wash., was best man and guests were escorted to their pews for the 4 o'clock ceremony by the bride's brother, George W. Rust Jr. and two young Seattle men, Kenneth Olson and Joseph Dilworth. Fruit blossoms and flowers the same color as those in the bridesmaids' bouquets, clivia lilies, rununculi, tulips and daffodils decorated the church.

The wedding reception took place at the Kent Woodlands home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Clark Rust. Among the out of town guests were the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Leslie Donery, his brother, Timothy Donery and his cousin, Miss Joan Davis of Spokane, the bride's mother's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel T. Clark Jr. of Santa Barbara, and their children, Deborah and M. T. Clark III, and other cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Olson Clark of Pasadena.

When the newlyweds left on a honeymoon trip north the bride was wearing a pastel blue wool suit with beige accessories. The couple will live in Seattle where the bridegroom is a student at the University of Washington. The bride is a graduate of Redwood High School and attended University of Puget Sound in Tacoma.

Unique Costumes Seen At Club's Shipwreck Dance

Members and guests of the Mill Valley Tennis Club sitting on the floor around a palm tree enjoyed a unique chicken dinner without using utensils at Saturday night's "Shipwreck Island" dinner-dance.

Decorations simulating an island included nets, palm leaves, shells and driftwood.

Chairman William J. Hislop presented a bottle of champagne to the John Lauries for their costumes as black-haired tondoleo and her scar-faced sailor. Second prize was awarded to Eugene Crawford who portrayed a ship's tattoed captain, and his lovely wife caught abandoning ship in towels and shower cap. Honorable mention went to Mrs. George Pritzker as a dark skinned island girl in a padded muu muu.

John Richardson wore a clever gunnysack vest, while his wife was charming in an authentic Balinese skirt and shell necklace. Mrs. Warren Hodgdon was an attractive castaway in her torn black lace dress.

Spied dancing in beautiful muu muus of vivid colors were Mesdames J. K. Bloom, Aubrey Harwood, Sylvia McCready and Richard Clarke, whose husband felt secure carrying his life preserver over his shoulder. Sam Busschaert and Ervin Hille in their tattered clothes enjoyed the company of lovely saronged island girls, their wives.

The Robert Ryans, though ghosts "Lost at Sea," seemed to be very much alive. Other castaways seen dancing to the modern native music were Messrs. and Mesdames George Neuwald, Walter Derr Jr., Donald Leaf, Jerry Young, Philip Seymour, Robert Seymour, J. F. Murphy and James Reeve and Dr. and Mrs. William Ryder.

Services To Herald Jubilee Celebration

Friday evening services will herald the beginning of the Camp Fire Golden Jubilee Birthday Celebration.

Rabbi Morton Hoffman of the Congregational Rodef Sholom, San Rafael, will recognize the Camp Fire Girls at the regular children's service. A display of work done by the girls has been arranged by Janice Goldbaum who recently earned her Torchbearer Rank in Religious Growth under Rabbi Hoffman, and Judy Rude will light and bless the Sabboth candles. Rabbi Hoffman's sermon, "The Responsibilities of Youth" will envelop the ideals of Camp Fire and the church.

On Sunday, churches all over Marin County will recognize the Camp Fire Girls, the Blue Birds and the Horizon Club members who will be sitting in the congregation dressed in their bright costumes. The girls will be rededicating themselves to the tenets expressed in the Law of the Camp Fire Girls: "Worship God, Seek Beauty, Give Service, Pursue Knowledge, Be Trustworthy, Hold Onto Health, Glorify Work and Be Happy." Most of the churches in the county will have group leaders as hostesses for the service, with whom the girls will sit.

Mrs. Hulme Kinkade, hostess for the Sleepy Hollow Presbyterian Church service, has announced that all girls and leaders will be seated in a reserved section and will be recognized by Rev. John Bruce. The girls will sing, as a group, three hymns taken from their Camp Fire Song Book.

Taffy Rust Married At Ross Church Rite

First to kiss the bride after the wedding of Katharine Rust and James Donery on Saturday afternoon at St. John's Church in Ross was the officiating clergyman. He was the Rev. Robert Adams, of Lockwood, Calif., son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Adams of San Rafael, and a cousin of the bride.

The bride, who is known as Taffy, was given in marriage by her father, George Warren Rust of San Rafael. For the vow exchange she wore a floor length gown of white peau de soie with a jacket of the same material. Her short veil was held by a cluster of pearls and leaves. She carried a shower bouquet of white azaleas, iris, hyacinths, rununculi and sweetpeas.

Preceding the bride down the aisle were Patricia Gidley of Ross, maid of honor, Donna Mickleson, Susan Kane and Linda Frater, all of Kentfield, bridesmailds. Their gowns were periwinkle blue chiffon over satin and the spring flowers in their bouquets shaded from yellow to orange.

The bridegroom's cousin, Richard Hilty of Spokane, Wash., was best man and guests were escorted to their pews for the 4 o'clock ceremony by the bride's brother, George W. Rust Jr. and two young Seattle men, Kenneth Olson and Joseph Dilworth. Fruit blossoms and flowers the same color as those in the bridesmaids' bouquets, clivia lilies, rununculi, tulips and daffodils decorated the church.

The wedding reception took place at the Kent Woodlands home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Clark Rust. Among the out of town guests were the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Leslie Donery, his brother, Timothy Donery and his cousin, Miss Joan Davis of Spokane, the bride's mother's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel T. Clark Jr. of Santa Barbara, and their children, Deborah and M. T. Clark III, and other cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Olson Clark of Pasadena.

When the newlyweds left on a honeymoon trip north the bride was wearing a pastel blue wool suit with beige accessories. The couple will live in Seattle where the bridegroom is a student at the University of Washington. The bride is a graduate of Redwood High School and attended University of Puget Sound in Tacoma.

Unique Costumes Seen At Club's Shipwreck Dance

Members and guests of the Mill Valley Tennis Club sitting on the floor around a palm tree enjoyed a unique chicken dinner without using utensils at Saturday night's "Shipwreck Island" dinner-dance.

Decorations simulating an island included nets, palm leaves, shells and driftwood.

Chairman William J. Hislop presented a bottle of champagne to the John Lauries for their costumes as black-haired tondoleo and her scar-faced sailor. Second prize was awarded to Eugene Crawford who portrayed a ship's tattoed captain, and his lovely wife caught abandoning ship in towels and shower cap. Honorable mention went to Mrs. George Pritzker as a dark skinned island girl in a padded muu muu.

John Richardson wore a clever gunnysack vest, while his wife was charming in an authentic Balinese skirt and shell necklace. Mrs. Warren Hodgdon was an attractive castaway in her torn black lace dress.

Spied dancing in beautiful muu muus of vivid colors were Mesdames J. K. Bloom, Aubrey Harwood, Sylvia McCready and Richard Clarke, whose husband felt secure carrying his life preserver over his shoulder. Sam Busschaert and Ervin Hille in their tattered clothes enjoyed the company of lovely saronged island girls, their wives.

The Robert Ryans, though ghosts "Lost at Sea," seemed to be very much alive. Other castaways seen dancing to the modern native music were Messrs. and Mesdames George Neuwald, Walter Derr Jr., Donald Leaf, Jerry Young, Philip Seymour, Robert Seymour, J. F. Murphy and James Reeve and Dr. and Mrs. William Ryder.

1127 FOURTH SAN RAFAEL

MRS. JAMES D. ADAMS, vice president of the Marin County Girl Scout Council and chairman of the selections committee, congratulates Maureen O'Connell, member of Wing Scout Troop 44, on her selection to attend the first Girl Scout All-States camp conference this summer. The conference, to be held at Camp Ross Trails, near Cincinnati, Ohio, will offer Senior Scouts the opportunity to evaluate outdoor careers, ranging from directing camps to working as geologists. (Independent-Journal photo.)

Maureen O'Connell Will Attend Scout All-States Camp Meeting

Maureen O'Connell, 17, of 55 Main Drive, San Rafael, has been selected to participate in the first Girl Scout All-states camp conference to explore outdoor vocations.

It will be held in Ross, Ohio, from Aug. 16 to 29. The announcement was made by Mrs. James D. Adams, vice president of the Marin County Girl Scout Council, and chairman of the selections committee.

Miss O'Connell, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. O'Connell, is an 11th grade student at Dominican Upper School. She has been active in Girl Scouting for nine years, and is a member of Wing Scout Troop 44 in Santa Venetia.

She is one of 100 Senior Girl Scouts from the 50 states, Puerto Rico and the Canal Zone, who will attend the two-week conference. The girls, who are expected to continue in Scouting for at least two more years, are all between the ages of 15 and 19 years.

The purpose of the conference is to offer Senior Scouts the opportunity to evaluate outdoor careers which make use of the knowledge and skills they have learned through the diversified Girl Scout program and its activities. These careers range from directing camps and supervising recreation to working as geologists and soil scientists.

The conference program consists of an introduction to career opportunities in the out-of-doors, as well as study and field work in three main areas of exploration. These are recreation, camping and the earth sciences.

The University of Cincinnati is cooperating in this Girl Scout project which will take place at Camp Ross Trails, about 25 miles northwest of Cincinnati, Ohio. Miss Mary Wolverton, assistant professor in the Department of Physical and Health Education at the university, has been assigned to the project and will be responsible for obtaining consultants and specialists in the vocational areas under study.

Fifteen Girl Scout adult staff members will also attend the All-states conference. Girl and adult participants will camp out throughout the conference. The conference site, Camp Ross Trails, is owned by the Greater Cincinnati Girl Scout Council, Inc., and includes 304 acres of hills, valleys, woodland and a 10-acre lake.

Shamrock Theme For Lodge Meet

A St. Patrick's theme was used in decorations for the recent meeting of Blythedale Rebekah Lodge No. 305 of Mill Valley held in the Odd Fellows Temple.

Green paper shamrocks with white pipes were placed in front of officers' stations. Two shamrocks were on the stage fence, and two were placed on the wall by the stairs to the balcony.

Dining tables were adorned with green crepe paper streamers, shamrock napkins and vases of oxalis.

After the business meeting conducted by noble grand Mrs. Walter Meyer a short program consisted of two Irish songs sung by members and an Irish poem read by Mrs. Clifford Spinney.

Mrs. John Robertson, district deputy president of District 61 was escorted to the rostrum by conductor Mrs. Aubrey Williams.

During the business meeting Mrs. Richard Bennett, district chairman of United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth, reported on her work, and Mrs. Frank Gamble reported on the recent meeting of the district board bank committee.

Cake topped with green icing was served by Mrs. James Anderson, chairman of the committee, assisted by Mesdames Herbert Maxey and Susie Slape.

Paul Hughes, noble grand of Mt. Tamalpais Independent Order of Odd Fellows No. 399, was the distinguished guest of the evening.

Reception Planned To Form Guild

Arrangements for an evening reception for the purpose of forming a new Sunny Hills Guild were discussed recently at the Greenbrae home of Mrs. Eugene Hiller.

At the planning session, committee members Mesdames Arnold Mayer, Richard Degan, M. W. Milot, Edward Littman, D. M. Sullivan, and Dale Norton addressed invitations for the March 23 reception at Greenbrae School.

An expressed interest in the Sunny Hills Home by many new Marinites who have established residence in the area since the formation of the original Greenbrae Oaks Guild has prompted the need for an additional guild.

Members of the Board of Directors of Sunny Hills, will be on hand to welcome guests and provide information about Sunny Hills and its need for support. Addressing the group will be Perry Hall, executive director of Sunny Hills, E. T. Hermann, chairman of the board, Mrs. E. T. Lindner, vice president in charge of voluntary services, and Mrs. Walter Zwieg, chairman of the annual Grape Festival at which all guilds assist in contributing to operation costs of the home.

The planning committee will serve as reception hostesses, and RSVPs are being taken by Mesdames Edward Littman and Richard Degan.

Hardly Able Club Has Potluck Dinner

Members of the Hardly Able Folk Dance Club met Saturday for a potluck dinner at the San Rafael home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Foehr. Former Marinites who also attended were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McDonald of Stockton and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Trantham of Vacaville.

James Smith, president of the club, called a business meeting at which plans were made for outdoor decorations for the California Folk Dance Federation Festival in Marin in July.

Mrs. Alfred Everson was named chairman of a committee to act as April hosts for the Marin Dance Council beginners' folk dance class. James Greer is instructor of the class, which meets at Bel Aire school in Tiburon every Monday night.

Gay City Fashion Parade To Salute '61 Easter Seals

Easter and Easter Seals go together like milady and her new spring bonnet!

This favorite springtime foursome will be the center of fashionable attention at the bustling San Francisco corner of Kearny and Sutter on Thursday night, March 23 at 6:30 and Friday, March 24 at 12:30. The most exciting spring fashions from leading American designers will be delightfully "Sealed In Easter Style" to win the stamp of approval from the whole family.

The giant gold framed windows of the Argonaut Savings and Loan Association will wear a beautiful spring look and form the backdrop for the two spring promenades, each a fashionable salute to the 1961 Easter Seals as they benefit crippled children and adults.

On Thursday night, promptly at 6:30 p.m., March 23, the Arthur Murray dancers will introduce the Easter parade and the look for spring of a select Post Street store.

Town and country suits, the important "little" dress, spring's gay ensembles and late day looks have been chosen to show that the spring scene is many colors, many shapes, many moods, each sure to please the masculine eye.

Irresistible dresses for young ladies up to six and eight will be modeled by young daughters who join their mothers on the runway. Represented in the family groups will be Marin, the East Bay, San Francisco and the peninsula.

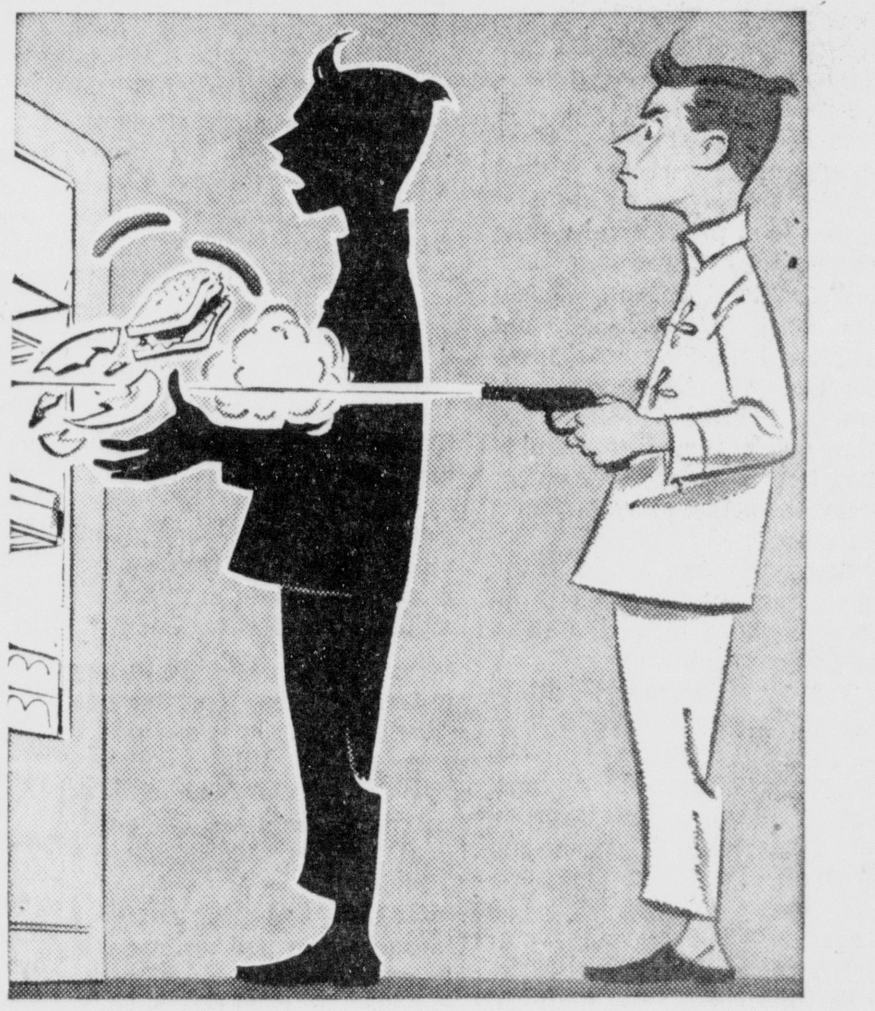
The beautiful spring bride ready for a formal wedding with her maid of honor and flower girl will be the eye-catching finale.

The "Grant Avenue Look" of a popular San Francisco store promenades at 12:30 on Friday, March 24 in the big windows of the Argonaut at Kearny and Sutter to catch the eye of the career girl, the homemaker and the husband dashing to lunch. Enhancing the spring fashions will be luscious millinery and smart accessories. A radiant spring bride ready for her informal wedding will climax the noonday show.

Everyone is invited to enjoy the fashionable salute to 1961 Easter Seals! For the benefit of those on the outside looking in, outside speakers will be installed to pick up the commentary of coordinator Marion Bellamy, as she greets the street scene from an Argonaut window with the fashion mascot, Billy Clark, San Francisco theme boy for the Easter Seals.

How to
OUTWIT YOUR APPETITE

Try The Profile Bread Method Of "Planned Nibbling" To Help Avoid Overeating At The Table And Going On Wild Calorie Binges Between Meals



If you want to avoid overeating at meals, or avoid going on hog-wild calorie binges between meals—then the "Profile Bread Method" to outwit your appetite may prove most helpful.

Because the Profile Bread Method depends upon "planned nibbling"—a dietetic approach to the problem of overeating.

"PLANNED NIBBLING"

Remember what your mother used to say: "Don't eat it now, it will spoil your dinner."

Many dieticians recognize the same principle in "planned nibbling." Which means eating about 150 calories of any carbohydrate-protein food about 30 minutes before a meal. Or, when tempted, between meals. The carbohydrate acts fast; the protein keeps working longer.

Try a tablespoonful of sugar in a half glass of skim milk. Or a couple of slices of Profile Bread. Or a slice of Profile with jam on it. Anything light that spoils your appetite and keeps you from overeating at the table or between meals.

PROFILE BREAD

Profile Bread contains about 40% more complete protein than many white breads. It's flecked with tiny bits of cracked wheat and the flavor is fine—plain or toasted.

In addition, Profile Bread is fortified with calcium, phosphorus, iron and Vitamins B_1, B_2 and niacin, and has about 65 calories per slice. For "planned nibbling" you may find Profile Bread ideal.

Get a loaf of Profile Bread fresh at your favorite grocer's today. And try the Profile Bread Method of "planned nibbling" to outwit your appetite. You may be very glad you did.

Services To Herald Jubilee Celebration

Friday evening services will herald the beginning of the Camp Fire Golden Jubilee Birthday Celebration.

Rabbi Morton Hoffman of the Congregational Rodef Sholom, San Rafael, will recognize the Camp Fire Girls at the regular children's service. A display of work done by the girls has been arranged by Janice Goldbaum who recently earned her Torchbearer Rank in Religious Growth under Rabbi Hoffman, and Judy Rude will light and bless the Sabboth candles. Rabbi Hoffman's sermon, "The Responsibilities of Youth" will envelop the ideals of Camp Fire and the church.

On Sunday, churches all over Marin County will recognize the Camp Fire Girls, the Blue Birds and the Horizon Club members who will be sitting in the congregation dressed in their bright costumes. The girls will be rededicating themselves to the tenets expressed in the Law of the Camp Fire Girls: "Worship God, Seek Beauty, Give Service, Pursue Knowledge, Be Trustworthy, Hold Onto Health, Glorify Work and Be Happy." Most of the churches in the county will have group leaders as hostesses for the service, with whom the girls will sit.

Mrs. Hulme Kinkade, hostess for the Sleepy Hollow Presbyterian Church service, has announced that all girls and leaders will be seated in a reserved section and will be recognized by Rev. John Bruce. The girls will sing, as a group, three hymns taken from their Camp Fire Song Book.

Darrow Addresses To Legal Secretaries

Guest speaker at the recent monthly dinner meeting of the Marin County Legal Secretaries Association held at La Petite Auberge in San Rafael, was Roger Darrow, president of Marin Title Guaranty Company, who spoke to the membership on title insurance.

The origin of titles in California based on a treaty the federal government entered into with Mexico, up to the present day title search and issuance of policies of title insurance, were discussed by Mr. Darrow, followed by an audience participation question and answer period.

The meeting opened with the initiation to membership of Mrs. Wanda Shaffer, legal secretary employed in the office of the State Inheritance Tax Appraiser in San Rafael. The business meeting which followed was presided over by Elsie M. Caminiti, who spoke briefly on her recent trip to the third quarterly meeting of the Board of Governors of Legal Secretaries, Inc., held at Laguna Beach under the auspices of the Orange County Legal Secretaries Association. Flans were discussed for the rummage sale to be held the end of March, and members were urged to leave articles with Mrs. Jacqueline Wrischnik, chairman of this event.

President Caminita announced that the Contra Costa Legal Secretaries Association will hold a champagne luncheon and annual fashion show on March 18 at the Terrace Room of the Lake Merrit Hotel in Oakland, for the benefit of the Guide Dogs for the Blind in San Rafael. Planning to attend from Marin County are president Caminita, past president Jan Steuer, and vice president June Tanforan.

Novato's Upsilon Gamma Elects Officers, Plans Dinner

She traced the impact of slang on American English as well as comparing American and British English. Mrs. McDaniel gave an informative talk punctuated with pictures on the "History of Clothing" from early man to 1961.

The business portion of the meeting included several announcements. Mrs. Jacobsen, chapter president, announced that Mrs. Phillip Coady would be given the Ritual of Jewels membership ceremony early, on March 20, because she will be accompanying her husband, Maj. Coady to Tyndall Air Force Base, Fla. while he attends school.

Final plans for the chapter's annual progressive dinner were also made. Hosts for the various courses will be Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Bowman, cocktails; Whitney, salad; Arnold, main course; McDaniel, dessert, and the evening will be completed with swimming at the home of the Harry Claussings.

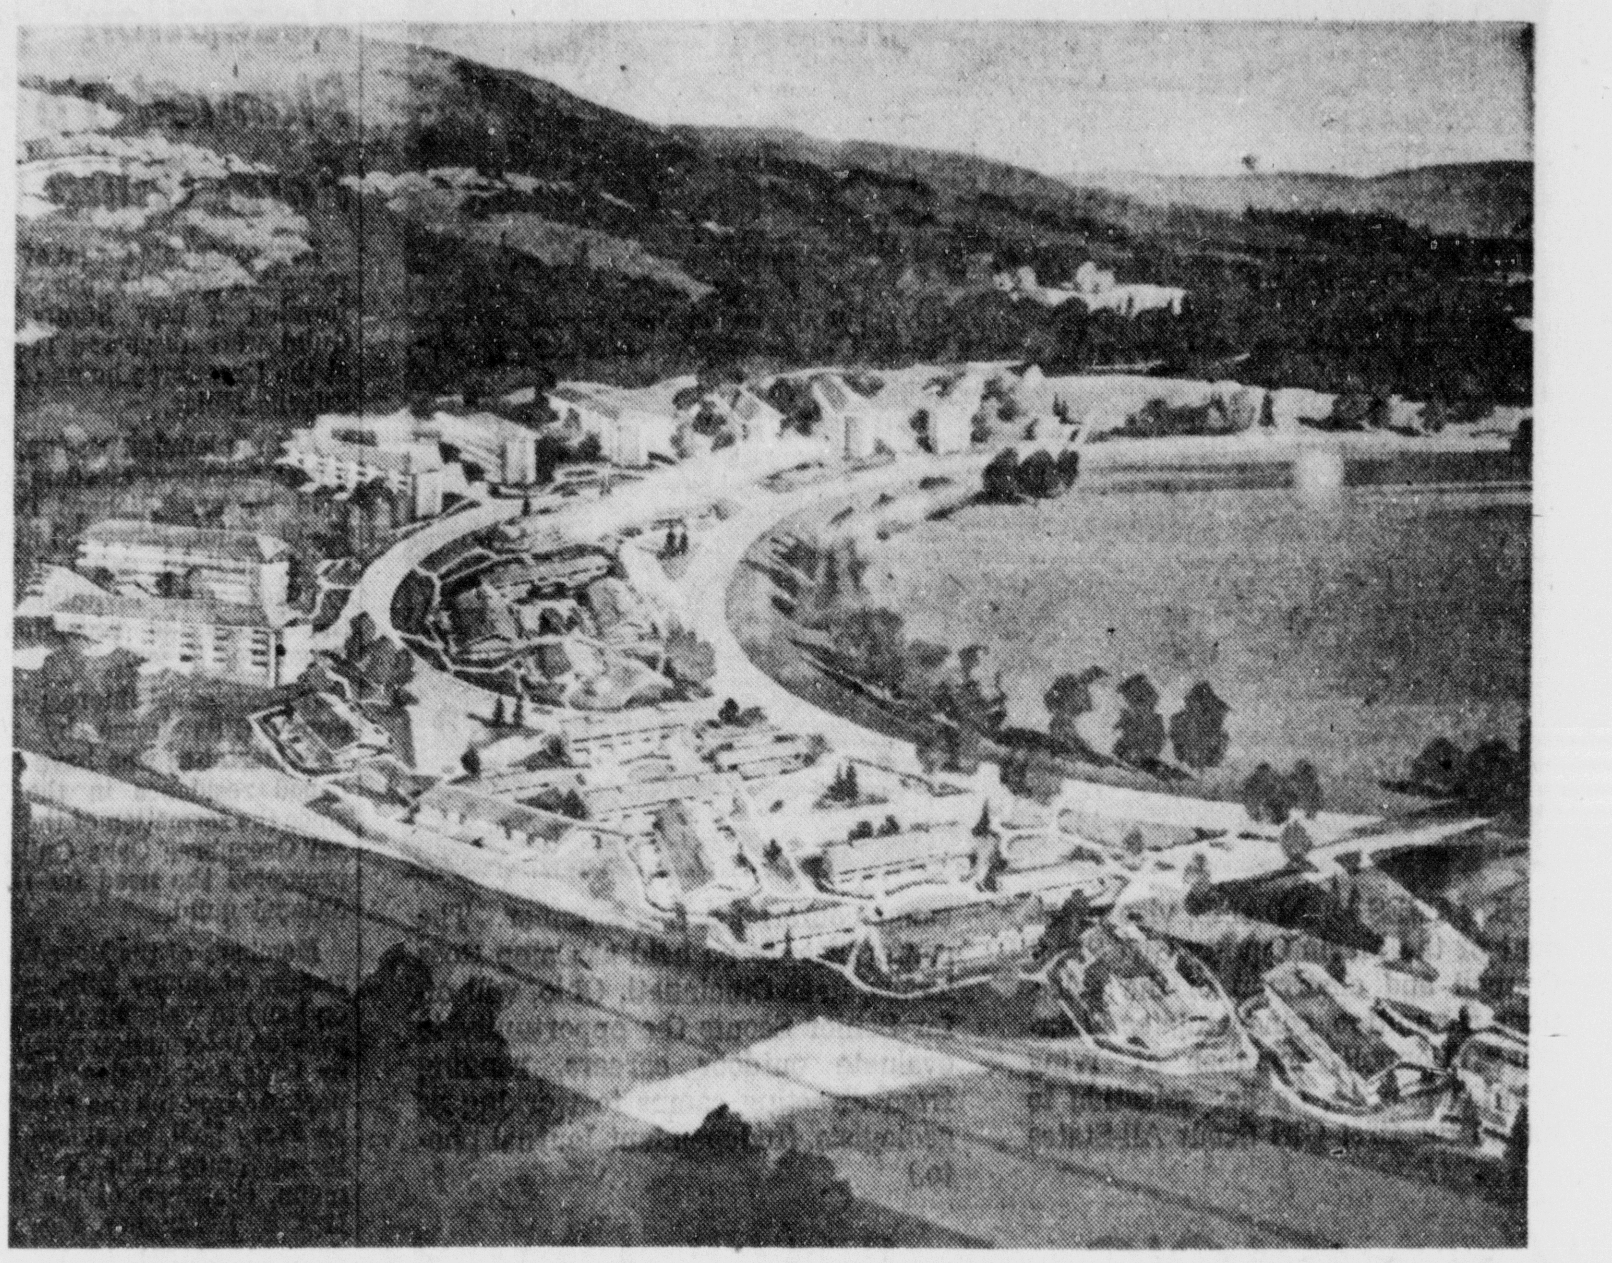
CIVIC CENTER OF FUTURE — This model produced by the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation shows the Marin Civic Center as it is intended to be on completion. Former County Administrator D. A. Jensen used this in his presentation in All-America Cities Award competition which won a top award for Marin County.



REDEVELOPED MARIN CITY — This shows the lower portion of Marin City as it is intended to look when redevelopment is completed. Preservation of natural beauty in this area, too, contributed to Marin County's winning an All-America Cities award.

Administrator Put County Over As All-America City

Donald A. Jensen's last job as Marin County administrator was to give a presentation in Phoenix, Ariz., that won this county an All-America Cities Award in the 12th year of the contest.

Jensen's resignation reached the Marin County Board of Supervisors the same morning that his pitch was being put between 9:15 and 9:25 a.m. of last Nov. 15.

He was pretty sure Marin was "in," as already it was one of 22 finalists from whom would be chosen 11 winners. But he went off to his new job as executive officer for the State Motor Vehicle Pollution Control Board without knowing for certain.

One thing Jensen seems never to have quite licked, although he thought he had, was that matter of calling the contest an "all-city" event.

Publicity matter put out from New York referred to "communities rather than "cities" across the nation, and Jensen took to referring to the "All-America Cities and Counties" contest because Marin was currently included and counties had been both finalists and winners in previous contests. But his successor, Alan Bruce, regretfully admits that this anomaly does not seem to bother anybody but Marinites.

Ranged against Marin in the finals were the following 21 opponents which happened all to be cities, as follows:

Tucson, Ariz.; Arkansas City, Ark.; Long Beach and San Jose; St. Petersburg Beach, Fla.; Decator and Skokie, Ill.; Abilene, Kan.; Baltimore, Md.; Worcester, Mass.; Grand Rapids and Traverse City, Mich.; Bloomington, Minn.; Clayton, Mo.; Las Vegas, N.M.; Mooresville, N.C.; Salem, Ore.; East Providence, R.I.; Galveston, Tex.; Radford, Va., and Richland, Wash.

Cities and the one county — Marin — announced as finalists were invited to "present an account of their achievements before the All-America Cities Jury at the National Conference on Government" in Phoenix Nov. 14 and 15, and Jensen was told he would be allowed to speak his piece the second morning.

The presentation was before a jury, foreman of which was Dr. George H. Gallop, director of the American Institute of Public Opinion.

Advance announcement said that contestants "ranging in size from big-city Baltimore to small-town Arkansas City with less than 1,000 population" would be judge according to outstanding action taken by their citizens to solve major community problems. Winners were not to be announced for weeks because Look magazine as a sponsor wanted to get up material for all-out treatment.

There had been 103 entries before selection of the finalists by a screening committee of experts on governmental and community affairs. The committee included Bayard H. Faulkner, former mayor of Montclair, N.J., and chairman of the New Jersey Commission on Municipal Government, serving as chairman; George H. Deming, director, Conference on Metropolitan Area Problems; Councilman Betty L. Knox, Hartford, Conn., and former president of the Hartford League of Women Voters; Miss Genne Lowe, author and specialist on urban renewal, and Allan H. Seed Jr., executive vice president of Keep America Beautiful.

The National Municipal League, co-sponsor of the awards competition, is a 64-year-old nonpartisan citizens organization founded by Theodore Roosevelt, Louis D. Brandeis and others to raise the standards of local government.

Among its past presidents are the late Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes; Charles Edison, former Secretary of the Navy and former Governor of New Jersey; Harold W. Dodds, former president of Princeton University, and Dr. Gallup.

Jensen had to fight a number of battles even to make the presentation. He wanted to back it with Marin's civic center model which had gone off to Milan, Italy, for display at request of and at expense of the federal government.

Uncle Sam consented to pay air freight to get the model to Phoenix after the close of an exposition in Milan only 10 days before the Phoenix presentation. So much so good, but it didn't get Jensen himself to Phoenix.

For that, including not only transportation but various other expenses connected with the presentation, $500 was needed. Jensen was lucky to be asking this before the end of the year and with support of a generally friendly board of supervisors, including Mrs. Vera Schultz of Mill Valley, who was selected as one to receive special commendation.

She was linked with Mrs. Norman B. Livermore who was called "one leader of citizens groups who has been the prime mover in almost all projects for more than 30 years." And she was due to leave the board soon.

One vote in opposition was registered, by Supervisor William D. Fusselman who is now chairman of the economy-minded "new board."

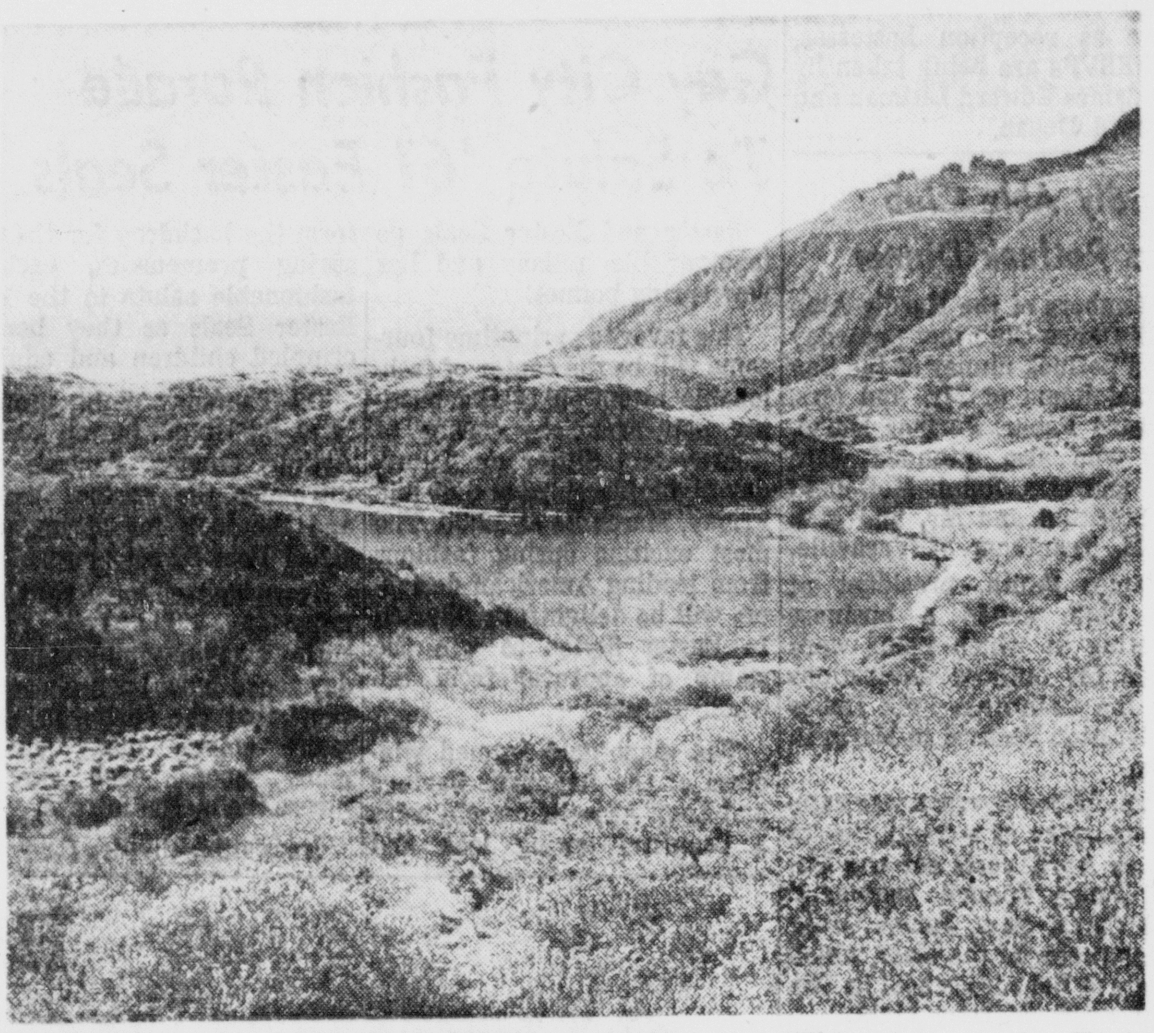
But Fusselman was listed with the other four supervisors of that period in Jensen's basic presentation which put Marin into the finals.

Generally speaking, officials have taken a back seat in this contest as was pointed out by William Collins, president of the National Municipal League. In announcing the finalists Collins said that the awards uniquely stress citizen action.

"The rules of the contest are intentionally flexible as far as the exact nature of the civic improvements is concerned," Collins said. "No community has precisely the same problems or the same resources for solving them. The important thing, we feel, is how the citizens react to their problems, and how they make use of the resources they have."

Jensen bore this in mind all the way, not failing in his initial entry to mention the need to fight "organized opposition" and the resistance to this by officials and courageous private citizens alike.

The conclusion of his final presentation ran: "Because of citizen action, coming generations will reside in a planned community with beauty and recreation available and preserved."



FUTURE NATIONAL SEASHORE? —The Point Reyes Peninsula, virtually unscathed by civilization, is under consideration now by the federal government for a national seashore area. This view on the Tevis Ranch near Double Point is but one of many beautiful outlooks in the land that would be preserved for recreational use if the park were established.

Sausalito Rotary Selects Officers

Robert E. Rich has been elected president of the Sausalito Rotary Club and will take office July 1, replacing Lyle A. Meyers.

Meyers will be vice president.

Edwin F. Long was re-elected secretary for his 12th term and Gordon Osborne was elected treasurer. Directors are George F. Carney, Stanley Cowen and Carl W. Gabrielson.

Look Magazine Article Will Describe County

Marin County will be described with photographs and text in the April 11 issue of Look magazine, which will be on the newsstands March 28.

It will be portrayed in its role of one of 11 national winners of All-America City Awards in the 12th such contests to be conducted by the National Municipal League and Look.

A major reason why announcement of the winners was delayed four months after the time of the final contest in Phoenix, Ariz., last Nov. 14-15 was that Look as co-sponsor needed time for writer-photographer teams to visit the winners and prepare material for the big announcement story.

Marin, the only county winner this year, provided a special problem for George B. Leonard Jr., who is in charge of Look's San Francisco office.

Leonard and a photographer spent two days in assembling far more photos and facts than they expected the bosses in the home office to use.

It's understood that there will be probably two Marin pictures in the magazine, chosen to afford contrasting sides of the county.

One was taken at the tip of the Point Reyes Peninsula, where the federal government may create a national seashore. The scene was enlivened by presence of eight coeds from College of Marin in bathing suits.

Another picture is of reconstruction in Marin City. Instead of bathing beauties the scenery will be adorned by Bert Klahn, executive director of the Marin County Housing Authority.

Leonard based his text, he said, on the theme of "beauty versus the march of progress" as a Marin angle on the general contest idea of stressing the value of citizen effort.

His personal reaction to this short intensive study of Marin?

"I live on Russian Hill in San Francisco," says Leonard, "but I begin to think I belong in Marin County."

FROM OLD TO NEW MARIN CITY

Redevelopment Of A Slum Area Helped Marin Win City Contest

"Marin County is the only county in the United States to have redeveloped a slum area," the All-America City contest jury was told in an illustrated pamphlet handed out by Donald A. Jensen before the then Marin County administrator started his presentation in the "finals" last November at Phoenix.

This point relating to redevelopment under way in Marin City is considered one of the impressive reasons why the county of Marin won national distinction as one of 11 winners with all other winners cities rather than of county organization.

Illustrating Jensen's statement was a photograph taking in both the old and the new in Marin City, with new modern buildings standing against a hillside.

Jensen stressed, just above, that Marin County government is to be "housed in a civic center which blends into the beauty of the county." This in turn was illustrated by an architect's sketch of the administration building now under construction in the Santa Venetia area.

Frank Lloyd Wright design of the planned ensemble was noted in the pamphlet.

Dealing with the general nature of this county, the pamphlet said:

"Marin County is located on the northern end of the Golden Gate Bridge directly across the bay from San Francisco.

"It is blessed with tremendous natural resources such as bay frontage, seashore, mountains, forests, lakes, trees, and wildlife, which have remained relatively untouched by pressures of subdivisions until recent years.

"In the last 20 years the population of Marin County has tripled and large subdividers have tried to cut up the countryside to convert it into an area devoted to mass housing.

"Of necessity this would mean filling in great sections of the bay, leveling the hills, cutting down the trees, and eliminating the inherent natural beauty of the county."

But against this grim picture Jensen set the point that "many civic groups, led primarily by women, have organized to control subdivisions and to preserve the beauties of Marin County."

As a result, he said, parks have been created, taking in a good proportion of the county and preserving it for public recreation. These include Mount Tamalpais, Samuel Taylor, Tomales Bay, Angel Island and Stinson Beach State Parks, with the following county parks:

Drake's Beach, McClure's Beach, Paradise Beach County Parks, Miller Park on Tomales Bay, Muir Beach Overlook, and the Black Point Launching Ramp.

Moreover, "a bay has been preserved through cooperative efforts of city, county, and private organization (700-acre national Audubon Society wildlife refuge).

"Muir Woods National Monument was donated to the federal government in 1908, and a great effort is now being made to obtain congressional action to create a national seashore on the Point Reyes Peninsula (57,000 acres). Another separate effort is being made to preserve the Golden Gate headlands as a state park (now owned by the military)."

This has been accomplished, said the pamphlet, "in the face of great opposition" with the Marin County Taxpayers Assn. fighting every project as a waste of public money and a device to keep public land off the tax rolls.

"Petitions and letters by the thousands," the text continued, "have come from citizens protesting 'the dreamers' who have led county government down this road towards preservation of beauty."

The pamphlet added that "some 25 organized groups have countered this opposition" and went on:

"They have done this through appearances at public hearings, newspaper ads, preparation of slide flims, door-to-door canvassing in two elections, raising of private subscriptions, and negotiating purchase or gifts of property. Approximately 3,500 people have been involved."

In a final punch the pamphlet cited official predictions indicating that Marin County population will grow more than five times its present level in the next 60 years.

These coming generations "because of citizen action" will live, concluded the pamphlet, where beauty and recreation will be available and preserved within a planned community.

A map of Marin County included in the pamphlet depicted in green the existing federal, state and county parks, and in cross-hatched green the proposed recreation areas including conspicuously the proposed national seashore on the Point Reyes Peninsula recently supported by President John F. Kennedy.

MARIN THIRD COUNTY TO WIN IN THE CONTEST

Marin County is the third county to win an All-America Cities award in the 12 years of the contest, although the fourth time a county has won because one county has won twice.

It is the eighth California community to win.

No counties appeared in the list of city winners in 1949 or 1950 but in 1951 a winner was "Asheville-Buncomb County, N.C." In 1952 "Miami-Dade County, Fla." was listed, to repeat in 1957.

MRS. JAMES D. ADAMS, vice president of the Marin County Girl Scout Council and chairman of the selections committee, congratulates Maureen O'Connell, member of Wing Scout Troop 44, on her selection to attend the first Girl Scout All-States camp conference this summer. The conference, to be held at Camp Ross Trails, near Cincinnati, Ohio, will offer Senior Scouts the opportunity to evaluate outdoor careers, ranging from directing camps to working as geologists. (Independent-Journal photo.)

Maureen O'Connell Will Attend Scout All-States Camp Meeting

Maureen O'Connell, 17, of 55 Main Drive, San Rafael, has been selected to participate in the first Girl Scout All-states camp conference to explore outdoor vocations.

It will be held in Ross, Ohio, from Aug. 16 to 29. The announcement was made by Mrs. James D. Adams, vice president of the Marin County Girl Scout Council, and chairman of the selections committee.

Miss O'Connell, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. O'Connell, is an 11th grade student at Dominican Upper School. She has been active in Girl Scouting for nine years, and is a member of Wing Scout Troop 44 in Santa Venetia.

She is one of 100 Senior Girl Scouts from the 50 states, Puerto Rico and the Canal Zone, who will attend the two-week conference. The girls, who are expected to continue in Scouting for at least two more years, are all between the ages of 15 and 19 years.

The purpose of the conference is to offer Senior Scouts the opportunity to evaluate outdoor careers which make use of the knowledge and skills they have learned through the diversified Girl Scout program and its activities. These careers range from directing camps and supervising recreation to working as geologists and soil scientists.

The conference program consists of an introduction to career opportunities in the out-of-doors, as well as study and field work in three main areas of exploration. These are recreation, camping and the earth sciences.

The University of Cincinnati is cooperating in this Girl Scout project which will take place at Camp Ross Trails, about 25 miles northwest of Cincinnati, Ohio; Miss Mary Wolverton, assistant professor in the Department of Physical and Health Education at the university, has been assigned to the project and will be responsible for obtaining consultants and specialists in the vocational areas under study.

Fifteen Girl Scout adult staff members will also attend the All-states conference. Girl and adult participants will camp out throughout the conference. The conference site, Camp Ross Trails, is owned by the Greater Cincinnati Girl Scout Council, Inc., and includes 304 acres of hills, valleys, woodland and a 10-acre lake.

Shamrock Theme For Lodge Meet

A St. Patrick's theme was used in decorations for the recent meeting of Blythedale Rebekah Lodge No. 305 of Mill Valley held in the Odd Fellows Temple.

Green paper shamrocks with white pipes were placed in front of officers' stations. Two shamrocks were on the stage fence, and two were placed on the wall by the stairs to the balcony.

Dining tables were adorned with green crepe paper streamers, shamrock napkins and vases of oxalis.

After the business meeting conducted by noble grand Mrs. Walter Meyer a short program consisted of two Irish songs sung by members and an Irish poem read by Mrs. Clifford Spinney.

Mrs. John Robertson, district deputy president of District 61 was escorted to the rostrum by conductor Mrs. Aubrey Williams.

During the business meeting Mrs. Richard Bennett, district chairman of United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth, reported on her work, and Mrs. Frank Gamble reported on the recent meeting of the district board bank committee.

Cake topped with green icing was served by Mrs. James Anderson, chairman of the committee, assisted by Mesdames Herbert Maxey and Susie Slape.

Paul Hughes, noble grand of Mt. Tamalpais Independent Order of Odd Fellows No. 399, was the distinguished guest of the evening.

Reception Planned To Form Guild

Arrangements for an evening reception for the purpose of forming a new Sunny Hills Guild were discussed recently at the Greenbrae home of Mrs. Eugene Hiller.

At the planning session, committee members Mesdames Arnold Mayer, Richard Degan, M. W. Milot, Edward Littman, D. M. Sullivan, and Dale Norton addressed invitations for the March 23 reception at Greenbrae School.

An expressed interest in the Sunny Hills Home by many new Marinites who have established residence in the area since the formation of the original Greenbrae Oaks Guild has prompted the need for an additional guild.

Members of the Board of Directors of Sunny Hills, will be on hand to welcome guests and provide information about Sunny Hills and its need for support. Addressing the group will be Perry Hall, executive director of Sunny Hills, E. T. Hermann, chairman of the board, Mrs. E. T. Lindner, vice president in charge of voluntary services, and Mrs. Walter Zwieg, chairman of the annual Grape Festival at which all guilds assist in contributing to operation costs of the home.

The planning committee will serve as reception hostesses, and RSVPs are being taken by Mesdames Edward Littman and Richard Degan.

Hardly Able Club Has Potluck Dinner

Members of the Hardly Able Folk Dance Club met Saturday for a potluck dinner at the San Rafael home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Foehr. Former Marinites who also attended were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McDonald of Stockton and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Trantham of Vacaville.

James Smith, president of the club, called a business meeting at which plans were made for outdoor decorations for the California Folk Dance Federation Festival in Marin in July.

Mrs. Alfred Everson was named chairman of a committee to act as April hosts for the Marin Dance Council beginners' folk dance class. James Greer is instructor of the class, which meets at Bel Aire school in Tiburon every Monday night.

Gay City Fashion Parade To Salute '61 Easter Seals

Easter and Easter Seals go together like milady and her new spring bonnet!

This favorite springtime foursome will be the center of fashionable attention at the bustling San Francisco corner of Kearny and Sutter on Thursday night, March 23 at 6:30 and Friday, March 24 at 12:30. The most exciting spring fashions from leading American designers will be delightfully "Sealed In Easter Style" to win the stamp of approval from the whole family.

The giant gold framed windows of the Argonaut Savings and Loan Association will wear a beautiful spring look and form the backdrop for the two spring promenades, each a fashionable salute to the 1961 Easter Seals as they benefit crippled children and adults.

On Thursday night, promptly at 6:30 p.m., March 23, the Arthur Murray dancers will introduce the Easter parade and the look for spring of a select Post Street store.

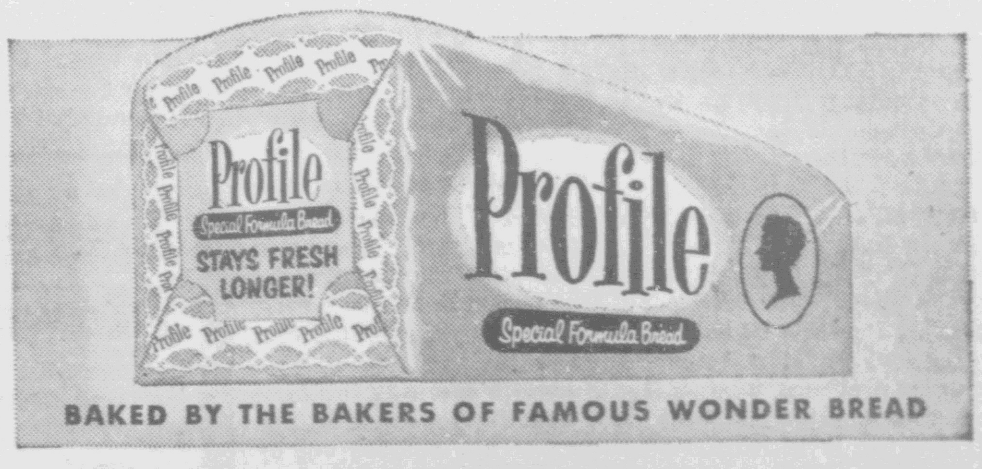
Town and country suits, the important "little" dress, spring's gay ensembles and late day looks have been chosen to show that the spring scene is many colors, many shapes, many moods, each sure to please the masculine eye.

Irresistible dresses for young ladies up to six and eight will be modeled by young daughters who join their mothers on the runway. Represented in the family groups will be Marin, the East Bay, San Francisco and the peninsula.

The beautiful spring bride ready for a formal wedding with her maid of honor and flower girl will be the eye-catching finale.

The "Grant Avenue Look" of a popular San Francisco store promenades at 12:30 on Friday, March 24 in the big windows of the Argonaut at Kearny and Sutter to catch the eye of the career girl, the homemaker and the husband dashing to lunch. Enhancing the spring fashions will be luscious millinery and smart accessories. A radiant spring bride ready for her informal wedding will climax the noonday show.

Everyone is invited to enjoy the fashionable salute to 1961 Easter Seals! For the benefit of those on the outside looking in, outside speakers will be installed to pick up the commentary of coordinator Marion Bellamy, as she greets the street scene from an Argonaut window with the fashion mascot, Billy Clark, San Francisco theme boy for the Easter Seals.



How to
OUTWIT YOUR APPETITE

Try The Profile Bread Method Of "Planned Nibbling" To Help Avoid Overeating At The Table And Going On Wild Calorie Binges Between Meals

If you want to avoid overeating at meals, or avoid going on hog-wild calorie binges between meals—then the "Profile Bread Method" to outwit your appetite may prove most helpful.

Because the Profile Bread Method depends upon "planned nibbling"—a dietetic approach to the problem of overeating.

"PLANNED NIBBLING"

Remember what your mother used to say: "Don't eat it now, it will spoil your dinner."

Many dieticians recognize the same principle in "planned nibbling." Which means eating about 150 calories of any carbohydrate-protein food about 30 minutes before a meal. Or, when tempted, between meals. The carbohydrate acts fast; the protein keeps working longer.

Try a tablespoonful of sugar in a half glass of skim milk. Or a couple of slices of Profile Bread. Or a slice of Profile with jam on it. Anything light that spoils your appetite and keeps you from overeating at the table or between meals.

PROFILE BREAD

Profile Bread contains about 40% more complete protein than many white breads. It's flecked with tiny bits of cracked wheat and the flavor is fine—plain or toasted.

In addition, Profile Bread is fortified with calcium, phosphorus, iron and Vitamins B_1, B_2 and niacin, and has about 65 calories per slice. For "planned nibbling" you may find Profile Bread ideal.

Get a loaf of Profile Bread fresh at your favorite grocer's today. And try the Profile Bread Method of "planned nibbling" to outwit your appetite. You may be very glad you did.

SKETCHES ENLIVENED CONTEST PAMPHLET

These sketches by Mrs. Marion Buhman livened up the pamphlet used by former County Administrator D. A. Jensen in his presentation in the All-America Cities contest last November in Phoenix, Ariz.

All-America Judges Saw Film Of Marin

Five minutes and 40 seconds is a mighty short time for a full tour of Marin County's wonders and beauties.

Ask Emmett E. Smith of 212 Helen's Lane, Mill Valley. He learned the hard way by making the short color movie which perhaps clinched Marin County victory in the All-America City contest.

This film went to Phoenix with Donald A. Jensen last November and became the core of his 10-minute presentation before the finalist jury.

Jensen talked while the film ran and this talk, reduced to writing later, shows the ground covered. It gives no idea, though, of the travail suffered by Smith in cutting the film "shot" during several days of hard work as a volunteer offering.

"I like to think of it as a contribution to the success of the project," says Smith, who came to Marin via Chicago in 1944 and is devoted to the county as any photography enthusiast well should be.

He's instructor of photography at San Francisco City College and has been teaching since 1947. Four about six years he gave a night class in photography at the College of Marin.

For this job he spent days of touring the county in accordance with previously prepared script, used up $200 worth of 16 millimeter film (which was the sole cost to Marin) and finally took some 20 hours for cutting and editing which included splicing in a little borrowed film including an air view from over the Golden Gate.

Part of the time he lashed his camera to the side of his car to get good in-motion material, showing among other things some of the county's most picturesquely curving or up-and-down roads.

Smith found his hardest task in compressing all his material into the compass required by the limit imposed on Jensen for presentation.

He later heard that everyone who saw the film in Phoenix was deeply impressed, and that the film was credited with almost certainly putting Marin into the win column.

Since then the picture has been shown at various places, the last time at a convention of officials in Palm Springs. Supervisors have asked if it could be expanded and the answer to that is "yes," in case Smith gets a go-ahead.

Jensen's talk gives the best idea of what is covered in the short version. He started by identifying the first section as including views of Marin County from Telegraph Hill and then from over the Golden Gate Bridge.

Next, said Jensen, "down into Marin City, formerly a slum and the entrance to the county. It's the first county redevelopment in the United States with modern design rising out of shacks. The picture shows the first phase with all shacks to be replaced with modern homes and apartments."

The narrative continues:

"Then we hit over the hills toward the ocean with a backward glance to San Francisco Bay and Angel Island which is now a state park.

"On to the Pacific Ocean and Marin County's recent acquisition of Muir Beach overlook with its inspiring view of the water and San Francisco.

"Continuing along the coast, we come to Stinson Beach and Bolinas. This was formerly a county park and is now a state park with beach recreational facilities for thousands of weary city dwellers.

"Continuing the tour we head inland for another county recreational beach at McClure's Point. Here you park your car and head down a trail to secluded beach.

"This is part of 53,000 acres known as the Point Reyes Peninsula which is now being given serious consideration by Congress for acquisition as a national seashore. The lighthouse on Point Reyes typifies this isolated area. One small portion of this acreage is owned by the county—Drake's Beach where Sir Francis Drake first landed in California.

"While in this area we tour Tomales Bay which features one state park and a county-owned launching ramp which is a haven for fishermen and skin divers. Note the sign which has the entry fee eliminated. These facilities are for all without charge. There is another boat launching ramp now under construction for a county park in another part of Marin.

"Leaving this rural area we head for the county seat and the population center of the county. In the center of this population is an Art and Garden Center, preserved as a spot of beauty for the citizens of Marin. The campus of our college is another restful spot in the populated area.

"Then we find ourselves in the traffic of the county seat in San Rafael. These are pictures of the old courthouse and the more ancient Spanish mission across the street. To replace this structure we are building our most controversial tribute to Marin's beauty — the Frank Lloyd Wright-designed civic center and fairgrounds located on 160 acres of tree-studded hills overlooking San Francisco Bay.

"Nearby is a view of a probable future county park—the Tiburon Navy Net Depot, a part of which is already purchased by the county for recreational purposes.

"Then significantly we see a subdivision, with the hills being scarred by subdividers in the background. Near this spot on the Belvedere Lagoon is the 700-acre wildlife sanctuary purchased by citizens with headquarters a donated Victorian house.

"The last stop on our tour is the world famous Muir Woods National Monument donated to the federal government by the Kent family of Marin. These redwoods are world famous but, because of citizen action, you have seen other parts of Marin which will also become famous for the unspoiled beauty which they represent one-half hour from a metropolitan center.

"This final scene should traditionally be capsuled 'as we fade into the sunset.' For our purposes it is a sunrise, however—the state of a beautiful day for future pleasure-seeking generations."

Marin Beauty Preserved Through Work

Action by an estimated 7,500 Marin County citizens working over a period of 30 years is responsible for notable achievements in preserving natural beauty of the county and in putting it to appropriate use, former County Administrator D. A. Jensen declared in the official entry which put this country into the finals of the All-America City contest last year.

Jensen's presentation was about 5,000 words in length and it said: "Each major effort to enhance and appropriately use nature's outstanding gift of physical beauty has been initiated, sponsored or partially financed by private citizens."

KENT DONATION

Jensen dated the first beginnings of citizen action to preserve Marin's natural beauty back to William Kent Sr.'s donation in 1908 of Muir Woods National Monument. He listed 10 other major milestones and then under "recent action for which entry is submitted" gave three more:

1. Government center, including the point that this will provide the first government building ever constructed by Frank Lloyd Wright.
2. Marin City redevelopment, which Jensen regards as unique in the United States.
3. Development of land for recreation use. Under this are listed purchase of 700 acres of Richardson Bay tidelands by a citizens non-profit group with development of a wild-life refuge; acquisition of parts of the Tiburon Naval Net Depot; two public boat launching facilities; Richardson Bay master plan with acquisition of state tidelands.

COURT ACTIONS

"The citizen action has in effect been a desperate rush against time," Jensen said, "to preserve open space beauty and some wilderness before complete urbanization takes over and destroys Marin's unique physical attributes."

All the citizens' projects met with "organized opposition" of one form or another, said Jensen. This included accusations of wasting taxpayers' money and threats of court actions.

Jensen recited planned future accomplishments including the prospect of a 53,000-acre federally purchased national seashore area on the Point Reyes Peninsula, as well as completion of the civic center and Marin City redevelopment, development of present recreation areas and construction of marina and yacht harbor on Richardson Bay.

He listed 27 organizations and groups in order of contribution, starting with the board of supervisors, the Marin Conservation League, the citizens advisory committee, the parks and recreation commission, the fairgrounds advisory committee and the Richardson Bay Foundation.

ACTIVE LEADERS

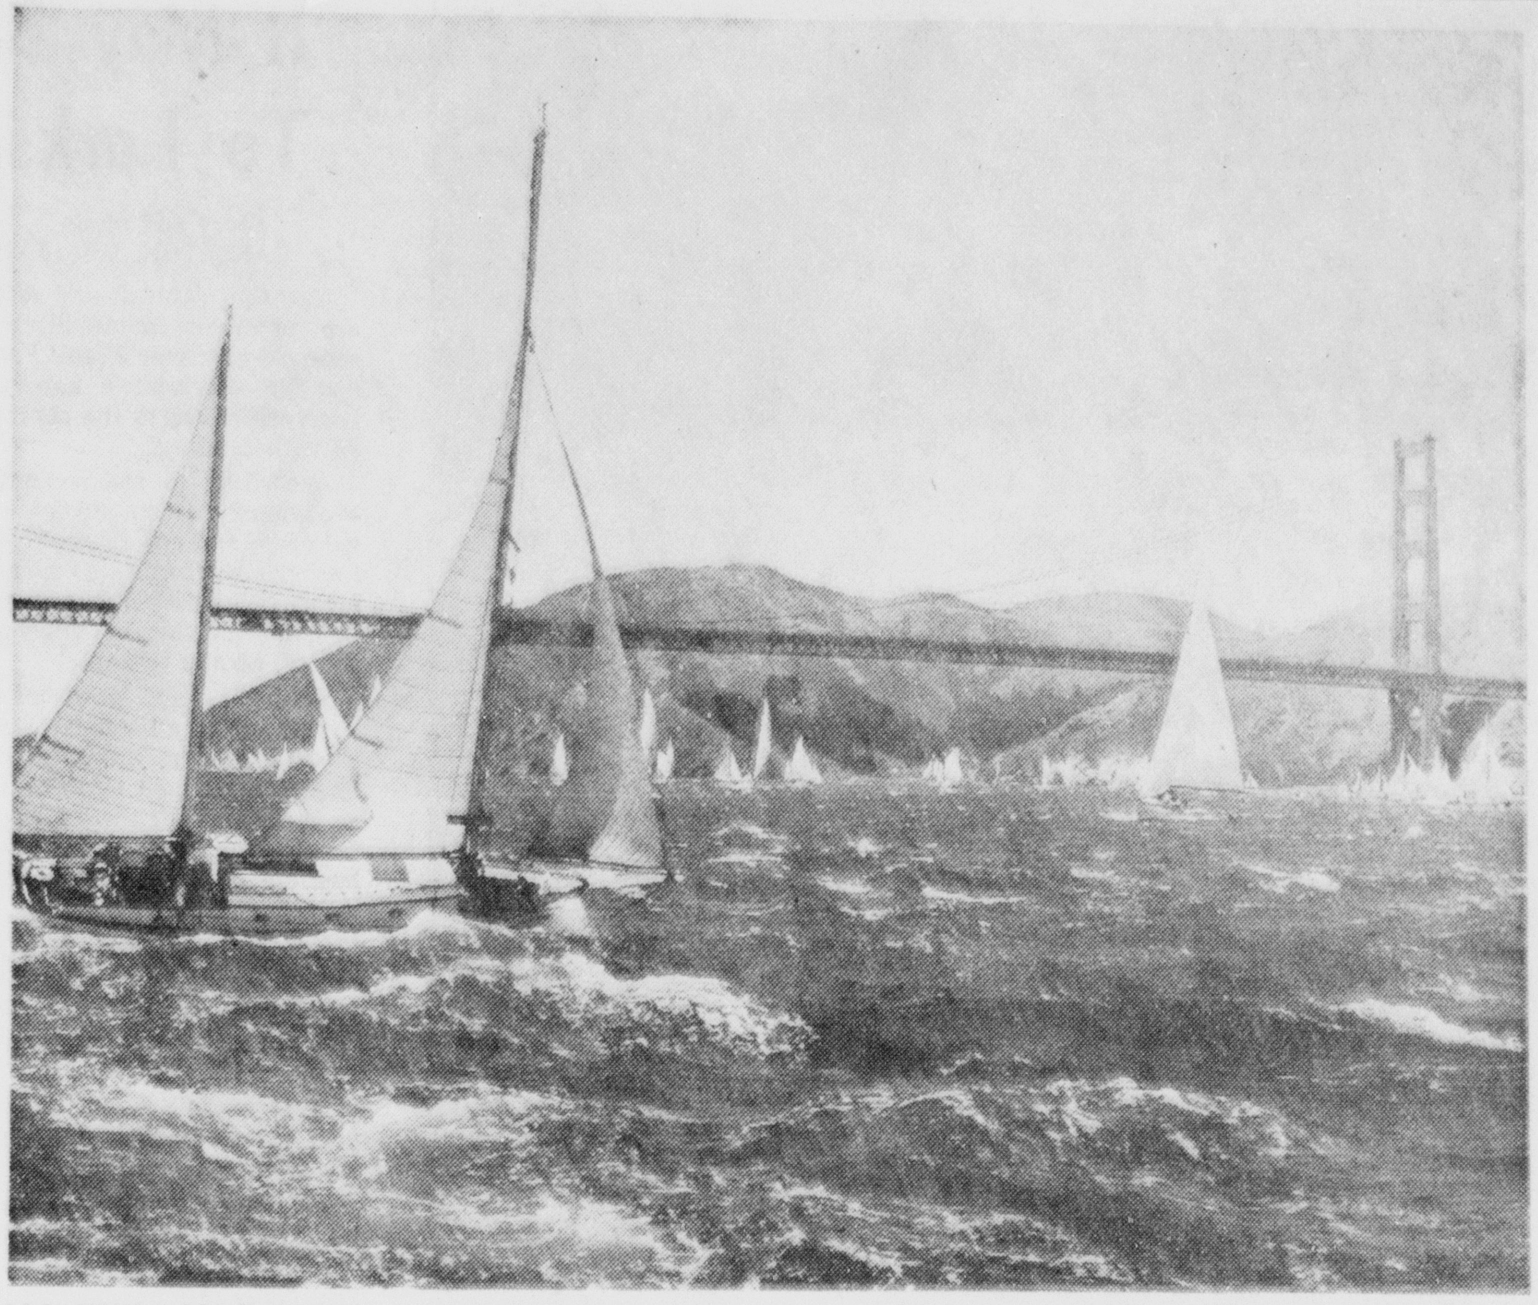
Asked to name three active leaders, Jensen listed the five supervisors followed by the following private citizens:

Mrs. Norman B. Livermore Sr., Dr. Joel F. Gustafson, Harold Stockstad, James M. Fletcher, Ernest Schallinger, Mrs. Bertram K. Dunshee and William Kent Jr.

Explaining why Marin, a county, entered in a predominately city contest, Jensen said that though Marin has 10 incorporated cities, "county government has assumed a great deal of the leadership in the cooperative growth and character of the community." He went on:

"Although there may appear to be little similarity between a redevelopment project, a civic center, and development of recreational areas, they are all part of the same goals of the citizens in the community.

"These goals are primarily to preserve for Marin County the beauty that has made it unique and to provide for orderly development in a manner that will make it a beautiful place in which to live."



ALL THE SAILS AT SEA — Opening day of the yacht season saw this activity in the Golden Gate, where Marin waters are the favorites of marine sports enthusiasts. Fishing, too, continues to be a favored sport for water-loving Marin residents in a county that has kept its recreation resources.

Kindergarten Signup Set In Dixie District

Kindergarten registration for Dixie School District for 1961-62 will be held March 22 and 23 from 9 a.m. to noon, Supt. Dennie B. Willis announced.

Children need not accompany parents for the registration. Parents should bring birth certificates or other legal proof of age. Pupils must be at least 4 years, nine months old on or before next Sept. 1 to enter kindergarten.

Pupils may be registered at Silveira, Lucas Valley, Hoffman and Santa Margarita Schools.

Registration now will let the staff know the number of teachers and rooms that will be needed. Parents who cannot come to the school should call the school office.

On Socotra, the largest island in the Arabian Sea, the penalty for murder is public strangulation.

TWO MARINITES WILL BE IN FROG CONTEST

A Marin boy and girl will participate in the Angel's Camp jumping frog jubilee May 20 and 21.

Restaurateur Lou Sabella will provide the frogs, and pay all expenses for the boy and girl and their parents.

The boy and girl will be chosen through a letter contest. Youngsters between 6 and 14 should write to Sabella's, Redwood Highway, Mill Valley, giving their ages and telling why they would like to enter a frog in the jumping frog jubilee.

A committee of judges will read the letters and select the winners. Deadline is April 20.

The contest is based on Mark Twain's story "The Jumping Frog of Calaveras County." One thousand dollars goes to the person whose frog beats the 16 foot 10 inch record set in 1954.

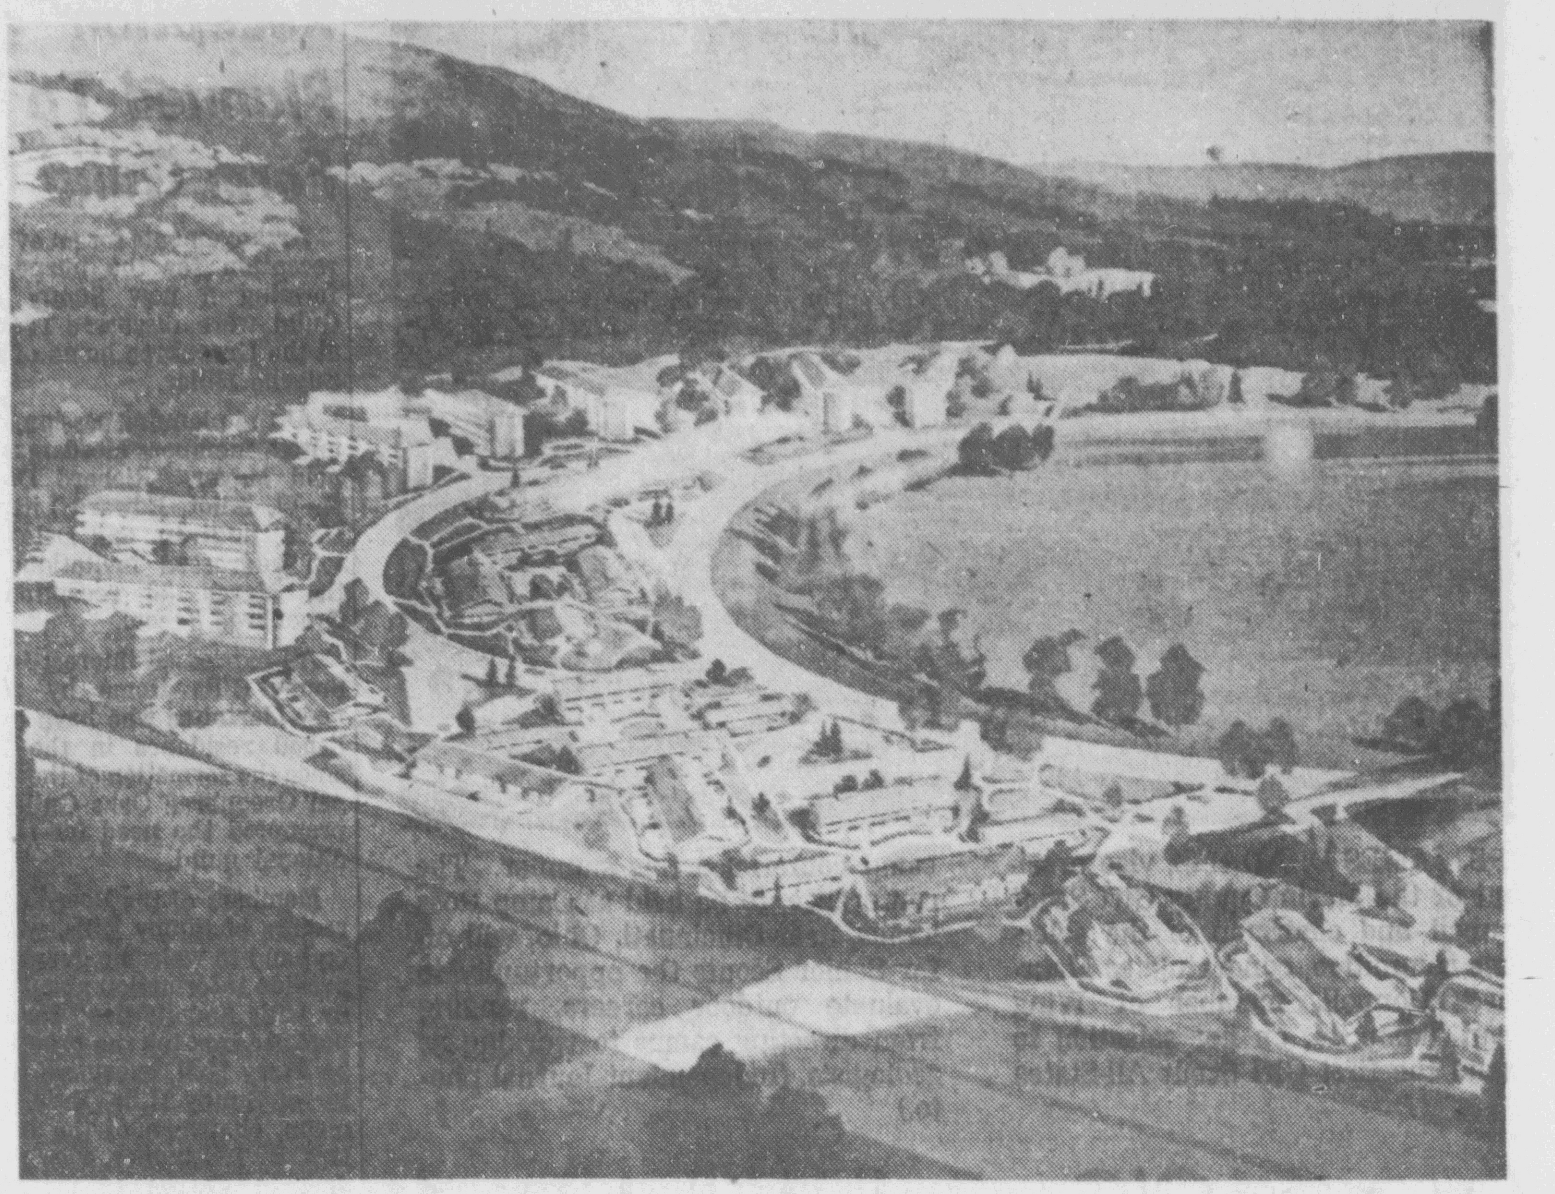
CIVIC CENTER OF FUTURE — This model produced by the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation shows the Marin Civic Center as it is intended to be on completion. Former County Administrator D. A. Jensen used this in his presentation in All-America Cities Award competition which won a top award for Marin County.



REDEVELOPED MARIN CITY — This shows the lower portion of Marin City as it is intended to look when redevelopment is completed. Preservation of natural beauty in this area, too, contributed to Marin County's winning an All-America Cities award.

Administrator Put County Over As All-America City

Donald A. Jensen's last job as Marin County administrator was to give a presentation in Phoenix, Ariz., that won this county an All-America Cities Award in the 12th year of the contest.

Jensen's resignation reached the Marin County Board of Supervisors the same morning that his pitch was being put between 9:15 and 9:25 a.m. of last Nov. 15.

He was pretty sure Marin was "in," as already it was one of 22 finalists from whom would be chosen 11 winners. But he went off to his new job as executive officer for the State Motor Vehicle Pollution Control Board without knowing for certain.

One thing Jensen seems never to have quite licked, although he thought he had, was that matter of calling the contest an "all-city" event.

Publicity matter put out from New York referred to "communities rather than "cities" across the nation, and Jensen took to referring to the "All-America Cities and Counties" contest because Marin was currently included and counties had been both finalists and winners in previous contests. But his successor, Alan Bruce, regretfully admits that this anomaly does not seem to bother anybody but Marinites.

Ranged against Marin in the finals were the following 21 opponents which happened all to be cities, as follows:

Tucson, Ariz.; Arkansas City, Ark.; Long Beach and San Jose; St. Petersburg Beach, Fla.; Decator and Skokie, Ill.; Abilene, Kan.; Baltimore, Md.; Worcester, Mass.; Grand Rapids and Traverse City, Mich.; Bloomington, Minn.; Clayton, Mo.; Las Vegas, N.M.; Mooresville, N.C.; Salem, Ore.; East Providence, R.I.; Galveston, Tex.; Radford, Va., and Richland, Wash.

Cities and the one county — Marin — announced as finalists were invited to "present an account of their achievements before the All-America Cities Jury at the National Conference on Government" in Phoenix Nov. 14 and 15, and Jensen was told he would be allowed to speak his piece the second morning.

The presentation was before a jury, foreman of which was Dr. George H. Gallop, director of the American Institute of Public Opinion.

Advance announcement said that contestants "ranging in size from big-city Baltimore to small-town Arkansas City with less than 1,000 population" would be judge according to outstanding action taken by their citizens to solve major community problems. Winners were not to be announced for weeks because Look magazine as a sponsor wanted to get up material for all-out treatment.

There had been 103 entries before selection of the finalists by a screening committee of experts on governmental and community affairs. The committee included Bayard H. Faulkner, former mayor of Montclair, N.J., and chairman of the New Jersey Commission on Municipal Government, serving as chairman; George H. Deming, director, Conference on Metropolitan Area Problems; Councilman Betty L. Knox, Hartford, Conn., and former president of the Hartford League of Women Voters; Miss Genne Lowe, author and specialist on urban renewal, and Allan H. Seed Jr., executive vice president of Keep America Beautiful.

The National Municipal League, co-sponsor of the awards competition, is a 64-year-old nonpartisan citizens organization founded by Theodore Roosevelt, Louis D. Brandeis and others to raise the standards of local government.

Among its past presidents are the late Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes; Charles Edison, former Secretary of the Navy and former Governor of New Jersey; Harold W. Dodds, former president of Princeton University, and Dr. Gallup.

Jensen had to fight a number of battles even to make the presentation. He wanted to back it with Marin's civic center model which had gone off to Milan, Italy, for display at request of and at expense of the federal government.

Uncle Sam consented to pay air freight to get the model to Phoenix after the close of an exposition in Milan only 10 days before the Phoenix presentation. So much so good, but it didn't get Jensen himself to Phoenix.

For that, including not only transportation but various other expenses connected with the presentation, $500 was needed. Jensen was lucky to be asking this before the end of the year and with support of a generally friendly board of supervisors, including Mrs. Vera Schultz of Mill Valley, who was selected as one to receive special commendation.

She was linked with Mrs. Norman B. Livermore who was called "one leader of citizens groups who has been the prime mover in almost all projects for more than 30 years." And she was due to leave the board soon.

One vote in opposition was registered, by Supervisor William D. Fusselman who is now chairman of the economy-minded "new board."

But Fusselman was listed with the other four supervisors of that period in Jensen's basic presentation which put Marin into the finals.

Generally speaking, officials have taken a back seat in this contest as was pointed out by William Collins, president of the National Municipal League. In announcing the finalists Collins said that the awards uniquely stress citizen action.

"The rules of the contest are intentionally flexible as far as the exact nature of the civic improvements is concerned," Collins said. "No community has precisely the same problems or the same resources for solving them. The important thing, we feel, is how the citizens react to their problems, and how they make use of the resources they have."

Jensen bore this in mind all the way, not failing in his initial entry to mention the need to fight "organized opposition" and the resistance to this by officials and courageous private citizens alike.

The conclusion of his final presentation ran: "Because of citizen action, coming generations will reside in a planned community with beauty and recreation available and preserved."

FUTURE NATIONAL SEASHORE? —The Point Reyes Peninsula, virtually unscathed by civilization, is under consideration now by the federal government for a national seashore area. This view on the Tevis Ranch near Double Point is but one of many beautiful outlooks in the land that would be preserved for recreational use if the park were established.

Sausalito Rotary Selects Officers

Robert E. Rich has been elected president of the Sausalito Rotary Club and will take office July 1, replacing Lyle A. Meyers.

Meyers will be vice president.

Edwin F. Long was re-elected secretary for his 12th term and Gordon Osborne was elected treasurer. Directors are George F. Carney, Stanley Cowen and Carl W. Gabrielson.

Look Magazine Article Will Describe County

Marin County will be described with photographs and text in the April 11 issue of Look magazine, which will be on the newsstands March 28.

It will be portrayed in its role of one of 11 national winners of All-America City Awards in the 12th such contests to be conducted by the National Municipal League and Look.

A major reason why announcement of the winners was delayed four months after the time of the final contest in Phoenix, Ariz., last Nov. 14-15 was that Look as co-sponsor needed time for writer-photographer teams to visit the winners and prepare material for the big announcement story.

Marin, the only county winner this year, provided a special problem for George B. Leonard Jr., who is in charge of Look's San Francisco office.

Leonard and a photographer spent two days in assembling far more photos and facts than they expected the bosses in the home office to use.

It's understood that there will be probably two Marin pictures in the magazine, chosen to afford contrasting sides of the county.

One was taken at the tip of the Point Reyes Peninsula, where the federal government may create a national seashore. The scene was enlivened by presence of eight coeds from College of Marin in bathing suits.

Another picture is of reconstruction in Marin City. Instead of bathing beauties the scenery will be adorned by Bert Klahn, executive director of the Marin County Housing Authority.

Leonard based his text, he said, on the theme of "beauty versus the march of progress" as a Marin angle on the general contest idea of stressing the value of citizen effort.

His personal reaction to this short intensive study of Marin?

"I live on Russian Hill in San Francisco," says Leonard, "but I begin to think I belong in Marin County."

FROM OLD TO NEW MARIN CITY

Redevelopment Of A Slum Area Helped Marin Win City Contest

"Marin County is the only county in the United States to have redeveloped a slum area," the All-America City contest jury was told in an illustrated pamphlet handed out by Donald A. Jensen before the then Marin County administrator started his presentation in the "finals" last November at Phoenix.

This point relating to redevelopment under way in Marin City is considered one of the impressive reasons why the county of Marin won national distinction as one of 11 winners with all other winners cities rather than of county organization.

Illustrating Jensen's statement was a photograph taking in both the old and the new in Marin City, with new modern buildings standing against a hillside.

Jensen stressed, just above, that Marin County government is to be "housed in a civic center which blends into the beauty of the county." This in turn was illustrated by an architect's sketch of the administration building now under construction in the Santa Venetia area.

Frank Lloyd Wright design of the planned ensemble was noted in the pamphlet.

Dealing with the general nature of this county, the pamphlet said:

"Marin County is located on the northern end of the Golden Gate Bridge directly across the bay from San Francisco.

"It is blessed with tremendous natural resources such as bay frontage, seashore, mountains, forests, lakes, trees, and wildlife, which have remained relatively untouched by pressures of subdivisions until recent years.

"In the last 20 years the population of Marin County has tripled and large subdividers have tried to cut up the countryside to convert it into an area devoted to mass housing.

"Of necessity this would mean filling in great sections of the bay, leveling the hills, cutting down the trees, and eliminating the inherent natural beauty of the county."

But against this grim picture Jensen set the point that "many civic groups, led primarily by women, have organized to control subdivisions and to preserve the beauties of Marin County."

As a result, he said, parks have been created, taking in a good proportion of the county and preserving it for public recreation. These include Mount Tamalpais, Samuel Taylor, Tomales Bay, Angel Island and Stinson Beach State Parks, with the following county parks:

Drake's Beach, McClure's Beach, Paradise Beach County Parks, Miller Park on Tomales Bay, Muir Beach Overlook, and the Black Point Launching Ramp.

Moreover, "a bay has been preserved through cooperative efforts of city, county, and private organization (700-acre national Audubon Society wildlife refuge).

"Muir Woods National Monument was donated to the federal government in 1908, and a great effort is now being made to obtain congressional action to create a national seashore on the Point Reyes Peninsula (57,000 acres). Another separate effort is being made to preserve the Golden Gate headlands as a state park (now owned by the military)."

This has been accomplished, said the pamphlet, "in the face of great opposition" with the Marin County Taxpayers Assn. fighting every project as a waste of public money and a device to keep public land off the tax rolls.

"Petitions and letters by the thousands," the text continued, "have come from citizens protesting 'the dreamers' who have led county government down this road towards preservation of beauty."

The pamphlet added that "some 25 organized groups have countered this opposition" and went on:

"They have done this through appearances at public hearings, newspaper ads, preparation of slide flims, door-to-door canvassing in two elections, raising of private subscriptions, and negotiating purchase or gifts of property. Approximately 3,500 people have been involved."

In a final punch the pamphlet cited official predictions indicating that Marin County population will grow more than five times its present level in the next 60 years.

These coming generations "because of citizen action" will live, concluded the pamphlet, where beauty and recreation will be available and preserved within a planned community.

A map of Marin County included in the pamphlet depicted in green the existing federal, state and county parks, and in cross-hatched green the proposed recreation areas including conspicuously the proposed national seashore on the Point Reyes Peninsula recently supported by President John F. Kennedy.

MARIN THIRD COUNTY TO WIN IN THE CONTEST

Marin County is the third county to win an All-America Cities award in the 12 years of the contest, although the fourth time a county has won because one county has won twice.

It is the eighth California community to win.

No counties appeared in the list of city winners in 1949 or 1950 but in 1951 a winner was "Asheville-Buncomb County, N.C." In 1952 "Miami-Dade County, Fla." was listed, to repeat in 1957.

GARBAGE GARDENER — Frank Gunner, 74, of 11 Piedmont Avenue, Larkspur, turns the earth in his lush garden which is built of soil he created out of garbage and waste matter. Larkspur's new garbage collection ordinance, due to go into effect early next month, would make such compost gardening illegal.

THE LAW? RUBBISH!

It May Be Garbage To You, But To Larkspur Man Its A Garden

Story and photo
By CARLETON WILLIAMS

Garbage, rubbish and refuse are precious commodities to compost-gardener Frank Frank Gunner—Larkspur's new garbage ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding.

According to the ordinance—obviously drawn up by a legal eagle and not a modern-day Luther Burbank—garbage means "The putrescible animal, fish, fowl, fruit or vegetable refuse, or any thereof."

Rubbish, the law reads, "Shall mean all garden, tree, shrub and lawn trimmings . . ." Refuse if defined more or less as garbage, with the added notation, "solid or liquid . . . combustible or non-combustible."

Furthermore, the law states, after April 4 "It shall be unlawful for any person to deposit, bury, keep or accumulate" such matter in the City of Larkspur."

It is at this point that 74-year-old Gunner and the city fathers part company.

The lush, blooming terraces in the back yard of Gunners' home at 11 Piedmont Avenue are made up of nothing but "putrescible animal. Fruit and vegetable refuse." Over a period of years, Gunner has literally created almost 2,000 cubic yards of new earth—much to the delight of his cherry, fig and apple trees, roses, berries, daffodils and succulents.

Gunner disclaims responsibility for the agricultural phase of the operation. "My wife, Tillie, is the gardener. I'm the engineer."

Gunner's backyard laboratory is no hit-or-miss affair. "I am not a free-lance scatterer of garbage," he insists. "I am attempting to develop, scientifically, a new soil area.

"I don't think I ought to be forced to subscribe to a service I don't require. I obey the litterbug laws, the health laws and the nuisance laws."

The task of creating soil is a continuous one and takes place in three distinct phases.

All bones, cans, bottles and trash are burned in an incinerator "with an intense fire, to prevent odor." Every few months, the ashes are sifted. The fine ash ("high in carbon and bone matter") is used to cover the compost pile. The coarse chunks of unburned cans and glass are placed in 18-inch deep trenches which are to become walks. ("The deep walkways make first-rate gopher barriers," says Gunner.)

Another phase of the operation is the "working" of orange, grapefruit and banana peels, celery tops and other greens left from the table. These are placed in a 50-gallon drum and covered with a solution of sulphate of ammonia which acts as the primary activator.

To this is added sawdust and earth, in equal parts, the sawdust having been treated with sewage sludge which Gunner, along with other compost gardeners, collects from the sanitary district yards.

The liquid from the drum is pumped off to water the premises. The solid matter, when it has "worked" sufficiently, is shoveled onto the compost heap along with the bone ash and trimmings from garden shrubs.

All of it eventually finds its way into the terraces he has created in the 100-foot-deep yard.

"I am willing for the councilmen to bring the health department here to prove this is a sanitary operation," Gunner said.

Gunner, who describes himself as "an inquiring sort," has also devised a system of pumps which performs almost all of the operations automatically. It has kept him busy since he retired in 1952 after 37 years with Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

"When some people retire, they go fishing," he said. "Well, you can't fish all the time. This keeps me busy and active every day.

"It seems a shame I might have to give it up after all these years."

Gunner's case—along with those of a few other of Larkspur's green-thumbers — will come before the city council at 8 o'clock tonight.

Gunner hopes the councilmen will make some sort of exception for his putrescent matter.

SKETCHES ENLIVENED CONTEST PAMPHLET

These sketches by Mrs. Marion Buhman livened up the pamphlet used by former County Administrator D. A. Jensen in his presentation in the All-America Cities contest last November in Phoenix, Ariz.

All-America Judges Saw Film Of Marin

Five minutes and 40 seconds is a mighty short time for a full tour of Marin County's wonders and beauties.

Ask Emmett E. Smith of 212 Helen's Lane, Mill Valley. He learned the hard way by making the short color movie which perhaps clinched Marin County victory in the All-America City contest.

This film went to Phoenix with Donald A. Jensen last November and became the core of his 10-minute presentation before the finalist jury.

Jensen talked while the film ran and this talk, reduced to writing later, shows the ground covered. It gives no idea, though, of the travail suffered by Smith in cutting the film "shot" during several days of hard work as a volunteer offering.

"I like to think of it as a contribution to the success of the project," says Smith, who came to Marin via Chicago in 1944 and is devoted to the county as any photography enthusiast well should be.

He's instructor of photography at San Francisco City College and has been teaching since 1947. Four about six years he gave a night class in photography at the College of Marin.

For this job he spent days of touring the county in accordance with previously prepared script, used up $200 worth of 16 millimeter film (which was the sole cost to Marin) and finally took some 20 hours for cutting and editing which included splicing in a little borrowed film including an air view from over the Golden Gate.

Part of the time he lashed his camera to the side of his car to get good in-motion material, showing among other things some of the county's most picturesquely curving or up-and-down roads.

Smith found his hardest task in compressing all his material into the compass required by the limit imposed on Jensen for presentation.

He later heard that everyone who saw the film in Phoenix was deeply impressed, and that the film was credited with almost certainly putting Marin into the win column.

Since then the picture has been shown at various places, the last time at a convention of officials in Palm Springs. Supervisors have asked if it could be expanded and the answer to that is "yes," in case Smith gets a go-ahead.

Jensen's talk gives the best idea of what is covered in the short version. He started by identifying the first section as including views of Marin County from Telegraph Hill and then from over the Golden Gate Bridge.

Next, said Jensen, "down into Marin City, formerly a slum and the entrance to the county. It's the first county redevelopment in the United States with modern design rising out of shacks. The picture shows the first phase with all shacks to be replaced with modern homes and apartments."

The narrative continues:

"Then we hit over the hills toward the ocean with a backward glance to San Francisco Bay and Angel Island which is now a state park.

"On to the Pacific Ocean and Marin County's recent acquisition of Muir Beach overlook with its inspiring view of the water and San Francisco.

"Continuing along the coast, we come to Stinson Beach and Bolinas. This was formerly a county park and is now a state park with beach recreational facilities for thousands of weary city dwellers.

"Continuing the tour we head inland for another county recreational beach at McClure's Point. Here you park your car and head down a trail to secluded beach.

"This is part of 53,000 acres known as the Point Reyes Peninsula which is now being given serious consideration by Congress for acquisition as a national seashore. The lighthouse on Point Reyes typifies this isolated area. One small portion of this acreage is owned by the county—Drake's Beach where Sir Francis Drake first landed in California.

"While in this area we tour Tomales Bay which features one state park and a county-owned launching ramp which is a haven for fishermen and skin divers. Note the sign which has the entry fee eliminated. These facilities are for all without charge. There is another boat launching ramp now under construction for a county park in another part of Marin.

"Leaving this rural area we head for the county seat and the population center of the county. In the center of this population is an Art and Garden Center, preserved as a spot of beauty for the citizens of Marin. The campus of our college is another restful spot in the populated area.

"Then we find ourselves in the traffic of the county seat in San Rafael. These are pictures of the old courthouse and the more ancient Spanish mission across the street. To replace this structure we are building our most controversial tribute to Marin's beauty — the Frank Lloyd Wright-designed civic center and fairgrounds located on 160 acres of tree-studded hills overlooking San Francisco Bay.

"Nearby is a view of a probable future county park—the Tiburon Navy Net Depot, a part of which is already purchased by the county for recreational purposes.

"Then significantly we see a subdivision, with the hills being scarred by subdividers in the background. Near this spot on the Belvedere Lagoon is the 700-acre wildlife sanctuary purchased by citizens with headquarters a donated Victorian house.

"The last stop on our tour is the world famous Muir Woods National Monument donated to the federal government by the Kent family of Marin. These redwoods are world famous but, because of citizen action, you have seen other parts of Marin which will also become famous for the unspoiled beauty which they represent one-half hour from a metropolitan center.

"This final scene should traditionally be capsuled 'as we fade into the sunset.' For our purposes it is a sunrise, however—the state of a beautiful day for future pleasure-seeking generations."

Marin Beauty Preserved Through Work

Action by an estimated 7,500 Marin County citizens working over a period of 30 years is responsible for notable achievements in preserving natural beauty of the county and in putting it to appropriate use, former County Administrator D. A. Jensen declared in the official entry which put this country into the finals of the All-America City contest last year.

Jensen's presentation was about 5,000 words in length and it said: "Each major effort to enhance and appropriately use nature's outstanding gift of physical beauty has been initiated, sponsored or partially financed by private citizens."

KENT DONATION

Jensen dated the first beginnings of citizen action to preserve Marin's natural beauty back to William Kent Sr.'s donation in 1908 of Muir Woods National Monument. He listed 10 other major milestones and then under "recent action for which entry is submitted" gave three more:

1. Government center, including the point that this will provide the first government building ever constructed by Frank Lloyd Wright.

2. Marin City redevelopment, which Jensen regards as unique in the United States.

3. Development of land for recreation use. Under this are listed purchase of 700 acres of Richardson Bay tidelands by a citizens non-profit group with development of a wild-life refuge; acquisition of parts of the Tiburon Naval Net Depot; two public boat launching facilities; Richardson Bay master plan with acquisition of state tidelands.

COURT ACTIONS

"The citizen action has in effect been a desperate rush against time," Jensen said, "to preserve open space beauty and some wilderness before complete urbanization takes over and destroys Marin's unique physical attributes."

All the citizens' projects met with "organized opposition" of one form or another, said Jensen. This included accusations of wasting taxpayers' money and threats of court actions.

Jensen recited planned future accomplishments including the prospect of a 53,000-acre federally purchased national seashore area on the Point Reyes Peninsula, as well as completion of the civic center and Marin City redevelopment, development of present recreation areas and construction of marina and yacht harbor on Richardson Bay.

He listed 27 organizations and groups in order of contribution, starting with the board of supervisors, the Marin Conservation League, the citizens advisory committee, the parks and recreation commission, the fairgrounds advisory committee and the Richardson Bay Foundation.

ACTIVE LEADERS

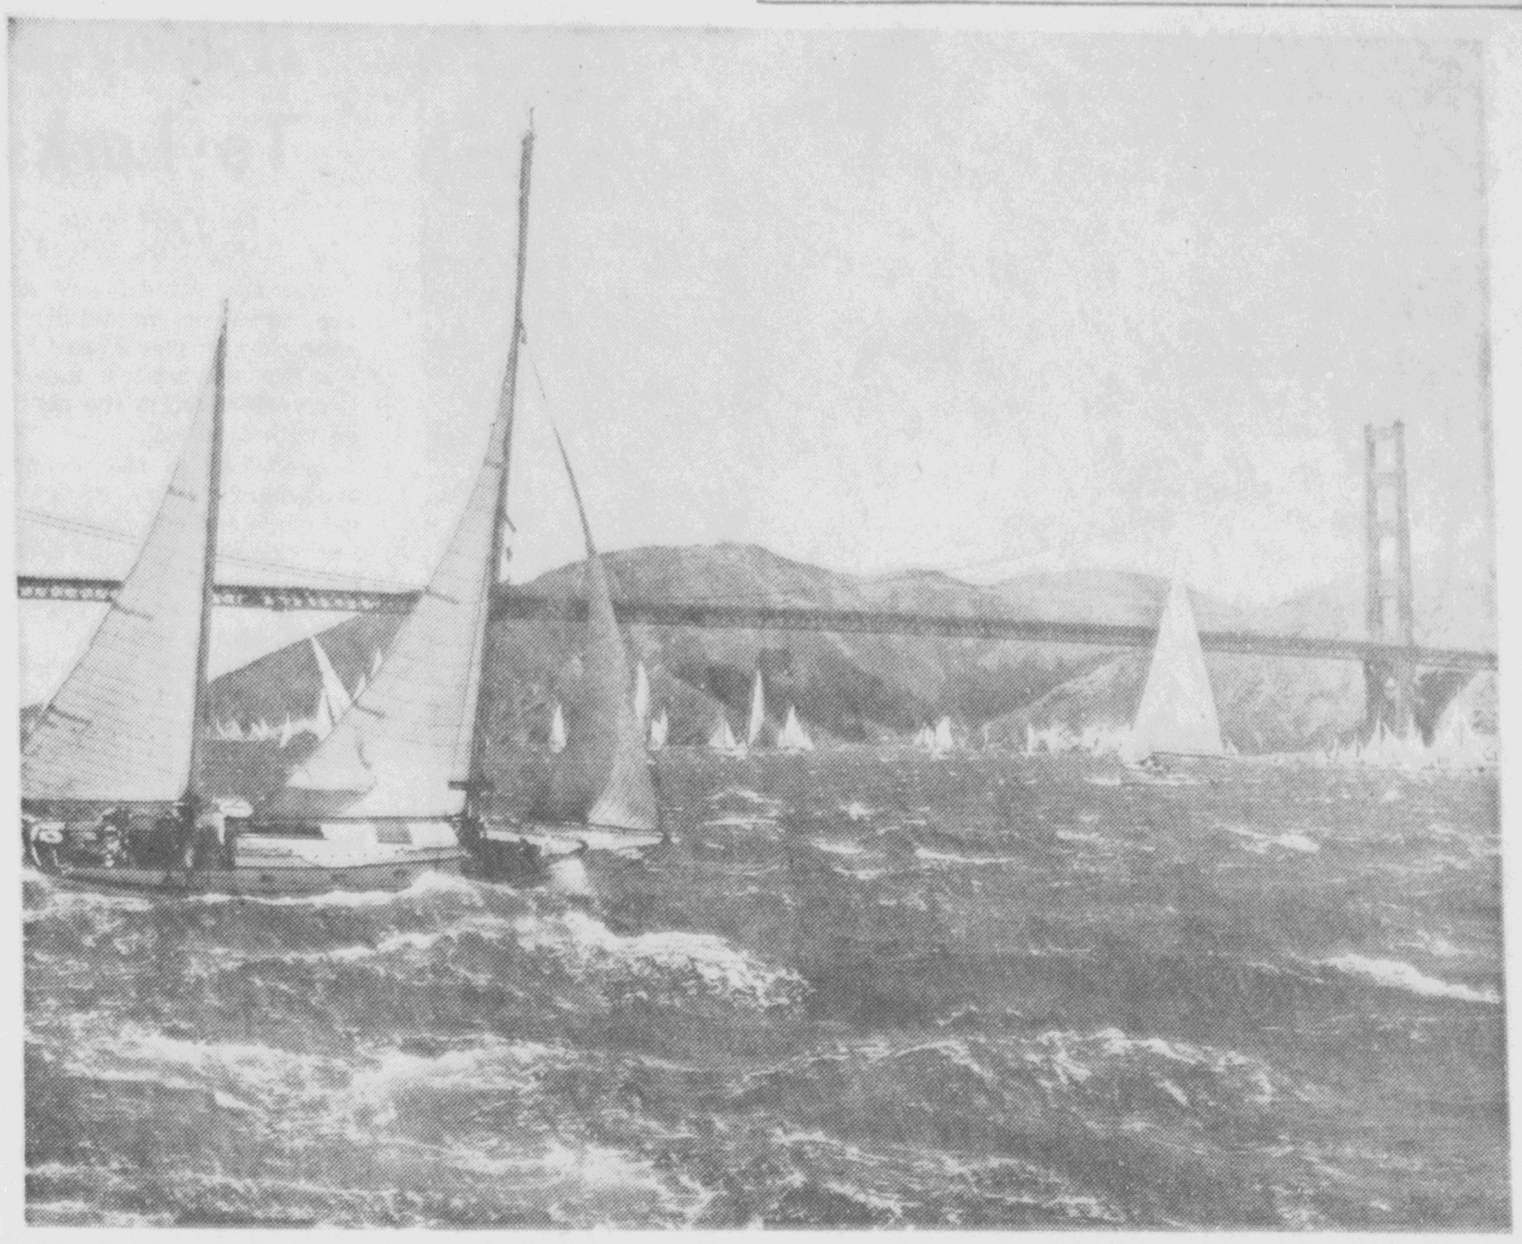
Asked to name three active leaders, Jensen listed the five supervisors followed by the following private citizens:

Mrs. Norman B. Livermore Sr., Dr. Joel F. Gustafson, Harold Stockstad, James M. Fletcher, Ernest Schallinger, Mrs. Bertram K. Dunshee and William Kent Jr.

Explaining why Marin, a county, entered in a predominately city contest, Jensen said that though Marin has 10 incorporated cities, "county government has assumed a great deal of the leadership in the cooperative growth and character of the community." He went on:

"Although there may appear to be little similarity between a redevelopment project, a civic center, and development of recreational areas, they are all part of the same goals of the citizens in the community.

"These goals are primarily to preserve for Marin County the beauty that has made it unique and to provide for orderly development in a manner that will make it a beautiful place in which to live."



ALL THE SAILS AT SEA — Opening day of the yacht season saw this activity in the Golden Gate, where Marin waters are the favorites of marine sports enthusiasts. Fishing, too, continues to be a favored sport for water-loving Marin residents in a county that has kept its recreation resources.

Kindergarten Signup Set In Dixie District

Kindergarten registration for Dixie School District for 1961-62 will be held March 22 and 23 from 9 a.m. to noon, Supt. Dennie B. Willis announced.

Children need not accompany parents for the registration. Parents should bring birth certificates or other legal proof of age. Pupils must be at least 4 years, nine months old on or before next Sept. 1 to enter kindergarten.

Pupils may be registered at Silveira, Lucas Valley, Hoffman and Santa Margarita Schools.

Registration now will let the staff know the number of teachers and rooms that will be needed. Parents who cannot come to the school should call the school office.

On Socotra, the largest island in the Arabian Sea, the penalty for murder is public strangulation.

TWO MARINITES WILL BE IN FROG CONTEST

A Marin boy and girl will participate in the Angel's Camp jumping frog jubilee May 20 and 21.

Restaurateur Lou Sabella will provide the frogs, and pay all expenses for the boy and girl and their parents.

The boy and girl will be chosen through a letter contest. Youngsters between 6 and 14 should write to Sabella's, Redwood Highway, Mill Valley, giving their ages and telling why they would like to enter a frog in the jumping frog jubilee.

A committee of judges will read the letters and select the winners. Deadline is April 20.

The contest is based on Mark Twain's story "The Jumping Frog of Calaveras County." One thousand dollars goes to the person whose frog beats the 16 foot 10 inch record set in 1954.

Footprint Assn. Planning Show

San Rafael Chapter 15, International Footprint Assn., will present an amateur vaudeville program at its meeting Monday evening at the Wye Club in San Rafael.

At least five acts from the Ben Alexander Opportunity Hour, KTVU-TV in Oakland, will participate in the evening program.

The meeting will start at 7 p.m. with a no host cocktail hour, dinner at 8 followed by the vaudeville program. Leland Brown, district governor of the Grand Lodge of Footprinters, will make his annual visitation.

Airman Denies Knife Threat

Airman 2/c Rudolfo Cantu, 23, of 328 G Street, San Rafael, pleaded innocent yesterday to the charge that he displayed a dangerous weapon in a rude and threatening manner Saturday night.

Cantu, represented by attorney C. John Bernt, demanded by a jury trial. Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Municipal Court set the trial for April 4 and 5.

Novato police arrested Cantu Saturday night on a complaint by Franklin B. Teixeira, 24, who works on the Pinheiro Ranch near Novato. Teixeira told officers he was inside his car when Cantu came at him with a knife or a bayonet. Police found a three and one-half inch slash in the top of Teixeira's convertible.

The Independent-Journal reported in error Monday that Cantu was charged with assault with a deadly weapon. Actually, the lesser charge of exhibiting a dangerous weapon in a threatening manner was placed against him.

Heart Massage Use Told To Firemen

Members of the Novato Volunteer Firemens' Assn. were instructed in the use of closed heart massage Monday night. Dr. Albert J. Fong of Novato showed firemen the technique during their regular meeting.

Volunteers also appointed committees and completed arrangements for the annual volunteer dance Saturday night at the Novato community clubhouse.

GARBAGE GARDENER — Frank Gunner, 74, of 11 Piedmont Avenue, Larkspur, turns the earth in his lush garden which is built of soil he created out of garbage and waste matter. Larkspur's new garbage collection ordinance, due to go into effect early next month, would make such compost gardening illegal.

THE LAW? RUBBISH!

It May Be Garbage To You, But To Larkspur Man Its A Garden

By CARLETON WILLIAMS

Garbage, rubbish and refuse are precious commodities to compost-gardener Frank Frank Gunner—Larkspur's new garbage ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding.

According to the ordinance—obviously drawn up by a legal eagle and not a modern-day Luther Burbank—garbage means "The putrescible animal, fish, fowl, fruit or vegetable refuse, or any thereof."

Rubbish, the law reads, "Shall mean all garden, tree, shrub and lawn trimmings . . ." Refuse if defined more or less as garbage, with the added notation, "solid or liquid . . . combustible or non-combustible."

Furthermore, the law states, after April 4 "It shall be unlawful for any person to deposit, bury, keep or accumulate" such matter in the City of Larkspur."

It is at this point that 74-year-old Gunner and the city fathers part company.

The lush, blooming terraces in the back yard of Gunners' home at 11 Piedmont Avenue are made up of nothing but "putrescible animal, Fruit and vegetable refuse." Over a period of years, Gunner has literally created almost 2,000 cubic yards of new earth—much to the delight of his cherry, fig and apple trees, roses, berries, daffodils and succulents.

Gunner disclaims responsibility for the agricultural phase of the operation. "My wife, Tillie, is the gardener, I'm the engineer."

Gunner's backyard laboratory is no hit-or-miss affair. "I am not a free-lance scatterer of garbage," he insists. "I am attempting to develop, scientifically, a new soil area.

"I don't think I ought to be forced to subscribe to a service I don't require. I obey the litterbug laws, the health laws and the nuisance laws."

The task of creating soil is a continuous one and takes place in three distinct phases.

All bones, cans, bottles and trash are burned in an incinerator "with an intense fire, to prevent odor." Every few months, the ashes are sifted. The fine ash ("high in carbon and bone matter") is used to cover the compost pile. The coarse chunks of unburned cans and glass are placed in 18-inch deep trenches which are to become walks. ("The deep walkways make first-rate gopher barriers," says Gunner.)

Another phase of the operation is the "working" of orange, grapefruit and banana peels, celery tops and other greens left from the table. These are placed in a 50-gallon drum and covered with a solution of sulphate of ammonia which acts as the primary activator.

To this is added sawdust and earth, in equal parts, the sawdust having been treated with sewage sludge which Gunner, along with other compost gardeners, collects from the sanitary district yards.

The liquid from the drum is pumped off to water the premises. The solid matter, when it has "worked" sufficiently, is shoveled onto the compost heap along with the bone ash and trimmings from garden shrubs.

All of it eventually finds its way into the terraces he has created in the 100-foot-deep yard.

"I am willing for the councilmen to bring the health department here to prove this is a sanitary operation," Gunner said.

Gunner, who describes himself as "an inquiring sort," has also devised a system of pumps which performs almost all of the operations automatically. It has kept him busy since he retired in 1952 after 37 years with Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

"When some people retire, they go fishing," he said. "Well, you can't fish all the time. This keeps me busy and active every day.

"It seems a shame I might have to give it up after all these years."

Gunner's case—along with those of a few other of Larkspur's green-thumbers — will come before the city council at 8 o'clock tonight.

Gunner hopes the councilmen will make some sort of exception for his putrescent matter.

Student Art Exhibit Due Set April 9

The third annual high school student art exhibit, held under auspices of the Marin County Art Teachers Assn., will go on display on April 9 at the College of Marin art gallery in Kentfield.

More than 300 pieces of work are expected for the show, which will run until April 22.

High school students throughout the county may enter works for the show. Selection of works to go on display will be made by art teachers in each of the schools.

Henry Boussy, Tamalpais High School teacher and president of the association, said all types of flat and three-dimensional pieces will be represented.

A preview showing for entrants, their guests and participating school personnel will be held on April 8. The gallery will be open thereafter through April 22 with formal showings on Saturdays and Sundays.

Serving as guides and hosts will be the Novato High School teachers on April 9, Sir Francis Drake High School teachers on April 15, Tamalpais High School teachers on April 16 and Redwood High School teachers on April 22.

Cubs, Scouts Plan Fun Night

Fairfax Cub Scout Pack 7 and Boy Scout Troop 7 will hold a "Fun Nite" on Friday in the all-purpose room of the Oak Manor School in Fairfax.

Features of the evening include game booths, door prizes and refreshments. The fish pond and white elephant booths again will be featured this year.

Bill Sullivan is chairman of the event. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wardell are in charge of the booths. Mrs. Robert A. McDermott is in charge of tickets with Mrs. W. C. Sullivan her assistant. Mrs. David Lippo is in charge of the publicity.

Footprint Assn. Planning Show

San Rafael Chapter 15, International Footprint Assn., will present an amateur vaudeville program at its meeting Monday evening at the Wye Club in San Rafael.

At least five acts from the Ben Alexander Opportunity Hour, KTVU-TV in Oakland, will participate in the evening program.

The meeting will start at 7 p.m. with a no host cocktail hour, dinner at 8 followed by the vaudeville program. Leland Brown, district governor of the Grand Lodge of Footprinters, will make his annual visitation.

Airman Denies Knife Threat

Airman 2/c Rudolfo Cantu, 23, of 328 G Street, San Rafael, pleaded innocent yesterday to the charge that he displayed a dangerous weapon in a rude and threatening manner Saturday night.

Cantu, represented by attorney C. John Bernt, demanded by a jury trial. Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Municipal Court set the trial for April 4 and 5.

Novato police arrested Cantu Saturday night on a complaint by Franklin B. Teixeira, 24, who works on the Pinheiro Ranch near Novato. Teixeira told officers he was inside his car when Cantu came at him with a knife or a bayonet. Police found a three and one-half inch slash in the top of Teixeira's convertible.

The Independent-Journal reported in error Monday that Cantu was charged with assault with a deadly weapon. Actually, the lesser charge of exhibiting a dangerous weapon in a threatening manner was placed against him.

Heart Massage Use Told To Firemen

Members of the Novato Volunteer Firemens' Assn. were instructed in the use of closed heart massage Monday night. Dr. Albert J. Fong of Novato showed firemen the technique during their regular meeting.

Volunteers also appointed committees and completed arrangements for the annual volunteer dance Saturday night at the Novato community clubhouse.

Weissich Demands Retraction By I-J

William O. Weissich, former district attorney, has served on the Independent-Journal and its publisher and managing editor, Roy A. Brown and Jack J. Craemer, a demand for retraction of an editorial that appeared in the I-J of March 8.

The editorial dealt with allegations that a sheriff's inspector was involved in the Anita Venza abortion case. Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety made known the allegations, without naming the inspector, and announced he would present the case to the county grand jury. The grand jury subsequently cleared Sheriff's Inspector Richard J. Argento of any involvement with the abortionist, although censuring him on other matters. Argento resigned the afternoon before the grand jury's action —which was also the afternoon following appearance of the I-J editorial.

Weissich, in his demand for a retraction — which is a demand customarily made before any suit for libel is instituted —alleged:

"This editorial is grossly libelous on its face in that it maliciously and falsely states, insinuates and infers that I:

"1. Shared the alleged interest of Don Midyett 'in making the sheriff's office look bad' while acting as attorney for the accused inspector." (Midyett is investigator for the district attorney, a position he also held while Weissich occupied the district attorney's office.)

"2. 'Used' the district attorney to get adverse publicity about the sheriff's office into circulation.

"3. Am or was the legal counsel for Mrs. Venza.

"4. 'Advised all three not to testify before the grand jury.'

"5. Gave professional advice to my clients for reasons other than my honest opinion of my clients' best interest, i.e., to protect Midyett and to embarass the sheriff politically and otherwise.

"6. As district attorney, subjected three sheriffs of Marin County to continual pressure and interference.

"7. Participated in or was responsible for circulating 'scurrilous information about the Mountanos family." (This apparently refers to the family of Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos.)

"8. Urged or in some manner participated in the making public by the district attorney of accusations against my own client, to wit: the 'accused sheriff's inspector.'

"9. Have conducted myself in an unethical manner as a person and as an attorney at law.

"10. Have conducted myself, in connection with all matters mentioned in said editorial, in a manner inconsistent with the highest standards of honor, integrity, morality, and the ethics and traditions of the legal profession."

Concluded Weissich:

"I therefore demand that the same be corrected and retracted as provided in Section 48 (a) of the Civil Code of the State of California, and I particularly demand that such correction and retraction be published by you in the upper left corner of the editorial page in the space ordinarily used by you for 'Today's Editorial.' "

The editorial in question errer in describing Weissich as attorney for Mrs. Venza. He is not and was not her attorney.

Mumps Tops List Of Marin Diseases

Mumps topped the list of communicable diseases reported to the Marin County Health Department last week.

Fifteen cases, including seven in San Rafael, were recorded for the week. Also reported were nine cases of streptoccus infection, four of measles, two of gonorrhea, two of syphilis and one infectious hepatitis.

The United Nations lost a member in 1958, but only numerically. That came about when Egypt and Syria merged as the United Arab Republic.

C Of C To Ask County For Aid Increase

The San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, in the next two weeks, will ask Marin County for $5,000 instead of its present $3,500 yearly allowance, it was decided yesterday at a board of directors meeting.

The chamber received $3,500 from the county to help in its promotion campaigns for this year.

"The chamber is planning bigger promotions which will take in more of the county," declared Paul J. Richards, new executive secretary.

The board also approved leasing of a Ford Falcon from Ames Ford for use by Richards.

Instead of the annual meeting for all members of the chamber, the board approved quarterly meetings. The first will be held in April.

The civic affairs committee of the chamber was given the task of arranging for a candidates' night, at which all candidates for office in the April 10 San Rafael municipal election will be asked to appear.

The board voted to support the street and highway plan as presented by engineer Dan Coleman at a special meeting of the street and highway committee last Thursday.

FLOURIDATON AID CLAIMED AFTER STUDY

WASHINGTON (UPI) — An eight-year water fluoridation program in Washington has reduced dental troubles among children by as much as 60 per cent, according to the health department.

The survey was released by Dr. A. Harry Ostrow, chief of the health department's bureau of dental health, at the 29th postgraduate clinic of the district dental society here yesterday.

It showed a 59.1 per cent reduction among 6-year-olds, a 63.5 per cent drop among 7-year-olds and a 19.4 per cent decrease among 16-year-olds.

Musical Review Due In Corte Madera

The Gigi Experimental Theater will present a musical revue at the Corte Madera Recreation Center today at 8 p.m.

The performance, for Corte Madera Women's Club members and their guests, will be directed by Therezinha Mattos Sill, professionally known as "Gigi." Mrs. Sill, wife of First National Bank Manager B. A. Sill, formerly directed television and radio programs in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Supervisors Uphold Bar Permit Denial

Establishment of a bar in a building now used for sale of used furniture at 267 Shoreline Highway in Tamalpais Valley was denied by the Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday.

Supervisor J. Walter Blair, whose district includes Tamalpais Valley, was absent because of illness, so a one-week continuance was suggested.

An unidentified woman resident of the area then arose to express opposition to the permit application, already denied by the planning commission.

Chairman William D. Fusselman said he knew Blair planned to move for denial, so in his stead Supervisor George Ludy made the motion. It was passed by unanimous vote of the four present.

The board also supported the planners in approval of a tentative map of 13.1-acre Oak Manor Unit 4 subdivision west of Fairfax, of another tentative map of 8.4-acre WalnutTerrace subdivision near Novato, and of a final map of Tara Hills subdivision on Tiburon.

The supervisors also:

1. With approval of County Fire Chief Charles Reilley, renewed the mutual aid fire protection agreement now in force with Hamilton Air Force Base.

2. Accepted a bid of $921 from Mel Goodwin, lowest of three, for erection of a block wall as part of rest room construction at Drake's Bay.

3. Authorized payment of $99 to engineer Jesper C. Strandgaard, representing eight hours' work at $12 plus $3 "expense," for representing Marin County at a Federal Aviation Agency meeting in Los Angeles last week.

Miller's Drama Opens Saturday

Arthur Miller's drama, "A View From the Bridge," will open at 8:30 p.m. Saturday at Sausalito's Gate Playhouse at 668 Bridgeway.

Directed by Leslie Abbott, the cast includes Athena Martin, Lisa Lauterer, Jim Wolf, Eric Silins, Martyn Buchwald and Bill Huasenkamp. The play concerns the problems of aliens arriving in America.

"Between Two Thieves," starring Harry Smith, Will Marchetti and Athena Martin, will continue to play Fridays. Abbott said the playhouse plans to offer three different plays a week when he adds "South Pacific" to the repertoire April 14.

Uncle Sam Belts Battered Ingo With Huge Tax Bill

Total For Claim $1 Million

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

MIAMI BEACH, Fla (AP)—Sweden's Ingemar Johansson, belted by a one-million-dollar tax claim, was scheduled to battle another round with the U.S. government today while Floyd Patterson headed home to figure out whom he is going to slug next.

The heavyweight champion, a knockout conqueror of the big Swede in the sixth round Monday night, probably will face England's Henry Cooper in New York next June or September.

COOPER NEXT?

Sonny Liston of Philadelphia Eddie Machen of Portland, Ore., and other contenders have been mentioned as possibilities. But Cooper, unbeaten in his last seven fights, is understood to have the inside track if he gets by Welshman Joe Erskine in London next Tuesday night.

Johansson had hardly recovered from his kayo defeat when Uncle Sam tossed another financial haymaker at him. This time the man with the beard demanded another 411,620 for 1961 to go with a back tax claim of $598,181 for 1959 and 1960.

In addition, the U.S. Immigration Service handed Ingo an order temporarily banning his departure from this country. He probably will lounge around in the sun at Palm Beach for a week or so.

SUBPOENAED

The 28-year-old businessman-fighter was subpoenaed for a U.S. courthouse appearance at Miami today. The government action was aimed at tieing up any funds Ingo may have received in advance as well as money promised him by Feature Sports Inc. and TelePrompTer. TPT handled the television, movies and radio rights on the Patterson-Johansson fight.

Johansson already has received $550,000, including $300,000 for 1959-60 and $250,000 for the third fight. This has been transferred to a Swiss bank. Johansson claims Swiss residence and says he is an employee of Scanart, a Swiss corporation.

Johansson's lawyer, Matthew Manners of New York, contends Ingo does not have to pay U.S. taxes because he pays Swiss taxes—a light bite of about 10 per cent compared to the 87 per cent bracket he falls into here.

Manners claims that under a treaty with Switzerland, the United States is not entitled to taxes on money earned by the Swiss Corporation.

Johansson earned about $715,000 Monday while Patterson grossed close to $1 million.

Patterson said he wanted to fight more often "despite the government." He was referring to the imposing tax he will have to pay.

THE MORNING AFTER—At a press conference held at his Oceanside Hotel in Miami Beach, Fla., yesterday, Ingemar Johansson was bothered by the swelling in his left eye, the result of Floyd Patterson's jolting punches of the previous night, and pressed the swollen optic. The U.S. government added to Ingo's miseries by increasing its tax claim against him to more than a million dollars. (AP Wirephoto)

Harvey Kuenn Is Passing Out Batting Tips To Fellow Giants

HANLEY

PHOENIX, Ariz.—Alvin Dark is delighted with the way Ed Bressoud, Don Blasingame and others are taking batting lessons from Harvey Kuenn.

"It shows a closeness among the players and that is a very healthy sign," said the new rookie manager. "I had nothing to do with it. I understand Bressoud was the first to go to Kuenn and ask him for some tips on hitting to his off-field in right."

Does this mean that Dark might reconsider his early decision not to have a field captain? Could it mean the appointment of the former American League star as the first captain of the Giants since Dark himself last captained them to pennants in 1951 and 1954?

"My feeling is unchanged in that regard," said Dark. "I do not believe in having a captain just for the sake of having one. There must be a more important reason than that."

And what would an important reason be?

"IF IT HELPED the team," replied Dark. "One key player can mould a ball club but as I said I won't appoint a captain just to have one."

Although he doesn't have the formal title, Kuenn might be described as captain without portfolio. The fact is that the Giants have been hungry for a strong playing leader to whom they can give their respect. Kuenn hasn't sought the honor. It sort of gravitated to him naturally.

A six-foot-2-inch 220-pounder, Kuenn could command respect just by the way he handles a jaw-breaking cud of tobacco. Of course, he has much better credentials than tobacco-chewing qualifications.

Only once in eight years as an American Leaguer did he dip under .300. That was in 1957 when he hit .277. His 1957 slump might have been due to his playing three positions that year for Detroit — shortstop, third base and first base.

When he was switched to the outfield in 1958 his batting zoomed to .319 and the following year he was the A.L. batting champ with .353, again playing the outfield. Last season he hit .308, still as an outfielder, this time for Cleveland.

From 1952-56 Kuenn played shortstop exclusively for the Tigers except for the latter part of the '56 season when he was given emergency outfield duty. As a shortstop he hit between .306 and .308. As a combination shortstop-outfielder in '56 he belted the ball at a .332 clip, his highest mark until his title-winning .353 in 1959.

AS YET, Dark has not specified where Kuenn will play for the Giants. And it is not likely that he will until April 1 when he plans to announce his lineup. At one time or another, Kuenn has been mentioned for every position except those through the middle, catch, pitch and center.

"I prefer the outfield," said the Giants' new No. 7 when he reported for duty on Feb. 27.

Is that still his preference since he hasn't once appeared there, doing all of his work around third base?

"I play wherever the manager wants me to play," he said. "It's as simple as that."

Yank Reliever Arroyo Hurt By Line Drive

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Beset by ambushes along baseball's exhibition trail, the American League champion New York Yankees were faced today with the prospect of opening the season without southpaw relief artist Luis Arroyo.

The portly 32-year-old left-hander was struck on the left wrist in batting practice yesterday by a line drive off the bat of rookie catcher Jesse Gonder just before the winless Yankees went out and lost their fourth in a row, 4-1 to the Milwaukee Braves.

SUFFERS FRACTURE

Arroyo, who won five and lost one while making 39 relief appearances after being brought up from the International League, suffered an oblique fracture of the ulna bone. He will be out from three to four weeks.

The Los Angeles Dodgers made the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates their first victim with an 8-3 win that snapped the previously unbeaten Bucs four-game winning streak.

In other games, Don Zimmer's two homers led the Chicago Cubs to a 9-5 triumph over the Los Angeles Angels, a ninth-inning rally gave the Chicago White Sox a 5-4 win over Minnesota, four homers powered Cincinnati to a 7-4 victory over Detroit, Kansas City edged Washington 2-1, Philadelphia beat St. Louis 8-7 and Boston nipped San Francisco 6-5.

MILWAUKEE STARS

Doubles by Joe Adcock and Charlie Lau and pitcher Carl Willey's single accounted for two Milwaukee runs in the sixth before Hank Aaron clinched it with a two-run double in the ninth. Don Nottebart, 25-year-old right-hander, pitched four innings of perfect ball against the punchless Yanks.

The Dodgers put it away in the first against Pittsburgh's Vinegar Bend Mizell, with Frank Howard's 450-foot homer the key blow in a four-run uprising.

Young Giants Clouting Sets Camp Talking

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—The San Francisco Giants are unveiling some young sluggers this spring.

The Boston Red Sox clipped the Giants 6-5 yesterday, ending the San Francisco win streak at one straight, but folks in the Giant camp were talking today about 23-year-old Bob Farley.

Rookie catcher Tom Haller clouted two homers Monday. And yesterday, Farley, a big rugged southpaw swinger, relieved Willie McCovey at first base, then proceeded to clout 3-for-3, including a towering 370-foot home run.

HIS FIFTH YEAR

The homer and his two singles gave Farley three runs batted in, tops for the game.

Farley, who also plays the outfield, has been working his way up the Giants' organization. This is his fifth season in professional baseball.

He hit .278 with 12 homers at Tacoma last year in 133 games. His best year was at Fresno, in the California League, in 1958. Big Bob socked .319 in 137 games, knocked in 88 runs and his 151 hits that season included 24 doubles, 12 triples and six homers.

His slugging yesterday left Manager Alvin Dark speculative. "We'll have to see if Farley can keep hitting like this," Dark said, "but you certainly can't fault a kid who hits 3-for-3."

MAYS HOMERS

Willie Mays socked his first Cactus League homer, a two-run first-inning shot that gave the Giants an early lead. But that was about all the San Franciscans could brag about. They blew leads three times, finally losing in the last of the ninth when rookie Bobby Bolin walked the Red Sox Billy Harrell with one out and the bases loaded.

It took Bolin just four pitches to end the game. He came in after Ray Daviault, who gave up just one hit in three innings, loaded the bases in the ninth.

Those four pitches enabled Harrell to walk to first, Don Buddin to walk home from third, 2,401 fans to walk away from the ball park and Dark to walk off by himself for a while.

CUBS TODAY

The Giants, now 1-3 for the exhibition season, faced the Cubs here today and planned to go with the young pitchers who figure to be their big one-two punch—southpaw Mike McCormick, the National League's 1960 earned run champ, and right-hander Juan Marichal, who broke in after the All Star Game last year with four straight victories.

Marin Golfers Tie For Second

College of Marin golfers tied for second in the Golden Valley Conference links meet played on the Silverado course in Napa yesterday.

The Napa team finished first, with the Marinites and American River tying for second.

Dan Webster was low scorer for Marin with a 77 which tied him for medalist honors in the meet. Len Hale's 91 placed him first in the fourth flight.

Pitchers Star In Redwood, Tam Victories

Pitchers sparkled in two high school baseball games won by Marin nines yesterday.

At Albert Field in San Rafael, Redwood High blanked Richmond High 1-0 as Mike Cooney pitched a six-inning no-hitter.

HIT BY DRIVE

Cooney struck out three and walked three in his brilliant performance. He was accorded strong defense support by his teammates who committed but one error.

The Redwood pitcher had to do a "Floyd Patterson" and come back after being almost literally driven from the mound in the first inning. A line drive bounced off his forehead into short left field where Joe Weiss made the catch on the fly for the third out of the inning.

With a show of grit, Cooney recovered sufficiently to continue pitching as the fourth inning rolled around. And to top his big day, he squeezed home the only run of the game. Mark Pierce had reached base on Richmond's lone error of the game, was bunted around to third and then squeezed home by the Redwood pitcher.

TEAMS HUSTLE

The two teams hustled through the fast game under a light rain.

Sophomore Mark pleased Tam fans with his strong showing as he chalked up seven strikeouts and did not walk a single Montgomery batter.

The Indians got all the runs they really needed in the first when catcher Steven Long singled across a marker. Another run was added by Tam in the fourth when pitcher Mack tripled home a run.

Wake Forrest Shines As NCAA Play Begins

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The 1961 NCAA tournament is just one day old but already Wake Forest has served notice to powerhouses Ohio State and Cincinnato that upsets may be in store for them.

Not only did Wake Forest stun eighth-ranked St. John's last night, but third-ranked St. Bonaventure, Louisville and Morehead State had hard times in the opening night tourney action. Nevertheless, they advanced into the second round of the NCAA tourney where even tougher obstacles lie ahead.

Wake Forest, unexpected entry from the Atlantic Coast Conference, rallied from a 10-point first-half deficit to thrash the Redmen, 97-74. St. Bonaventure, getting a combined effort of 63 points from All-America Tom Stith and sophomore Fred Crawford, also came from behind in the second half to down Rhode Island, 86-76.

In the other eastern regional contest as part of the Madison Square Garden tripleheaders, Pete Campbell's 27 points led Princeton to an 84-67 victory over George Washington.

Louisville got a 17-point performance from John Turner to pull out a 76-70 triumph over stubborn Ohio University while big Ed Noe and little Granny Williams paced Morehead State over Xavier of Ohio, 71-66, in the Mideast regional action at Louisville, Ky.

For Friday night's eastern regional at Charlotte, N. C., that leaves Wake Forest taking on the Bonnie and Princeton meeting St. Joseph's (Pa.), which drew a bye into the second round.

Unbeaten Ohio State (24-0) waits to meet Louisville and Kentucky (18-8) clashes with Morehead State in Saturday's second round play of the mideast regionals at Louisville. The Buckeyes, Big Ten titlists and the nation's top-ranked team, and Adolph Rupp's Wildcats, Southeastern Conference representative, drew first round byes.

The Midwest and the Far West regionals get underway tonight with Houston (16-9) tangling with Marquette (16-10) and Arizona State (21-5) playing Seattle (18-7) and Southern California (20-6), ranked No. 5, playing Oregon (15-11).

Len Chappell scored 31 points and pulled down 20 rebounds in leading the Wake Forest attack. Alley Hart tossed in 28 points and Dave Wiedeman added 22 for the Demon Deacons from Winston Salem, N. C.

Crawford tossed in 34 points and Stith 29 for the Bonnies, who were down, 43-38, at halftime.

Princeton, despite the loss of Captain Don Swan, who was injured early in the game, rolled over George Washington, which got only 11 points from its ace, Jon Feldman.

MADERA (UPI)—Madera High School football star Kent Nance, wooed by several universities, decided yesterday to enroll at Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah.

Marin Swim Teams Win Three Meets

Marin high school varsity swim teams had a terrific day yesterday as splashers from San Rafael, Tamalpais and Drake high schools all scored victories in their home pools.

Tam trimmed St. Ignatius 61-34, Drake downed Washington 57-38 and San Rafael edged out Montgomery 50-45.

Rick Snow was a double winner for Tamalpais as he took the 100-yard butterfly in 1:00.4, and the 200-yard individual medley in 2:20.7. In both events he set new school records.

'B' COMPETITION

Tam also won the "B" team meet, 44-42.

Drake also had a double winner in the same two events in beating Washington.

Tony Crossler won the 100-yard butterfly in 1:03, and added the 200-yard individual medley in 2:29. The visitors took only a single first place during the meet.

Drake's powerful "B" team buried the Washington jayvees 78-8 with Terry Poleti and Bill Kelsey each winning a pair of events. Poleti took the 100-yard medley in 1:08 and the 100-yard backstroke in 1:05.6. Kelsey won the 100-yard freestyle in 58.5 and the 50 free in 26.4 seconds.

A CLOSE ONE

San Rafael had a tougher time of it with Montgomery as the visitors swept all freestyle events, but the Marinites succeeded in offsetting those losses with strong showings in other events. Lou Yuran won the 100-yard backstroke in 1:13.5 and Pete Lombardi the 100-yard breaststroke in 1:16 in two of the day's better performances.

Montgomery edged out San Rafael 44-42 in the "B" competition. Barry Swain took the 50-yard freestyle in 26.8 seconds.

Weissich Demands Retraction By I-J

William O. Weissich, former district attorney, has served on the Independent-Journal and its publisher and managing editor, Roy A. Brown and Jack J. Craemer, a demand for retraction of an editorial that appeared in the I-J of March 8.

The editorial dealt with allegations that a sheriff's inspector was involved in the Anita Venza abortion case. Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety made known the allegations, without naming the inspector, and announced he would present the case to the county grand jury. The grand jury subsequently cleared Sheriff's Inspector Richard J. Argento of any involvement with the abortionist, although censuring him on other matters. Argento resigned the afternoon before the grand jury's action —which was also the afternoon following appearance of the I-J editorial.

Weissich, in his demand for a retraction — which is a demand customarily made before any suit for libel is instituted —alleged:

"This editorial is grossly libelous on its face in that it maliciously and falsely states, insinuates and infers that I:

"1. Shared the alleged interest of Don Midyett 'in making the sheriff's office look bad' while acting as attorney for the accused inspector." (Midyett is investigator for the district attorney, a position he also held while Weissich occupied the district attorney's office.)

"2. 'Used' the district attorney to get adverse publicity about the sheriff's office into circulation.

"3. Am or was the legal counsel for Mrs. Venza.

"4. 'Advised all three not to testify before the grand jury.'

"5. Gave professional advice to my clients for reasons other than my honest opinion of my clients' best interest, i.e., to protect Midyett and to embarass the sheriff politically and otherwise.

"6. As district attorney, subjected three sheriffs of Marin County to continual pressure and interference.

"7. Participated in or was responsible for circulating 'scurrilous information about the Mountanos family." (This apparently refers to the family of Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos.)

"8. Urged or in some manner participated in the making public by the district attorney of accusations against my own client, to wit: the 'accused sheriff's inspector.'

"9. Have conducted myself in an unethical manner as a person and as an attorney at law.

"10. Have conducted myself, in connection with all matters mentioned in said editorial, in a manner inconsistent with the highest standards of honor, integrity, morality, and the ethics and traditions of the legal profession.'

Concluded Weissich:

"I therefore demand that the same be corrected and retracted as provided in Section 48 (a) of the Civil Code of the State of California, and I particularly demand that such correction and retraction be published by you in the upper left corner of the editorial page in the space ordinarily used by you for 'Today's Editorial.' "

The editorial in question erer in describing Weissich as attorney for Mrs. Venza. He is not and was not her attorney.

Mumps Tops List Of Marin Diseases

Mumps topped the list of communicable diseases reported to the Marin County Health Department last week.

Fifteen cases, including seven in San Rafael, were recorded for the week. Also reported were nine cases of streptoccus infection, four of measles, two of gonorrhea, two of syphilis and one infectious hepatitis.

The United Nations lost a member in 1958, but only numerically. That came about when Egypt and Syria merged as the United Arab Republic.

C Of C To Ask County For Aid Increase

The San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, in the next two weeks, will ask Marin County for $5,000 instead of its present $3,500 yearly allowance, it was decided yesterday at a board of directors meeting.

The chamber received $3,500 from the county to help in its promotion campaigns for this year.

"The chamber is planning bigger promotions which will take in more of the county," declared Paul J. Richards, new executive secretary.

The board also approved leasing of a Ford Falcon from Ames Ford for use by Richards.

Instead of the annual meeting for all members of the chamber, the board approved quarterly meetings. The first will be held in April.

The civic affairs committee of the chamber was given the task of arranging for a candidates' night, at which all candidates for office in the April 10 San Rafael municipal election will be asked to appear.

The board voted to support the street and highway plan as presented by engineer Dan Coleman at a special meeting of the street and highway committee last Thursday.

FLOURIDATON AID CLAIMED AFTER STUDY

WASHINGTON (UPI) — An eight-year water fluoridation program in Washington has reduced dental troubles among children by as much as 60 per cent, according to the health department.

The survey was released by Dr. A. Harry Ostrow, chief of the health department's bureau of dental health, at the 29th postgraduate clinic of the district dental society here yesterday.

It showed a 59.1 per cent reduction among 6-year-olds, a 63.5 per cent drop among 7-year-olds and a 19.4 per cent decrease among 16-year-olds.

Musical Review Due In Corte Madera

The Gigi Experimental Theater will present a musical revue at the Corte Madera Recreation Center today at 8 p.m.

Supervisors Uphold Bar Permit Denial

Establishment of a bar in a building now used for sale of used furniture at 267 Shoreline Highway in Tamalpais Valley was denied by the Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday.

Supervisor J. Walter Blair, whose district includes Tamalpais Valley, was absent because of illness, so a one-week continuance was suggested.

An unidentified woman resident of the area then arose to express opposition to the permit application, already denied by the planning commission.

Chairman William D. Fusselman said he knew Blair planned to move for denial, so in his stead Supervisor George Ludy made the motion. It was passed by unanimous vote of the four present.

The board also supported the planners in approval of a tentative map of 13.1-acre Oak Manor Unit 4 subdivision west of Fairfax, of another tentative map of 8.4-acre WalnutTerrace subdivision near Novato, and of a final map of Tara Hills subdivision on Tiburon.

The supervisors also:

1. With approval of County Fire Chief Charles Reilley, renewed the mutual aid fire protection agreement now in force with Hamilton Air Force Base.

2. Accepted a bid of $921 from Mel Goodwin, lowest of three, for erection of a block wall as part of rest room construction at Drake's Bay.

3. Authorized payment of $99 to engineer Jesper C. Strandgaard, representing eight hours' work at $12 plus $3 "expense," for representing Marin County at a Federal Aviation Agency meeting in Los Angeles last week.

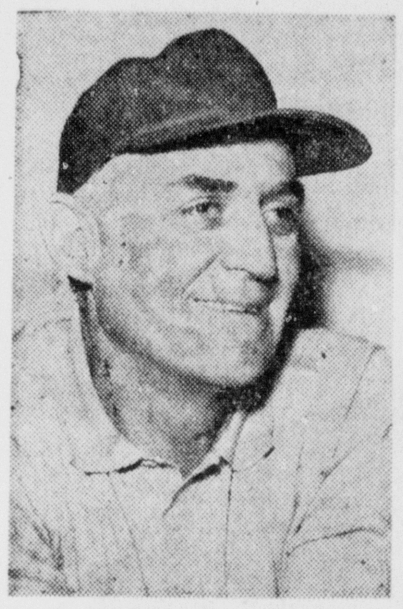
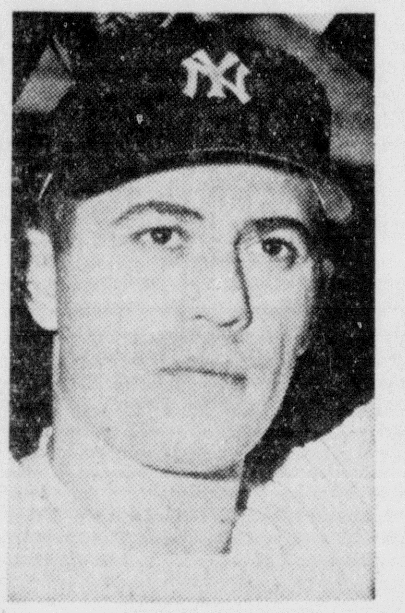
Big March Of Dimes Baseball Benefit With Major League Pros Is Sunday



SAM CHAPMAN
Athletics



ART SHALLOCK
Yankees

Plans are nearing completion today for next Sunday's March of Dimes benefit baseball game at San Rafael's Albert Field, Promoter Don Lauters announced today.

He said the 1:30 p.m. contest would feature an assortment of former professional stars and up and coming youngsters of outstanding potential. The game will match the Marin All-Stars, featuring at least six former major leaguers, against the Gino Benedetti semi-professional team of San Francisco.

All proceeds will go to the March of Dimes, said Lauters, a former professional himself. Admission will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for children under 16.

Lauters said former major leaguers scheduled to play for the Marin All-Stars are Art Schallock of San Rafael (New York Yankees); Sam Chapman of Greenbrae (Philadelphia Athletics); Reno DeBenedetti, Pittsburgh Pirates; Ray Hamric, Athletics; Augie Galan, and Bill Serena, both of the Chicago Cubs.

Several others, who played in the high minor leagues, are Bill Enos of the San Francisco Seals; Walt Pocekay, Oakland and San Diego; Lloyd Dickey, San Diego and Seattle; Dario Lodigiano, Seals; and Joe Anselmo of the Tulsa Oilers.

Pitchers for the Benedetti team will be Marino Pieretti, formerly with Washington and Chicago of the American League and later with San Francisco, Sacramento and Los Angeles of the Pacific Coast League, and Ken Kimball, longtime PCL player with Sacramento and Portland.

The Benedetti team also features a 15-year-old outstanding prospect in Fred Fransted of San Rafael, a centerfielder. Young Fransted, according to Lauters, "shows real promise of being a bright star very soon."

Entertainment and the appearance of civic personalities will share some of the spotlight at Sunday's game, Lauters said.

Trophy At Stake In Game Tomorrow

A championship trophy will be at stake tomorrow night when the Cain Tire and Maggi Florist basketball teams square off at 8 in the San Rafael High School gymnasium.

The two teams would up in a tie with six win, two loss records in the final standings of the San Rafael Recreation Class B League, and will be battling it out for league honors tomorrow night.

The FISHIN' FOOL

I-J Fish and Game Writer

Where, Oh Where Did Bass Go? Minus Tides Blamed For Collapse

STEVENS

Over the airways, over the telephone wires, and individual and collective conversations, the lament blared forth: Where, oh where, have the stripers gone? Is it the full moon? Minus tides or what? Friday fishing was good, almost hot all the way from China Camp to the area in back of the Rock Wall across from Rodeo. Saturday it was as though some fiendish fanatic had turned a spigot off and the flow of fish came to a sudden stop.

One of my closest pals, traffic cop Bob Johnson, called to read me the riot act. "Wadda yumean, fishing would be good," he declared. "My neighbor across the street and I fished the upper San Pablo Bay (in the spots you suggested) from seven o'clock Saturday morning to after five in the afternoon. My friend caught one bass, I caught nothing of legal size — not even enough flounders to bring home."

Well, so long as there are fish and fishermen, this sort of thing will happen. Sunday was no better than Saturday.

I'D LIKE to say Tuesday may see a return of the fast action with stripers, but while I can't give the reason, I fear that until the minus tides are over it will be slow. Perhaps the afternoon of Thursday will be the starting time for the return. I hope it will happen sooner, but my records dating back to 1931 disclose that almost without exception, bass fishing is very slow during a series of minus tides.

The odd thing about this particular period is that even the flounders seemed to quit biting in the upper San Pablo, although the Quans at China Camp told me quite a few of the flatties were taken on Saturday and Sunday.

PLEASE DON'T get me wrong. Some fish will be taken by some of the more lucky anglers in spite of full moon, minus tides and all.

To help that luck along it is well that you realize that most of the fish that do hit a bait will hit it very lightly. You've gotta be on the alert to set the hook almost before you feel a slight nibble. You must use a taut line at all times.

THE FULL MOON and the minus tides have had no effect on the silver horde out in the Pacific. Sunday was a salmon fishing fiesta for most of the parties aboard the party boats. Lots of salmon in the six to eight pound class; quite a few ran around 10 pounds, a fairish number that went 15 pounds and few real lunkers to over 25 pounds.

Listening to the skippers

LISTENING to the skippers chatting with each other over my Halicrafter, I know that salmon trolling was exceptionally good on the Sabbath. One boat was on the way in with limits to 15 pounds at high noon.

LOCH LOMOND Marina in San Rafael reported these catches on boats berthed there: Roy Hall and friends took limits to 10 pounds near Duxbury Reef; Dick Lynch of Larkspur and friends limited out, including one 14½-pounder off Double Point; Dr. Robert Alderson of San Rafael, his son, along with Max Biggs and son Blake accounted for seven fish averaging eight pounds off Duxbury.

Blake Biggs, who celebrated his 10th birthday Monday, caught the two largest fish in Dr. Alberson's party.

BOWLING

A big 208 on his middle game powered Don Muelrath to a 530 series and individual honors in Sunday's Teenage League at Marin Bowl. Don's other lines were 157 and 165.

Runnerup honors went to Chuck Gearheard with 136-186-147—469. Following were Nate Byers, 162-146-148—456; Mike Ferlatte, 146-130-171 — 447; Tony Korpi, 133-181-120—444; Dan Hubbard, 180-131-129—440.

Frank Mooney walked off with the glory in Saturday's Junior League. Mooney had a fine 202, followed by 170 and 122 for a 494 total. Other leaders among the boys were Rich Connor, 149-146-158—453; Fred Hilton, 142-148-142—432; Mike Meherin, 124-140-146—410.

Games of 95 and 97 for a 202 series by Kathy Cronkright led Junior Girls. Donna Cowan had a 115 game and Susan Gray a 110.

Santa Cruz Man Begins Comeback In Hometown Ring

SANTA CRUZ (AP) — Roque Maravilla of Santa Cruz has started a comeback in the light heavyweight ranks after a year's layoff.

He battered Artie Dixon of Los Angeles for a convincing 10-round decision last night.

Maravilla weighed 179½; Dixon, 175.

Maravilla was out of boxing a year because of a back injury.

Dixon cut Maravilla over the right eye in the second round with a fast jab. It bothered Maravilla but he took charge halfway in the fight and severly punished Dixon with body punches.

Sign Ups For Pony League Scheduled

All San Rafael boys, 13 to 16, who wish to play Pony League baseball must sign up for the 1961 season Friday from 7 to 9 p.m. and Saturday, 9 to 5 p.m. at Albert's Field.

This year 73 boys are coming up from Little League. With these and the older boys, about 180 to 200 boys will be participating in the program. It is sponsored by the San Rafael Recreation Department, San Rafael business firms and civic organizations and parents. Try-outs will be held March 26 and April 1, said a league spokesman.

Another weekend swim contest the Palo Alto Novice Meet at Stanford pool, attracted two Pirates who placed there: Tom Nannizzi, second, 10 and under boys 50 breast; and Anne Nicholson, sixth, 11-12 girls 50 free.

Also at the Palo Alto meet, the Tamalpais Swim Club splashed its way to some placements, but gathered no gold medals. Tam will clash with the Marin Pirates March 29, at 1:30 p.m. in a speed meet at the Tamalpais High School swimming pool.

The following are placers in the weekend meet for the Tam club:

Janet Krone, 2nd, (11-12 year old) 50 backstroke; Valerie Woodworth, 2nd, (13-14 year old) 100 freestyle; Vicki Gross, 3rd, (11-12 year old) 50 butterfly; Sue Krieger, 11-12 year old) 50 free; Mike MacDonald, 3rd, (10 and under) 50 breaststroke; Valerie Woodworth, 3rd, (13-14 year old) 100 back; Tina Shapiro, 4th, (11-12 year old) 50 breast; Cynthia Hurley, 5th, (13-14 year old) 100 back; Emily Thomson, 5th, (10 and under) 50 breast; Valerie Woodworth, 5th, (13-14 year old) 100 fly; Sue Krieger, 5th, (11-12 year old) 50 fly; Vickie Hoetger, 5th, (11-12 year old) 50 breast; Cynthia Hurley, 6th, (13-14 year old) 100 fly; Cynthia Hurley, 6th, (13-14 year old) 200 medley.

TAR STARS HONORED AS ALL-LEAGUE

The College of Marin Tars placed two men in the first team in the 1961 Golden Valley Conference all-star selections.

Honored from the championship Tars were Ron Blum and Lynn Livie along with Gary Dix of Shasta, Ken Oswill of Napa, and Cliff Freer of American River.

Dale Aman of the Tars made the second team.

Selections were made by the coaches of the conference.

Warriors Beaten In Playoff Tilt

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

It's one of Wilt Chamberlain's ambitions to lead the Philadelphia Warriors to the National Basketball Assn. championship.

But, just as in his rookie year last year, the former All-America from Kansas may fail to achieve his goal.

The Warriors and Chamberlain took a 115-107 beating from the Syracuse Nationals last night in the first of the best-of-five Eastern Division preliminary playoffs. The Western Division first round playoff also opened with the Los Angeles Lakers getting the jump over the Detroit Pistons 120-102.

Elementary Schools Battle In Tourney

Reed and Larkspur-Corte Madera won games in the Redwood Elementary Basketball Tournament at Redwood High School yesterday.

Reed beat Ross 29-16 with Gary Modila tallying 14 points. Larkspur-Corte Madera edged out Henry Hall 23-21. Parkie Stephenson scored 10 for the winners, Steve Marshal an equal number of points for the losers.

Uncle Sam Belts Battered Ingo With Huge Tax Bill

Total For Claim $1 Million

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

MIAMI BEACH, Fla (AP) — Sweden's Ingemar Johansson, belted by a one-million-dollar tax claim, was scheduled to battle another round with the U.S. government today while Floyd Patterson headed home to figure out whom he is going to slug next.

The heavyweight champion, a knockout conqueror of the big Swede in the sixth round Monday night, probably will face England's Henry Cooper in New York next June or September.

COOPER NEXT?

Sonny Liston of Philadelphia Eddie Machen of Portland, Ore., and other contenders have been mentioned as possibilities. But Cooper, unbeaten in his last seven fights, is understood to have the inside track if he gets by Welshman Joe Erskine in London next Tuesday night.

Johansson had hardly recovered from his kayo defeat when Uncle Sam tossed another financial haymaker at him. This time the man with the beard demanded another 411,620 for 1961 to go with a back tax claim of $598,181 for 1959 and 1960.

In addition, the U.S. Immigration Service handed Ingo an order temporarily banning his departure from this country. He probably will lounge around in the sun at Palm Beach for a week or so.

SUBPOENAED

The 28-year-old businessman-fighter was subpoenaed for a U.S. courthouse appearance at Miami today. The government action was aimed at tieing up any funds Ingo may have received in advance as well as money promised him by Feature Sports Inc. and TelePrompTer. TPT handled the television, movies and radio rights on the Patterson-Johansson fight.

Johansson already has received $550,000, including $300,000 for 1959-60 and $250,000 for the third fight. This has been transferred to a Swiss bank. Johansson claims Swiss residence and says he is an employee of Scanart, a Swiss corporation.

Johansson's lawyer, Matthew Manners of New York, contends Ingo does not have to pay U.S. taxes because he pays Swiss taxes—a light bite of about 10 per cent compared to the 87 per cent bracket he falls into here.

Manners claims that under a treaty with Switzerland, the United States is not entitled to taxes on money earned by the Swiss Corporation.

Johansson earned about $715,000 Monday while Patterson grossed close to $1 million.

Patterson said he wanted to fight more often "despite the government." He was referring to the imposing tax he will have to pay.

THE MORNING AFTER—At a press conference held at his Oceanside Hotel in Miami Beach, Fla., yesterday, Ingemar Johansson was bothered by the swelling in his left eye, the result of Floyd Patterson's jolting punches of the previous night, and pressed the swollen optic. The U.S. government added to Ingo's miseries by increasing its tax claim against him to more than a million dollars. (AP Wirephoto)

Yank Reliever Arroyo Hurt By Line Drive

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Beset by ambushes along baseball's exhibition trail, the American League champion New York Yankees were faced today with the prospect of opening the season without southpaw relief artist Luis Arroyo.

The portly 32-year-old left-hander was struck on the left wrist in batting practice yesterday by a line drive off the bat of rookie catcher Jesse Gonder just before the winless Yankees went out and lost their fourth in a row, 4-1 to the Milwaukee Braves.

SUFFERS FRACTURE

Arroyo, who won five and lost one while making 39 relief appearances after being brought up from the International League, suffered an oblique fracture of the ulna bone. He will be out from three to four weeks.

The Los Angeles Dodgers made the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates their first victim with an 8-3 win that snapped the previously unbeaten Bucs four-game winning streak.

In other games, Don Zimmer's two homers led the Chicago Cubs to a 9-5 triumph over the Los Angeles Angels, a ninth-inning rally gave the Chicago White Sox a 5-4 win over Minnesota, four homers powered Cincinnati to a 7-4 victory over Detroit, Kansas City edged Washington 2-1, Philadelphia beat St. Louis 8-7 and Boston nipped San Francisco 6-5.

MILWAUKEE STARS

Doubles by Joe Adcock and Charlie Lau and pitcher Carl Willey's single accounted for two Milwaukee runs in the sixth before Hank Aaron clinched it with a two-run double in the ninth. Don Nottebart, 25-year-old right-hander, pitched four innings of perfect ball against the punchless Yanks.

The Dodgers put it away in the first against Pittsburgh's Vinegar Bend Mizell, with Frank Howard's 450-foot homer the key blow in a four-run uprising.

Young Giants Clouting Sets Camp Talking

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—The San Francisco Giants are unveiling some young sluggers this spring.

The Boston Red Sox clipped the Giants 6-5 yesterday, ending the San Francisco win streak at one straight, but folks in the Giant camp were talking today about 23-year-old Bob Farley.

Rookie catcher Tom Haller clouted two homers Monday. And yesterday, Farley, a big rugged southpaw swinger, relieved Willie McCovey at first base, then proceeded to clout 3-for-3, including a towering 370-foot home run.

HIS FIFTH YEAR

The homer and his two singles gave Farley three runs batted in, tops for the game.

Farley, who also plays the outfield, has been working his way up the Giants' organization. This is his fifth season in professional baseball.

He hit .278 with 12 homers at Tacoma last year in 133 games. His best year was at Fresno, in the California League, in 1958. Big Bob socked .319 in 137 games, knocked in 88 runs and his 151 hits that season included 24 doubles, 12 triples and six homers.

His slugging yesterday left Manager Alvin Dark speculative. "We'll have to see if Farley can keep hitting like this," Dark said, "but you certainly can't fault a kid who hits 3-for-3."

MAYS HOMERS

Willie Mays socked his first Cactus League homer, a two-run first-inning shot that gave the Giants an early lead. But that was about all the San Franciscans could brag about. They blew leads three times, finally losing in the last of the ninth when rookie Bobby Bolin walked the Red Sox Billy Harrell with one out and the bases loaded.

It took Bolin just four pitches to end the game. He came in after Ray Daviault, who gave up just one hit in three innings, loaded the bases in the ninth.

Those four pitches enabled Harrell to walk to first, Don Buddin to walk home from third, 2,401 fans to walk away from the ball park and Dark to walk off by himself for a while.

CUBS TODAY

The Giants, now 1-3 for the exhibition season, faced the Cubs here today and planned to go with the young pitchers who figure to be their big one-two punch—southpaw Mike McCormick, the National League's 1960 earned run champ, and right-hander Juan Marichal, who broke in after the All Star Game last year with four straight victories.

Harvey Kuenn Is Passing Out Batting Tips To Fellow Giants

HANLEY

PHOENIX, Ariz.—Alvin Dark is delighted with the way Ed Bressoud, Don Blasingame and others are taking batting lessons from Harvey Kuenn.

"It shows a closeness among the players and that is a very healthy sign," said the new rookie manager. "I had nothing to do with it. I understand Bressoud was the first to go to Kuenn and ask him for some tips on hitting to his off-field in right."

Does this mean that Dark might reconsider his early decision not to have a field captain? Could it mean the appointment of the former American League star as the first captain of the Giants since Dark himself last captained them to pennants in 1951 and 1954?

"My feeling is unchanged in that regard," said Dark. "I do not believe in having a captain just for the sake of having one. There must be a more important reason than that."

And what would an important reason be?

"IF IT HELPED the team," replied Dark. "One key player can mould a ball club but as I said I won't appoint a captain just to have one."

Although he doesn't have the formal title, Kuenn might be described as captain without portfolio. The fact is that the Giants have been hungry for a strong playing leader to whom they can give their respect. Kuenn hasn't sought the honor. It sort of gravitated to him naturally.

A six-foot-2-inch 220-pounder, Kuenn could command respect just by the way he handles a jaw-breaking cud of tobacco. Of course, he has much better credentials than tobacco-chewing qualifications.

Only once in eight years as an American Leaguer did he dip under .300. That was in 1957 when he hit .277. His 1957 slump might have been due to his playing three positions that year for Detroit — shortstop, third base and first base.

When he was switched to the outfield in 1958 his batting zoomed to .319 and the following year he was the A.L. batting champ with .353, again playing the outfield. Last season he hit .308, still as an outfielder, this time for Cleveland.

From 1952-56 Kuenn played shortstop exclusively for the Tigers except for the latter part of the '56 season when he was given emergency outfield duty. As a shortstop he hit between .306 and .308. As a combination shortstop-outfielder in '56 he belted the ball at a .332 clip, his highest mark until his title-winning .353 in 1959.

AS YET, Dark has not specified where Kuenn will play for the Giants. And it is not likely that he will until April 1 when he plans to announce his line-up. At one time or another, Kuenn has been mentioned for every position except those through the middle, catch, pitch and center.

"I prefer the outfield," said the Giants' new No. 7 when he reported for duty on Feb. 27.

Is that still his preference since he hasn't once appeared there, doing all of his work around third base?

"I play wherever the manager wants me to play," he said. "It's as simple as that."

Marin Golfers Tie For Second

College of Marin golfers tied for second in the Golden Valley Conference links meet played on the Silverado course in Napa yesterday.

The Napa team finished first, with the Marinites and American River tying for second.

Dan Webster was low scorer for Marin with a 77 which tied him for medalist honors in the meet. Len Hale's 91 placed him first in the fourth flight.

Pitchers Star In Redwood, Tam Victories

Pitchers sparkled in two high school baseball games won by Marin nines yesterday.

At Albert Field in San Rafael, Redwood High blanked Richmond High 1-0 as Mike Cooney pitched a six-inning no-hitter.

HIT BY DRIVE

Cooney struck out three and walked three in his brilliant performance. He was accorded strong defense support by his teammates who committed but one error.

The Redwood pitcher had to do a "Floyd Patterson" and come back after being almost literally driven from the mound in the first inning. A line drive bounced off his forehead into short left field where Joe Weiss made the catch on the fly for the third out of the inning.

With a show of grit, Cooney recovered sufficiently to continue pitching as the fourth inning rolled around. And to top his big day, he squeezed home the only run of the game. Mark Pierce had reached base on Richmond's lone error of the game, was bunted around to third and then squeezed home by the Redwood pitcher.

TEAMS HUSTLE

The two teams hustled through the fast game under a light rain.

Sophomore Mark pleased Tam fans with his strong showing as he chalked up seven strikeouts and did not walk a single Montgomery batter.

The Indians got all the runs they really needed in the first when catcher Steven Long singled across a marker. Another run was added by Tam in the fourth when pitcher Mack tripled home a run.

Wake Forrest Shines As NCAA Play Begins

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The 1961 NCAA tournament is just one day old but already Wake Forest has served notice to powerhouses Ohio State and Cincinnato that upsets may be in store for them.

Not only did Wake Forest stun eighth-ranked St. John's last night, but third-ranked St. Bonaventure, Louisville and Morehead State had hard times in the opening night tourney action. Nevertheless, they advanced into the second round of the NCAA tourney where even tougher obstacles lie ahead.

Wake Forest, unexpected entry from the Atlantic Coast Conference, rallied from a 10-point first-half deficit to thrash the Redmen, 97-74. St. Bonaventure, getting a combined effort of 63 points from All-America Tom Stith and sophomore Fred Crawford, also came from behind in the second half to down Rhode Island, 86-76.

In the other eastern regional contest as part of the Madison Square Garden tripleheaders, Pete Campbell's 27 points led Princeton to an 84-67 victory over George Washington.

Louisville got a 17-point performance from John Turner to pull out a 76-70 triumph over stubborn Ohio University while big Ed Noe and little Granny Williams paced Morehead State over Xavier of Ohio, 71-66, in the Mideast regional action at Louisville, Ky.

For Friday night's eastern regional at Charlotte, N. C., that leaves Wake Forest taking on the Bonnie and Princeton meeting St. Joseph's (Pa.), which drew a bye into the second round.

Unbeaten Ohio State (24-0) waits to meet Louisville and Kentucky (18-8) clashes with Morehead State in Saturday's second round play of the mideast regionals at Louisville. The Buckeyes, Big Ten titlists and the nation's top-ranked team, and Adolph Rupp's Wildcats, Southeastern Conference representative, drew first round byes.

The Midwest and the Far West regionals get underway tonight with Houston (16-9) tangling with Marquette (16-10) and Arizona State (21-5) playing Seattle (18-7) and Southern California (20-6), ranked No. 5, playing Oregon (15-11).

Len Chappell scored 31 points and pulled down 20 rebounds in leading the Wake Forest attack. Alley Hart tossed in 28 points and Dave Wiedeman added 22 for the Demon Deacons from Winston Salem, N. C.

Crawford tossed in 34 points and Stith 29 for the Bonnies, who were down, 43-38, at halftime.

Princeton, despite the loss of Captain Don Swan, who was injured early in the game, rolled over George Washington, which got only 11 points from its ace, Jon Feldman.

Marin Swim Teams Win Three Meets

Marin high school varsity swim teams had a terrific day yesterday as splashers from San Rafael, Tamalpais and Drake high schools all scored victories in their home pools.

Tam trimmed St. Ignatius 61-34, Drake downed Washington 57-38 and San Rafael edged out Montgomery 50-45.

Rick Snow was a double winner for Tamalpais as he took the 100-yard butterfly in 1:00.4, and the 200-yard individual medley in 2:20.7. In both events he set new school records.

'B' COMPETITION

Tam also won the "B" team meet, 44-42.

Drake also had a double winner in the same two events in beating Washington.

Tony Crossler won the 100-yard butterfly in 1:03, and added the 200-yard individual medley in 2:29. The visitors took only a single first place during the meet.

Drake's powerful "B" team buried the Washington jayvees 78-8 with Terry Poleti and Bill Kelsey each winning a pair of events. Poleti took the 100-yard medley in 1:08 and the 100-yard backstroke in 1:05.6. Kelsey won the 100-yard freestyle in 58.5 and the 50 free in 26.4 seconds.

A CLOSE ONE

San Rafael had a tougher time of it with Montgomery as the visitors swept all freestyle events, but the Marinites succeeded in offsetting those losses with strong showings in other events. Lou Yuran won the 100-yard backstroke in 1:13.5 and Pete Lombardi the 100-yard breaststroke in 1:16 in two of the day's better performances.

Montgomery edged out San Rafael 44-42 in the "B" competition. Barry Swain took the 50-yard freestyle in 26.8 seconds.

SHURE, IF YOU'RE entertain' durin' St. Pat's Day week, here's a clever, unusual, and absolutely delicious confection — a centerpiece and conversation piece that will make any Irish heart proud. It's a big, green, glistening shamrock made of popcorn!

Begorrah, Beguiling Popcorn Shamrock

Shure, if you're entertainin' durin' St. Pat's Day week, here's a clever, unusual, and absolutely delicious confection—a centerpiece and conversation piece that will make any Irish heart proud. It's a big, green, glistening shamrock made of popcorn!

So simple to make, all it requires is some cardboard, a bit of aluminum foil, your favorite light popcorn ball recipe and a few drops of green food coloring.

When finished, your shamrock can be decorated with small shamrocks and set on a doilie on a cake plate in the center of your table.

Best of all, you can make your shamrock days ahead of time, wrap it in foil or saran, and it'll be fresh and crisp come serving time.

Here's how to make this Irishman's Dream:

Cut a shamrock measuring 10 inches from top to the bottom of the stem and about 7 inches from side to side out of a piece of cardboard. Cover the shamrock with aluminum foil.

Pop about three quarts of popcorn and put in a buttered bowl in a slow oven (300 degrees). Make your favorite light popcorn ball syrup, and, to the cooked syrup, add a teaspoon of green food coloring.

Set aside about a fourth of the syrup (keeping it hot enough to stay liquid) and pour the rest over the popped corn, mixing well with a buttered spoon.

Working quickly (with your hands greased or slightly wet) pile the coated popcorn onto the shamrock pattern, packing it firmly on all sides. Build to a height of at least two inches. Let the mold cool.

For the finishing touches, trim rough edges with a sharp knife and using a pastry brush, touch up any spots not thoroughly coated with the remaining syrup.

After that, slice, serve and watch it disappear! Incidentally, it's wonderful with ice cream.

BASIC SYRUP RECIPE

2½ cups granulated sugar
1 cup light corn syrup
¾ cup water
½ cup butter or margarine
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla

Mix together sugar, syrup, water, butter or margarine, and salt in a saucepan. Bring to soft crack stage (270 to 290° F). Remove from heat and stir in vanilla and food coloring.

To Cheese Or Not To Cheese?

One of the simplest dishes we prepare, spaghetti with white clam sauce, often gets as much applause as an elaborate creation.

New Yorkers are likely to make special trips to eat this combination in their favorite little Italian restaurants where the sauce always is made with fresh clams. But for stay-at-home cooks, and those in many other parts of the country, canned clams from the pantry shelf do very well indeed.

Just one lament. We used to be able to get canned minced razor clams from the Pacific coast, and they were perfect in this sauce. In recent months, however, none are to be found in New York markets. Perhaps you can ferret out some. At present we use canned minced clams from the east coast.

One warning: don't overcook the pasta. When the spaghetti for the dish is still al dente, it seems to absorb the good clam juices better than when it is cooked to a soft stage.

Should olive oil or butter be used in the sauce? Italian cook books specify the oil; American cooks sometimes use butter. If you substitute butter for oil, remember you'll need to up the amount by a couple of tablespoons.

Now to the controversial matter of whether or not grated cheese should be passed with the pasta and clam sauce. Classicists say NO CHEESE, and we're inclined to agree with that verdict because the cheese does take away from the pure flavor of the clams. Other fans of this dish wouldn't dream of eating it without cheese. Try it both ways and decide for yourself.

SPAGHETTI WITH WHITE CLAM SAUCE

½ pound spaghettini or linguini
¼ cup olive oil
2 medium cloves garlic
1 can (7½ ounces) minced clams
Freshly-ground black pepper
Minced parsley

Cook the pasta according to package directions using the amount of water and salt called for, just until tender-firm. Drain in a colander. Add oil to kettle with crushed or minced garlic and heat; add clams, including juice, and drained pasta and heat. Toss together until pasta absorbs clam liquid, adding salt to taste. Serve at once, passing pepper mill and minced parsley. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Tam Librarian Winner In CTA Recipe Contest

Mrs. Sidney Thompson, Tamalpais High School librarian, attended a luncheon at the Kaiser Center in Oakland Saturday. She is one of 18 Bay Area winners in the California Teachers' Assn. recipe contest.

Dishes prepared from winning recipes were served at the luncheon, which was sponsored by the Bay Section Council of the C.T.A.

Mrs. Thompson's two original recipes were for old fashioned hominy puff and green bean-beef casserole, and her third was for "Ham Hawaiian."

The contest was held to collect recipes for a cookbook to be sold to the public as a means of providing scholarships for high schools.

This Recipe Saves On Time

NEW YORK (UPI)—An electric blender shortens mixing time for these fudge cookies.

Melt ½ cup of butter or margarine in same amount of milk in small saucepan over low heat. Pour into blender with 3 (1 ounce) squares of bitter chocolate, coarsely cut. Cover and blend 10 seconds, or until smooth. Leave motor running, remove lid and add 1 egg and 1 cup of firmly packed brown sugar. Continue blending until smooth.

Pour this syrup into mixing bowl containing 2 cups of sifted all-purpose flour and 2 teaspoons of baking powder. Stir until blended. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto greased cookie sheets. Bake 15 minutes in a preheated 375-degree oven. Cool on wire rack. Makes about three dozen cookies.

Lemonade Pie Brings On Spring

With the winter we have had, Spring will be more welcome than ever this year. In fact, we will be so happy to see Spring that we are suggesting that you rush it a bit by making this springlike Lemonade Chiffon Pie. It would make an ideal dessert for a bridge luncheon or garden club meeting. Present it as shown in the picture, with freshly starched and ironed napkins, a springlike touch that is easy to obtain with washer starching.

Don't tell your guests what's in the pie. Let them guess that it's frozen lemonade. The pie is made by a new chiffon technique which gives a creamy consistency without the addition of high-calorie cream. The secret is the corn syrup. The crust is made with margarine and called "Everybody's Pastry."

LEMONADE CHIFFON PIE

1 envelope unflavored gelatine
¼ cup cold water
3 egg yolks
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup light corn syrup
1 6-ounce can frozen lemonade concentrate
3 egg whites
1 baked 9-inch Everybody's Pastry shell

Soften gelatine in cold water. Beat egg yolks and the salt in bowl. Place ½ cup of the corn syrup in a saucepan. Bring to a boil, then stir gradually into beaten yolks. Add softened gelatine and stir until gelatine is completely dissolved. Add frozen lemonade and stir until melted. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. Gradually beat in remaining ½ cup corn syrup. Fold gelatin mixture into beaten whites; chill until thick enough to pile up. Pile slightly into baked Everybody's Pastry shell.

EVERYBODY'S PASTRY SHELL

1 cup flour
6 tablespoons margarine
¼ teaspoon salt

2 to 3 tablespoons cold water

Place ½ cup flour in a mixing bowl. With a pastry blender or 2 knives, scissor-fashion, cut in margarine until mixture looks like coarse meal. Add remaining flour and salt and mix until thoroughly blended. Sprinkle water, 1 tablespoon at a time, over flour mixture tossing quickly with a fork until all is moistened. Shape into a ball with the hands.

Roll dough on a lightly floured board or a cloth until it forms a circle at least one inch larger than the top of the pie pan; gently fit into pan. Fold extra pastry back and under. Flute as desired. Prick pastry thoroughly with fork to prevent puffing during baking. Bake in hot oven (450° F.) 12 to 15 minutes or until delicately browned. Cool and fill.

CELEBRATE YOUR first daffodil blooms with a spring pie. This one is a Lemonade Chiffon Pie shown on a crisp, freshly starched and ironed mat.

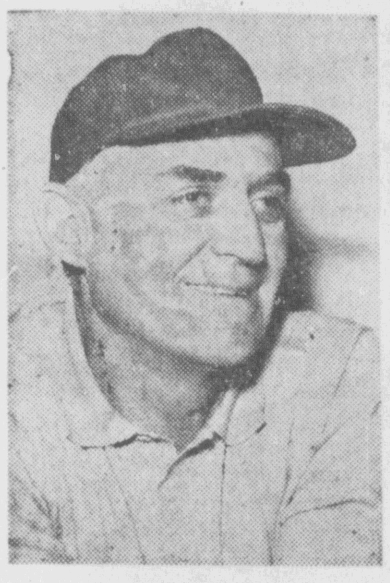
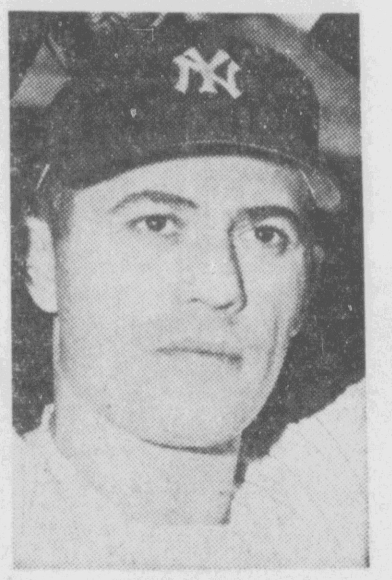
Big March Of Dimes Baseball Benefit With Major League Pros Is Sunday



SAM CHAPMAN
Athletics



ART SHALLOCK
Yankees

Plans are nearing completion today for next Sunday's March of Dimes benefit baseball game at San Rafael's Albert Field, Promoter Don Lauters announced today.

He said the 1:30 p.m. contest would feature an assortment of former professional stars and up and coming youngsters of outstanding potential. The game will match the Marin All-Stars, featuring at least six former major leaguers, against the Gino Benedetti semi-professional team of San Francisco.

All proceeds will go to the March of Dimes, said Lauters, a former professional himself. Admission will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for children under 16.

Lauters said former major leaguers scheduled to play for the Marin All-Stars are Art Schallock of San Rafael (New York Yankees); Sam Chapman of Greenbrae (Philadelphia Athletics); Reno DeBenedetti, Pittsburgh Pirates; Ray Hamric, Athletics; Augie Galan, and Bill Serena, both of the Chicago Cubs.

Several others, who played in the high minor leagues, are Bill Enos of the San Francisco Seals; Walt Pocekay, Oakland and San Diego; Lloyd Dickey, San Diego and Seattle; Dario Lodigiano, Seals; and Joe Anselmo of the Tulsa Oilers.

Pitchers for the Benedetti team will be Marino Pieretti, formerly with Washington and Chicago of the American League and later with San Francisco, Sacramento and Los Angeles of the Pacific Coast League, and Ken Kimball, longtime PCL player with Sacramento and Portland.

The Benedetti team also features a 15-year-old outstanding prospect in Fred Fransted of San Rafael, a centerfielder. Young Fransted, according to Lauters, "shows real promise of being a bright star very soon."

Entertainment and the appearance of civic personalities will share some of the spotlight at Sunday's game, Lauters said.

Trophy At Stake In Game Tomorrow

A championship trophy will be at stake tomorrow night when the Cain Tire and Maggi Florist basketball teams square off at 8 in the San Rafael High School gymnasium.

The two teams would up in a tie with six win, two loss records in the final standings of the San Rafael Recreation Class B League, and will be battling it out for league honors tomorrow night.

The FISHIN' FOOL

STEVENS

Over the airways, over the telephone wires, and individual and collective conversations, the lament blared forth: Where, oh where, have the stripers gone? Is it the full moon? Minus tides or what? Friday fishing was good, almost hot all the way from China Camp to the area in back of the Rock Wall across from Rodeo. Saturday it was as though some fiendish fanatic had turned a spigot off and the flow of fish came to a sudden stop.

One of my closest pals, traffic cop Bob Johnson, called to read me the riot act. "Wadda yumean, fishing would be good," he declared. "My neighbor across the street and I fished the upper San Pablo Bay (in the spots you suggested) from seven o'clock Saturday morning to after five in the afternoon. My friend caught one bass, I caught nothing of legal size — not even enough flounders to bring home."

Well, so long as there are fish and fishermen, this sort of thing will happen. Sunday was no better than Saturday.

I'D LIKE to say Tuesday may see a return of the fast action with stripers, but while I can't give the reason, I fear that until the minus tides are over it will be slow. Perhaps the afternoon of Thursday will be the starting time for the return. I hope it will happen sooner, but my records dating back to 1931 disclose that almost without exception, bass fishing is very slow during a series of minus tides.

The odd thing about this particular period is that even the flounders seemed to quit biting in the upper San Pablo, although the Quans at China Camp told me quite a few of the flatties were taken on Saturday and Sunday.

PLEASE DON'T get me wrong. Some fish will be taken by some of the more lucky anglers in spite of full moon, minus tides and all.

To help that luck along it is well that you realize that most of the fish that do hit a bait will hit it very lightly. You've gotta be on the alert to set the hook almost before you feel a slight nibble. You must use a taut line at all times.

THE FULL MOON and the minus tides have had no effect on the silver horde out in the Pacific. Sunday was a salmon fishing fiesta for most of the parties aboard the party boats. Lots of salmon in the six to eight pound class; quite a few ran around 10 pounds, a fairish number that went 15 pounds and few real lunkers to over 25 pounds.

Listening to the skippers

LISTENING to the skippers chatting with each other over my Halicrafter, I know that salmon trolling was exceptionally good on the Sabbath. One boat was on the way in with limits to 15 pounds at high noon.

LOCH LOMOND Marina in San Rafael reported these catches on boats berthed there: Roy Hall and friends took limits to 10 pounds near Duxbury Reef; Dick Lynch of Larkspur and friends limited out, including one 14½-pounder off Double Point; Dr. Robert Alderson of San Rafael, his son, along with Max Biggs and son Blake accounted for seven fish averaging eight pounds off Duxbury.

Blake Biggs, who celebrated his 10th birthday Monday, caught the two largest fish in Dr. Alberson's party.

Santa Cruz Man Begins Comeback In Hometown Ring

SANTA CRUZ (AP) — Roque Maravilla of Santa Cruz has started a comeback in the light heavyweight ranks after a year's layoff.

He battered Artie Dixon of Los Angeles for a convincing 10-round decision last night.

Maravilla weighed 179½; Dixon, 175.

Maravilla was out of boxing a year because of a back injury.

Dixon cut Maravilla over the right eye in the second round with a fast jab. It bothered Maravilla but he took charge halfway in the fight and severly punished Dixon with body punches.

Sign Ups For Pony League Scheduled

All San Rafael boys, 13 to 16, who wish to play Pony League baseball must sign up for the 1961 season Friday from 7 to 9 p.m. and Saturday, 9 to 5 p.m. at Albert's Field.

This year 73 boys are coming up from Little League. With these and the older boys, about 180 to 200 boys will be participating in the program. It is sponsored by the San Rafael Recreation Department, San Rafael business firms and civic organizations and parents. Try-outs will be held March 26 and April 1, said a league spokesman.

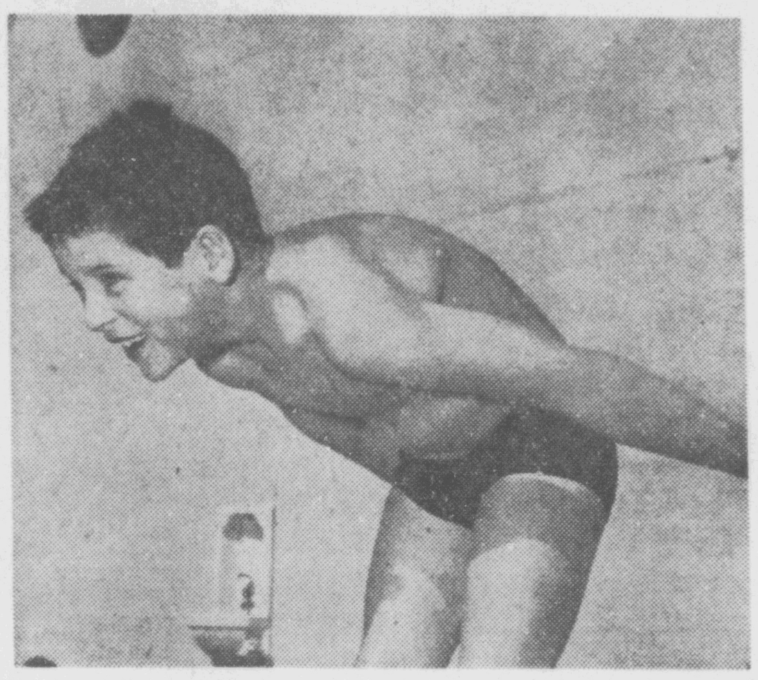
Runnerup honors went to Chuck Gearheard with 136-186-147—469. Following were Nate Byers, 162-146-148—456; Mike Ferlatte, 146-130-171 — 447; Tony Korpi, 133-181-120—444; Dan Hubbard, 180-131-129—440.

Frank Mooney walked off with the glory in Saturday's Junior League. Mooney had a fine 202, followed by 170 and 122 for a 494 total. Other leaders among the boys were Rich Connor, 149-146-158—453; Fred Hilton, 142-148-142—432; Mike Meherin, 124-140-146—410.

Games of 95 and 97 for a 202 series by Kathy Cronkright led Junior Girls. Donna Cowan had a 115 game and Susan Gray a 110.



THREE FOR THREE—Marin Pirate swimmer Robin Yeager, 8, this last weekend won his third gold medal in three attempts in competitive meets. Yeager, who has only been in competitive swimming since fall, is a third grader at Wolf Grade Elementary School, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Yeager of 119 Broadway, Kentfield.

8 Year Old Captures His 3rd Gold Medal

Paced by eight-year-old Robin Yeager, the team's only gold medal winner, Beth Kaufman's Marin Pirates scored 23 times in 32 events in the annual San Francisco Park and Recreation Department Swimming Championships this weekend.

Young Yeager, competing in the eight and under boys 25-yard freestyle, splashed home in 15.8 seconds. It was his third gold medal in as many AAU meets in his competitive career. He also was sixth in the 10 and under boys 50 yard back stroke race.

Other Pirates to score in the meet were: George Girvin, third, 13-14 boys 100 free and 100 back, and sixth, senior men's 100 butterfly; Roberta Shistar, third, 10 and under girls 50 butterfly, fourth 50 back, and sixth, 50 free; Kirsten Beeler, third, 13-14 girls 50 free, and fifth, senior women's 200 free.

Another weekend swim contest the Palo Alto Novice Meet at Stanford pool, attracted two Pirates who placed there: Tom Nannizzi, second, 10 and under boys 50 breast; and Anne Nicholson, sixth, 11-12 girls 50 free.

Also at the Palo Alto meet, the Tamalpais Swim Club splashed its way to some placements, but gathered no gold medals. Tam will clash with the Marin Pirates March 29, at 1:30 p.m. in a speed meet at the Tamalpais High School swimming pool.

The following are placers in the weekend meet for the Tam club:

Janet Krone, 2nd, (11-12 year old) 50 backstroke; Valerie Woodworth, 2nd, (13-14 year old) 100 freestyle; Vicki Gross, 3rd, (11-12 year old) 50 butterfly; Sue Krieger, 11-12 year old) 50 free; Mike MacDonald, 3rd, (10 and under) 50 breaststroke; Valerie Woodworth, 3rd, (13-14 year old) 100 back; Tina Shapiro, 4th, (11-12 year old) 50 breast; Cynthia Hurley, 5th, (13-14 year old) 100 back; Emily Thomson, 5th, (10 and under) 50 breast; Valerie Woodworth, 5th, (13-14 year old) 100 fly; Sue Krieger, 5th, (11-12 year old) 50 fly; Vickie Hoetger, 5th, (11-12 year old) 50 breast; Cynthia Hurley, 6th, (13-14 year old) 100 fly; Cynthia Hurley, 6th, (13-14 year old) 200 medley.

Warriors Beaten In Playoff Tilt

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

It's one of Wilt Chamberlain's ambitions to lead the Philadelphia Warriors to the National Basketball Assn. championship.

But, just as in his rookie year last year, the former All-America from Kansas may fail to achieve his goal.

The Warriors and Chamberlain took a 115-107 beating from the Syracuse Nationals last night in the first of the best-of-five Eastern Division preliminary playoffs. The Western Division first round playoff also opened with the Los Angeles Lakers getting the jump over the Detroit Pistons 120-102.

Elementary Schools Battle In Tourney

Reed and Larkspur-Corte Madera won games in the Redwood Elementary Basketball Tournament at Redwood High School yesterday.

Reed beat Ross 29-16 with Gary Modila tallying 14 points. Larkspur-Corte Madera edged out Henry Hall 23-21. Parkie Stephenson scored 10 for the winners, Steve Marshal an equal number of points for the losers.

Although we can trace our "family tree" back much further, it has just been 35 years since the name SAFEWAY first appeared over a food store. All through these years, Safeway has been a tremendous factor in the economy and growth of our wonderful Golden State. Space permits us to list only a small part of the purchases made in California last year so we'll touch on just a few examples which we think will be of interest to you . . . Safeway's purchases of fresh fruit and vegetables in California last year totaled 79,000 carloads. Purchases of fresh meat, fish, and poultry in California last year totaled 250,000,000 pounds or the equivalent of 10,000 carloads, at a cost of $100,000,000. During this same period, we bought approximately $15,000,000 worth of milk for our plants and our egg purchases exceeded 40,000,000 dozen . . . all from California farmers exclusive of our buying from other supply sources. This is new wealth. The number of dollars multiplies as it passes through the marketing and distribution channels and vitally relates to thousands of jobs. This is money that stays in California. At the present time, Safeway employs thousands of people in the United States . . . all of them receiving "able-to-buy" incomes and this, we think, you will agree helps our country's economy!

SHURE, IF YOU'RE entertain' durin' St. Pat's Day week, here's a clever, unusual, and absolutely delicious confection — a centerpiece and conversation piece that will make any Irish heart proud. It's a big, green, glistening shamrock made of popcorn!

Begorrah, Beguiling Popcorn Shamrock

Shure, if you're entertainin' durin' St. Pat's Day week, here's a clever, unusual, and absolutely delicious confection—a centerpiece and conversation piece that will make any Irish heart proud. It's a big, green, glistening shamrock made of popcorn!

So simple to make, all it requires is some cardboard, a bit of aluminum foil, your favorite light popcorn ball recipe and a few drops of green food coloring.

When finished, your shamrock can be decorated with small shamrocks and set on a doilie on a cake plate in the center of your table.

Best of all, you can make your shamrock days ahead of time, wrap it in foil or saran, and it'll be fresh and crisp come serving time.

Here's how to make this Irishman's Dream:

Cut a shamrock measuring 10 inches from top to the bottom of the stem and about 7 inches from side to side out of a piece of cardboard. Cover the shamrock with aluminum foil.

Pop about three quarts of popcorn and put in a buttered bowl in a slow oven (300 degrees). Make your favorite light popcorn ball syrup, and, to the cooked syrup, add a teaspoon of green food coloring.

Set aside about a fourth of the syrup (keeping it hot enough to stay liquid) and pour the rest over the popped corn, mixing well with a buttered spoon.

Working quickly (with your hands greased or slightly wet) pile the coated popcorn onto the shamrock pattern, packing it firmly on all sides. Build to a height of at least two inches. Let the mold cool.

For the finishing touches, trim rough edges with a sharp knife and using a pastry brush, touch up any spots not thoroughly coated with the remaining syrup.

After that, slice, serve and watch it disappear! Incidentally, it's wonderful with ice cream.

BASIC SYRUP RECIPE

2½ cups granulated sugar
1 cup light corn syrup
¾ cup water
½ cup butter or margarine
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla

Mix together sugar, syrup, water, butter or margarine, and salt in a saucepan. Bring to soft crack stage (270 to 290° F). Remove from heat and stir in vanilla and food coloring.

This Recipe Saves On Time

NEW YORK (UPI)—An electric blender shortens mixing time for these fudge cookies.

Melt ½ cup of butter or margarine in same amount of milk in small saucepan over low heat. Pour into blender with 3 (1 ounce) squares of bitter chocolate, coarsely cut. Cover and blend 10 seconds, or until smooth. Leave motor running, remove lid and add 1 egg and 1 cup of firmly packed brown sugar. Continue blending until smooth.

Pour this syrup into mixing bowl containing 2 cups of sifted all-purpose flour and 2 teaspoons of baking powder. Stir until blended. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto greased cookie sheets. Bake 15 minutes in a preheated 375-degree oven. Cool on wire rack. Makes about three dozen cookies.

Accent On Youth

Influenced by growing numbers of young mothers, maternity wear designers take a youthful approach to spring styles.

Lemonade Pie Brings On Spring

With the winter we have had, Spring will be more welcome than ever this year. In fact, we will be so happy to see Spring that we are suggesting that you rush it a bit by making this springlike Lemonade Chiffon Pie. It would make an ideal dessert for a bridge luncheon or garden club meeting. Present it as shown in the picture, with freshly starched and ironed napkins, a springlike touch that is easy to obtain with washer starching.

Don't tell your guests what's in the pie. Let them guess that it's frozen lemonade. The pie is made by a new chiffon technique which gives a creamy consistency without the addition of high-calorie cream. The secret is the corn syrup. The crust is made with margarine and called "Everybody's Pastry."

LEMONADE CHIFFON PIE

1 envelope unflavored gelatine
¼ cup cold water
3 egg yolks
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup light corn syrup
1 6-ounce can frozen lemonade concentrate
3 egg whites
1 baked 9-inch Everybody's Pastry shell

Soften gelatine in cold water. Beat egg yolks and the salt in bowl. Place ½ cup of the corn syrup in a saucepan. Bring to a boil, then stir gradually into beaten yolks. Add softened gelatine and stir until gelatine is completely dissolved. Add frozen lemonade and stir until melted. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. Gradually beat in remaining ½ cup corn syrup. Fold gelatin mixture into beaten whites; chill until thick enough to pile up. Pile slightly into baked Everybody's Pastry shell.

EVERYBODY'S PASTRY SHELL

1 cup flour
6 tablespoons margarine
¼ teaspoon salt

2 to 3 tablespoons cold water

Place ½ cup flour in a mixing bowl. With a pastry blender or 2 knives, scissor-fashion, cut in margarine until mixture looks like coarse meal. Add remaining flour and salt and mix until thoroughly blended. Sprinkle water, 1 tablespoon at a time, over flour mixture tossing quickly with a fork until all is moistened. Shape into a ball with the hands.

Roll dough on a lightly floured board or a cloth until it forms a circle at least one inch larger than the top of the pie pan; gently fit into pan. Fold extra pastry back and under. Flute as desired. Prick pastry thoroughly with fork to prevent puffing during baking. Bake in hot oven (450° F.) 12 to 15 minutes or until delicately browned. Cool and fill.

To Cheese Or Not To Cheese?

One of the simplest dishes we prepare, spaghetti with white clam sauce, often gets as much applause as an elaborate creation.

New Yorkers are likely to make special trips to eat this combination in their favorite little Italian restaurants where the sauce always is made with fresh clams. But for stay-at-home cooks, and those in many other parts of the country, canned clams from the pantry shelf do very well indeed.

Just one lament. We used to be able to get canned minced razor clams from the Pacific coast, and they were perfect in this sauce. In recent months, however, none are to be found in New York markets. Perhaps you can ferret out some. At present we use canned minced clams from the east coast.

One warning: don't overcook the pasta. When the spaghetti for the dish is still al dente, it seems to absorb the good clam juices better than when it is cooked to a soft stage.

Should olive oil or butter be used in the sauce? Italian cook books specify the oil; American cooks sometimes use butter. If you substitute butter for oil, remember you'll need to up the amount by a couple of tablespoons.

Now to the controversial matter of whether or not grated cheese should be passed with the pasta and clam sauce. Classicists say NO CHEESE, and we're inclined to agree with that verdict because the cheese does take away from the pure flavor of the clams. Other fans of this dish wouldn't dream of eating it without cheese. Try it both ways and decide for yourself.

SPAGHETTI WITH WHITE CLAM SAUCE

½ pound spaghettini or linguini
¼ cup olive oil
2 medium cloves garlic
1 can (7½ ounces) minced clams
Freshly-ground black pepper
Minced parsley

Cook the pasta according to package directions using the amount of water and salt called for, just until tender-firm. Drain in a colander. Add oil to kettle with crushed or minced garlic and heat; add clams, including juice, and drained pasta and heat. Toss together until pasta absorbs clam liquid, adding salt to taste. Serve at once, passing pepper mill and minced parsley. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Tam Librarian Winner In CTA Recipe Contest

Mrs. Sidney Thompson, Tamalpais High School librarian, attended a luncheon at the Kaiser Center in Oakland Saturday. She is one of 18 Bay Area winners in the California Teachers' Assn. recipe contest.

Dishes prepared from winning recipes were served at the luncheon, which was sponsored by the Bay Section Council of the C.T.A.

Mrs. Thompson's two original recipes were for old fashioned hominy puff and green bean-beef casserole, and her third was for "Ham Hawaiian."

The contest was held to collect recipes for a cookbook to be sold to the public as a means of providing scholarships for high schools.

We Can Be Doubly Proud We're All-American County

It is not often that a whole community gets national recognition for a job well done.

Thus it is with double pleasure that we learned of today's selection of Marin County for the All American Cities award for 1961.

It is only the second time in the 12 years of presentations—11 each year—that a county by itself has been selected for the honor. In 1950, second year of the competition, Montgomery County, Md., was named. Not since then has a county been so singled out, although counties have been honored jointly with a city in their borders on three other occasions.

The selection of Marin County, however, was not on the basis of governmental activities, although these were a part of the overall achievement. The award, in fact, went to the people of the county, people who reside in the cities as well as in county areas, people who worked together over many years to make Marin County the kind of a county it is today.

The judges, appointed by the sponsoring National Municipal League and Look Magazine, considered efforts of individuals that went as far back as 1908. In that year, William Kent Sr. gave Muir Woods to the National Park Service as a national monument to preserve that beautiful stand of redwoods.

This set the tone for the future of Marin as a community dedicated to the preservation of beauty and nature, a community which cares about preserving its heritage and dedicating its natural abundance to the use of people, a community which cares about its people, too.

It was not by accident that Marin has five state parks. It was not by accident that an architect famous for designing buildings to fit into their surroundings was selected to create our new civic center. It was not by accident that Marin County is the only county in the whole United States which has undertaken a redevelopment project in a slum area. It was not by accident that the people themselves put up most of the money to buy a 700 acre bird refuge threatened by subdivisions. It was not by accident that the federal government is considering establishment of a Pt. Reyes National Seashore area here.

All of these things, and many, many more have come about because the people of Marin care about the beauties of nature, care about people who can enjoy them.

This spirit is the real thing that is being honored today, the dedication of Marin's people to the enjoyment of beauty.

No wonder we can all be doubly proud that Marin County has been selected from 103 entrants for national recognition; proud that we care about beauty and nature, proud that we're willing to do something about it.

HIGH PRICE OF VANDALISM

Vandalism costs the Long Island Railroad $150,000 yearly.

This figure involves:

$80,000 to replace passenger windows broken by rock-throwing youngsters.

$20,000 for replacement of stolen or damaged equipment.

$50,000 for repairing property damaged at stations and in freight yards.

A 50-man special police force is undertaking an intensive drive to apprehend the offenders.

Though it is important and necessary to restrain and punish those who wantonly destroy the property of others, it is just as vital to get at the heart of the matter with constructive solutions.

Remind both young and old that they violate the nature God gave them when they burn and destroy what is good. You and every other individual have been made to create and build. Only in doing this can you and they find happiness.

"If thy right hand is an occasion of sin to thee, cut if off and cast it from thee."

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

Of Snails, Marriages, Animals With 'X' And Average Babies

NEW YORK (AP) — How sure are you of your own teeth? Nearly 22 million Americans don't have teeth, about 13 per cent of us all. The tooth you may save by brushing could be your own!

Here's an old reminder of a present truth: One marriage in four ends in divorce.

I am informed that if you melted the Statue of Liberty down, you could make 30 million pennies from the copper of it. But since the old girl has given 10 times that many golden dreams, it is likely we can continue to afford to keep her on her same old stand — better investment.

Can you name four animals whose names end in "x"? Don't overlook ibex, lynx, fox and ox.

Five years after cancer is recognized in women, 37 per cent of them are alive; of men, 26 per cent endure.

Someone has figured out that 61 per cent of new car buyers live in the suburbs.

Nature note: The snail, often rebuked for its slowness, has a top speed of three inches a minute, yet retains an overlooked virtue — it is strong. It can pull up to 200 times its own weight.

Bad insects make us neighbors. Japan is troubled with an insect pest there called the Colorado beetle. Here it is called the Japanese beetle.

It was just 60 years ago that—in Wichita, Kan.—Carry Nation made her first hatchet raid against a saloon. You just never see girls like that any longer, although here and there you do encounter one who attacks a deaf bar with a broken martini glass while crying for more.

A nice hope: The average baby born in the United States today can expect to live half again as long as one born in 1900. The next problem is to explain to it why it is all worthwhile.

HERE'S A FUNNY discovery: Psychologists have found that students who have the highest I.Q. and make the best grades also generally have the widest and readiest sense of humor. Moral: If you want better grades, laugh harder—particularly when the professor tells a joke.

How much do you dream? Science has found, about 20 per cent of the time, asleep. Awake, on the job? Well, what does your boss think of you?

THE AVERAGE AMERICAN housewife carries out about 1,000 pounds of garbage yearly.

It was Joseph Hergesheimer who observed, "So long as you are learning, you are not growing old. It's when a man stops learning that he begins to grow old."

Hours To Eat Full Rijsttafel

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I have been meaning to write you about your presentation of the rijsttafel recipes in the March 1 issue of the I-J; Hilde Tool's letter in last night's paper urges me on.

My point is: I was delighted to see rijsttafel featured in the foods section as an education to local cooks! I only wish more recipes could have been included. I lived for 20 years in the Dutch West Indies (now Netherlands Antilles and have enjoyed a rijsttafel many unforgettable times.

Besides the Lenten dishes you gave, there are actually hundreds of recipes, including every known Indonesian form of meat, fowl, fish, vegetable, fruit, roots, herb, flower and spice.

Yet, "rice-table" accompaniments can be classified in eight characteristic groups. A good rijsttafel must balance dishes of five or more groups. A "simple" meal will have 12-15 courses, while an elaborate rijsttafel will take days to prepare, hours to eat, and carry about 40 dishes!

I might add that beer is the classic beverage.

Should Review School Play

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

As the proud mother of a teen-ager I find it very depressing to read so many unfavorable "news" items about teen-agers as you found space for in your issue of March 6. I counted eight of these items as opposed to two favorable items and I think it is about time our young people were given equal space for their favorable achievements.

You could have more than balanced Monday's "news" with just one good spread on the Tamalpais High School show "Pajama Game," which was presented March 2, 3, 4.

There were more than 100 students involved who rehearsed for six weeks and willingly gave up their two holidays and many weekends for this production. These students gave many hundreds of adults an evening of healthy entertainment. Saturday night the show played to a "Standing Room Only" audience, which should prove their efforts were not in vain.

For all their work and community good will, the I-J saw fit to give them two very brief write-ups before the show and NO coverage or review to date. I don't know your policy for covering high school activities, but you certainly owe our teen-agers at least equal space for their good efforts. You could provide a much needed service by contacting the high schools at regular intervals and giving them more consideration than you ever have in the past.

This lack of coverage is particularly noticeable whenever Tamalpais High School is involved. They are treated like a step-child by your paper, and they certainly deserve better treatment than they get from your otherwise fine paper.

Here is a good opportunity for the I-J to prevent "so few giving so many so bad a reputation."

MRS. B. BROWN
Mill Valley.

(NOTE: Readers often find only what they want to find in a newspaper. Here are some of the headlines in our March 6 edition: "Terra Linda High Honor Roll Told," "College Concert Auditions Due," "Scout Winners Are Announced," "Tomales Youths Win Bank Awards In Farmer Contest," "Senior Reach Scholarship Finals," "Kentfield Girls To Serve at U.S. Embassy In Paris." And there were more, including sports.

(We attempt to get "news" from our schools. In fact, last year we won the statewide John Swett Award of the California Teachers Association for "outstanding interpretive reporting of education." We were nominated for the honor by the Tamalpais High School District.

(We can't cover every event in the 29 school districts we serve. We must rely on cooperation of the schools, students and parents. If we don't get cooperation on major news events, we can't do as good a job as we should like to do.)

More Than Tourist Be A Friend

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

The response to my motto "Be more than a tourist, be a friend," in connection with my projected friendship tour through Europe has been heartwarming and encouraging. May I herewith express my deepest gratitude to all who have helped me and especially to the Independent-Journal editors for their understanding and cooperation.

This venture of mine, a long cherished dream, is now becoming reality, but still much more has to be done in the field if international relations.

I believe I can expand my own efforts with this suggestion: Anyone in this area, having friends or relatives living in or near the cities listed below, is cordially invited to contact me in person or by telephone and I shall arrange to bring greetings to these people, show them pictures of our beautiful county and tell them about their friends over here. Some of them might decide to visit us in return! . . .

These are the cities: Lisbon; Seville, Granada, Madrid, Spain; Rome, Sorrento, Assisi, Florence, Venice, Italy; Klagenfurt, Vienna, Salzburg, Austria; Munich, Heidelberg, Cologne, Germany; St. Moritz, Zurich, Switzerland; Copenhagen; Amsterdam; Brussels; Paris; London.

We leave on April 17.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

After a knock-down, drag-out fight with his wife, a husband with a low burning point was in such a rage that he cried: "I'm through! This is the last straw. I'm heading out of this place and do what I've always wanted to do. Me for the wilds of Africa, where I can track down lions, cobras and cannibals!"

He strode determinedly to the door, flung it open, then ran quickly back into the living room.

"Lucky thing for you," he muttered in a strangely subdued voice. "It's drizzling!"

A man with a very sore throat indeed went to the home of a doctor and rang the bell. The door was opened by the doctor's wife. In an almost inaudidble croak, the man inquired: "Is the doctor in?"

In a conspiratorial whisper, equally low, the doctor's wife answered: "No. Come on in."

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By RANDALL GOULD

It Costs Just $1 Per Minute For The Supervisors To Meet

Time is money, they say. Even in carefree Marin.

But there are hours that don't seem very golden.

After suffering through certain sessions of the Marin County Board of Supervisors, I go to bed like a whipped dog cowering to his corner, certain that I haven't made a buck all day.

Of course this is error. Under America's pitiless capitalist system, we downtrodden wage slaves collect our stipends each and every payday regardless of whether we've accomplished anything or not.

BUT SOME WHO show up at the supervisors seem to think nobody on duty there is drawing salary from any source. Probably they have heard that the best things in life come gratis.

Even the supervisors use up time with carefree abandon, on occasion devoting a lot of it to discussions of economy.

Deeming it constructive to check the cost of such meetings, I sought out assistant auditor Michael Mitchell, a fast man with a figure.

Mike took virtually none of the taxpayers' money to calculate that our meetings are priced about $1 per minute.

That's on the conservative side. It takes no account, for instance, of the audience's time—hard to estimate because of fluctuations in number and hiring prices of people present.

LET US GLANCE over Mike's quick calculation in which monthly stipends are reduced to hourly rates.

Start with the five supervisors themselves. They punch no time clock, but for the sake of argument (argument and supervisors are practically synonymous words) let's say they toil a 40-hour week in and out of meetings.

All right, five supervisors at $2.92 per hour give us a basic starting figure of $14.60.

Next comes the county administrator, whose hour costs $6.20, sitting beside the assistant auditor-controller at $4.88.

Either beside Alan Bruce or over in our jury box, is likely to be public works director Marvin W. Brigham, a precious person even though he does look a mite craggy; anyhow he comes at $7.36 per hour.

Clerk George S. Jones certainly isn't a man to forget. He works out at $6.20, with no extra charge for occasional advice and reminiscence.

THERE IS BOUND to be pretty constant in and out movement by various department heads. They include people like the county counsel ($6.78), planning director Mary Summers whose $5.12 is almost sure to be backed up by one or two principal planners at $4.44, assessor, treasurer and other high-priced folk.

Mike and I figured it was fair to reckon on one department head present at an average hourly rate of $5.63. Mostly there are more around.

Finally there is the delicate matter of one Independent-Journal reporter, always present and up to now always paid though not by the taxpayer except indirectly.

Let's lump him in with general overhead at a modest $15.23 for the session, to make things total up for an even $60 an hour.

AT THIS POINT I should advance some well-rounded conclusions.

But the very notion of those sessions supervisorial makes me yawn and feel even more stupid than usual, if such be possible. And contemplating that cost figure of $1 a minute stuns me additionally.

So just let me repeat: When you drop in to marvel at your supervisors, bear in mind that the fun is flowing at $1 every 60 seconds.

Or better, forget it. Full realization might cost jobs, including mine.

Soviet Wants To Trade Lost Causes For Right To Curb U.N. Agenda

WASHINGTON — The Soviet Union is being slyly consistent in proposing that the members of the United Nations should bargain with each other over what items shall be knocked off the U. N. agenda in order to avoid embarrassing discussion.

The Kremlin offers to drop its efforts to get the U. N. to condemn the United States for "aggression" over the U-2 and RB-47 plane incidents if the United States will help "cleanse the Assembly agenda of questions caused by the cold war."

That sounds pretty nice—"cleanse the agenda" of cold war questions.

BEWARE OF Khrushchev bearing gifts. The reality is that the Soviets want to wipe from the U. N. agenda—and, if possible, from the slate of world conscience — the Russian conquest of Hungary and the Red Chinese conquest of Tibet.

This is not a new play for the Kremlin. The Soviet rulers never wanted the United Nations to take up any international issue except with Moscow's permission.

This was part of the one-nation veto system which, at San Francisco, the Soviets sought to attach to the whole functioning of the U. N. All the big powers agreed on the right to veto the use of U. N. force. But Moscow wanted the right to veto any non-military, any pacific proposal or action the United Nations might take—and got it.

MOSCOW ALSO sought the right to veto any item which would come before the U. N. In the end they lost this battle and finally conceded the point—this was after Harry Hopkins flew to Moscow to plead with Stalin when it became clear that the smaller countries would never ratify the charter if the Kremlin insisted upon choking off free debate.

Having been unable to attach the veto to everything, they now propose to bargain off the subjects which the U. N. shall consider; that is, Moscow will stop asking the U. N. to belabor the United States if the U. N. will please forget about Hungary and Tibet.

It seems to me this is a totally improper course which would downgrade and subvert the United Nations. It is also, in its own terms, a rather unequal one.

Unequal, because the Soviets are proposing to give up two items on the U. N. agenda which they have already lost; that is, their unsuccessful effort to get resolutions calling the U. S. an "aggressor" over the plane incidents in return for removing Hungary and Tibet from the agenda on both of which items the U. N. has acted to condemn the Communist aggressions.

THE SOVIET UNION has refused to respond to the U. N. appeals to restore Hungarian independence and, understandably, would prefer not to have their refusal—and their Hungarian colonialism—talked about.

Why shouldn't cold war questions be on the United Nations agenda? What better forum is there to discuss them? Let the Soviets raise the U-2 and the RB-47 all they wish. The United States has no reason to seek the shelter of censorship.

And let's be sure that we in the U. S.—and in the American delegation at the U. N.—do not throw away the principle of free debate in any item-cancelling deal over the agenda.

Although we can trace our "family tree" back much further, it has just been 35 years since the name SAFEWAY first appeared over a food store. All through these years, Safeway has been a tremendous factor in the economy and growth of our wonderful Golden State. Space permits us to list only a small part of the purchases made in California last year so we'll touch on just a few examples which we think will be of interest to you . . . Safeway's purchases of fresh fruit and vegetables in California last year totaled 79,000 carloads. Purchases of fresh meat, fish, and poultry in California last year totaled 250,000,000 pounds or the equivalent of 10,000 carloads, at a cost of $100,000,000. During this same period, we bought approximately $15,000,000 worth of milk for our plants and our egg purchases exceeded 40,000,000 dozen . . . all from California farmers exclusive of our buying from other supply sources. This is new wealth. The number of dollars multiplies as it passes through the marketing and distribution channels and vitally relates to thousands of jobs. This is money that stays in California. At the present time, Safeway employs thousands of people in the United States . . . all of them receiving "able-to-buy" incomes and this, we think, you will agree helps our country's economy!

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, March 15, the 74th day of the year with 291 more in 1961.

The moon is approaching its new quarter.

The morning stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

The evening stars are Venus and Mars.

On this day in history:

In 1767, Andrew Jackson, seventh president of the United States, was born.

In 1820, Maine became the 23rd state in the union.

In 1892, New York became the first state in the union to authorize voting machines.

In 1919, about 1,000 veterans of the American Expeditionary Force met in Paris to form the American Legion.

In 1934, American financier Samuel Insull fled from Athens, Greece, to evade extradition to the United States for fraud.

A thought for today: Andrew Jackson said: "There are no necessary evils in government. Its evils exist only in its abuses."

We Can Be Doubly Proud We're All-American County

It is not often that a whole community gets national recognition for a job well done.

Thus it is with double pleasure that we learned of today's selection of Marin County for the All American Cities award for 1961.

It is only the second time in the 12 years of presentations—11 each year—that a county by itself has been selected for the honor. In 1950, second year of the competition, Montgomery County, Md., was named. Not since then has a county been so singled out, although counties have been honored jointly with a city in their borders on three other occasions.

The selection of Marin County, however, was not on the basis of governmental activities, although these were a part of the overall achievement. The award, in fact, went to the people of the county, people who reside in the cities as well as in county areas, people who worked together over many years to make Marin County the kind of a county it is today.

The judges, appointed by the sponsoring National Municipal League and Look Magazine, considered efforts of individuals that went as far back as 1908. In that year, William Kent Sr. gave Muir Woods to the National Park Service as a national monument to preserve that beautiful stand of redwoods.

This set the tone for the future of Marin as a community dedicated to the preservation of beauty and nature, a community which cares about preserving its heritage and dedicating its natural abundance to the use of people, a community which cares about its people, too.

It was not by accident that Marin has five state parks. It was not by accident that an architect famous for designing buildings to fit into their surroundings was selected to create our new civic center. It was not by accident that Marin County is the only county in the whole United States which has undertaken a redevelopment project in a slum area. It was not by accident that the people themselves put up most of the money to buy a 700 acre bird refuge threatened by subdivisions. It was not by accident that the federal government is considering establishment of a Pt. Reyes National Seashore area here.

All of these things, and many, many more have come about because the people of Marin care about the beauties of nature, care about people who can enjoy them.

This spirit is the real thing that is being honored today, the dedication of Marin's people to the enjoyment of beauty.

No wonder we can all be doubly proud that Marin County has been selected from 103 entrants for national recognition; proud that we care about beauty and nature, proud that we're willing to do something about it.

HIGH PRICE OF VANDALISM

Vandalism costs the Long Island Railroad $150,000 yearly.

This figure involves:

$80,000 to replace passenger windows broken by rock-throwing youngsters.

$20,000 for replacement of stolen or damaged equipment.

$50,000 for repairing property damaged at stations and in freight yards.

A 50-man special police force is undertaking an intensive drive to apprehend the offenders.

Though it is important and necessary to restrain and punish those who wantonly destroy the property of others, it is just as vital to get at the heart of the matter with constructive solutions.

Remind both young and old that they violate the nature God gave them when they burn and destroy what is good. You and every other individual have been made to create and build. Only in doing this can you and they find happiness.

"If thy right hand is an occasion of sin to thee, cut if off and cast it from thee."
(Matthew 5:30)

Imbue all persons, O Divine Master, with a conscientious respect for the rights and property of others.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

Of Snails, Marriages, Animals With 'X' And Average Babies

NEW YORK (AP) — How sure are you of your own teeth? Nearly 22 million Americans don't have teeth, about 13 per cent of us all. The tooth you may save by brushing could be your own!

Here's an old reminder of a present truth: One marriage in four ends in divorce.

I am informed that if you melted the Statue of Liberty down, you could make 30 million pennies from the copper of it. But since the old girl has given 10 times that many golden dreams, it is likely we can continue to afford to keep her on her same old stand — better investment.

Can you name four animals whose names end in "x"? Don't overlook ibex, lynx, fox and ox.

Five years after cancer is recognized in women, 37 per cent of them are alive; of men, 26 per cent endure.

Someone has figured out that 61 per cent of new car buyers live in the suburbs.

Nature note: The snail, often rebuked for its slowness, has a top speed of three inches a minute, yet retains an overlooked virtue — it is strong. It can pull up to 200 times its own weight.

Bad insects make us neighbors. Japan is troubled with an insect pest there called the Colorado beetle. Here it is called the Japanese beetle.

It was just 60 years ago that—in Wichita, Kan.—Carry Nation made her first hatchet raid against a saloon. You just never see girls like that any longer, although here and there you do encounter one who attacks a deaf bar with a broken martini glass while crying for more.

A nice hope: The average baby born in the United States today can expect to live half again as long as one born in 1900. The next problem is to explain to it why it is all worthwhile.

HERE'S A FUNNY discovery: Psychologists have found that students who have the highest I.Q. and make the best grades also generally have the widest and readiest sense of humor. Moral: If you want better grades, laugh harder —particularly when the professor tells a joke.

How much do you dream? Science has found, about 20 per cent of the time, asleep. Awake, on the job? Well, what does your boss think of you?

THE AVERAGE AMERICAN housewife carries out about 1,000 pounds of garbage yearly.

It was Joseph Hergesheimer who observed, "So long as you are learning, you are not growing old. It's when a man stops learning that he begins to grow old."

Hours To Eat Full Rijsttafel

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I have been meaning to write you about your presentation of the rijsttafel recipes in the March 1 issue of the I-J; Hilde Tool's letter in last night's paper urges me on.

My point is: I was delighted to see rijsttafel featured in the foods section as an education to local cooks! I only wish more recipes could have been included. I lived for 20 years in the Dutch West Indies (now Netherlands Antilles and have enjoyed a rijsttafel many unforgettable times.

Besides the Lenten dishes you gave, there are actually hundreds of recipes, including every known Indonesian form of meat, fowl, fish, vegetable, fruit, roots, herb, flower and spice.

Yet, "rice-table" accompaniments can be classified in eight characteristic groups. A good rijsttafel must balance dishes of five or more groups. A "simple" meal will have 12-15 courses, while an elaborate rijsttafel will take days to prepare, hours to eat, and carry about 40 dishes!

I might add that beer is the classic beverage.

Should Review School Play

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

As the proud mother of a teen-ager I find it very depressing to read so many unfavorable "news" items about teen-agers as you found space for in your issue of March 6. I counted eight of these items as opposed to two favorable items and I think it is about time our young people were given equal space for their favorable achievements.

You could have more than balanced Monday's "news" with just one good spread on the Tamalpais High School show "Pajama Game," which was presented March 2, 3, 4.

There were more than 100 students involved who rehearsed for six weeks and willingly gave up their two holidays and many weekends for this production. These students gave many hundreds of adults an evening of healthy entertainment. Saturday night the show played to a "Standing Room Only" audience, which should prove their efforts were not in vain.

For all their work and community good will, the I-J saw fit to give them two very brief write-ups before the show and NO coverage or review to date. I don't know your policy for covering high school activities, but you certainly owe our teen-agers at least equal space for their good efforts. You could provide a much needed service by contacting the high schools at regular intervals and giving them more consideration than you ever have in the past.

This lack of coverage is particularly noticeable whenever Tamalpais High School is involved. They are treated like a step-child by your paper, and they certainly deserve better treatment than they get from your otherwise fine paper.

Here is a good opportunity for the I-J to prevent "so few giving so many so bad a reputation."

MRS. B. BROWN
Mill Valley.

(NOTE: Readers often find only what they want to find in a newspaper. Here are some of the headlines in our March 6 edition: "Terra Linda High Honor Roll Told," "College Concert Auditions Due," "Scout Winners Are Announced," "Tomales Youths Win Bank Awards In Farmer Contest," "Senior Reach Scholarship Finals," "Kentfield Girls To Serve at U.S. Embassy In Paris." And there were more, including sports.

(We attempt to get "news" from our schools. In fact, last year we won the statewide John Swett Award of the California Teachers Association for "outstanding interpretive reporting of education." We were nominated for the honor by the Tamalpais High School District.

(We can't cover every event in the 29 school districts we serve. We must rely on cooperation of the schools, students and parents. If we don't get cooperation on major news events, we can't do as good a job as we should like to do.)

More Than Tourist Be A Friend

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

The response to my motto "Be more than a tourist, be a friend," in connection with my projected friendship tour through Europe has been heartwarming and encouraging. May I herewith express my deepest gratitude to all who have helped me and especially to the Independent-Journal editors for their understanding and cooperation.

This venture of mine, a long cherished dream, is now becoming reality, but still much more has to be done in the field if international relations.

I believe I can expand my own efforts with this suggestion: Anyone in this area, having friends or relatives living in or near the cities listed below, is cordially invited to contact me in person or by telephone and I shall arrange to bring greetings to these people, show them pictures of our beautiful county and tell them about their friends over here. Some of them might decide to visit us in return! . . .

These are the cities: Lisbon; Seville, Granada, Madrid, Spain; Rome, Sorrento, Assisi, Florence, Venice, Italy; Klagenfurt, Vienna, Salzburg, Austria; Munich, Heidelberg, Cologne, Germany; St. Moritz, Zurich, Switzerland; Copenhagen; Amsterdam; Brussels; Paris; London.

We leave on April 17.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

After a knock-down, drag-out fight with his wife, a husband with a low burning point was in such a rage that he cried: "I'm through! This is the last straw. I'm heading out of this place and do what I've always wanted to do. Me for the wilds of Africa, where I can track down lions, cobras and cannibals!"

He strode determinedly to the door, flung it open, then ran quickly back into the living room.

"Lucky thing for you," he muttered in a strangely subdued voice. "It's drizzling!"

A man with a very sore throat indeed went to the home of a doctor and rang the bell. The door was opened by the doctor's wife. In an almost inaudidble croak, the man inquired: "Is the doctor in?"

In a conspiratorial whisper, equally low, the doctor's wife answered: "No. Come on in."

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By RANDALL GOULD

It Costs Just $1 Per Minute For The Supervisors To Meet

Time is money, they say. Even in carefree Marin.

But there are hours that don't seem very golden.

After suffering through certain sessions of the Marin County Board of Supervisors, I go to bed like a whipped dog cowering to his corner, certain that I haven't made a buck all day.

Of course this is error. Under America's pitiless capitalist system, we downtrodden wage slaves collect our stipends each and every payday regardless of whether we've accomplished anything or not.

BUT SOME WHO show up at the supervisors seem to think nobody on duty there is drawing salary from any source. Probably they have heard that the best things in life come gratis.

Even the supervisors use up time with carefree abandon, on occasion devoting a lot of it to discussions of economy.

Deeming it constructive to check the cost of such meetings, I sought out assistant auditor Michael Mitchell, a fast man with a figure.

Mike took virtually none of the taxpayers' money to calculate that our meetings are priced about $1 per minute.

That's on the conservative side. It takes no account, for instance, of the audience's time—hard to estimate because of fluctuations in number and hiring prices of people present.

LET US GLANCE over Mike's quick calculation in which monthly stipends are reduced to hourly rates.

Start with the five supervisors themselves. They punch no time clock, but for the sake of argument (argument and supervisors are practically synonymous words) let's say they toil a 40-hour week in and out of meetings.

All right, five supervisors at $2.92 per hour give us a basic starting figure of $14.60.

Next comes the county administrator, whose hour costs $6.20, sitting beside the assistant auditor-controller at $4.88.

Either beside Alan Bruce or over in our jury box, is likely to be public works director Marvin W. Brigham, a precious person even though he does look a mite craggy; anyhow he comes at $7.36 per hour.

Clerk George S. Jones certainly isn't a man to forget. He works out at $6.20, with no extra charge for occasional advice and reminiscence.

THERE IS BOUND to be pretty constant in and out movement by various department heads. They include people like the county counsel ($6.78), planning director Mary Summers whose $5.12 is almost sure to be backed up by one or two principal planners at $4.44, assessor, treasurer and other high-priced folk.

Mike and I figured it was fair to reckon on one department head present at an average hourly rate of $5.63. Mostly there are more around.

Finally there is the delicate matter of one Independent-Journal reporter, always present and up to now always paid though not by the taxpayer except indirectly.

Let's lump him in with general overhead at a modest $15.23 for the session, to make things total up for an even $60 an hour.

AT THIS POINT I should advance some well-rounded conclusions.

But the very notion of those sessions supervisorial makes me yawn and feel even more stupid than usual, if such be possible. And contemplating that cost figure of $1 a minute stuns me additionally.

So just let me repeat: When you drop in to marvel at your supervisors, bear in mind that the fun is flowing at $1 every 60 seconds.

Or better, forget it. Full realization might cost jobs, including mine.

Soviet Wants To Trade Lost Causes For Right To Curb U.N. Agenda

WASHINGTON — The Soviet Union is being slyly consistent in proposing that the members of the United Nations should bargain with each other over what items shall be knocked off the U. N. agenda in order to avoid embarrassing discussion.

The Kremlin offers to drop its efforts to get the U. N. to condemn the United States for "aggression" over the U-2 and RB-47 plane incidents if the United States will help "cleanse the Assembly agenda of questions caused by the cold war."

That sounds pretty nice—"cleanse the agenda" of cold war questions.

BEWARE OF Khrushchev bearing gifts. The reality is that the Soviets want to wipe from the U. N. agenda—and, if possible, from the slate of world conscience — the Russian conquest of Hungary and the Red Chinese conquest of Tibet.

This is not a new play for the Kremlin. The Soviet rulers never wanted the United Nations to take up any international issue except with Moscow's permission.

This was part of the one-nation veto system which, at San Francisco, the Soviets sought to attach to the whole functioning of the U. N. All the big powers agreed on the right to veto the use of U. N. force. But Moscow wanted the right to veto any non-military, any pacific proposal or action the United Nations might take—and got it.

MOSCOW ALSO sought the right to veto any item which would come before the U. N. In the end they lost this battle and finally conceded the point—this was after Harry Hopkins flew to Moscow to plead with Stalin when it became clear that the smaller countries would never ratify the charter if the Kremlin insisted upon choking off free debate.

Having been unable to attach the veto to everything, they now propose to bargain off the subjects which the U. N. shall consider; that is, Moscow will stop asking the U. N. to belabor the United States if the U. N. will please forget about Hungary and Tibet.

It seems to me this is a totally improper course which would downgrade and subvert the United Nations. It is also, in its own terms, a rather unequal one.

Unequal, because the Soviets are proposing to give up two items on the U. N. agenda which they have already lost; that is, their unsuccessful effort to get resolutions calling the U. S. an "aggressor" over the plane incidents in return for removing Hungary and Tibet from the agenda on both of which items the U. N. has acted to condemn the Communist aggressions.

THE SOVIET UNION has refused to respond to the U. N. appeals to restore Hungarian independence and, understandably, would prefer not to have their refusal—and their Hungarian colonialism—talked about.

Why shouldn't cold war questions be on the United Nations agenda? What better forum is there to discuss them? Let the Soviets raise the U-2 and the RB-47 all they wish. The United States has no reason to seek the shelter of censorship.

And let's be sure that we in the U. S.—and in the American delegation at the U. N.—do not throw away the principle of free debate in any item-cancelling deal over the agenda.

Whipping Teen-Agers Is Affront To Their Maturity; Don't Do It

Do you have teen-agers at home? Do you still whip them? Then stop. Don't ever use corporal punishment on a teenager. I've been talking to "Mrs. Jones" and her daughter, "Betty." They illustrate what I mean.

"I love Betty," Mrs. Jones said, between sobs, "I love her and I want her to be a good girl. That is why I whipped her. I started whipping when she was little and I've kept it up. She used to be better after each whipping; lately she's been worse and now she's awful!" Then Mrs. Jones broke down and cried as if her heart would break.

"I'll tell you what happened," Betty said. "I love my mom. But I'm too big to whip. When she tried it this morning, I lost my temper. Then I took the whip away from her and whipped her—hard. Gee, I'm sorry." Then Betty broke down and sobbed.

See what happened? Mrs. Jones is a good mother in most ways. She loves her girl. She wants only the best for her. Betty is a nice kid who loves her mother dearly. But Mrs. Jones made the mistake of whipping Betty again. Betty is 15. Whipping was an affront to her new maturity. She lost control, and whipped her mother. Could that happen in your home? I hope not.

There is a place for corporal punishment with children. It comes when they are little. While they are small you can teach important lessons by spankings. But even then spanking should be a last resort. Always use the mildest punishment that will teach the needed lesson.

There is no place for any sort of corporal punishment with teenagers. It always makes matters worse. Don't forget Mrs. Jones and Betty. You can profit from their experience.

Music May Come From Computers

TULSA, Okla. (UPI)—The day may come when electronic computers will write our music for us.

Fantastic? Maybe, but bandmaster Paul Lavalle says it's possible.

In fact, there's no reason why electronic brains couldn't go a step further and tell an electric organ how to play the music they write, said Lavalle, well-known as the director of the Band of America.

Lavalle, on a visit to Tulsa, said lots of modern composers work with mathematics.

"They start with a formula and put it on a graph and reduce the graph to notes on a staff, and there they have it."

Then the busy bandmaster took a sheet of graph paper and demonstrated the idea.

Taking an equation, he drew it on a graph—a line representing four groups of threes and another line under showing three groups of fours. Then he translated it into musical notes and hummed it to himself.

"Sounds Hungarian!" he exclaimed.

New theories aside, Lavalle has had plenty of the old-school training which goes into the making of a good musician. He studied saxophone and clarinet at the Juilliard Institute, played in the NBC Symphony, rose to be conductor of that orchestra and went on to form the Chamber Music Society of Lower Basin Street, still spoken of in reverent tones by jaz buffs.

In 1948 he formed the Band of America for a radio show. The radio show is now off the air, but Lavalle is still going strong.

Suit Asks $50,000 For Fall Off Lift

A San Rafael housewife, who fell three stories from a ski lift in El Dorado County last year, filed a suit for $50,000 in Marin Superior Court yesterday against operators of the lift.

Leon Acker of 212 Knight Drive in Glenwood subdivision and his wife, Sylvia, were riding a ski lift at Heavenly Valley near Bijou last April 2 when she fell.

San Rafael attorney Robert W. Corlett filed the suit for the Ackers against four partners operating the lift.

The complaint alleges that a handle across the ski lift seat had become loose. As the lift reached the top of the summit, the Ackers yelled for the attendant to stop the mechanism, Corlett alleged.

Because the lift was not stopped and because of the loose handle, Mrs. Acker fell, according to the complaint. She seeks general damages for injuries to her back, shoulder, legs and ankles, and for severe shock. The Ackers also seek $520 for medical expenses incurred so far.

McCarthy Asks Chamber Work

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael) called upon the State Chamber of Commerce to become a continuing committee to appraise and promote good government. He said this was a service the business community could provide for the whole state.

Speaking at the state chamber's Legislative Conference in Sacramento yesterday, McCarthy also said that major savings could be made in state government.

He told the group that a 10 per cent savings could be made "off the top" of all state agencies without damaging its service to the state.

Car Hits Abutment

A rain-fogged windshield was blamed by Billy Joe Lord, 24-year-old cook of 1222 Fourth Street, San Rafael, for the crash of his car into a concrete culvert abutment on Atherton Avenue south of School Lane near Black Point at 7 p.m. yesterday. Lord was treated at San Rafael General Hospital for cuts on chin and knee.

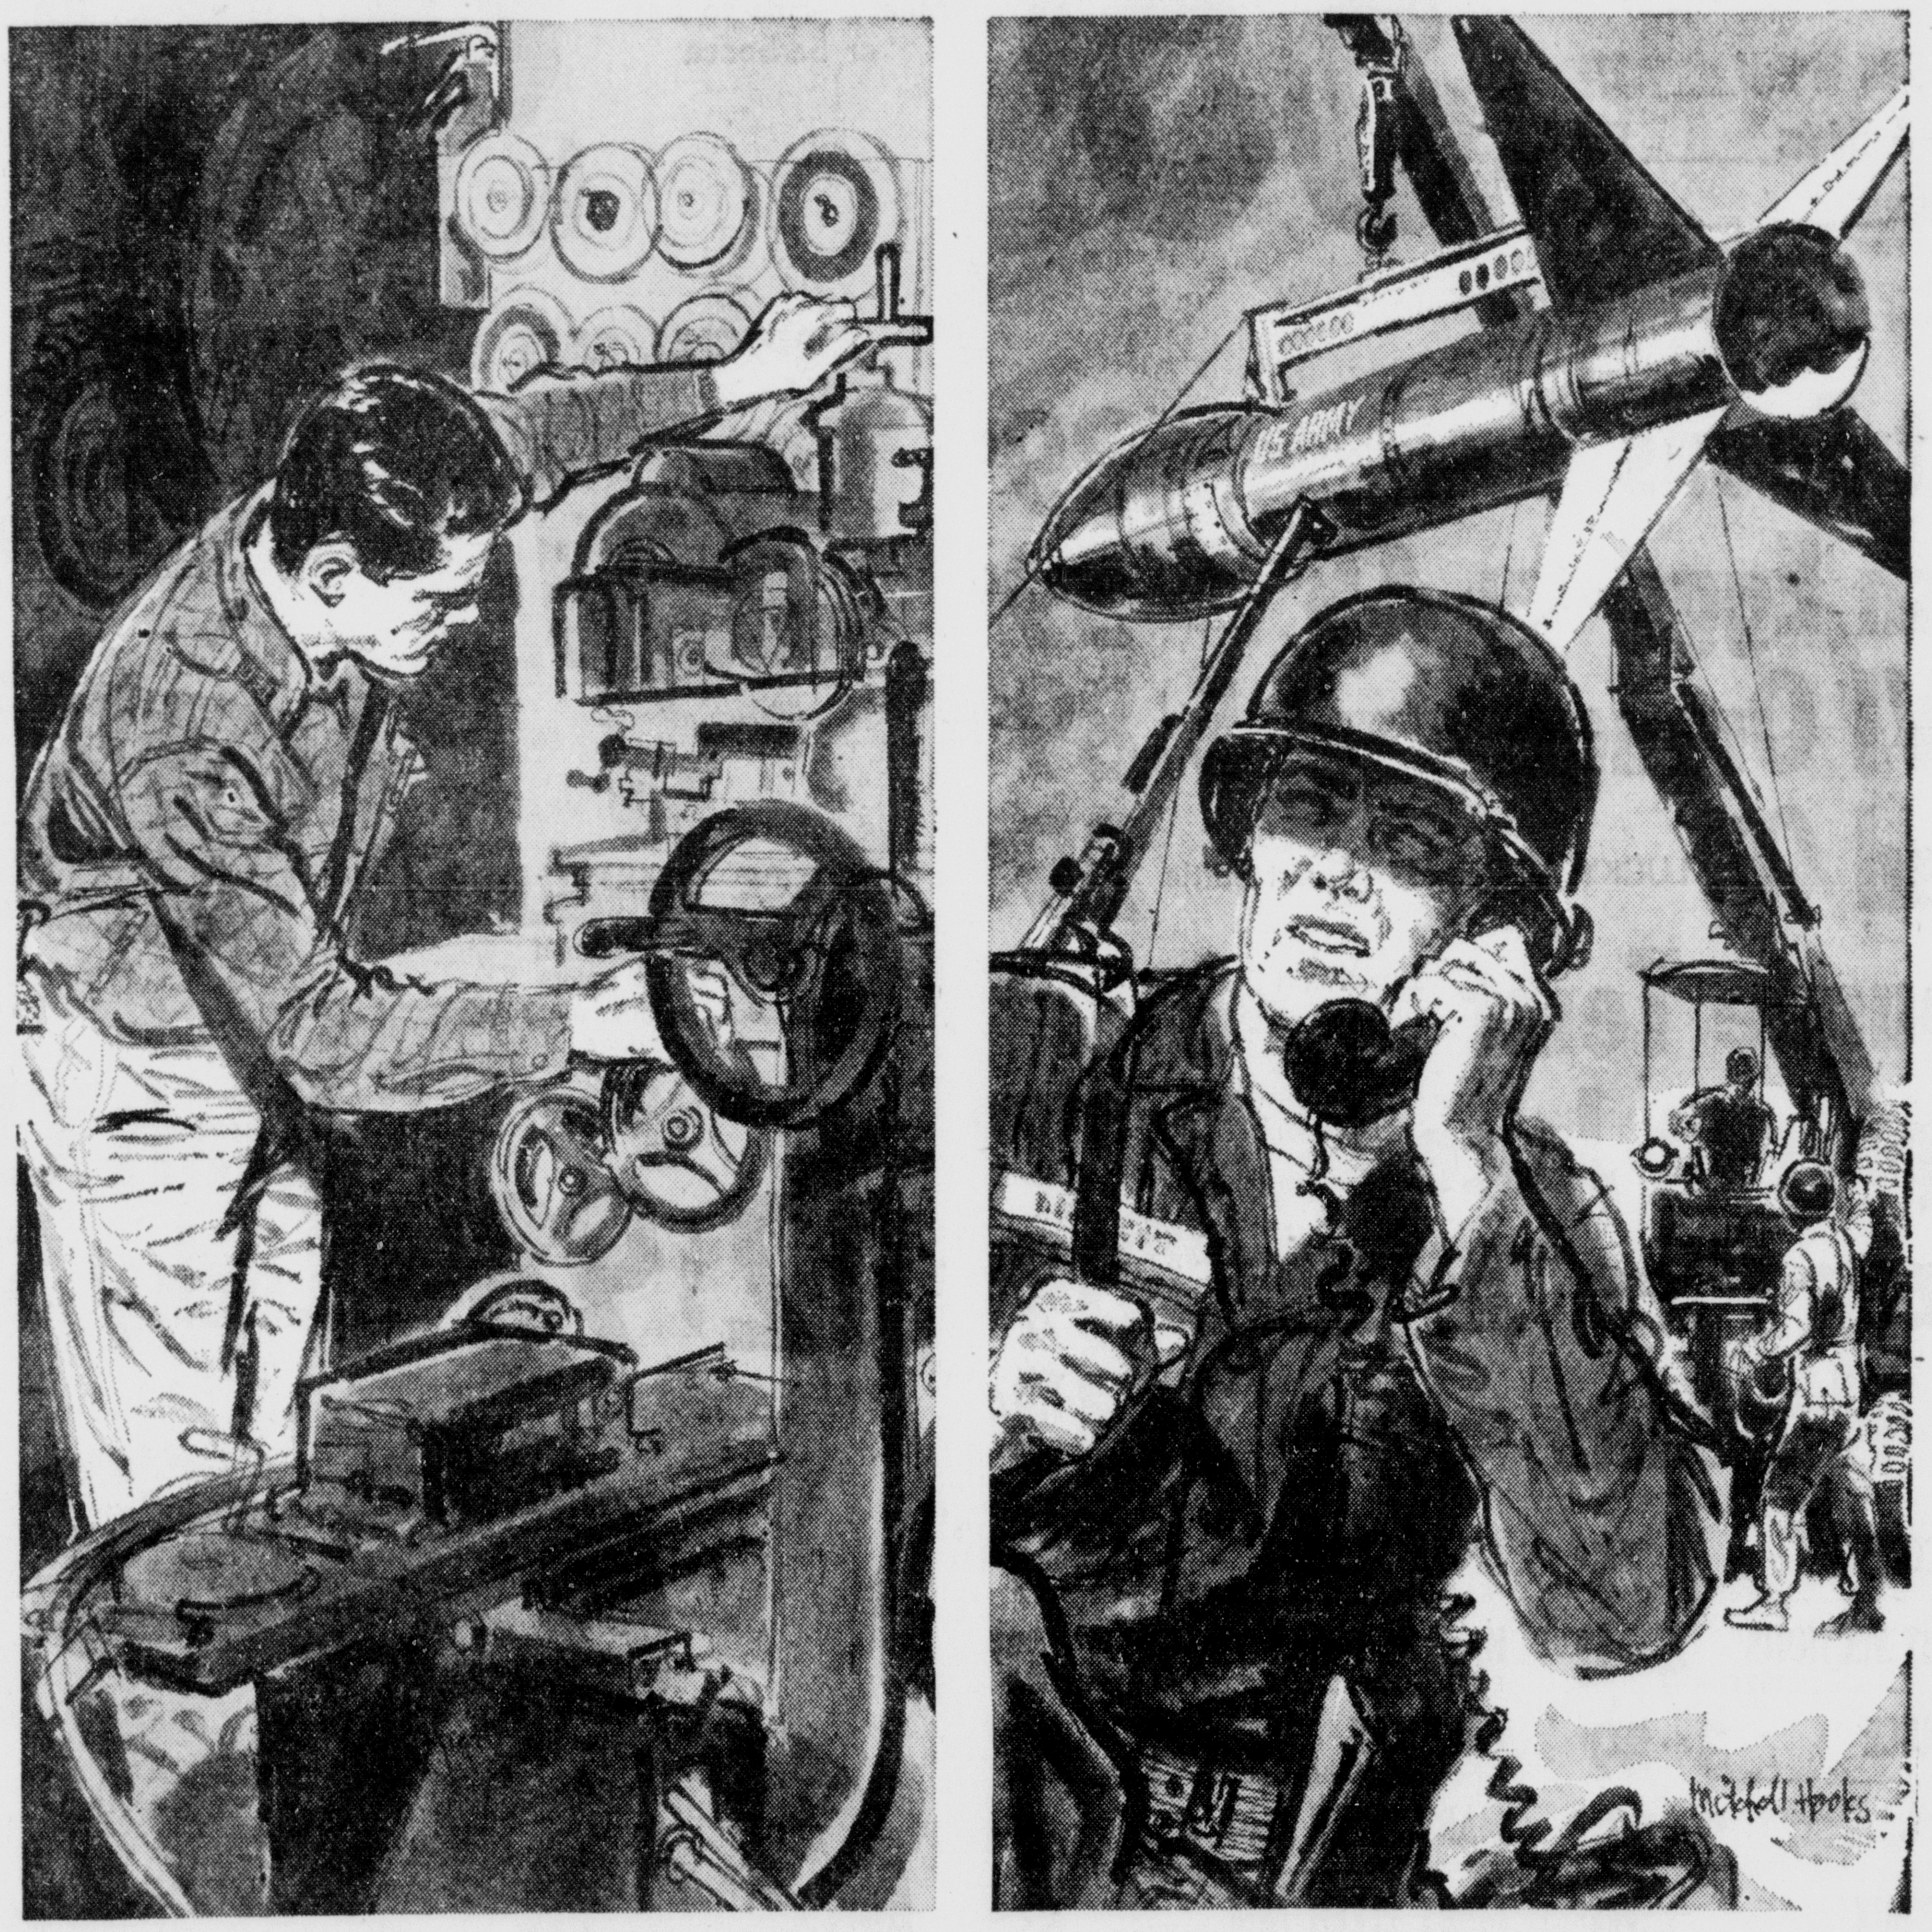
Ingrid In A Huff

ROME (UPI)—An exasperated Ingrid Bergman left Rome in a huff today, saying she was so angry with Italian photographers and cameramen that she would never return if it were not for her children.

The Swedish film star, who has been hounded by Rome's persistent photographers since she came here eight days ago to see her three children from her marriage to director Roberto Rossellini, became angry when she found a group of cameramen waiting for her at the airport.



HE'S VITAL doing his job... and doing his job for his country

The National Guard has a unique mission . . . and a vital one. Constantly at the ready, it is on immediate call for the disturbances and disasters of peacetime as well as for the supreme demands of battle.

This dual mission is carried out by 472,000 citizen-soldiers of the Air and Army National Guard, men you know as your neighbors. The protection provided by these community men makes it possible to keep America's defenses up without the larger dollar outlay needed to maintain similar numbers of active Army and Air Force personnel.

Today, the National Guard is better trained and better equipped than ever before. Famous since Concord, the Guardsman is... in every way... an Up-to-the-Minute Man, today. On runway alert... at air-defense Nike-Ajax installations... in swift striking efficiency... in everything vital to our country, the Guardsman is vitally needed.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, March 15, the 74th day of the year with 291 more in 1961.

The moon is approaching its new quarter.

The morning stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

The evening stars are Venus and Mars.

On this day in history:

In 1767, Andrew Jackson, seventh president of the United States, was born.

In 1820, Maine became the 23rd state in the union.

In 1892, New York became the first state in the union to authorize voting machines.

In 1919, about 1,000 veterans of the American Expeditionary Force met in Paris to form the American Legion.

In 1934, American financier Samuel Insull fled from Athens, Greece, to evade extradition to the United States for fraud.

A thought for today: Andrew Jackson said: "There are no necessary evils in government. Its evils exist only in its abuses."

Brine Shrimp May Help Man In Space

MIAMI (UPI)—Ed Nichols, a specialist in the feeding of captive fish, is hard at work on a project that could solve the problem of feeding man in space.

It might even offer part of the answer to one of the greatest questions facing humanity—how to take care of the food needs of the world's ever-expanding population.

Nichols' project involves brine shrimp, a close relative of the true shrimp. These tiny organisms thrive in such places as the Great Salt Lake in Utah and the salt-evaporating beds of California and the West Indies.

At present Nichols is "growing" billions of brine shrimp to feed the fish at Miami's Seaaquarium. He has found that brine shrimp eggs can be dried and stored for 10 years. They will hatch after being placed in water for about 24 hours.

Nichols' experiment has shown that 98 per cent of vacuum packed eggs will hatch and mature in about three weeks. But he also has found that these shrimp rarely grow to maturity in captivity. Once he can get across this barrier Nichols believes he can make a great breakthrough in the field of nutrition.

Brine shrimp lay their eggs in salty water. The eggs, float, or are blown by the wind, to shores where they pile in heavy windrows. Nichols collects brine shrimp eggs in shovels, dries them out and then places them in water again to permit them to hatch.

He thinks that vacuum packed brine shrimp would be ideal as a food supplement for men in far away places such as scientific and military installations in the Antarctic and on atomic submarines which stay submerged for many months.

While brine shrimp are not as tasty as the true species that show up in your shrimp cocktail, they have a distinct flavor, Nichols said.

Recently he made some soup with brine shrimp.

"Not bad, but not too tasty, either, although undoubtedly nutritious," Nichols said. "They'd probably taste better with a little seasoning."

He advises against using salt.

Tam District Bond Rally Slated Friday

An old fashioned rally will mark the beginning of a campaign for more classrooms in the Tamalpais High School District Friday night.

Corte Madera Mayor Edward W. Colthurst, chairman of the Citizens Committee for Tam-Drake-Redwood School Bonds, announced the rally will start at 8 p.m. at the Corte Madera Recreation Center.

Don Sherwood, self-styled "world's greatest disk jockey" and friends, plus an 11-piece band, are slated to be on hand. William Shaw, manager of San Francisco radio station KSFO, a Kentfield resident and bond committee member, aided in obtaining the talent for the rally.

Aimed primarily at campaign personnel, the rally will be free and open to the public.

At the election April 18, voters of Tamalpais High School District will ballot on a proposal for a three-million-dollar bond issue to expand the three high schools in the district and buy an additional site. At a special election last year the measure was approved by 60 per cent of those voting but failed to win the necessary two-thirds favorable vote.

More Panes Being Broken

A wave of window breaking that began during the weekend continued, San Rafael police reported yesterday.

Windows were broken in two trucks stationed at a construction site at the end of Del Ganado Road in Terra Linda Robert Linscott reported to San Rafael police Monday night. The trucks belonged to Linscott Construction Co. of 30 Belvedere Street, San Rafael.

Rocks were also thrown through windows at the Suburban Development Co. and Tamarin Truck Co offices in the old airport building at 52 Belvedere Street, San Rafael, police reported.

Mrs. Marie C. Latno of 14 Mountain View Avenue reported that someone had shot through an upstairs window at her home, breaking it. Police assumed it was a B-B or pellet gun.

A pellet gun was credited with making a hole in an 8 by 10 foot plate glass window at Leon C. Felton Co. at 601 Francisco Boulevard, according to police records.

School District Protests Sewer Assessment Bill

The San Jose School District board has formally protested a $4,962 assessment bill from the Novato Sanitary District.

Robert Smallman, deputy county counsel representing the school district, appeared before the sanitary district board Monday night to ask cancellation or a cut in the bill for the 10.2 acres of the Pacheco School.

The bill came about because the school was tied in to Hamilton Air Force Base sewers which have been taken over by the sanitary district. Negotiation over the bill is expected to continue.

Directors of the sanitary district heard plans of an assessment district of about 30 families near Sun and Kendon lanes and set for April 11 a hearing on a petition to annex 19 lots on Center Road near Wilmac Avenue. They approved annexation of a lot at Center Road and Diablo Avenue.

Whipping Teen-Agers Is Affront To Their Maturity; Don't Do It

Do you have teen-agers at home? Do you still whip them? Then stop. Don't ever use corporal punishment on a teenager. I've been talking to "Mrs. Jones" and her daughter, "Betty." They illustrate what I mean.

"I love Betty," Mrs. Jones said, between sobs, "I love her and I want her to be a good girl. That is why I whipped her. I started whipping when she was little and I've kept it up. She used to be better after each whipping; lately she's been worse and now she's awful!" Then Mrs. Jones broke down and cried as if her heart would break.

"I'll tell you what happened," Betty said. "I love my mom. But I'm too big to whip. When she tried it this morning, I lost my temper. Then I took the whip away from her and whipped her—hard. Gee, I'm sorry." Then Betty broke down and sobbed.

See what happened? Mrs. Jones is a good mother in most ways. She loves her girl. She wants only the best for her. Betty is a nice kid who loves her mother dearly. But Mrs. Jones made the mistake of whipping Betty again. Betty is 15. Whipping was an affront to her new maturity. She lost control, and whipped her mother. Could that happen in your home? I hope not.

There is a place for corporal punishment with children. It comes when they are little. While they are small you can teach important lessons by spankings. But even then spanking should be a last resort. Always use the mildest punishment that will teach the needed lesson.

There is no place for any sort of corporal punishment with teenagers. It always makes matters worse. Don't forget Mrs. Jones and Betty. You can profit from their experience.

Music May Come From Computers

TULSA, Okla. (UPI)—The day may come when electronic computers will write our music for us.

Fantastic? Maybe, but bandmaster Paul Lavalle says it's possible.

In fact, there's no reason why electronic brains couldn't go a step further and tell an electric organ how to play the music they write, said Lavalle, well-known as the director of the Band of America.

Lavalle, on a visit to Tulsa, said lots of modern composers work with mathematics.

"They start with a formula and put it on a graph and reduce the graph to notes on a staff, and there they have it."

Then the busy bandmaster took a sheet of graph paper and demonstrated the idea.

Taking an equation, he drew it on a graph—a line representing four groups of threes and another line under showing three groups of fours. Then he translated it into musical notes and hummed it to himself.

"Sounds Hungarian!" he exclaimed.

New theories aside, Lavalle has had plenty of the old-school training which goes into the making of a good musician. He studied saxophone and clarinet at the Juilliard Institute, played in the NBC Symphony, rose to be conductor of that orchestra and went on to form the Chamber Music Society of Lower Basin Street, still spoken of in reverent tones by jaz buffs.

In 1948 he formed the Band of America for a radio show. The radio show is now off the air, but Lavalle is still going strong.

Tryouts Set Saturday For Sausalito Baseball

Tryouts for boys wanting to join the Sausalito Little League will be held Saturday and March 25 at Sausalito's Richardson Bay School between 12:30 and 5 p.m.

Player Agent Don MacLeod reported that lads eight through 13 years old will be considered for "major league" play, and boys of six and seven are eligible for farm team competition.

Suit Asks $50,000 For Fall Off Lift

A San Rafael housewife, who fell three stories from a ski lift in El Dorado County last year, filed a suit for $50,000 in Marin Superior Court yesterday against operators of the lift.

Leon Acker of 212 Knight Drive in Glenwood subdivision and his wife, Sylvia, were riding a ski lift at Heavenly Valley near Bijou last April 2 when she fell.

San Rafael attorney Robert W. Corlett filed the suit for the Ackers against four partners operating the lift.

The complaint alleges that a handle across the ski lift seat had become loose. As the lift reached the top of the summit, the Ackers yelled for the attendant to stop the mechanism, Corlett alleged.

Because the lift was not stopped and because of the loose handle, Mrs. Acker fell, according to the complaint. She seeks general damages for injuries to her back, shoulder, legs and ankles, and for severe shock. The Ackers also seek $520 for medical expenses incurred so far.

SEAT BELT FOR SCHOOL BUS

Three children are strapped down by a seat belt in a school bus in East Meadow, N. Y. The bus has 20 belts capable of strapping down 60 children, three abreast. The driver also is belted down. Put into operation yesterday, it is New York state's first school bus equipped with seat belts. From left are Linda Harvey, 9, Robert Sherman, 9, and Karin Kramer, 7, all of East Meadow. McCarthy Asks Chamber Work

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael) called upon the State Chamber of Commerce to become a continuing committee to appraise and promote good government. He said this was a service the business community could provide for the whole state.

Speaking at the state chamber's Legislative Conference in Sacramento yesterday, McCarthy also said that major savings could be made in state government.

He told the group that a 10 per cent savings could be made "off the top" of all state agencies without damaging its service to the state.

Car Hits Abutment

A rain-fogged windshield was blamed by Billy Joe Lord, 24-year-old cook of 1222 Fourth Street, San Rafael, for the crash of his car into a concrete culvert abutment on Atherton Avenue south of School Lane near Black Point at 7 p.m. yesterday. Lord was treated at San Rafael General Hospital for cuts on chin and knee.

Color slides on nature subjects will be shown at 8 p.m. Saturday at Olney Hall, College of Marin, sponsored by the Ross Valley Camera Club. It was incorrectly stated in yesterday's Independent-Journal that the showing would be at 1 p.m.

Slides with no limit on subject matter will be shown at the same place March 25 at 8 p.m.

Marin Starts Drive For Serra Center

Marin County launched today its participation in the six-counties $750,000 building-fund campaign for Serra Center for Girls.

More than 20 volunteers are working in the Marin drive, said Alfred D. Quilici, county campaign chairman. He said there will soon be more than 50 volunteers at work.

Ingrid In A Huff

ROME (UPI)—An exasperated Ingrid Bergman left Rome in a huff today, saying she was so angry with Italian photographers and cameramen that she would never return if it were not for her children.

The Swedish film star, who has been hounded by Rome's persistent photographers since she came here eight days ago to see her three children from her marriage to director Roberto Rossellini, became angry when she found a group of cameramen waiting for her at the airport.

HE'S VITAL doing his job... and doing his job for his country

The National Guard has a unique mission . . . and a vital one. Constantly at the ready, it is on immediate call for the disturbances and disasters of peacetime as well as for the supreme demands of battle.

This dual mission is carried out by 472,000 citizen-soldiers of the Air and Army National Guard, men you know as your neighbors. The protection provided by these community men makes it possible to keep America's defenses up without the larger dollar outlay needed to maintain similar numbers of active Army and Air Force personnel.

Today, the National Guard is better trained and better equipped than ever before. Famous since Concord, the Guardsman is...in every way...an Up-to-the-Minute Man, today. On runway alert...at air-defense Nike-Ajax installations...in swift striking efficiency...in everything vital to our country, the Guardsman is vitally needed.

Brine Shrimp May Help Man In Space

MIAMI (UPI)—Ed Nichols, a specialist in the feeding of captive fish, is hard at work on a project that could solve the problem of feeding man in space.

It might even offer part of the answer to one of the greatest questions facing humanity—how to take care of the food needs of the world's ever-expanding population.

Nichols' project involves brine shrimp, a close relative of the true shrimp. These tiny organisms thrive in such places as the Great Salt Lake in Utah and the salt-evaporating beds of California and the West Indies.

At present Nichols is "growing" billions of brine shrimp to feed the fish at Miami's Seaaquarium. He has found that brine shrimp eggs can be dried and stored for 10 years. They will hatch after being placed in water for about 24 hours.

Nichols' experiment has shown that 98 per cent of vacuum packed eggs will hatch and mature in about three weeks. But he also has found that these shrimp rarely grow to maturity in captivity. Once he can get across this barrier Nichols believes he can make a great breakthrough in the field of nutrition.

Brine shrimp lay their eggs in salty water. The eggs, float, or are blown by the wind, to shores where they pile in heavy windrows. Nichols collects brine shrimp eggs in shovels, dries them out and then places them in water again to permit them to hatch.

He thinks that vacuum packed brine shrimp would be ideal as a food supplement for men in far away places such as scientific and military installations in the Antarctic and on atomic submarines which stay submerged for many months.

While brine shrimp are not as tasty as the true species that show up in your shrimp cocktail, they have a distinct flavor, Nichols said.

Recently he made some soup with brine shrimp.

"Not bad, but not too tasty, either, although undoubtedly nutritious," Nichols said. "They'd probably taste better with a little seasoning."

He advises against using salt.

Tam District Bond Rally Slated Friday

An old fashioned rally will mark the beginning of a campaign for more classrooms in the Tamalpais High School District Friday night.

Corte Madera Mayor Edward W. Colthurst, chairman of the Citizens Committee for Tam-Drake-Redwood School Bonds, announced the rally will start at 8 p.m. at the Corte Madera Recreation Center.

Don Sherwood, self-styled "world's greatest disk jockey" and friends, plus an 11-piece band, are slated to be on hand. William Shaw, manager of San Francisco radio station KSFO, a Kentfield resident and bond committee member, aided in obtaining the talent for the rally.

Aimed primarily at campaign personnel, the rally will be free and open to the public.

At the election April 18, voters of Tamalpais High School District will ballot on a proposal for a three-million-dollar bond issue to expand the three high schools in the district and buy an additional site. At a special election last year the measure was approved by 60 per cent of those voting but failed to win the necessary two-thirds favorable vote.

More Panes Being Broken

A wave of window breaking that began during the weekend continued, San Rafael police reported yesterday.

Windows were broken in two trucks stationed at a construction site at the end of Del Ganado Road in Terra Linda Robert Linscott reported to San Rafael police Monday night. The trucks belonged to Linscott Construction Co. of 30 Belvedere Street, San Rafael.

Rocks were also thrown through windows at the Suburban Development Co. and Tamarin Truck Co offices in the old airport building at 52 Belvedere Street, San Rafael, police reported.

Mrs. Marie C. Latno of 14 Mountain View Avenue reported that someone had shot through an upstairs window at her home, breaking it. Police assumed it was a B-B or pellet gun.

A pellet gun was credited with making a hole in an 8 by 10 foot plate glass window at Leon C. Felton Co. at 601 Francisco Boulevard, according to police records.

School District Protests Sewer Assessment Bill

The San Jose School District board has formally protested a $4,962 assessment bill from the Novato Sanitary District.

Robert Smallman, deputy county counsel representing the school district, appeared before the sanitary district board Monday night to ask cancellation or a cut in the bill for the 10.2 acres of the Pacheco School.

The bill came about because the school was tied in to Hamilton Air Force Base sewers which have been taken over by the sanitary district. Negotiation over the bill is expected to continue.

Directors of the sanitary district heard plans of an assessment district of about 30 families near Sun and Kendon lanes and set for April 11 a hearing on a petition to annex 19 lots on Center Road near Wilmac Avenue. They approved annexation of a lot at Center Road and Diablo Avenue.

Car Rolls, Knocks Over Mailbox

A car parked at 354 Mountain View Avenue in San Rafael, Monday night rolled back down the hill, knocking over one mailbox and coming to rest in another yard.

Charles R. Hendrickson of 65 Summit Avenue, told police that he parked the car at 8:55 p.m. He set the brake and left the car in low gear, he told police.

At 9:30 p.m. it rolled backwards, knocking over the mailbox of Lowell Ross of 342 Mountain View Avenue. It stopped in the yard of Miss Shirley Campanella at 338 Mountain View Avenue, doing minor damage to the yard. The car was not damaged.

Speaker On Schools

Edwin L. Blackmore, administrative assistant to the county superintendent of schools, will speak on "unified school districts and the coming bond election" at a meeting of the Muir Woods Park Improvement Assn., at 8 p.m. Friday at its clubhouse.

Tiburon Roadside Business Zoning On Planner Agenda

The Marin County Planning Commission will hold a public hearing Monday on a petition by Reedlands, Inc., to rezone about 20,000 square feet of land on the south side of Tiburon Boulevard from planned residential district to limited roadside business district.

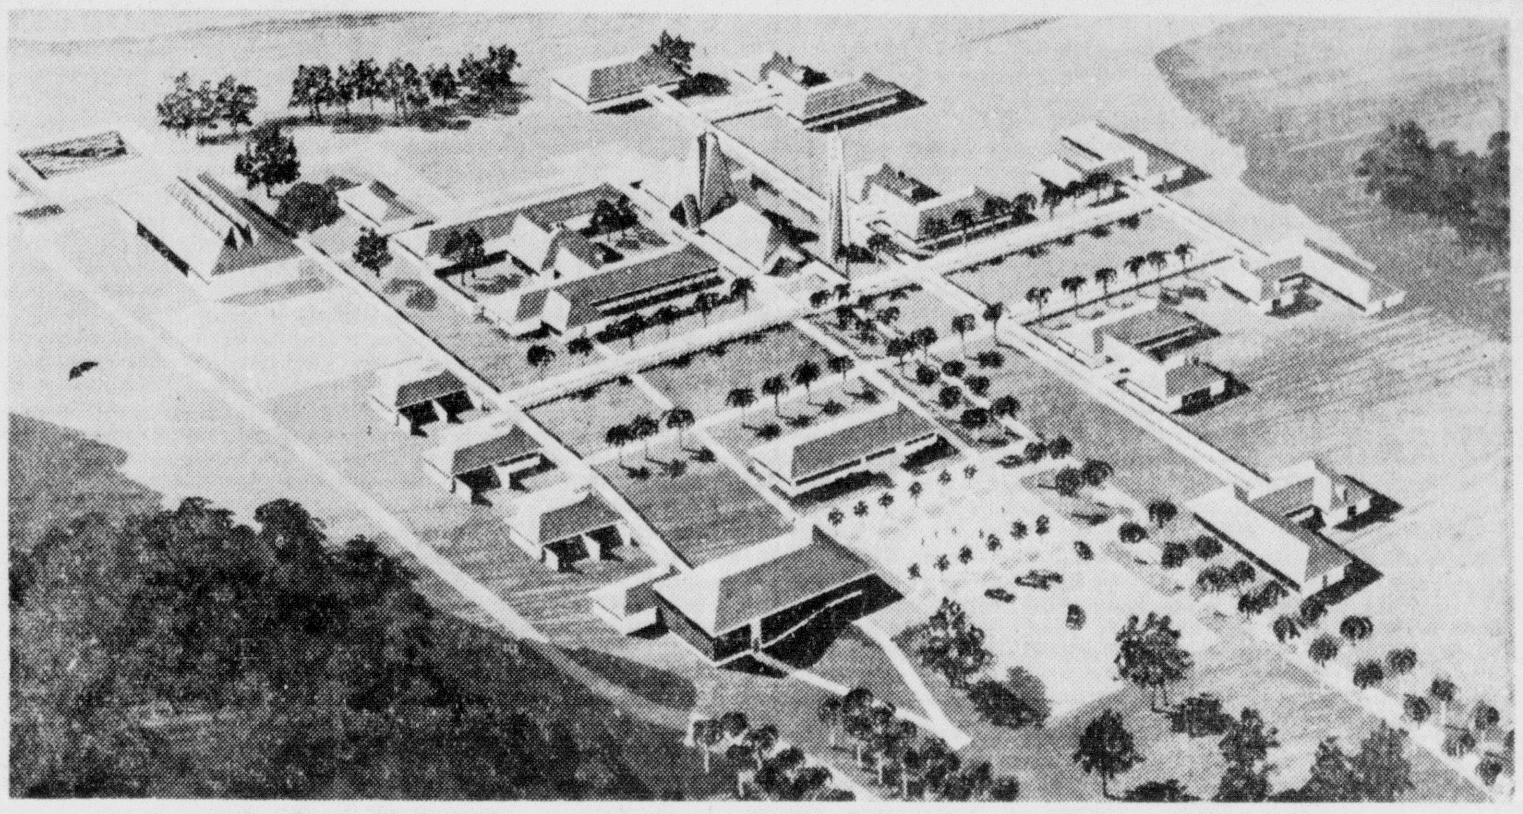
The property is opposite Bel Aire Shopping Center south of Westminster Presbyterian Church.

The item is 24th on the agenda for the meeting, held at 1711 Grand Avenue, San Rafael.

The commission will hold a public hearing on a petition of First Congregational Church for rezoning of property on the west side of Merrydale Road near San Pedro Road from suburban agricultural district to multiple residence district.

Another public hearing is set Monday on a petition from Paul Sade for rezoning of property on Hillside Avenue, about 400 feet west of Kent Avenue in Kentfield, from one family residence district to multiple family residence district.

Also scheduled is a hearing on a proposed rezoning of lands on Waldo Point from multiple family residence district, with a density of 1,500 square feet of land per dwelling unit, to multiple residence with a lower density.



PROPOSED NEW CENTER FOR GIRLS

Architect's sketch shows new $1,600,000 Junipero Serra Center for Girls, scheduled to replace 50-year-old St. Mary of the Palms near Mission San Jose. The new facility will provide for dependent and neglected "pre-delinquent" teen-age girls in Northern California. Decision to rebuild was made by the organization's board of directors composed of civic leaders representing six Bay Area counties, including Marin.

Palm Sunday Concert Planned At Dominican

Choral and instrumental groups of the Dominican College Department of Music will present a Palm Sunday concert of sacred music Sunday, March 26, at 3:30 p.m. in Angelico Hall on the Dominican College campus in San Rafael. The concert is open to the public.

The program will include Johann Michael Haydn's "Missa Sancti Aloysii," performed by the Schola Cantorum and string orchestra and conducted by Philip Ienni. Also programmed are excerpts from the "Messe de Requiem" by Gabriel Faure, to be presented by the Dominican College Choral, conducted by Winifred Baker.

Four soloists will highlight the Sunday program. Annette Brophy Jacobs, former soloist with the Trapp Family Singers and with the Tabernacle Choir of Salt Lake City, will be presented in the Faure Requiem. The Haydn work will feature Gwen Curatilo, Annemarie Barefoot and Christine Dolan.

Miss Curatilo, Bay Area regional winner of the San Francisco Opera Debut Auditions in 1958, a year later received the San Francisco Musical Club Scholarship, and in 1960 was accepted as a member of the San Francisco Opera Company.

Annemarie Barefoot, former student at the Heidelburg Conservatory, the Mozarteum in Salzburg and the Cornish School of Music in Seattle, is holder of the 1953 Oregon Young Artist Award and winner of the Portland Jewish Music Festival of the same year. She has sung in concerts in Germany, France, Austria and throughout Western United States.

Christine Dolan, a native of Hawaii, received her B.M. degree from Dominican College, and later studied at the Eastman School of Music and the University of Hawaii. She has appeared as soloist with the Oratorio Society of Hawaii and in concerts in the Bay Area.

San Anselmo Bank Expansion Plan Will Add 25 Per Cent More Space

Wells Fargo Bank American Trust Co., San Anselmo, has completed some involved plans for enlarging its offices, and now the job goes up for bid.

According to branch manager Robert F. Seeba, the expansion will give about 25 per cent more space to the bank's quarters, to be acquired by taking over the stores and offices formerly occupied by the Lydia Stokes Bakery, optometrist Dr. J. C. Stovall and the R. E. Nolan Co. along San Anselmo Avenue.

Rearrangement of the ground floor is contemplated which will place another street door on San Anselmo Avenue. The present entrance at 3 Tunstead Avenue will be retained. Some first floor offices will be transferred upstairs. Completion isn't expected for another 90 days.

Meanwhile, the Lydia Stokes Bakery has moved to 117 Shaver Street, San Rafael, Dr. Stovall has moved to 407 San Anselmo Avenue and the R. E. Nolan Co. has gone to 500 Redhille Avenue, San Anselmo.

MORE PEOPLE will have swimming pools built during June and July than they will before or after; most of them won't have heating equipment installed at the same time, but they will during the fall. About half of the pools will be 16 feet by 32 feet, kidney-shaped.

So says Mike De Vall, field man for Alves Pools of Marin, 7596 Redwood Highway, Novato, that built more swimming pools in the county last year than any other contractor. Mike, who has just received his degree in engineering from Heald's, has kept a running record, so he knows pretty well what will happen in 1961. So far this year the trend is running according to form, though construction is a little ahead.

The firm used to be Alves Pools, Inc. with other branches in Lafayette, Napa, Sacramento and San Jose, and was the largest pool contractor in the state, but Manuel Alves recently retired and sold them all out to his branch managers, except for the one in San Jose which has been closed.

In Marin County, former manager Walt Pedrazzini of Novato is now the owner.

MARIN MEN IN THE NEWS: Robert W. F. Severin, resident partner in Severin and Miller, 1414 Fourth Street, San Rafael has been elected to membership in the Northern California chapter of the American Institute of Architects . . .

RAY O'CONNEL, 86 East Crescent Avenue, San Rafael has been named representative for Dohrmann Hotel Supply Co. for downtown Oakland. He was formerly a partner in Rubini's Restaurant, Fairfax. His background in the culinary arts and resort experience makes him a natural for the job . . .

DONALD G. WEDDELL, 58 Coleman Drive, San Rafael, a general building contractor in the county from 1943 to 1951, has opened his office again at his home. For the past 10 years he has been inactive as an independent contractor, working with other firms . . .

THE D AND S GARAGE, 718 Fourth Street, San Rafael heretofore a partnership of Henry Scettrini Jr., Charles D. Droesch and Lewis E. Beaubier since 1953, has now become the sole property of Scettrini who took over the interests of his associates. He lives at 257 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael . . .

RAY W. SCHRAMM of Raydine Ice Skating Rink in San Anselmo has announced that he has withdraw from participation in the proposed corporation plans for an Olympic-sized skating rink in San Rafael.

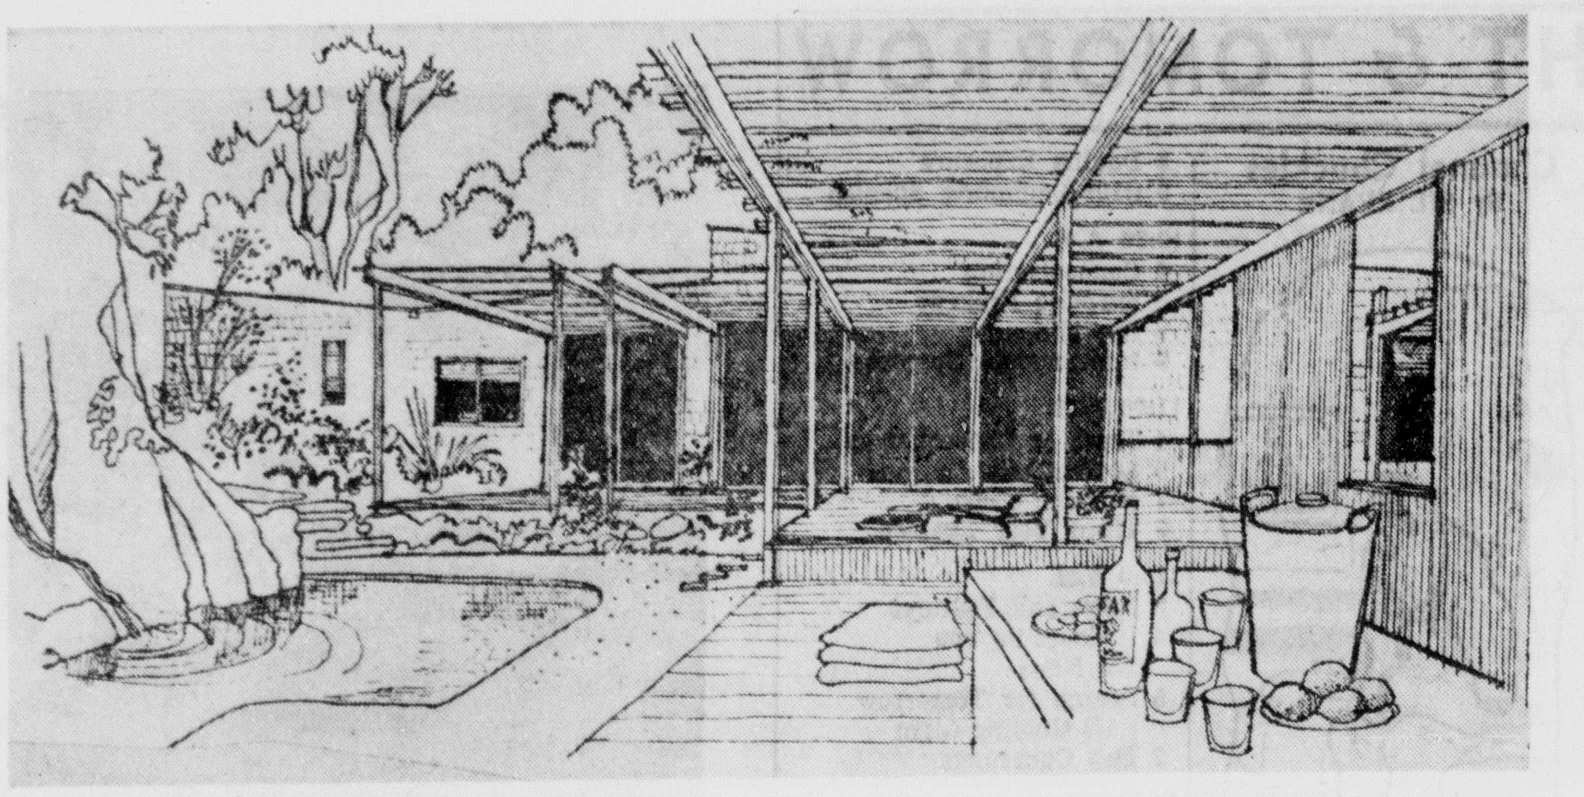
For the time being he will continue operating the Raydine rink at 70 Greenfield Avenue but is looking over other possible locations in the county with the view of building a larger rink himself.

Edgar T. Lindner of Ross, one of the members of the proposed corporation, has no comments on its own plans at this time except to confirm Schramm's withdrawal.

Two Bicycles Found At San Rafael House

Rosemary J. Zeit of 178 Mission Avenue, San Rafael, answered her door about 8:30 p.m. Sunday. An unknown boy asked what time it was, and then ran away.

A search of the premises later revealed that two bikes had been left leaning against the house. They were a 24-inch girl's bike and a 26-inch boy's bike. Both bikes were turned over to San Rafael police.



SUBORDINATED TO NATURE — Although the new Kent Woodlands home under construction by Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Lehman Jr. is luxurious in every detail and has an estimated cost price of $95,200, is has been rigorously subordinated in planning to the beauties of its environment. Note how stream-fed pool at left has a rock outcrop as its background.

Teen-Agers Invited To Handicap Course

Marin County teen-agers will learn about problems of the handicapped during an eight-week course scheduled beginning tomorrow night at Redwood High School, Larkspur.

Classes will be held on successive Thursdays from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in room 200 at Redwood. All interested students are invited, according to Kreig S. Vezie, Tamalpais High School faculty member and director of the course.

Sponsoring the project are San Anselmo post 179 of American Legion, eight local health organizations and the Marin County Red Cross chapter.

Lectures, discussions and films will be used to introduce the students to problems of physical, mental and emotional handicaps. Dr. Gerald G. Jampolsky, Marin County psychiatrist, will be speaker at the second class on March 23, after registration and introduction to the course tomorrow night.

Also included will be a demonstration at Marindale School for the orthopedically handicapped on May 2.

Nucleus of the class is expected to come from the Handicappers, Marin County high school students organized to care for handicapped persons and study their problems. The group was formed three years ago under auspices of United Cerebral Palsy, with Robert E. Foster of Tamalpais Valley as organizer and director. Foster conducted the first two courses given for the teen-age group.

The Handicappers directory now lists 75 Marin County high school students who are available as teen-age helpers for handicapped children and adults.

The Handicapper plan received wide recognition and has been adopted on a national scale by the child welfare department of the American Legion. Foster, now working on his doctor's degree at Colorado State Teachers College, attended the national Legion convention in Miami to explain the plan.

Vezie succeeded Foster as director of the Handicappers. He planned the program for this year's course, working with Ray Greenberg, chairman of the child welfare committee of the San Anselmo Legion post and a director of United Cerebral Palsy of Marin.

Health organizations cooperating include the Marin County Assn. for Mental Health, Marin Assn. for Retarded Children, National Foundation, Muscular Dystrophy Assn., Parents of the Hearing Handicapped, Marin County Society for Crippled Children and Adults, United Cerebral Palsy of Marin and Marin County Epilepsy Society.

Wine, Gum Stolen

Two juveniles took a bottle of wine and a pack of gum from the Sail-Ho at Fourth and Lincoln Avenue about 9 p.m. Monday, Ralph Gehring, owner, told San Rafael police. Gehring chased them through an alley behind the D and S Garage. They got in a car in food market lot and escaped, according to police reports.

SECLUDED IN WOODLAND

New $95,000 Home 'Blends' With Nature

In a wooded, secluded Kent Woodlands area with a flowing stream, construction is starting on a $95,200 home deliberately calculated to subordinate man's handiwork to the beauties of nature.

Achitect Joseph Esherick of San Francisco says that "it probably will never be possible to take a photograph showing the full appearance of this house because it was planned to blend with the landscape, not to stand out and dominate in any way."

But a sketch prepared for a greeting card by the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Lehman Jr., gives some idea of the thinking behind this unsual house planned in irregular form to preserve all possible trees and other vegetation.

Significantly indicated is an open-air pool, drawing upon the stream for its water and placed with a rock outcrop as its background. The pool was in a special design employing ceramic tiles in its bottom.

Construction by E. J. Dorsey of San Rafael will be of shingle finish, one and one-half story, of which a total 3,800 square feet will be divided to give around 2,500 square feet on the upper floor and 1,200 to 1,300 square feet below.

There will be master and guest bedrooms with a separate bedroom for each of the two Lehman children. Skylights will be a factor in seeking to preserve in all respects the "deep in the woods" character of the residence.

The Lehmans are new Marin residents who devoted much study to their choice of homesite.

Formerly of Buffalo, N.Y., where Lehman was son of the late Harry J. Lehman, founder and president of the Wildroot Co. until its merger in 1959 with Colgate-Palmolive Co., the Lehmans determined to find the ideal place to live.

They started out by traveling over the entire United States, inspecting every area of promise. They decided first on California, then on Marin County, and finally on Kent Woodlands. Then they worked out a home in fullest character with the type of terrain and climate they had chosen.

Padlocks Cut

Padlocks on three newspaper racks at the Villa Raphael Motel at 1606 Lincoln Avenue, were cut by bolt cutters, owner Paul Thompson reported to San Rafael police Monday. The amount of money taken was not known, according to police.

Tiburon Roadside Business Zoning On Planner Agenda

The Marin County Planning Commission will hold a public hearing Monday on a petition by Reedlands, Inc., to rezone about 20,000 square feet of land on the south side of Tiburon Boulevard from planned residential district to limited roadside business district.

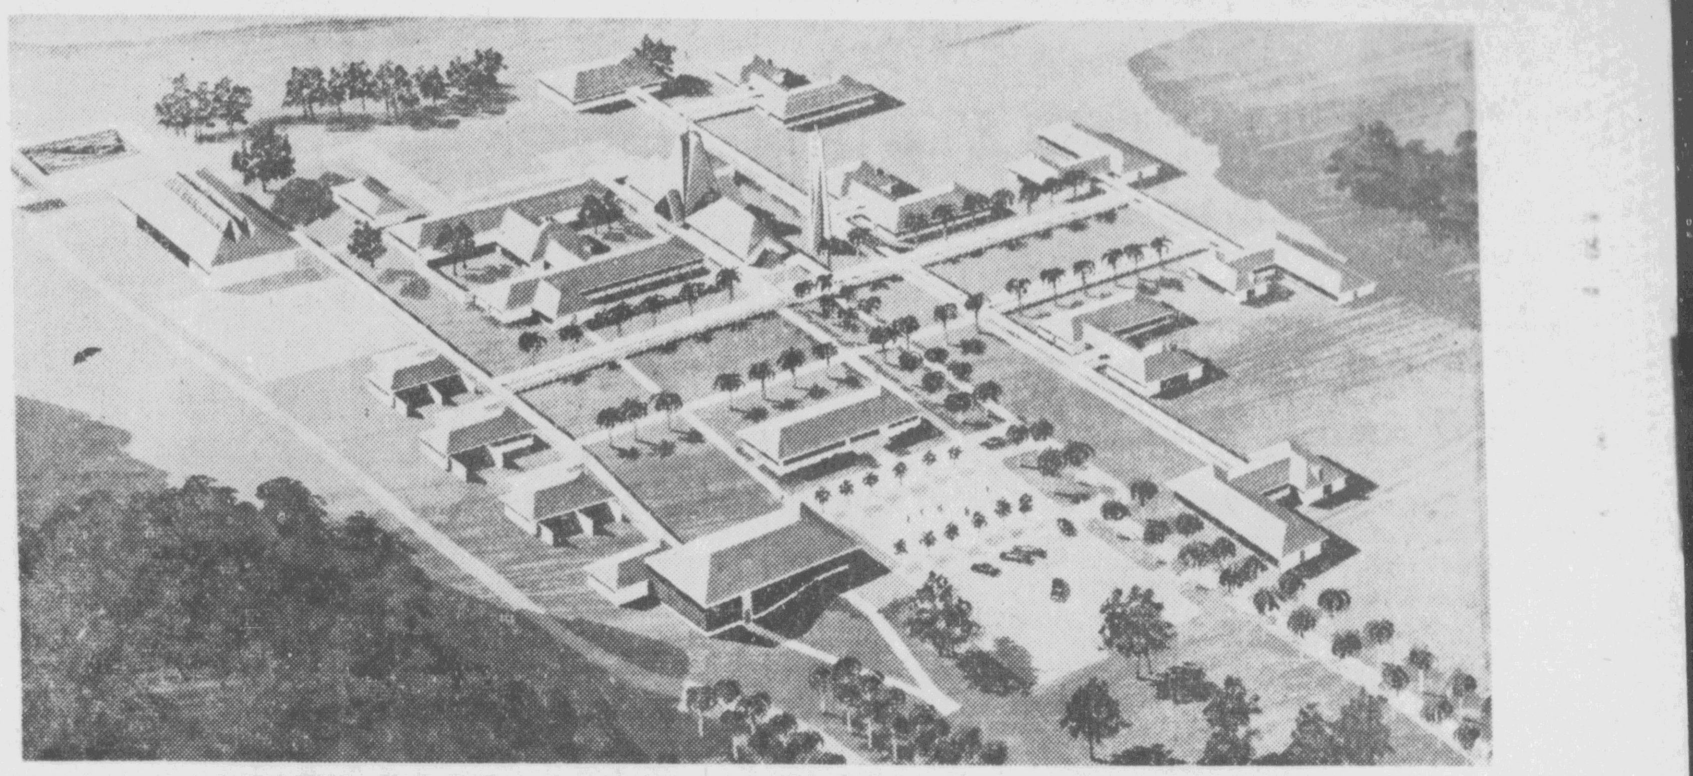
The property is opposite Bel Aire Shopping Center south of Westminster Presbyterian Church.

The item is 24th on the agenda for the meeting, held at 1711 Grand Avenue, San Rafael.

The commission will hold a public hearing on a petition of First Congregational Church for rezoning of property on the west side of Merrydale Road near San Pedro Road from suburban agricultural district to multiple residence district.

Another public hearing is set Monday on a petition from Paul Sade for rezoning of property on Hillside Avenue, about 400 feet west of Kent Avenue in Kentfield, from one family residence district to multiple family residence district.

Also scheduled is a hearing on a proposed rezoning of lands on Waldo Point from multiple family residence district, with a density of 1,500 square feet of land per dwelling unit, to multiple residence with a lower density.



PROPOSED NEW CENTER FOR GIRLS

Architect's sketch shows new $1,600,000 Junipero Serra Center for Girls, scheduled to replace 50-year-old St. Mary of the Palms near Mission San Jose. The new facility will provide for dependent and neglected "pre-delinquent" teen-age girls in Northern California. Decision to rebuild was made by the organization's board of directors composed of civic leaders representing six Bay Area counties, including Marin.

Palm Sunday Concert Planned At Dominican

Choral and instrumental groups of the Dominican College Department of Music will present a Palm Sunday concert of sacred music Sunday, March 26, at 3:30 p.m. in Angelico Hall on the Dominican College campus in San Rafael. The concert is open to the public.

The program will include Johann Michael Haydn's "Missa Sancti Aloysii," performed by the Schola Cantorum and string orchestra and conducted by Philip Ienni. Also programmed are excerpts from the "Messe de Requiem" by Gabriel Faure, to be presented by the Dominican College Choral, conducted by Winifred Baker.

Four soloists will highlight the Sunday program. Annette Brophy Jacobs, former soloist with the Trapp Family Singers and with the Tabernacle Choir of Salt Lake City, will be presented in the Faure Requiem. The Haydn work will feature Gwen Curatilo, Annemarie Barefoot and Christine Dolan.

Miss Curatilo, Bay Area regional winner of the San Francisco Opera Debut Auditions in 1958, a year later received the San Francisco Musical Club Scholarship, and in 1960 was accepted as a member of the San Francisco Opera Company.

Annemarie Barefoot, former student at the Heidelburg Conservatory, the Mozarteum in Salzburg and the Cornish School of Music in Seattle, is holder of the 1953 Oregon Young Artist Award and winner of the Portland Jewish Music Festival of the same year. She has sung in concerts in Germany, France, Austria and throughout Western United States.

Christine Dolan, a native of Hawaii, received her B.M. degree from Dominican College, and later studied at the Eastman School of Music and the University of Hawaii. She has appeared as soloist with the Oratorio Society of Hawaii and in concerts in the Bay Area.

ZIGGI COMES TO TOWN — Nothing like having a police escort when you're going among crowds in the big stores. That's obviously the belief of Ziggi, educated chimpanzee, as he clings to hand of Corte Madera Police Chief Frank L. Nelson on arrival at Corte Madera Shopping Center. Ziggi will be on hand to entertain customers at the center tomorrow, Friday and Saturday.

Newest Stores Celebrating Their First Anniversary

The first birthday of the newest additions to the Corte Madera Shopping Center will be celebrated in a three-day sale tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, according to Bob Guelld, promotion chairman for the event.

With all of the 33 businesses of the center cooperating, birthday wishes are being extended to Montgomery Ward, First National Bank, Herbert Sherbet, Mam'selle Beauty Salon and Corte Madera Center Shoe Repair.

With Wards as the center point, these stores opened just one year ago. The First National Bank, which had been located in small, cramped quarters in both the Corte Madera Shopping Center and in Corte Madera proper, opened a central office serving all of the community.

Mam'selle Beauty Salon, a modern, complete beauty operation, is the property of Mrs. Flora C. May of Mill Valley. An experience beauty operator herself, Mrs. May employs two trained operators.

Albert (Bud) Fitzgerald is the owner-operator of Herbert Sherbet store in the center. The birthday of the store also marks the 13th wedding anniversary for Fitzgerald and his wife, Muriel. The store, open seven days a week, features the "finest ice cream obtainable," in addition to "walking" sodas, milkshakes and sundaes, according to Fitzgerald. Fitzgerald is a coin collector and has several museum pieces in his collection.

Last of the new stores celebrating their first anniversary is Corte Madera Center Shoe Repair. James Kiefer, its operator, is an old hand at the cobbler business. Owner and operator of a shoe repair shop in San Francisco, Kiefer planned on only two or three days at the Corte Madera operation. In the year since the opening of the shop, he has spent nearly every day in Marin's regional shopping center keeping the shoes rolling out. A shoe dyeing department is operated in conjunction with the shoe repair business, and orthopedic work is a specialty of the shop, according to Kiefer.

Montgomery Ward, focal point of the 40-acre shopping center, is under the management of Robert Batty, who was moved to the new store from the old San Rafael outlet. With floor space of 75,000 square feet, the Ward store offers a complete shopping center.

ROBERT C. BATTY
Long known to Marinites

Ward Manager Well-Known To Marinites

Montgomery Ward and Co.'s Corte Madera store is celebrating its first birthday, but its manager—and many of its employees—have been known to Marin customers of Wards for much longer.

Robert C. Batty, manager of the store which is the biggest in the Corte Madera Center, was manager of the firm's San Rafael store before it closed for the move to Corte Madera last March. He served in the San Rafael store from February, 1948, until its closing.

Batty joined Ward's in Denver in 1934, working in turn in the company's store in Greeley, Colo.; Bakersfield, San Luis Obispo, Redding, San Rafael and Corte Madera.

He lives in Ross and has two married daughters.

Many longtime employees of Wards in San Rafael moved with the company to Corte Madera and are on hand to help celebrate the first birthday of the highly successful store.

Ohio Gave South Civil War Music

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—In a sense, Ohio gave the South its "best" and "worst" songs of the Civil War.

Daniel Decatur Emmett of Mount Vernon, Ohio, composed "Dixie," the battle song that inspired Confederate troops. The Rev. H. D. L. Webster of Zanesville, Ohio, composed "Lorena," a sad love song that a rebel general contended caused more Southern desertions than anything else.

Many Stores Celebrate Anniversary

Montgomery Ward, First National Bank of San Rafael, Mam'selle, Herbert Sherbet and Corte Madera Shoe Repair Center opened one year ago in the Corte Madera Shopping Center to complete the second phase of the huge regional shopping center at Highway 101 and the Corte Madera Wye.

Bringing the only complete department store to Corte Madera Shopping Center proved to be a boon for the town of Corte Madera.

With construction to start in the very near future on the third stage of construction, the center will reach its full potential within the next year, according to Robert Batty, president of the Corte Madera Center Merchants council.

"The ideal location of Corte Madera Shopping Center, its huge free parking lot and the wide selection of merchandise available has proved that Marin County is ready, willing and able to support a regional center such as this," Batty said. "The addition of the new stores contemplated in the center will bring it up to comparison with the finest centers in the state."

As an indication of the popularity of Corte Madera Shopping Center, Batty said, people from as far as Santa Rosa and San Francisco are regular shoppers. Accessability to major highways makes it just as near as downtown shopping areas, plus the convenience of free, no limit, no meter parking, he noted.

As part of the three-day celebration at Corte Madera Shopping Center, all stores will remain open tonight and tomorrow and Friday nights with "outstanding" birthday values, some in limited quantity.

Special birthday features are to be staged in many of the stores during the celebration and Ziggi, the educated chimpanzee, will be starred. He will appear in every store in the center during the three days and will give autographs to all the children who ask, Batty said.

Infant A Vandal

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)—The evidence was overwhelming that a South Austin resident was wrong when he told police that a child who lived two doors away was guilty of vandalism in the neighborhood. The young mother at the "suspect's" house pointed out her son — a 7-week-old baby.

YOU DO IT LIKE THIS — Proving he can do other things besides monkeying around, performing chimpanzee Ziggi shows the gals how to run a straight seam at Corte Madera Shopping Center.

ZIGGI'S EDUCATED

Chimp Knows How To Smoke Cigarette

Ever see a chimpanzee smoke a cigarette?

You will have the chance at Corte Madera Center during its first birthday sale, starting tomorrow.

Ziggi, the educated chimp, is to be the main attraction during the three days and will appear in each of the stores of the huge shopping center during the three-day celebration.

Ziggi was obtained from the Belgian Congo when three months old and has been raised almost as a human child. He eats with a knife, fork and spoon and wears boy's clothes. A "ham," he dotes on the applause of an audience and will perform best when there is a capacity crowd.

Now 3 years old, he is still an infant in both the human and chimpanzee world. He will reach the top of his capacity, according to his trainer, when he is between 4 and 5.

One of the few trained chimpanzees in Northern California, Ziggi has been signed to movie and television shorts and has been an attraction in several shopping centers and stores of the Bay Area. This will be his first appearance in Marin County.

Thirty Chickens For Every Pot

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP)—A presidential campaign slogan once suggested that a chicken in every pot helped make for a contented household.

Now comes word from the Charleston field office of the U.S. Department of Commerce that commercial hatcheries in the South produced enough broilers in 1959 to put nearly 30 chickens in every pot.

Golden Touch

NEW YORK (UPI) — Twenty-two and 23-karat gold is being used to coat porcelain enamel curtain-wall panels for architectural use.

The precious metal coating is only one-tenth of a thousandth of a millimeter thick, but its glamour is highly resistant to weathering. Gold also is being used to line furnaces, but not for glamour. Its high reflectivity increases efficiency.

San Anselmo Bank Expansion Plan Will Add 25 Per Cent More Space

Wells Fargo Bank American Trust Co., San Anselmo, has completed some involved plans for enlarging its offices, and now the job goes up for bid.

According to branch manager Robert F. Seeba, the expansion will give about 25 per cent more space to the bank's quarters, to be acquired by taking over the stores and offices formerly occupied by the Lydia Stokes Bakery, optometrist Dr. J. C. Stovall and the R. E. Nolan Co. along San Anselmo Avenue.

Rearrangement of the ground floor is contemplated which will place another street door on San Anselmo Avenue. The present entrance at 3 Tunstead Avenue will be retained. Some first floor offices will be transferred upstairs. Completion isn't expected for another 90 days.

Meanwhile, the Lydia Stokes Bakery has moved to 117 Shaver Street, San Rafael, Dr. Stovall has moved to 407 San Anselmo Avenue and the R. E. Nolan Co. has gone to 500 Redhille Avenue, San Anselmo.

MORE PEOPLE will have swimming pools built during June and July than they will before or after; most of them won't have heating equipment installed at the same time, but they will during the fall. About half of the pools will be 16 feet by 32 feet, kidney-shaped.

So says Mike De Vall, field man for Alves Pools of Marin, 7596 Redwood Highway, Novato, that built more swimming pools in the county last year than any other contractor. Mike, who has just received his degree in engineering from Heald's, has kept a running record, so he knows pretty well what will happen in 1961. So far this year the trend is running according to form, though construction is a little ahead.

The firm used to be Alves Pools, Inc. with other branches in Lafayette, Napa, Sacramento and San Jose, and was the largest pool contractor in the state, but Manuel Alves recently retired and sold them all out to his branch managers, except for the one in San Jose which has been closed.

In Marin County, former manager Walt Pedrazzini of Novato is now the owner.

MARIN MEN IN THE NEWS: Robert W. F. Severin, resident partner in Severin and Miller, 1414 Fourth Street, San Rafael has been elected to membership in the Northern California chapter of the American Institute of Architects . . .

RAY O'CONNEL, 86 East Crescent Avenue, San Rafael has been named representative for Dohrmann Hotel Supply Co. for downtown Oakland. He was formerly a partner in Rubini's Restaurant, Fairfax. His background in the culinary arts and resort experience makes him a natural for the job . . .

DONALD G. WEDDELL, 58 Coleman Drive, San Rafael, a general building contractor in the county from 1943 to 1951, has opened his office again at his home. For the past 10 years he has been inactive as an independent contractor, working with other firms . . .

THE D AND S GARAGE, 718 Fourth Street, San Rafael heretofore a partnership of Henry Scettrini Jr., Charles D. Droesch and Lewis E. Beaubier since 1953, has now become the sole property of Scettrini who took over the interests of his associates. He lives at 257 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael . . .

RAY W. SCHRAMM of Raydine Ice Skating Rink in San Anselmo has announced that he has withdraw from participation in the proposed corporation plans for an Olympic-sized skating rink in San Rafael.

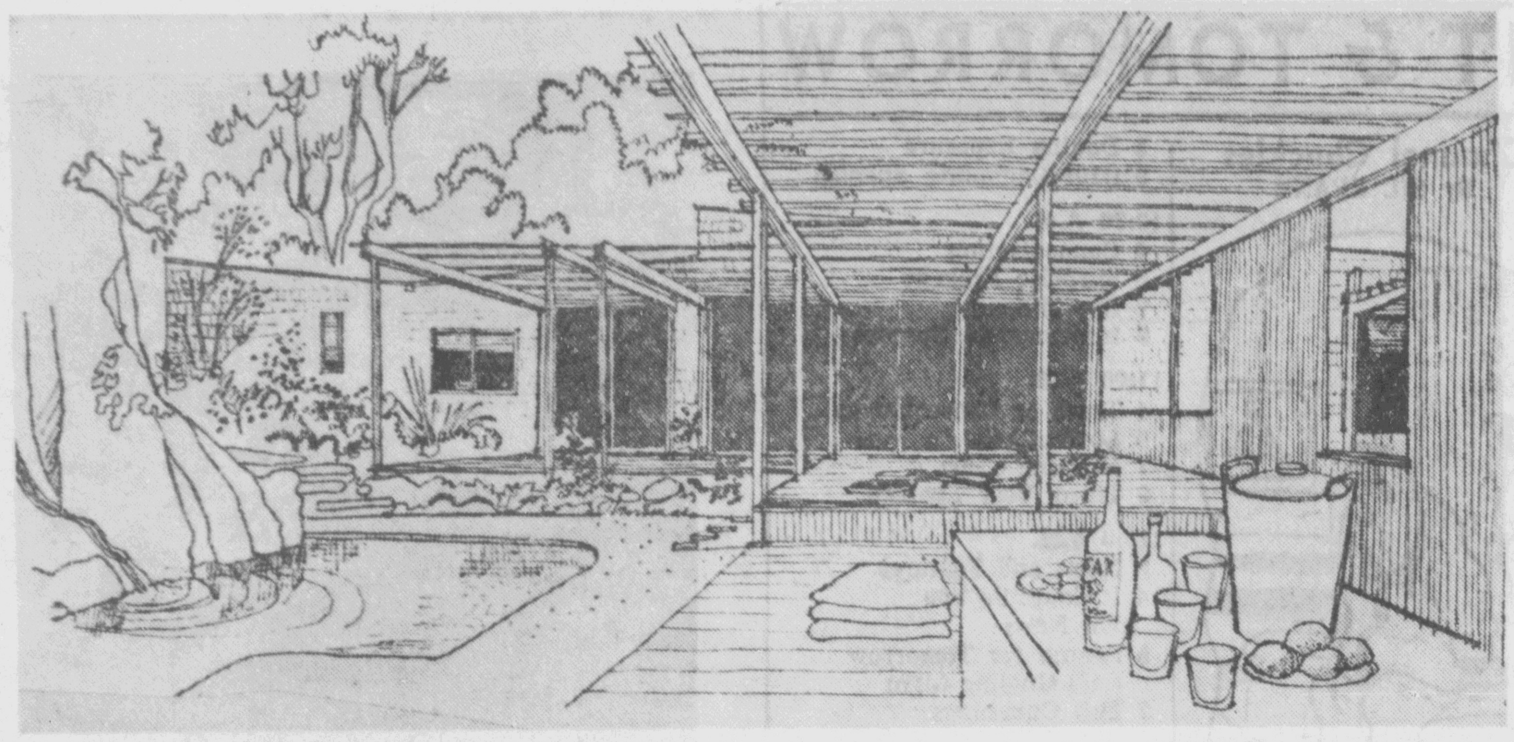
For the time being he will continue operating the Raydine rink at 70 Greenfield Avenue but is looking over other possible locations in the county with the view of building a larger rink himself.

Edgar T. Lindner of Ross, one of the members of the proposed corporation, has no comments on its own plans at this time except to confirm Schramm's withdrawal.

Two Bicycles Found At San Rafael House

Rosemary J. Zeit of 178 Mission Avenue, San Rafael, answered her door about 8:30 p.m. Sunday. An unknown boy asked what time it was, and then ran away.

A search of the premises later revealed that two bikes had been left leaning against the house. They were a 24-inch girl's bike and a 26-inch boy's bike. Both bikes were turned over to San Rafael police.



SUBORDINATED TO NATURE — Although the new Kent Woodlands home under construction by Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Lehman Jr. is luxurious in every detail and has an estimated cost price of $95,200, is has been rigorously subordinated in planning to the beauties of its environment. Note how stream-fed pool at left has a rock outcrop as its background.

Teen-Agers Invited To Handicap Course

Marin County teen-agers will learn about problems of the handicapped during an eight-week course scheduled beginning tomorrow night at Redwood High School, Larkspur.

Classes will be held on successive Thursdays from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in room 200 at Redwood. All interested students are invited, according to Kreig S. Vezie, Tamalpais High School faculty member and director of the course.

Sponsoring the project are San Anselmo post 179 of American Legion, eight local health organizations and the Marin County Red Cross chapter.

Lectures, discussions and films will be used to introduce the students to problems of physical, mental and emotional handicaps. Dr. Gerald G. Jampolsky, Marin County psychiatrist, will be speaker at the second class on March 23, after registration and introduction to the course tomorrow night.

Also included will be a demonstration at Marindale School for the orthopedically handicapped on May 2.

Nucleus of the class is expected to come from the Handicappers, Marin County high school students organized to care for handicapped persons and study their problems. The group was formed three years ago under auspices of United Cerebral Palsy, with Robert E. Foster of Tamalpais Valley as organizer and director. Foster conducted the first two courses given for the teen-age group.

The Handicappers directory now lists 75 Marin County high school students who are available as teen-age helpers for handicapped children and adults.

The Handicapper plan received wide recognition and has been adopted on a national scale by the child welfare department of the American Legion. Foster, now working on his doctor's degree at Colorado State Teachers College, attended the national Legion convention in Miami to explain the plan.

Vezie succeeded Foster as director of the Handicappers. He planned the program for this year's course, working with Ray Greenberg, chairman of the child welfare committee of the San Anselmo Legion post and a director of United Cerebral Palsy of Marin.

Health organizations cooperating include the Marin County Assn. for Mental Health, Marin Assn. for Retarded Children, National Foundation, Muscular Dystrophy Assn., Parents of the Hearing Handicapped, Marin County Society for Crippled Children and Adults, United Cerebral Palsy of Marin and Marin County Epilepsy Society.

Wine, Gum Stolen

Two juveniles took a bottle of wine and a pack of gum from the Sail-Ho at Fourth and Lincoln Avenue about 9 p.m. Monday, Ralph Gehring, owner, told San Rafael police. Gehring chased them through an alley behind the D and S Garage. They got in a car in food market lot and escaped, according to police reports.

SECLUDED IN WOODLAND

New $95,000 Home 'Blends' With Nature

In a wooded, secluded Kent Woodlands area with a flowing stream, construction is starting on a $95,200 home deliberately calculated to subordinate man's handiwork to the beauties of nature.

Achitect Joseph Esherick of San Francisco says that "it probably will never be possible to take a photograph showing the full appearance of this house because it was planned to blend with the landscape, not to stand out and dominate in any way."

But a sketch prepared for a greeting card by the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Lehman Jr., gives some idea of the thinking behind this unsual house planned in irregular form to preserve all possible trees and other vegetation.

Significantly indicated is an open-air pool, drawing upon the stream for its water and placed with a rock outcrop as its background. The pool was in a special design employing ceramic tiles in its bottom.

Construction by E. J. Dorsey of San Rafael will be of shingle finish, one and one-half story, of which a total 3,800 square feet will be divided to give around 2,500 square feet on the upper floor and 1,200 to 1,300 square feet below.

There will be master and guest bedrooms with a separate bedroom for each of the two Lehman children. Skylights will be a factor in seeking to preserve in all respects the "deep in the woods" character of the residence.

The Lehmans are new Marin residents who devoted much study to their choice of homesite.

Formerly of Buffalo, N.Y., where Lehman was son of the late Harry J. Lehman, founder and president of the Wildroot Co. until its merger in 1959 with Colgate-Palmolive Co., the Lehmans determined to find the ideal place to live.

They started out by traveling over the entire United States, inspecting every area of promise. They decided first on California, then on Marin County, and finally on Kent Woodlands. Then they worked out a home in fullest character with the type of terrain and climate they had chosen.

Padlocks Cut

Padlocks on three newspaper racks at the Villa Raphael Motel at 1606 Lincoln Avenue, were cut by bolt cutters, owner Paul Thompson reported to San Rafael police Monday. The amount of money taken was not known, according to police.

Flash Bulbs Burn In Hurry

ST LOUIS (AP)—Electrifying is the word for the young lady who entered a photo supply shop and bought a roll of film and some flash bulbs.

"When she was about half way to the door, there was this funny flash," said Gene Kramer, a store employe. "She came back and said, 'My flash bulbs exploded.' The six bulbs on one side of the carton were burned out. The package was hot."

The puzzled Kramer, who gave the young woman new film and bulbs, said he had never heard of such a thing. Neither had the manufacturer of the bulbs.

Missing Truck

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Two sheriff's deputies have decided Arizona still is a land of wide open spaces.

Edwardo L. Lonzo of Nogales was driving his truck across the desert when he ran out of gasoline. He walked to town, picked up some extra gas but couldn't find the truck again in the desolate terrain.

Deputy Randy Rendon spotted the truck while flying over the area. However, when he and Deputy Ken Sturgeon attempted to drive to the location, they couldn't find the vehicle, either.

Rendon went up in the plane again and this time drew a map. After several hours of searching on foot, the deputies finally located the elusive truck.

INCOME TAX FACTS

How To Figure Out Net Operating Loss

By PETER J. WIKEL, CPA

If you have a net loss from the operation of your trade, business or profession in 1960 and that loss, together with any losses you might have from a casualty or theft, exceeds your income for 1960, you may have a net operating loss for 1960.

Peter J. Wikel

If you have a net operating loss it can be used as a deduction to reduce your taxable income for other years.

The net operating loss for 1960 becomes a net operating loss carryback to 1957 and may be claimed as a deduction in 1957. To the extent that the income in 1957 does not cover the loss, the loss can be carried to 1958 and claimed as a deduction in 1958. Any remaining loss can be carried to 1959 and carried over to the five years after 1960.

A net operating loss deduction will usually result in an overpayment of prior years, taxes for which you may claim a refund.

You may file a claim for refund (form 843) or an amended return from 1040 on or before the 15th day of the 40th month after the close of the loss year.

You may apply for a quick refund of the prior-year taxes by filing form 1045 for a tentative adjustment of income taxes which are affected by a net operating loss carryback. An application for a tentative carryback adjustment must be filed on or after the date of filing the return for the tax year of the net operating loss from which the carryback results, but may not be filed later than 12 months from the end of such tax year.

The Internal Revenue Service will ordinarily act on this application within 90 days from the date it is filed.

Marriage-Go-Round

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—Justice of the Peace A. A. Seamaan lost no time getting down to his traditional duties after he took office. Within the first hour he performed his first marriage, one of three he performed on his first day.

Young Tycoons

KINGSTREE, S.C. (AP)—A little foresight—and the family freezer—help three Kingstree youngsters to a head start in the annual peddling of peanuts.

Long before the boiled peanut season officially begins, the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McGill have defrosted peanuts, frozen from the previous harvest and have started selling them.

The boys, whose daily peanut routes are "trade secrets," visit businesses and plants peddling peanuts. Each day the McGill boys pool their earnings and divide them equally among the three—Hilton, 10; Ted, 9; and Yancey, 8.

But their business ability doesn't end there. From the earnings, they are buying a four-room house in Kingstree as rental property for an investment.

Toni Compton, 6, daughter of Mrs. John J. Compton of 322 Oakdale Avenue, Corte Madera, tries to find her house in giant photo mural of the area in the First National Bank office in the Corte Madera Center. With her are her mother and B. A. Sill, manager of the bank. An unidentified customer is in the foreground. The bank is observing the first anniversary of the move of its Corte Madera branch to the shopping center. Sleepy Old Madrid Turning Into Speedway For Drivers

MADRID (UPI) — Spain, the country of siestas and slowness, has caught up with the rush of the modern world in at least one way—traffic.

Give a courteous, old-worldly, hand-kissing Spaniard a car and some change takes place deep down inside him.

Possibly it isn't quite as spectacular as the movie horror of a man becoming a werewolf, but the effect is about the same.

Speed is no object, just as long as there is plenty of it. There are plenty of police and traffic lights around, but they don't help an awful lot.

Whereas a few years ago the streets of Madrid were uncrowded and easy to drive in, the growing wealth of Spain has clogged them with ever increasing traffic. Unfortunately, as Spain has increased the number of cars, it has not increased necessary control on the drivers.

Getting a driver's license in Spain is difficult. There is a complicated written test of some 50 questions. But if that is passed, then the would-be driver is almost to the raceway. The driving section of the test consists of one turn around a local park. If you don't hit a tree, you're in.

Once into traffic you're on your own. The only thing to remember is that each man behind the wheel of a car feels that God granted him at least one thing—the right of way.

The huge fleet of taxis, most of them looking at least 100 years old, don't help. Most of them go about five miles an hour and give faster drivers a sort of moving slalom course to weave in and out of.

There also are little, bug-like cars called "sin-sins" that join with the motorcycles and motorscooters to fill any sparce inches between cars.

The translation of "sin-sin" means "without - without," which comes from the phrase referring to the drivers of the little bugs: "Without enough money to buy a car and without enough guts to ride a motorcycle."

On top of all this, every morning hundreds of huge-wheeled wooden cars pulled by donkeys lumber into the city to take out the trash at the heighth of the rush hour and begin their slow way out of town. On the narrow side streets of Madrid traffic moves just as fast as the slowest donkey.

Perhaps the Spanish driver lacks the daring of the French driver, the stubbornness of the English driver or the vocabulary of the Italian driver.

But he is learning.

City 'Housecleaning'

VIDOR, Tex. (UPI)—The Vidor City Council began a long-range "house cleaning" program by ruling that hog pens hereafter will have to be 30 feet or more away from occupied homes in the city limits.

ZIGGI COMES TO TOWN — Nothing like having a police escort when you're going among crowds in the big stores. That's obviously the belief of Ziggi, educated chimpanzee, as he clings to hand of Corte Madera Police Chief Frank L. Nelson on arrival at Corte Madera Shopping Center. Ziggi will be on hand to entertain customers at the center tomorrow, Friday and Saturday.

Newest Stores Celebrating Their First Anniversary

The first birthday of the newest additions to the Corte Madera Shopping Center will be celebrated in a three-day sale tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, according to Bob Guelld, promotion chairman for the event.

With all of the 33 businesses of the center cooperating, birthday wishes are being extended to Montgomery Ward, First National Bank, Herbert Sherbet, Mam'selle Beauty Salon and Corte Madera Center Shoe Repair.

With Wards as the center point, these stores opened just one year ago. The First National Bank, which had been located in small, cramped quarters in both the Corte Madera Shopping Center and in Corte Madera proper, opened a central office serving all of the community.

Mam'selle Beauty Salon, a modern, complete beauty operation, is the property of Mrs. Flora C. May of Mill Valley. An experience beauty operator herself, Mrs. May employs two trained operators.

Albert (Bud) Fitzgerald is the owner-operator of Herbert Sherbet store in the center. The birthday of the store also marks the 13th wedding anniversary for Fitzgerald and his wife, Muriel. The store, open seven days a week, features the "finest ice cream obtainable," in addition to "walking" sodas, milkshakes and sundaes, according to Fitzgerald. Fitzgerald is a coin collector and has several museum pieces in his collection.

Last of the new stores celebrating their first anniversary is Corte Madera Center Shoe Repair. James Kiefer, its operator, is an old hand at the cobbler business. Owner and operator of a shoe repair shop in San Francisco, Kiefer planned on only two or three days at the Corte Madera operation. In the year since the opening of the shop, he has spent nearly every day in Marin's regional shopping center keeping the shoes rolling out. A shoe dyeing department is operated in conjunction with the shoe repair business, and orthopedic work is a specialty of the shop, according to Kiefer.

Montgomery Ward, focal point of the 40-acre shopping center, is under the management of Robert Batty, who was moved to the new store from the old San Rafael outlet. With floor space of 75,000 square feet, the Ward store offers a complete shopping center.

ROBERT C. BATTY
Long known to Marinites

Ward Manager Well-Known To Marinites

Montgomery Ward and Co.'s Corte Madera store is celebrating its first birthday, but its manager—and many of its employees—have been known to Marin customers of Wards for much longer.

Robert C. Batty, manager of the store which is the biggest in the Corte Madera Center, was manager of the firm's San Rafael store before it closed for the move to Corte Madera last March. He served in the San Rafael store from February, 1948, until its closing.

Batty joined Ward's in Denver in 1934, working in turn in the company's store in Greeley, Colo.; Bakersfield, San Luis Obispo, Redding, San Rafael and Corte Madera.

He lives in Ross and has two married daughters.

Many longtime employees of Wards in San Rafael moved with the company to Corte Madera and are on hand to help celebrate the first birthday of the highly successful store.

Ohio Gave South Civil War Music

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—In a sense, Ohio gave the South its "best" and "worst" songs of the Civil War.

Daniel Decatur Emmett of Mount Vernon, Ohio, composed "Dixie," the battle song that inspired Confederate troops. The Rev. H. D. L. Webster of Zanesville, Ohio, composed "Lorena," a sad love song that a rebel general contended caused more Southern desertions than anything else.

Many Stores Celebrate Anniversary

Montgomery Ward, First National Bank of San Rafael, Mam'selle, Herbert Sherbet and Corte Madera Shoe Repair Center opened one year ago in the Corte Madera Shopping Center to complete the second phase of the huge regional shopping center at Highway 101 and the Corte Madera Wye.

Bringing the only complete department store to Corte Madera Shopping Center proved to be a boon for the town of Corte Madera.

With construction to start in the very near future on the third stage of construction, the center will reach its full potential within the next year, according to Robert Batty, president of the Corte Madera Center Merchants council.

"The ideal location of Corte Madera Shopping Center, its huge free parking lot and the wide selection of merchandise available has proved that Marin County is ready, willing and able to support a regional center such as this," Batty said. "The addition of the new stores contemplated in the center will bring it up to comparison with the finest centers in the state."

As an indication of the popularity of Corte Madera Shopping Center, Batty said, people from as far as Santa Rosa and San Francisco are regular shoppers. Accessability to major highways makes it just as near as downtown shopping areas, plus the convenience of free, no limit, no meter parking, he noted.

As part of the three-day celebration at Corte Madera Shopping Center, all stores will remain open tonight and tomorrow and Friday nights with "outstanding" birthday values, some in limited quantity.

Special birthday features are to be staged in many of the stores during the celebration and Ziggi, the educated chimpanzee, will be starred. He will appear in every store in the center during the three days and will give autographs to all the children who ask, Batty said.

Infant A Vandal

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)—The evidence was overwhelming that a South Austin resident was wrong when he told police that a child who lived two doors away was guilty of vandalism in the neighborhood. The young mother at the "suspect's" house pointed out her son — a 7-week-old baby.

YOU DO IT LIKE THIS — Proving he can do other things besides monkeying around, performing chimpanzee Ziggi shows the gals how to run a straight seam at Corte Madera Shopping Center.

ZIGGI'S EDUCATED

Chimp Knows How To Smoke Cigarette

Ever see a chimpanzee smoke a cigarette?

You will have the chance at Corte Madera Center during its first birthday sale, starting tomorrow.

Ziggi, the educated chimp, is to be the main attraction during the three days and will appear in each of the stores of the huge shopping center during the three-day celebration.

Ziggi was obtained from the Belgian Congo when three months old and has been raised almost as a human child. He eats with a knife, fork and spoon and wears boy's clothes. A "ham," he dotes on the applause of an audience and will perform best when there is a capacity crowd.

Now 3 years old, he is still an infant in both the human and chimpanzee world. He will reach the top of his capacity, according to his trainer, when he is between 4 and 5.

One of the few trained chimpanzees in Northern California, Ziggi has been signed to movie and television shorts and has been an attraction in several shopping centers and stores of the Bay Area. This will be his first appearance in Marin County.

Thirty Chickens For Every Pot

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP)—A presidential campaign slogan once suggested that a chicken in every pot helped make for a contented household.

Now comes word from the Charleston field office of the U.S. Department of Commerce that commercial hatcheries in the South produced enough broilers in 1959 to put nearly 30 chickens in every pot.

Golden Touch

NEW YORK (UPI) — Twenty-two and 23-karat gold is being used to coat porcelain enamel curtain-wall panels for architectural use.

The precious metal coating is only one-tenth of a thousandth of a millimeter thick, but its glamour is highly resistant to weathering. Gold also is being used to line furnaces, but not for glamour. Its high reflectivity increases efficiency.

Flash Bulbs Burn In Hurry

ST LOUIS (AP)—Electrifying is the word for the young lady who entered a photo supply shop and bought a roll of film and some flash bulbs.

"When she was about half way to the door, there was this funny flash," said Gene Kramer, a store employe. "She came back and said, 'My flash bulbs exploded.' The six bulbs on one side of the carton were burned out. The package was hot."

The puzzled Kramer, who gave the young woman new film and bulbs, said he had never heard of such a thing. Neither had the manufacturer of the bulbs.

Missing Truck

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Two sheriff's deputies have decided Arizona still is a land of wide open spaces.

Edwardo L. Lonzo of Nogales was driving his truck across the desert when he ran out of gasoline. He walked to town, picked up some extra gas but couldn't find the truck again in the desolate terrain.

Deputy Randy Rendon spotted the truck while flying over the area. However, when he and Deputy Ken Sturgeon attempted to drive to the location, they couldn't find the vehicle, either.

Rendon went up in the plane again and this time drew a map. After several hours of searching on foot, the deputies finally located the elusive truck.

Biggest department store in Marin is Montgomery Ward and Co. at Corte Madera, which is celebrating its first anniversary in the Corte Madera Center with a storewide sales event. INCOME TAX FACTS

How To Figure Out Net Operating Loss

By PETER J. WIKEL, CPA

If you have a net loss from the operation of your trade, business or profession in 1960 and that loss, together with any losses you might have from a casualty or theft, exceeds your income for 1960, you may have a net operating loss for 1960.

Peter J. Wikel

If you have a net operating loss it can be used as a deduction to reduce your taxable income for other years.

The net operating loss for 1960 becomes a net operating loss carryback to 1957 and may be claimed as a deduction in 1957. To the extent that the income in 1957 does not cover the loss, the loss can be carried to 1958 and claimed as a deduction in 1958. Any remaining loss can be carried to 1959 and carried over to the five years after 1960.

A net operating loss deduction will usually result in an overpayment of prior years, taxes for which you may claim a refund.

You may file a claim for refund (form 843) or an amended return from 1040 on or before the 15th day of the 40th month after the close of the loss year.

You may apply for a quick refund of the prior-year taxes by filing form 1045 for a tentative adjustment of income taxes which are affected by a net operating loss carryback. An application for a tentative carryback adjustment must be filed on or after the date of filing the return for the tax year of the net operating loss from which the carryback results, but may not be filed later than 12 months from the end of such tax year.

The Internal Revenue Service will ordinarily act on this application within 90 days from the date it is filed.

Marriage-Go-Round

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—Justice of the Peace A. A. Seamaan lost no time getting down to his traditional duties after he took office. Within the first hour he performed his first marriage, one of three he performed on his first day.

Young Tycoons

KINGSTREE, S.C. (AP)—A little foresight—and the family freezer—help three Kingstree youngsters to a head start in the annual peddling of peanuts.

Long before the boiled peanut season officially begins, the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McGill have defrosted peanuts, frozen from the previous harvest and have started selling them.

The boys, whose daily peanut routes are "trade secrets," visit businesses and plants peddling peanuts. Each day the McGill boys pool their earnings and divide them equally among the three—Hilton, 10; Ted, 9; and Yancey, 8.

But their business ability doesn't end there. From the earnings, they are buying a four-room house in Kingstree as rental property for an investment.

THANK YOU!

We gratefully acknowledge the enthusiasm which you have shown for our services in our first year.

Toni Compton, 6, daughter of Mrs. John J. Compton of 322 Oakdale Avenue, Corte Madera, tries to find her house in giant photo mural of the area in the First National Bank office in the Corte Madera Center. With her are her mother and B. A. Sill, manager of the bank. An unidentified customer is in the foreground. The bank is observing the first anniversary of the move of its Corte Madera branch to the shopping center. JUST THE THING FOR A BIRTHDAY PARTY

Sleepy Old Madrid Turning Into Speedway For Drivers

MADRID (UPI) — Spain, the country of siestas and slowness, has caught up with the rush of the modern world in at least one way—traffic.

Give a courteous, old-worldly, hand-kissing Spaniard a car and some change takes place deep down inside him.

Possibly it isn't quite as spectacular as the movie horror of a man becoming a werewolf, but the effect is about the same.

Speed is no object, just as long as there is plenty of it. There are plenty of police and traffic lights around, but they don't help an awful lot.

Whereas a few years ago the streets of Madrid were uncrowded and easy to drive in, the growing wealth of Spain has clogged them with ever increasing traffic. Unfortunately, as Spain has increased the number of cars, it has not increased necessary control on the drivers.

Getting a driver's license in Spain is difficult. There is a complicated written test of some 50 questions. But if that is passed, then the would-be driver is almost to the raceway. The driving section of the test consists of one turn around a local park. If you don't hit a tree, you're in.

Once into traffic you're on your own. The only thing to remember is that each man behind the wheel of a car feels that God granted him at least one thing—the right of way.

The huge fleet of taxis, most of them looking at least 100 years old, don't help. Most of them go about five miles an hour and give faster drivers a sort of moving slalom course to weave in and out of.

There also are little, bug-like cars called "sin-sins" that join with the motorcycles and motorscooters to fill any sparce inches between cars.

The translation of "sin-sin" means "without - without," which comes from the phrase referring to the drivers of the little bugs: "Without enough money to buy a car and without enough guts to ride a motorcycle."

On top of all this, every morning hundreds of huge-wheeled wooden cars pulled by donkeys lumber into the city to take out the trash at the heighth of the rush hour and begin their slow way out of town. On the narrow side streets of Madrid traffic moves just as fast as the slowest donkey.

Perhaps the Spanish driver lacks the daring of the French driver, the stubbornness of the English driver or the vocabulary of the Italian driver.

But he is learning.

City 'Housecleaning'

VIDOR, Tex. (UPI)—The Vidor City Council began a long-range "house cleaning" program by ruling that hog pens hereafter will have to be 30 feet or more away from occupied homes in the city limits.
